Each Board shall have the right to make any suggestion to the nominating committee it may see fit regarding such nominations, and all nominations made by the committee shall be passed upon by the Convention. The Convention shall have the right to adopt the report of the nominating committee and elect the trustees thus nominated, or to substitute the name of other trustee or trustees in lieu thereof, or recommit said report for further consideration as the case may be.

Editor Livingston Johnson presented the following report on the Biblical Recorder, which was received as information:

REPORT ON BIBLICAL RECORDER

Some may want to know what claims the Biblical Recorder has on the denomination. Have the stockholders of the paper a right to ask the time of the Convention to consider the interests of a paper which does not belong to the denomination? On what ground can they expect the coöperation of the churches and pastors in the effort to increase the circulation of the paper? A very brief review of the origin of the Biblical Recorder may aid in answering these questions.

The Baptist State Convention was organized in 1830. Next year we shall celebrate the centennial anniversary. At the first session Samuel Wait was elected General Agent, the official of the Convention who is now known as the General Secretary. His duties were about the same as those required of our general secretary, though not nearly so extensive, as there were but fifteen thousand Baptists, white and colored, in the State at that time. The General Agent received the munificent salary of a dollar a day, and each of the four missionaries was promised ten dollars a month.

At the session of the Convention in 1832, just two years after its organization, Samuel Wait, the General Agent, in his report to the Convention, said: "It will be easily seen that we have long labored under the very serious disadvantages for want of a well conducted religious journal. Such a paper we might hope, being adapted to the different state of our churches, would be productive of the best consequences. Much information on important subjects could be imparted to the churches and congregations at large, many prejudices removed, and the way soon prepared for securing to the Convention annually a larger amount of aid."

Following this report it was announced that Thomas Meredith, pastor of the Baptist church at Edenton, contemplated publishing a religious periodical monthly, at the moderate price of one dollar a year. This announcement was warmly received, as the following shows:

"Resolved, That this Convention highly approve the undertaking, and earnestly recommend their brethren to give it liberal patronage." At the Convention in 1833 a monthly paper called the Interpreter was adopted as the organ of the Convention and though always privately owned, has held that relation to the Convention through all the years since. It soon became a weekly and the name was changed to the Biblical Recorder.

In outlining the mission and influence of a "religious journal" Mr. Wait was a seer. The Recorder is "adapted to the different state of the churches" and we might add to the different churches of the State. The South is flooded with periodicals published by our boards, notably the Sunday School Board, but these can never serve any given state as can a paper published in that state. And yet thousands of our people who should take and read the paper which is especially adapted to the needs of the state, are satisfied with one or two of the general periodicals, which are little more than bulletins.

Mr. Wait said that "much information on important subjects could be imparted to the churches and congregations." That is being done week by week by the Biblical Recorder. Information about our general work, and news of current interests are given through the columns of the old paper. Reading matter of wholesome character is provided, which if allowed to enter the home would, we believe, go far toward counteracting the influence of the degrading literature that is sent out by tons from the modern presses.

Mr. Wait predicted that such a paper would remove many prejudices and the way would soon be prepared "for securing to the Convention annually a larger amount of aid." Every agency of our denomination, both State and Southwide, recognizes the value of the State denominational paper in keeping our people informed about the work of the denomination. Those who are not informed cannot be interested, and the denominational paper is the least expensive and most effective disseminator of information.

If the stockholders were conducting the Biblical Recorder to make money for themselves, they would have no claim whatsoever on this Convention. If they published it at cost for the good they hoped it might do, they would have a right to ask and expect the cooperation of the pastors and churches in extending its circulation. But the fact that they are publishing the paper below cost in the interest of the work of the denomination, places upon the pastors and churches of the denomination a solemn obligation to aid in enlarging its sphere of usefulness.

LIVINGSTON JOHNSON, Editor.

J. S. FARMER, Business Manager.

John Arch McMillan and Herman T. Stevens, by request of the Editor, spoke to the report, and W. W. Hamilton and J. S. Dill gave testimony of the value of the budget system in putting the denominational organ in the homes of the people.

The following visitors were recognized:

Chas. E. Maddry presented the following report on The Co-operative Program, which, after discussion by W. L. Ball, Spartanburg, S. C., representative of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention, was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COOPERATIVE PROGRAM

By CHARLES E. MADDRY

We submit herewith briefly a report of the receipts of the Co-operative Program from January 1, 1929 to November 1, 1929. We have received for this period, exclusive of amounts given to the Orphanage, $348,836.44. For the same period last year we received $375,477.13. It will thus be seen that we have received $26,640.69 less for the ten months of this year than we had received for the same period last year.

During the last two months of last year we received $138,493.55. If we could do as well for the next two months we would come to the end of the year with about the same amount given for the Co-operative Program as we gave last year.

We would urge upon the Convention the importance of making every possible effort to bring up the amounts due on the Cooperative Program before the close of our books on December 31. We have tremendously heavy obligations to meet between now and January 1, and if every church will do its duty we may yet come to the beginning of our Centennial year of 1930 with the debts on our State Mission work at least, greatly reduced.

We would urge the vital importance of every church putting on a thorough and complete every member canvass during the months of November and December. We would also urge the importance of every church sending in all funds promptly on the first of each month. If all of our churches would make the every member canvass and adopt strict up-to-date business methods, and send in all funds promptly as collected, we could meet the obligations of the Convention on time and save hundreds of dollars of interest every year.

At the request of the Chair, Pastor Zeno Wall conducted Governor O. Max Gardner to the platform, who spoke words of welcome in behalf of his home town and made an address on, "A Better Understanding Between the Christian Forces and the Youth of Our State."

The local choir rendered special music, "Seek Ye the Lord While He May Be Found," after which the congregation sang, "How Firm a Foundation."

C. H. Dickey read Rom. 8:1-17 and led in prayer, after which J. M. Kester preached the Convention sermon, reading Luke 12:54-57 and Luke 19:41-44, and using as his subject, "The Religious Demands of Our Day."

On motion, adjourned with prayer by Martin W. Buck.

WEDNESDAY—MORNING SESSION

At nine o'clock President Turner called the Convention to order. After a song service, Missionary Wade Bostick led the devotional service, calling on Z. D. Harrill to lead in prayer, and speaking on, "Delight thyself also in the Lord, and He shall give thee the desires of thine heart," Psalms 37:4. Prayer by W. R. Cullom.

The Secretary read the proceedings of yesterday's session, which were approved.

The Secretary read telegrams of greetings from the North Carolina group of students at the Woman's Missionary Union Training School and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky., and from Brother and Sister R. C. Campbell, Belton, Texas.

Mrs. W. N. Jones, President of the State W. M. U. Convention, presented her report and spoke briefly to the report, after she had presented Mrs. Edna R. Harris, Corresponding Secretary of the State W. M. U. Convention. The Convention expressed its approval of the report by a rising vote. (See Report General Board.)

J. T. Alderman presented his report as Chairman of the Historical Commission, and, after remarks by him and W. R. Cullom, it was adopted. (See Report General Board.)

I. J. Van Ness, Executive Secretary of the Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tenn., addressed the Convention on the work of his Board.

DALLAS, TEXAS, November 12, 1929.

Although I cannot personally attend your Convention, much to my regret, yet I would be there in spirit profoundly rejoicing in all your blessings. May all your churches with their coöperative Missionary, educational and benevolent enterprises be crowned today and tomorrow with unprecedented spiritual achievements, because they shall first of all joyfully and unreservedly give themselves to Him whose we are and whom we live to serve. Surely the present incomparably spacious and responsible days mightily challenge our wisest thinking and worthiest service. May God give you a glorious spiritual Convention. 1 Cor. 15:57, 58.

GEORGE W. TRUETT.

On motion, the Secretary was requested to make suitable response to this telegram and the others read previously this morning.

The General Secretary was recognized, who announced a gift of a house and lot in Ridgecrest from B. W. Spilman, a former President of this body. This cottage is estimated to be worth $3,500. The Convention accepted the gift, expressing its appreciation by a rising vote.

The regular order of State Missions having arrived, Secretary Maddry announced that no one had been specially invited to speak on this subject, but that a free and open discussion was desired. On motion, the speeches were limited to three minutes. The following speakers took part in the discussion: J. M. Page, Theo. B. Davis, W. R. Cullom, Jesse McCarter, J. M. Hilliard, E. R. Stewart, I. K. Stafford, C. C. Matheny, J. A. Hudson, P. E. Downs, Miss Cleo Mitchell, Miss Madalene Elliott, C. A. Lineberger, Wilson Woodcock, H. T. Hunter, L. R. O'Brian, L. Johnson, J. M. Justice, W. J. Francis, S. T.

Hensley. The General Secretary closed the discussion, calling attention to several vital matters in connection with State Mission work.

A free will offering was taken for the church building at Fairfield, Hyde County, of which Elliott R. Stewart is pastor, amounting to $169.02.

Charles E. Maddry read the following report on the Centennial Campaign, which, after discussion by Herman T. Stevens, was adopted:

REPORT ON CENTENNIAL CAMPAIGN

By CHARLES E. MADDRY, GENERAL DIRECTOR

We bring you the following brief report on the Centennial Campaign achievements to date.

You will remember that the Wilmington Convention in 1926, upon the petition of the Woman's Missionary Union, authorized a campaign for $600,000 to be applied on the indebtedness of our schools. The Convention in Durham in 1927, modified this proposal by making the objective of the campaign $1,500,000 and including all of the indebtedness of Meredith, Campbell, Mars Hill, Wingate and Boiling Springs, together with $25,000 for Chowan and $250,000 for a students' activities building at Wake Forest College.

The Campaign was formally launched in the fall of 1927, and up to the present time we have secured pledges totaling $970,406.71. We have collected in cash, up to November 5, $337,220.27. This amount has been paid out on the debts underwritten by the Convention on the five schools, namely: Boiling Springs, Campbell, Meredith, Mars Hill and Wingate. Wake Forest has received $28,711.01 and Chowan $2,867.74.

There are now outstanding good pledges totaling $633,186.44. This amount is due in quarterly installments running through December, 1930. The total number of individual pledges obtained in the Centennial Movement is approximately 35,000.

We have cash in hand on November 5 amounting to $4,388.85.

The next quarterly distribution of funds received is due to be made on December 1, 1929.

Bonds and Interest, Meredith College, Bitting & Co.,
St. Louis, Mo.....	$ 65,000

Interest on Wingate Bonds.....	$ 540
Campbell College	6,200
Mars Hill	8,148
Note, Wachovia Bank, Raleigh, due December 8.....	29,000
Note, Commercial Bank, Raleigh, due December 8....	29,000
Total due December 1-8.....	$137,888
Bonds and Interest due Whitney-Central Trust & Savings Bank, New Orleans, February 1.....	44,690
Total due between now and February 1.....	$182,578

All matters pertaining to the completion of the Centennial Campaign have been referred to a committee of fifteen appointed by this Convention. This committee will report its findings and recommendations to the Convention at this session.

The General Secretary read a telegram from headquarters in Raleigh to the effect that from January 1, 1929, up to the present, $378,400 had been received for the Coöperative Program, and $15,375 had been received on the Special State Mission offering from the Sunday Schools up to date.

The Secretary read the following Committees on order of Business, Historical Commission, Publicity, Memorials, Public Morals. (See List of Standing Committees.)

Place and Preacher—M. O. Alexander, J. A. Snow, Sam F. Hudson, J. A. McKaughan, S. L. Blanton.

On motion, adjourned with prayer by R. A. McFarland, Gaffney, S. C.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

After a song service, led by Charles Jolley, A. W. Fleischman conducted the devotional service, reading a part of the first Chapter of Hebrews and spoke on the text, "God hath spoken to us in the person of His Son."

R. N. Simms read the following report of the special committee of fifteen on "Centennial Campaign and Convention Debts," which, after discussion by himself and Charles E. Maddry, was adopted by a rising vote. On motion, the time was extended to fifteen minutes for the discussion of this report.

REPORT ON CENTENNIAL CAMPAIGN AND CONVENTION DEBTS

The Committee of fifteen appointed by the Convention at this session to consider and report upon the matter of the Centennial Campaign and Convention debts respectfully report the following:

1. The debts which we are to consider exist in connection with five of our Baptist schools, but they are not the debts of the schools but are the debts of this Convention. They were almost entirely incurred directly by the Convention itself, only a small part of the sum having been incurred by some of our Junior schools and assumed by the Convention. If every one of these schools should be closed out tomorrow, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina would still be morally and legally responsible for these debts. In all the thinking of our people it should be borne in mind that these are not the debts of any individual school but are the solemn obligations of the Baptist State Convention. It should be further remembered always that these schools are in no sense independent institutions but that they are absolutely under the control of this Convention which elects their Trustees and thereby owns and absolutely controls each and all of these institutions. The honor and credit, not of the schools only but of this Convention itself are imperiled.

2. That the indebtedness of the Convention above mentioned now amounts to $1,143,118. Of this amount $137,888 becomes due and must be paid between December 1 and December 8, 1929. In addition to this the Convention must by February 1, 1930, pay the additional sum of $44,690.

3. Our schools and colleges have no resources with which to pay this indebtedness or any part of it. It is impossible for our Convention to meet these obligations, which it owes and which are immediately due—practically $138,000 being due in nineteen days from this date—unless our people make substantial payments on their pledges, and make additional payments where possible. If the Baptist State Convention fails to meet these debts as due, the Committee is of the opinion that the Convention will practically cease to function. It cannot default in these obligations and maintain its integrity, which is essential to its life. A default in meeting these obligations in December will mature the entire indebtedness of which this is a part, approximating in this instance half a million dollars. Under the obligation solemnly made by the direction of this Convention our revenues are subject to be impounded and our physical properties sold upon default. No denomination could survive such a contingency, and certainly our denomination cannot, being constituted as it is.

We must maintain the spirit of our people but we must cause them to realize the fact that concrete and definite financial action by all of us is absolutely essential at this time—and that this is no passing emergency but is a crisis in the life of this Convention and the existence of our educational institutions.

In this emergency the Committee would recommend to the Convention the following course to meet the exigencies immediately ahead:

(1) That the week of November 24-December 1, 1929, be designated as Baptist Loyalty Week and that we ask our people to pay not less than $100,000 in cash on their pledges for these purposes.

(2) That a Directing Committee of seven be elected by this Convention to coöperate to the fullest extent with the management of our state work for the successful completion of our effort to pay our debts; and that this Directing Committee be given full authority to employ all necessary assistance and to do all other matters that in their judgment may help to accomplish this result.

(3) That the General Board have full authority and instruction to take such measures during 1930 as in their judgment are necessary for protecting and conserving the honor and credit of the Baptist State Convention.

(4) That the General Board of the Baptist State Convention is hereby authorized to renew, if it can, the two notes of the Convention for $29,000 each in the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company and the Commercial National Bank of Raleigh respectively.

(5) That the General Board of this Convention be authorized to borrow during the calendar year 1930 a sum not to exceed $100,000—or such part thereof as may be necessary—to meet the notes, bonds and interest falling due on educational obligations of the Baptist State Convention; provided consent can be obtained from the Trust Companies holding the obligations of this Convention.

(6) That the management of the Centennial Campaign be requested to pursue its efforts for reaching the full objective of $1,500,000 by December 31, 1930, and that the Convention pledge its undivided support and loyalty for the successful completion of this great and worthy undertaking, and that we implore all of our Baptist people who love the honor and credit of this Convention to come to its rescue.

(7) That we pay loving tribute to the Woman's Missionary Union for what it has already done to make this Campaign a success, and appeal to its members throughout our Convention to rally all their forces for the successful completion of this undertaking.

Livingston Johnson presented the following report of the Committee on arranging for Centennial session of the Convention in 1930, which was adopted:

ARRANGEMENT FOR CENTENNIAL IN 1930

We, your committee appointed a year ago to arrange for the Centennial session of this body in 1930, beg to make the following report:

First of all, we would express our profound gratitude to our Heavenly Father for His continued goodness to our Baptist people through the first century of their organized work in North Carolina, and we feel a deep sense of our obligation to celebrate this event in a worthy way at the next session of this Convention.

Place. Inasmuch as the Convention appoints a regular committee on Place and Preacher, we are in doubt as to our authority to suggest the next place of meeting. However, it would seem eminently fitting that we should meet in Greenville, where the Convention was organized, provided that adequate hotel and auditorium facilities can be obtained. If these cannot be secured in Greenville, then there are many good reasons why the next session should be held in Raleigh, which is centrally located, the home of our Baptist headquarters in the State, the home of the Biblical Recorder, Meredith College, with Wake Forest and Campbell colleges near by.

Program. We would recommend that the Centennial and matters related to it occupy the center of the stage at the next session, that the program of the Pastors' Conference be built up around the central idea of the first hundred years of our Baptist history in this State, and that Wednesday evening of the Convention be devoted entirely to a review of the struggles, triumphs and achievements of our Baptist people in North Carolina during the past hundred years. In this connection we would recommend that some outstanding Baptist historian be invited to make an address. Furthermore, if possible, we would recommend also that a pageant be given illustrating in a graphic way the high lights of our history. We are hoping on this occasion to be able to celebrate the emancipation of all our schools from debt, and so we feel that it would be fitting for them to make some worthy contribution to this event.

This program, of course, should include a mighty challenge to our people to gird up their loins for still more glorious conquests and achievements for our Lord in the century that is just ahead of us.

We would recommend that a committee of seven be appointed to work out the details of the Centennial Program, to provide for the speakers, the pageant and other things essential to the success of the occasion. We would suggest that this committee be centrally located where they can easily confer with each other, with the program committee of the Pastors' Conference and of the Convention.

Huggins, Secretary of the Department of Education, who was in charge of the regular order Baptist Schools and Colleges, called for the report of the special committee appointed yesterday to consider the future campaigns of Wake Forest and Mars Hill Colleges, which was presented by the Chairman, J. Marcus Kester, and was adopted by a rising vote:

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON FUTURE CAMPAIGNS OF WAKE FOREST AND MARS HILL COLLEGES

We, your Committee to consider the question of financial campaigns for Wake Forest and Mars Hill Colleges, recommend:

1. That since the Centennial Campaign involves the interests of all our institutions, and failure in its completion would jeopardize our whole Convention Program, we feel that it ought to have right of way to all the members of all the churches in the Convention until December 31, 1930.

2. That owing to the dire and urgent needs of Wake Forest College for immediate erection and equipment of at least two buildings, and the fact that the College is losing students for lack of such equipment, we recommend that the College be granted permission through its alumni to secure the sum of $250,000 for such buildings during 1930, it being understood that this is in no way to interfere with the Centennial Campaign, and that this appeal is to be made quietly and only to the alumni of the institution.

3. That we look with approval upon the Diamond Anniversary plans of Mars Hill for 1931, but we feel that the plans of Mars Hill and Wake Forest Colleges and of all the other institutions beyond 1930 should be submitted to the Convention of 1930.

The report was adopted, and the Chair extended the hand of fellowship to the representatives of these two Associations.

L. G. Cole presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

In consideration of the fine piece of work that has been done by the Historical Commission and G. W. Paschal in preparing the first volume of our State Baptist History, Adjourned, with prayer by W. W. Hamilton.

WEDNESDAY EVENING SESSION

After a song service, the Chair introduced Richard E. Hardaway, who read Psalms 85:6-8, and spoke on "What is our Greatest Need?" Prayer by W. R. Cullom. The congregation joined in singing "Amazing Grace."

The Chair recognized W. H. Williams, North Carolina member of the Home Mission Board, who was in charge of the regular order, Home Missions. He presented J. B. Lawrence, Executive Secretary of the Home Mission Board, Atlanta, Ga., who addressed the Convention on "The Great Task of Southern Baptists."

Prayer by Charles E. Maddry, after which "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" was sung, and a quartet rendered "Close to Thee."

The Chair recognized J. M. Kester, North Carolina member of the Foreign Mission Board, who was in charge of the regular order, Foreign Missions.

He called to the platform the following returned missionaries and introduced them: Phil White, Wade Bostick, E. McNeil Poteat and Miss Attie Bostick. After reading the following report on Foreign Missions, he presented Phil White, who spoke on "Foreign Missions from the Viewpoint of the Returned Missionary as Pastor in the Homeland," and E. McNeil Poteat, Jr., who spoke on the text in John 17:21, "That they also may be one in us."

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

With joy we report another year of progress in our work of spreading the Gospel to all the world. More than twelve thousand souls were converted and baptized into our churches on the foreign fields last year. There was a time when it took years to win one convert to the Gospel. Now they are coming by the thousands. In fact the number who are being won on the foreign fields is much larger than the average won per church member in the home churches. We now have 1,392 churches with 147,648 members, and more than half of the churches are self-supporting. The native Christians themselves contributed more than a half million dollars toward the work. Our Sunday Schools reached with the Word of God 76,758 persons, and our day schools enrolled 21,784 pupils. Our medical missionaries treated and preached the Gospel to 130,588 persons. More than seventy-one million pages of uplifting Christian literature were distributed with the promise that God's Word should not return unto Him void.

Such statistics should gladden our hearts. We should rejoice to have some part in such a glorious work.

But there are other facts which we must face, and these are not so encouraging. We are constantly losing our missionary forces. During the past three years, we have lost by resignation or death no fewer than one hundred and twenty missionaries. And, during the same period, we have appointed only sixteen. Thus we have suffered a net loss of almost one-fourth of our missionary force. We now have 444 missionaries, and many of them are at home for lack of funds with which to send them back.

And, too, we need to be reminded that many of our missionaries now on the field through strain of extra work and lack of support are breaking down in health. T. B. Ray told the October Board meeting that at that time several were at the breaking point and would soon have to be invalided home, and some were on the way already.

Still another fact faces us along this line. Few of our young people are now volunteering for the foreign service. The several hundred whom we have been talking about for the past few years have already found other places of service, or many of them have grown too old to be sent out by the Board. We must begin to cultivate our young people again for the service of the Lord across the seas.

And, let us never forget this other tragic fact, that receipts for the work continue to decrease. In making the budget for 1930, the Board had to make it less than for 1929 and to cut more than a quarter of a million dollars from what the missionaries said they actually needed to carry on the work. How much longer shall we deny our forces what they need? We have reduced the indebtedness, but at the expense of the work itself.

The greatest need of the Foreign Mission cause today is not an opportunity to go forward; for it has far more of that than it can now occupy. The need is for a missionary-minded membership in our churches—men and women who think on, and pray for the work. Such would bring support and interest and joy to the cause. We may have such a constituency if we will pay the price. And the price is more missionary preaching, Church Schools of missions, and the wider circulation of the "Home and Foreign Fields." This is our immediate task. May the Spirit of God urge us to it at once.

J. M. KESTER,

State Member Foreign Mission Board.

Telegrams of greetings were read from the Virginia General Association and the Mississippi Convention and the Secretary was instructed to make response.

Prayer by Herman T. Stevens.

Adjourned.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

Coy Peterson led the song service. G. N. Cowan conducted the devotional service, calling for voluntary Scripture quotations and prayers, followed by the singing of "I am Bound for the Promised Land."

Charles E. Maddry read the following Memorial, by request of E. McNeil Poteat, the author of it, which, on motion of J. B. Turner, was adopted:

ARMISTICE DAY

Viewing with approval the recent English proposal to celebrate Armistice Day without military display, we respectfully submit to the authorities of North Carolina that their plans for the celebration of Armistice Day, 1930, be likewise free from military demonstration of any kind.

E. MCNEILL POTEAT.

The journal of yesterday's sessions was read and approved.

J. L. Carrick presented the following report on the report of the General Board, which was adopted, after discussion by B. A. Bowers. The entire report of the General Board was adopted:

ON REPORT OF GENERAL BOARD

We, your committee to pass on the report of the General Board, wish to express our appreciation for the splendid work done by our leaders in charge of the various phases of our state work and to give grateful thanks to God for his guiding spirit in leading these, His servants and his gracious blessings bestowed upon their labors.

We regret the loss of Brother M. A. Huggins from full time work in the Educational Department. We are grateful for his faithful service and splendid leadership.

We, your Committee, wish to endorse the following recommendations made by our General Board and General Secretary:

1. We recommend that in view of the desperate need, and emergency requests of the Southern Baptist Convention, that as far as possible, that Sunday, December 22, be set aside as the day on which we take either through our church or Sunday School a special offering for the New Orleans Baptist Bible Institute.

2. That we adopt the financial plan recommended by the last Southern Baptist Convention.

We recommend that the Coöperative Program receipts for 1930 be divided between State and Southwide objects on the basis of 50-50, and that all Southwide funds be sent to the Executive Committee at Nashville for distribution according to the requirement of the new plan.

We recommend that the 50 per cent of Coöperative funds for our North Carolina work be divided as follows:

State Missions	23 cents.
Education	23 cents.
Hospital	4 cents.

3. That the General Board be instructed to make a careful survey of religious needs and conditions at every industrial center in North Carolina and present to the next Convention a workable and comprehensive plan and program of State Mission work for the future.

4. That the General Board be instructed to have the first volume of our Baptist History by G. W. Paschal published by the meeting of our Centennial Convention next year, provided that sufficient subscriptions are received in advance to pay for the book.

5. That the General Board be instructed to take over all Indian Mission work now being done by the Home Board in North Carolina, beginning with January 1, 1930.

6. That the future of the Evangelistic Department be left to the judgment and wisdom of the General Board.

Dear Brethren:

We hereby invite you to celebrate the One Hundredth Anniversary of the founding of the Convention in our city March 26, 27, 1930. This date marks the One Hundredth birthday of the organization of the convention, which occurred March 26, 1830, with the First Baptist Church of Greenville as the host. We believe it fitting that this event should be properly celebrated, and therefore trust that you will come to Greenville for that purpose.

We can pledge you the wholehearted support of the citizens, civic organizations, and churches of Greenville.

Cordially yours,

MEMORIAL BAPTIST CHURCH,
A. W. FLEISCHMANN, Pastor,
L. A. STROUD, Church Clerk.

On motion of B. W. Spilman, when this Convention adjourns today it will be to meet in special session in Greenville on March 26-27, 1930, for the purpose of celebrating the one hundredth anniversary of the organization of the Convention, and at which meeting no business is to be transacted, with all details to be handled by the General Board.

W. L. Poteat presented the following report of the Inter-racial Commission, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE INTER-RACIAL COMMISSION

The obligations of brotherhood extend across racial barriers. They transcend the limits of any fraternity or order. In the immortal parable of Jesus it was a Samaritan who was neighbor to a Jew. An alien in blood was closer to the needy traveler on the Jericho road than his brothers in blood. Blood is thicker than water, but heredity of spirit is stronger than heredity of blood. Hear a Jew speak to a Roman: "God has shown me that I must not call any man common or unclean." Hear another Jew speak to Greeks: "All nations God has created from a common origin . . . there cannot be Greek and Jew . . . barbarian, Scythian, bondman, freeman; but Christ is all and in all." Hear Jesus himself say, "Other sheep I have which are not of this fold. Them also I must bring and there shall be one fold, one shepherd." We say America, England, China, India, Africa; Jesus says the World. We say Caucasian, Mongolian, Hindu, Negro; Jesus says Man.

The Inter-racial Commission was organized in Atlanta at the close of the World War. Its primary purpose was to facilitate the reception of the returning Negro soldiers into American life without friction. Conference was the method on which it relied. Christian men and women of both races from all the Southern States were brought together for frank statement and discussion of grievances. There was a clear understanding that neither amalgamation nor social equality was contemplated. The Negro participants in these general conferences insisted themselves on the preservation of their racial integrity. The concern of all was the amicable adjustment of the races in the spirit of mutual helpfulness; the softening of those racial attitudes out of which on occasion antagonisms might grow; the correction of unjust discrimination against Negroes, and the betterment of the conditions of their life. State inter-racial committees were formed throughout the South, and these in turn formed local committees of leading white men and Negroes in counties or centers of population. As will be seen, the original purpose of the Inter-racial Commission has been developed into a general program of applying the spirit and teaching of Jesus to the relations of the races. He is our Savior in this area of our experience as in every other.

Some of the achievements of the movement may be briefly indicated. At the recent meeting in Raleigh of the State committee report of progress was made in securing separate but equal transportation facilities, and two county libraries serving the whole population, made possible by the Rosenwald Fund. In general, assistance has been rendered in hundreds of educational enterprises for Negroes; health campaigns have been promoted in every state, hospitals established, clinics conducted, public nurses employed; lynchings have been prevented; legal aid has been extended to many helpless Negroes intimidated, persecuted or exploited; sewers, street paving, lights, library facilities, rest rooms have been secured for negro communities; recreation facilities provided; Negro welfare agencies have been included in Community Chests; Day nurseries and social centers conducted; colored probation officers secured.

The gravity of the situation calls for all the resources at command—an enlarging sympathetic press, schools and colleges, the churches, to cultivate good will and the spirit of coöperation in the common tasks of the two races. This is all the more important because a large group of Negroes residing mainly outside our region is dominated by a radical and dangerous attitude.

And much work remains to be done. For example, now that consolidation of schools is the order of the day, the transportation of Negro school children from distant points remains to be provided for; health facilities are not commensurate with the needs of this backward section of population. As yet no service is available for Negro mothers. The treatment in the courts is still a sore spot. A careful study of the entire economic condition of Negroes and the opening of certain trades and occupations ought to be carefully investigated, especially in view of the multiplication of new industries.

The action of this Convention in making specific recognition of this field of Christian obligation appears to have been influential in other states and other denominations, which have taken similar action. It is contemplated to gather in 1930 representatives of all these Christian bodies for survey and conference.

The Secretary reported for the Committees on Committees the following Committees: Centennial Directing Committee, Publication North Carolina Baptist History, Inter-racial Commission, Centennial Program. (See Standing Committees).

William Louis Poteat presented the following report on Public Morals, which, after he had spoken to it, was adopted:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON PUBLIC MORALS

As an organized body of Christians we are committed to the Christian standard of morality and the Christian program of individual and social righteousness. Disloyalty to either is the deepest infidelity. We are not Christians, whatever else we may be, if we do not acknowledge and strive to reach Christ's law of love and self-renunciation. Nor are we Christians if we have no part in Christ's purpose to make the will of God prevail everywhere. So also are the deliberations and activities of this Convention under his law and purpose. Otherwise they have no justification.

It follows that the matters covered by the term Public Morals, are not incidents or side issues of the Convention's policy, but are intrinsic and central. Read Mark 1:14-15, and see that preaching the Gospel was announcing the Kingdom of God, that is, the reign of God on earth, God's will ruling the life of men. Let it be well understood that redemption in Christ is the only guarantee of conformity to Christ's standard and that this transformation of the units of society is the only hope and security of social righteousness.

Another preliminary observation may be made. Christ's way is practical. His law and method will work. Look about you. Transformed lives, thousands on thousands of them, are the salt and light of their time and place. And his teaching has been rewritten in the history of these twenty centuries—a history of broadening light, of justice, brotherhood, peace, and emancipation. Christ's law is practical, and it is universal in its application. We are permitted to make no exception of personal privilege, or racial barriers, or business, or politics, or national emergency, or international relations. It is supreme in every section of our life. We may ignore or flout it, but we do not suspend it. We cannot break it. We are broken.

BUSINESS

A recent apologist for modern industry proposes larger liberty of centralization and less and less restraint from without, from operatives or the state or consumers. Individual enterprises here and there do, indeed, show signs of conscience and some recognition of the rights of the public and the workers. But a general survey of the business community provides little ground for hope that greed will ever acquire self-restraint or industry put its own house in order. The only promise of repentance and reform is in the positive pressure of the Christian standard upon the aim and method of industrial management. This pressure may be exerted through public opinion developed and vigorously maintained by all the organs of the Christian standard—the press, the pulpit, the deliberative body. But our best and ultimate reliance for industrial justice and peace is the conversion of the men who manage and the men who work to Christ's way of life. If that can be achieved, the Christian impulse and principle will transform any existing rapacity of capital into benevolence and its motive of profit into the motive of service. And labor so converted will not seek to enforce its demands with violence, but meet half way the other partners in the enterprise. Both groups will recognize themselves for what they are, brothers in Christ, and coöperate for the common advantage. Religion is the medicine for industry.

Recent industrial strife, stained with tragedy and the partial failure of justice, within the bounds of this Convention calls for rebuke and a fresh assertion of inescapable authority of Christ's law of brotherhood in the world of business. Of course, wage earners have rights as well as duties. So have wage payers. Among the rights of wage payers is the right of protection of person and property against violence and interference. Among the rights of wage earners is the right to organize just as the owners organize, as well as the right to work under wholesome conditions. And these rights are guaranteed to employers and employees alike without regard to the opinions which they hold and without partiality in the administration of the law.

A fair wage for fair work is the condition of industrial stability and peace, but the parties must be disposed to be fair. Such an attitude of spirit is the natural result of the Christian principle. Many men who manage industry are so disposed. But what is a fair day's work? What is a fair wage? We believe that these important matters can be satisfactorily determined only by a survey of the economic condition of industry by a State commission which represents the management, the workers, and the public. A survey of women and children in industry by a disinterested and competent agency, like the Woman's Bureau of the Federal Department of Labor, which is financed by the Government, is likewise advisable. All parties concerned would benefit by these surveys.

LAW OBSERVANCE

If Americans are a bit lawless, says the Dean of the Harvard Law School, we have come by it honestly. For generations we have been applying our individual judgment and conscience to political measures, and now we are finding it a little hard to yield a passive obedience to the expressed will of the majority. It may be said, further, that in the rapid development of democracy in our period individual responsibility and privilege have acquired a new emphasis, and the man lapses easily into being a law unto himself. Besides, machinery, mass production, and specialization have enormously reduced the energy and time needed to provide us our food, clothing, shelter, and other necessities. Our leisure is correspondingly increased. What to do with it is the problem. It is easy to make improper use of it in license and lawlessness. But a more important explanation of the growing disrespect for law is the decline of the old authority and sanctions in the realm of morals. The standards of right conduct which formerly exercised a wholesome restraint appear to be compromised under new conditions and challenges. Men freely say that the religious sanction is gone and that the churches count for nothing in the minds and lives of the majority of the people. Is it because religion is commonly presented as a body of beliefs and forms of worship, and so fails to make any practical connection with the conduct and habits of the people? Have the churches called men out of this world into their bosoms to coddle them for the rest and peace of the next, abandoning the world to blunder through to its fate? How different the call and commission of Christ. Pointing to the distress and need of men and to threatening Golgotha, he challenged his first friends to follow him. He showed them a new way of living. He gave them an example to be followed, not an abstraction to be understood. Make, said he, my major interest yours, my activities the pattern of yours. He himself detailed his major interest and activities in his reply to the despairing inquiry of John the Baptist: the blind see, the lame walk, lepers are cured, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the good news is preached to the poor. He added that these activities were the criterion of his messiahship. And observe that this report coincides precisely with the program which he announced in his inauguration address at Nazareth. When he left his friends at last, he put his great project in their hands, saying, "As the Father sent me into the world, so send I you." The passing of this original commission through the successive generations of his friends down to us is the true apostolic succession. With this high commission in our hands we are confronted by a situation which allows us no quibbling about our province and role, no parleying, no hesitation. We must recognize it for what it really is and address it in terms which are relevant and understandable. The family, for example, is clearly in transition. The economic independence of women is deeply affecting it. Certain protective agencies have made breaches in the wall of fidelity which encircled it. Divorce is disrupting it at an increasing rate. In our own state there was an increase of 7 per cent in the period of 1922-1926, though our rate is about half of the rate for the country at large. The city apartment and the drive of the industrial system are adding their modifications. It is questionable whether these tendencies can be arrested by the old appeals, by any appeals. It remains to be seen whether we shall be wise enough to apply the Christian principle to these new conditions and preserve what is finest and best in this fundamental relation of man and wife.

But it is the children who make the family. Its peril is mainly their peril and by consequence the state's peril. For the family is a little state in which the children learn, if ever, the give and take and the coöperation of the larger group. The family sends out into society the good citizen or the anti-social and the degenerate. Two obligations are clear. We need to build up as rapidly as possible a public opinion and a public sentiment against the mating of diseased and defective types, so that the children of the future will enjoy their inalienable right to be well born. And this further obligation. Once here, this exquisitely plastic material, the hope or the peril of church and state, ought to be moulded by religion and intelligence in the family into a type which will promote both church and state and vex neither. Meantime we suffer a heavy toll of lawlessness in the law's intolerable delays, the traditional handicaps of court procedure, and police incompetency. Whatever the causes and factors involved, we are come to a bad prééminence in crime which staggers and humiliates us. We lead the world in wealth and in crime. Wealth accumulates and men decay. Where are the watchmen on the walls? the ministers of religion to win men into captivity to Christ and to rebuke in the sight of all them that sin, whether high or low? Where are the Christian parents who have dropped the reins of family government and see in dismay the young horses dashing to disaster? Will they gather up the reins again? The men in places of public responsibility, shall we not insist that they be unselfish, patriotic men who will do their duty though the heavens fall?

It is the fashion in some quarters to explain the prevailing disrespect for law by the spreading infection of contempt for the prohibition law. Several things are to be said in reply. In the first place, the country had this bad distinction in lawlessness before the World War and the enactment of the 18th amendment. Even now, as President Hoover informs us, only 8 per cent of the felonies recorded are concerned with the prohibition law. Of course, a larger percentage of misdemeanors are so related. You are reminded, further, that the well organized and well financed Association Against the Prohibition Amendment is set to discredit that Amendment in a wide-spread propaganda. For example, after the recent Canadian elections, the President of that Association said, "Only Finland, Prince Edward Island and the United States are left groping in the dark of attempted prohibition of the use of God's gifts." Probably the most effective influence against prohibition is the attitude of the metropolitan press, which appears to be convinced by observation in centers of population that enforcement is impossible. It goes on, however, without warrant to generalize this local observation, and it has about succeeded in convincing a large section of the people that the Amendment ought to be repealed, because it no longer expresses the mind of the majority. On the other hand, recent history set down a flat contradiction of that view. The overwhelming majority of the people believe in prohibition. And yet it must be admitted that enforcement, especially in the big cities, is difficult. It is difficult for the same reason that enforcement of the speed law is difficult. As another has pointed out, the speed cops are too few, observers are not interested in particular violations, and motorists like to speed. This distinguished writer, himself opposed to the Amendment, adds: "The reason prohibition is unenforceable in great cities is that the citizens will not report the names and addresses of their bootleggers to the prohibition officials." That reasoned judgment gives your committee the cue to recommend that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina reaffirm its support of the Anti-Saloon League and all the agencies which serve the cause of prohibition, and that the ministers and members of affiliated churches be urged to use their best endeavors to create and maintain an aggressive sentiment for law observance and law enforcement.

SWORDS AND PLOWSHARES

The eleventh Armistice Day is but three days behind us. It has been called the first Armistice Day of the decisive period following the World War. Whether that stupid crime is to be repeated will be decided within the next few years. Even now we may regard the present situation with a great hope. The most notable event in world politics since the last meeting of this Convention is the ratification of the Pact of Paris by which 56 nations "condemn recourse to war for the solution of international controversies and renounce it as an instrument of national policy." This agreement may not end war, but it has made war a crime. A little while ago it was "the grand sport," and any nation might enter upon it without discredit and consulting no other. And the World Court provides the needed apparatus for the legal settlement of international disputes. The significant visit of the British Prime Minister to the President of the United States resulted in an agreement issued October 9, 1929, that these foremost nations "accept the Peace Pact not only as a declaration of good intentions but as a positive obligation to direct national policy in accordance with its pledge." We refer also to recent disclosures of a shameful paid lobby in Geneva and Washington to block the peace movement and line the pockets of men who had war materials to sell. Let blood flow out that gold may flow in. They had been suspected before. Now they are spotted. It is not unlikely that professional army and navy boosters and private and associated patrioteers also get a sort of side rebuke and some discouragement of their war propaganda.

It looks as if the Christian principles of justice and fraternity are applicable to this section of human relations also, and that the Prince of Peace will have his way among the nations. We seem to be on the verge of realizing the prophecy of the ancient Hebrew seer and statesman: "He shall judge between the nations, and shall reprove many peoples: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more."

WM. LOUIS POTEAT,

ROBERT L. MOORE,

Committee.

Fred A. Bower offered the following resolution of thanks:

RESOLUTION OF THANKS

Resolved, That we, the members of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, express our deep appreciation to Pastor Zeno Wall and the membership of his church; to Brother Horace Easom and those associated with him in his musical program; to Brother O. M. Mull and his Committee on Entertainment; to the press of the county and State; to the Boy Scouts; to the citizens of Shelby and vicinity, for the untiring acts of kindness and courtesy which have contributed to our comfort, enjoyment and edification during this, our ninety-ninth, session.

On motion, reading of minutes of today's proceedings is omitted.

On motion, adjourned, after prayer by Zeno Wall, to meet in special session March 26, 1930, in Greenville, and in regular session in Raleigh, November 11-13, 1930.

J. CLYDE TURNER, President.

WALTER M. GILMORE, Secretary.

CHARLES E. MADDY, General Secretary

With humble and profound gratitude to Almighty God for His many and wonderful blessings upon us as a denomination, we bring you herewith the 99th report of the General Board of the Convention. In the main it is a good report we bring you, a report of progress along all lines of our work. But in some respects it has been a very trying year. Our people have felt the pinch of financial matters and it has been hard for us at times to secure sufficient funds with which to meet our obligations and keep the credit of the Baptist State Convention at gilt-edge. We are glad to tell you that up until now, all obligations have been met and faithfully discharged. At another place in this report, we will set forth the immediate obligations pressing upon us at this time. We have arranged our report under the four divisions of work into which the General Board is divided, viz.: Missions, Education, Benevolences and Training Activities.

We wish to pay tribute here to the faithfulness and many-sided qualifications of the Secretary of the Department of Missions, Walter M. Gilmore. He is a faithful yoke-fellow, trusted and beloved by all the brethren. His report of the year's activities follows:

2. DEPARTMENT OF MISSIONS

WALTER M. GILMORE, Secretary

During the past year the Secretary of this Department has had the privilege of visiting some 200 or more of our churches in North Carolina, and, in most cases, he has had the opportunity of presenting some phase of our denominational program. He has tried to inform and stimulate the people to support more liberally the agencies through which our Baptist churches are seeking to carry out the great commission of Christ to evangelize every creature.

In the spring he conducted 24 fellowship conferences in as many Associations, and in the fall he attended 25 Associational meetings in the interest of the whole Program. He took part in two Sunday school enlargement campaigns, one of which was with the colored people in which he taught a class in Stewardship. He was also in the three demonstration Associational enlistment campaigns.

Besides these Associational meetings and various campaigns, he has preached from one to five times each Sunday, with one or two exceptions, visiting especially the churches that are being aided by our General Board. His other activities include secretarial and publicity work at our various Conventions, Conferences, Board meetings and Preachers' school, besides a great amount of office work, trying to form fields of churches and to get churches and suitable pastors in touch with each other.

Good, substantial work has been done by our 83 missionary pastors during the year. Some of them have achieved unusual success, in spite of handicaps. Many of them have shown the spirit of the true pioneer missionary, being willing to make any sort of sacrifice in order that the cause of Christ may be advanced. In most cases they receive meager salaries, but by close economy and good management on the part of their faithful wives, they have been able to live and do their work well.

We regret to report that two of our men have been stricken down with serious illness during the past few months—Brethren M. P. Davis of the Maysville field, and Walter H. Dodd of the Beaufort County field. These brethren have wrought faithfully and well through the years, and our hearts go out to them in tenderest sympathy in this hour of their enforced retirement from active service.

OUR UNFINISHED TASK

According to figures recently published by E. P. Alldredge, statistical secretary of the Southern Baptist Convention, there are in North Carolina at present nearly a million and a half people who are not affiliated with any church organization. For the most part these are our own native people. What a gigantic evangelistic opportunity, and responsibility, since about 48 per cent of all church members in the State are Baptists! This great multitude of unsaved and unchurched people will face North Carolina Baptists in the judgment. Will their blood be on our skirts?

Has the day of "mass evangelism" passed? Some types of it has, let us hope, but we believe it still "pleases God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe." Of course "personal evangelism" is also absolutely essential. If we would save our State and our denomination we must greatly strengthen our State Mission program so that our missionaries, under the leadership and power of the Spirit, can carry the gospel to every unsaved individual within our borders.

But our greatest unfinished task, perhaps, is that of enlistment. At the suggestion of our General Secretary and by order of the General Board, three representative Associations in the State—the Haywood County, Pilot Mountain and the Mount Zion—were selected as demonstration Associations in which the different Departments of our organization would concentrate their best efforts to enlist in every phase of our denominational work all the churches. Thus far in these Associations we have put on the Sunday school and Stewardship or Enlistment campaigns. But we have gone far enough to lead us to believe that the efforts put forth were pre-eminently worthwhile. Our Association-wide Enlistment Campaign is still in the experimental stage, but we have learned many things negatively and positively about it. It will work, if properly directed.

Some how or other this vast multitude of indifferent, worldly-minded, pleasure-seeking members must be enlisted in Kingdom work, and to that end our organized forces must work prayerfully, intelligently and unitedly. It cannot be done in a day, but the right sort of persistent efforts will do it. And as we strengthen our home-base we will be in a better position to extend our efforts to the ends of the earth.

The industrial problems in our State were never before so acute. The need for true religious influence and guidance was never greater. Already our General Board has anticipated this need and for years has been doing what it could to plant and foster churches in our rapidly developing industrial centers. This has proven one of the most fruitful phases of our work. But there are yet many promising opportunities where we have been unable to meet the needs adequately. One notable example of this is at Enka, near Asheville, the town that has sprung up as by magic within the past few months by reason of the ten million dollar rayon plant there. A few hundred dollars invested here now will yield many thousand dollars a few years hence to all of our Kingdom enterprises. And this church will become the means of saving and training for service hundreds of mountain young people who will come to this city in ever increasing numbers.

While our work in the eastern part of the State does not offer such promise of immediate results, yet its need is great. Not since your Secretary has been connected with your general work has he known so many pastorless fields in this section. The reason is largely because the fields are unable to support a pastor, even with what the Board has been able to add the past year. If we do not maintain the work better, we will have to abandon many of the fields and lose what we have put into them through the years.

If all our pastors, or a goodly number of them, will lead their people into the great doctrine of Christian Stewardship, consecrating all of their God-given powers and resources to the service of God, and will practice this doctrine themselves, our General Board will be able to strengthen every phase of our State Mission work, and, under God, we will be able to build a great Baptist Commonwealth in this good State which we love.

3. HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONS

We have faithfully pressed upon the attention of our people during the year the claims of our Home and Foreign Boards. We have given as much time and effort in getting these objects rightly before our people as we have to any other object of the Convention. We have contributed to Home Missions from November 1, 1928 to October 31, 1929, the sum of $82,329.76. We have given to Foreign Missions for the same period the sum of $118,590.70.

4. STATE MISSIONS AND INDUSTRIAL NORTH CAROLINA

North Carolina is rapidly becoming a highly industrialized State. The recent developments in some of our industrial centers have startled us into attention and, in a way we may not wish, has turned the eyes of the world upon us. We have always been active and forehanded in caring for the religious needs of our people at these rapidly growing industrial centers; but suddenly we have realized that others with wicked intent, have been more alert and active than we and have done much to sow the seeds of discord in the minds of the people and to poison the very springs of their religious life with false doctrine and destructive teaching. We believe the time has come when your General Board should take hold of the great Industrial problem in a vital, statesmanlike and constructive way and bring to this Convention one year hence, a comprehensive and constructive program of work that looks far ahead and provides for the religious life and development of the industrial North Carolina of the next two decades at least. We recommend therefore that the General Board be instructed to give careful and painstaking consideration at its next session to the spiritual and religious needs of every industrial center in North Carolina and that a special Commission be constituted by the General Board whose duty it shall be to thoroughly study the whole religious trend in the industrial centers of North Carolina, carefully noting religious and spiritual conditions and needs, and report their findings and recommendations to the General Board during the next Convention year. The General Board is instructed to analyze carefully the needs and recommendations of this Commission and bring to the next Convention a definite plan of work, together with recommendations for caring for the acute and challenging spiritual needs of industrial North Carolina.

5. EVANGELISTIC DEPARTMENT

The Board has had in its employ this year in this Department four men. J. H. Moore, Negro Evangelist, who has been with us for about five years, resigned effective September the first, to accept the pastorate at Rocky Mount. Brethren S. T. Hensley and J. R. Cantrell have labored faithfully during the year, mainly with our smaller churches, and at our Mission points. We give the report of the labors of our Evangelists as follows:

Department of Education

We have to announce with genuine regret that Secretary M. A. Huggins has accepted a professorship in Meredith College and is unable to devote very much time to the Educational work of the Convention. Under a special arrangement with the General Board, he is to look after the work of Ministerial Education and give us three months in field work during the next summer in helping to finish the Centennial Movement. He is a faithful, loyal co-worker and we delight to pay tribute to his integrity and worth as a Christian gentleman. This Convention never had a more faithful and tireless worker than M. A. Huggins.

We give below the report on Education:

M. A. HUGGINS, Secretary

Another school year is history. In the Providence of God it has been one of substantial achievement. Believing that in a changing world there are certain truths and principles which do not change and which must be taught and proclaimed, the institutions have been busy at their appointed tasks. With burdensome debts and inadequate equipment, they await with patience the day when a powerful denomination will, under the guidance of God, loose them and let them go on to yet more worthy achievements.

SECTION I

General Items. (a) Certain data concerning the several institutions appears in the table at the close of this report. In requesting this information each institution was asked to record any particular achievement of the year. Only a few responded, however, and their statements follow. Dr. Sampey, President of the S. B. T. S. reports a "reduction of $158,000 in bonded debt during the last fiscal year and the raising of the standards and requirements for post graduate work." President Huff of Wingate reports; "Wingate graduated the largest class in its history. There were 96 members of our College senior class and 20 in our High School senior class. Practically all of these students are either in the Senior Colleges and Universities or plan to go a year later."

Two institutions, though not affiliated with the State Convention, are doing an interesting and most valuable work. For this reason a brief statement from each is reported. Miss Ora Hull of South Mountain Institute reports: "A tenth grade was added; and a new truck was bought; a three car garage was built; more land was rented and the farm project enlarged." Principal C. C. Matheny reports: "The Alexander Schools, Inc., which is known as a Home for Motherless Children, is meeting a need that has never been met before, in that it is furnishing a home for children whose mothers are dead and whose fathers are unable to provide the proper care for them. The Institution is now caring for 162 children, and if it had resources and buildings it could double the number in a month's time.

(b) A statement from the Trustees of Meredith College follows. It appears here as a matter of information.

The Trustees of Meredith College have seen for some time the real necessity for securing additional land from the State. This necessity grows out of the proximity of our buildings to our western boundary, along which runs a public road. Because of the value of this land it will inevitably be placed upon the market in a few years for purposes other than farming, as at present.

If this land is to be had at all on reasonable terms, now is the opportunity. The terms proposed are favorable to the College and fair to the State. The Council of State agrees to sell 30 acres at $500 per acre, payable in ten annual installments, or approximately $1,500 per year. No interest is to be collected on deferred payments, the State agreeing to cultivate the land as at present in lieu of interest.

The purchase price of this additional land is to be paid out of current funds of the College and is not in any sense to be chargeable to the Baptist State Convention. This is made possible by the fact that the budget adopted each year by the Trustees of Meredith College provides for a margin of approximately five per cent with which to meet any emergencies which may arise.

Heretofore the General Board, in making appropriations to the Junior Colleges for current support, has named in the December Budget a specific amount, varying from about $5,000 to $6,500 per year. At the June 1928 meeting this policy was changed so that beginning with the calendar year 1930 the appropriations will be based upon the number of students enrolled who pay tuition and pay it by June 30 of each year. It is believed that such a plan is more equitable and that it will aid in collections from the students. On June 30, 1929, six of the institutions whose books were audited had on their books uncollected accounts for the year 1928-29 amounting to $54,682.86. It is admitted that possibly one-half of this amount will never be collected. If this assumption is correct, the amount which the Convention is appropriating is just approximately covering the loss sustained in poor collections. At the present moment two things may be said, however, in extenuation of such apparent laxity in collecting from the students. The uncollected amount here reported is unusually large due to financial depression, although it must be stated that the amount on June 30, 1929 was only about $200 larger than on June 30, 1928. In the second place, one not connected with the institutions can hardly appreciate the position in which the responsible person in the schools is placed when not one but scores of able and worthy students are forced, let us say, in February or March, to report, "I have no more money and can get no more now."

SECTION II

Faculty Changes. In recording faculty changes in the several institutions, special mention should be made of the passing from our institutions of two men who have rendered faithful and efficient service to the cause of Christian Education during the past two decades. The reference is to Mr. W. J. Ferrell, Bursar of Meredith for 23 years, who fell on sleep in May 1928 and J. D. Huggins, Principal of Boiling Springs, who resigned in June 1928 to accept work elsewhere. No more faithful and probably no more consecrated servant has appeared among us than Brother Ferrell, and a great territory around Shelby owes a debt to Brother Huggins which can never be paid. Both of those men belong to that select group, a group far too small, which we may characterize as "God's Nobility."

Changes other than these follow:

(a) Wake Forest: No resignations. Added: J. L. Memory, Professor of Education; Alexander Siebert, Instructor Modern Languages.

SECTION III

Ministerial Education: (a) During the past year the Secretary has given some attention to the collection of sums extended as aid in past years to ministerial students who entered upon work other than the ministry after leaving school. During the past ten year period about $17,500 has been paid to such students. Notes have been secured amounting to about $5,000 and nearly $1,000 in cash has been collected. It has been found that unless notes or cash is secured within a short time after the student abandons the preparation for the ministry, the task of collecting such sums becomes increasingly difficult.

(b) It is often heard that young men are not entering the ministry in such numbers as formerly. The following table may prove of some interest. The relationship between the number of ministerial students and church membership, number of churches, together with the per cent which ministerial students are of total students enrolled, is shown.

TABLE I

From a study of the table at least two interesting observations may be made. From the inception of the 75 Million Campaign to its close there is a steady gain. Since that time there has been a gradual dropping off. Of course there are more college students among the 206 in 1927-28 than among the 248 in 1923-24. Further, it may be observed that during this ten year period we have been preparing one minister with four years High School or College training for about every forty churches in the state. Should each one upon completion of his study take two churches we would still have left about one out of every twenty churches without a trained minister,—unless of course consolidation of churches can be effected. Thus the problem of an adequately trained ministerial supply is one demanding solution and is the task of both Christian Education and State Missions. And the pastor is the recruiting agent. To him more than to any other person or agency must we depend for our young "Timothys." The following inscription appears on the gateway of Harvard College:

After God had carried us safe to New England

And we had builded our houses,
Provided necessities for our livelihood
Reard convenient places for God's worship
And settled the Civill Government
One of the next things we longed for
And looked after was to advance learning
And perpetuate it to posterity.
Dreading to leave an illiterate ministry
To the churches when our present ministers
Shall lie in the dust.

Be it remembered that Harvard was founded in 1636, only 16 years after the settlement at Boston. How exceedingly more important is a trained ministry now!

SECTION IV

The General Audit: In June and July the Secretary spent the better part of a month assisting the Auditor, Mr. R. L. Price, C. P. A., in auditing the books of the several institutions. He has spent some time also at Campbell installing the system already in use in five other institutions. It should be recorded that all endowment funds are well placed and adequately protected. Concerning other matters in which the Convention is interested, the following exhibits reveals the outstanding financial facts concerning the institutions.

‡-Loss.

The foregoing exhibit reflects the operations for the single year 1928-29. Expenses for repairs and replacements are included but not expenses incurred for permanent improvements. It should be pointed out that Column 8 headed "profit or loss if one-half of the student's accounts are collected," gives probably a truer picture of actual operating income and expense than is found elsewhere. Some institutions will perhaps collect more than fifty per cent of the accounts due them, but on the whole a larger per cent than this could not be counted upon with safety. If this assumption is correct, Wake Forest, Wingate, Mars Hill and Boiling Springs show losses for the year. If all accounts are collected, Wingate and Boiling Springs show losses.

The above exhibit reflects not only operations for 1928-29 but for all past years. It is, therefore, a statement of the exact condition of each institution on June 30, 1929. Interpret as follows: If student accounts and supplies on hand could be converted into cash and the cash on hand added to this amount, Wake Forest could meet all liabilities and have a surplus of $6,221.97—of course with its plant and endowment intact. In like manner Meredith would have a surplus of $6,321.79, Chowan a deficit of $10,784.31, Mars Hill a surplus of $30,147.88, Wingate a deficit of $27,133.39, Boiling Springs a deficit of $7,700.74. If, however, one assumes that only fifty per cent of all old student accounts are collectible, then the accumulated deficits are as follows: Wake Forest $1,149.03, Meredith $22,625.51, Chowan $16,336.77, Mars Hill $7,514.74 (surplus), Wingate $32,901.08, Boiling Springs $10,724.40.

The following exhibit is a comparison of the accumulated indebtedness of each of the institutions on June 30, 1928 and June 30, 1929.

Report of the Department of Benevolences

1. THE MILLS HOME

M. L. KESLER, General Manager

During the year, in our cottages and with their mothers, we have cared for 895 children. There are with us now in round numbers 500 children at Thomasville and 135 at the Kennedy Home and 270 with their mothers. And from November 11, 1885, when the first child was received, to the present time, in the home and by Mothers' Aid, 3,544 children have received the kindly and healing touch of North Carolina Baptists.

The main current of our life flows right on through its usual channels. Our farming and other industrial interests make a fair showing.

The health of the children measures up well; no epidemics have disturbed our ranks.

The most distressing experience during the year, has been the unusual number of children in abject destitution ceaselessly knocking at our doors. We have had as large numbers before, but not quite so many at the cross roads of despair. The prevailing depression, as usual, falls hardest on helpless children.

Any reference to finances is but a dreary repetition of what, it is to be feared, has already hardened many of our hearts into a belittling and cowardly indifference. We have, to be sure, a large and discouraging debt, around fifty thousand dollars. But last month's contributions, in the face of every sort of discouragement, were better than for the same month a year ago. The number of Sunday schools contributing once a month is increasing. We are anxious but not cast down. Thanksgiving is at hand. This is our opportunity to clear out the debt and leave a reserve for the winter months.

We have suffered record-breaking changes rather high up among our workers. Early in the year C. C. McKoin, from Winston-Salem, took charge of the farm. For a year we had no regular nurse. The place is now most acceptably filled by Miss Alice Little of Wadesboro. Pastor E. N. Gardner left us in answer to a call from the church at Dunn. He is succeeded by Brother John Arch McMillan. These men are unique, very unlike, and yet very much alike. The one going holds firmly the love and esteem of our group, and the new pastor is established already, and we shall go on claiming both.

J. L. Fortney, who wrought so well as principal of our school for two years, answered a call back to Georgia. We regretted his leaving. W. L. Bowman, who succeeds him, comes from one of the high schools of Union County. The school moves off well under his guidance.

But the going of F. B. Hamrick, who for seventeen years had been with us as treasurer—and much else besides—left us in a straight betwixt two. On account of our affection and esteem for him, we did not want him to go, and yet we could not fight against the best thing to be done. Space does not allow an adequate expression of appreciation here. R. D. Covington, from Greensboro, takes his place and moves off as though he was made to fit.

In all these changes there has not been a jar of unkind feeling. To be sure, there have been some heart aches, but there has emerged an experience of confidence that He who guides the stars and watches over little children, has a hand in guiding His workers through all their perplexing ways.

Again I want to call to your attention most earnestly the need of a better understanding of our work, and in broader terms of child and family welfare. Better care of children and better financing of the whole proposition are involved.

Most people are ready to pity little wanderers and provide for them sheltering arms. But we are far enough along the road to review our methods of doing it. No work in the world calls for a finer blending of sentiment and sense than this. The moment an institution accepts a child, and thus undertakes to pick up a dropped stitch in a family life, one of the most serious obligations is accepted. It is too easy to conclude that the great transaction is done when the child has been received. To be sure he is in out of the cold—but what have you done? As the thoughtful and worthy father and mother gaze upon their own child, through their eyes they see wrapped up in him the greatest single group of possibilities known to human effort and to human hope. They carefully handle and nurture his body that it may be the fit tabernacle of a mind and a soul that has a value not measured in any earthly terms. They guard well the influences that bear upon him whether he be cradled in an ark of bulrushes or in a palace. Ample time, one-third of his life, is none too long for the development of these possibilities.

This process does not fit in with mass production. Right here is the acid test of our work. We claim to have the cottage system. J. H. Mills, whose name we now rightly bear, was this country's outstanding exponent of a real cottage system. But under terrible pressure we have allowed the cottages to become in reality separate congregate groups. The average number of children in these buildings is over thirty. Would the foremost member of this convention have his child reared in such a mass? But that's different, you say. How different is it? No woman, as house mother, can properly handle 35 or 40 children. The physical enormity of it is by no means the only feature. Personal and intimate attention to the peculiar needs of the individual child is practically out of the question. And many of them come from a bad background of heredity, ignorance, neglect and vicious surroundings, making particular care the more necessary. No wonder the intelligent matron frequently suffers a panic of despair. The boy who comes with low views of property rights can reduce the cottage to a den of thieves, and the large number hastens the result. To be sure this fretful realm may be held in awe by a watchful and powerful discipline. Only very strong personalities can at all handle the situation and they do it with a sickening sense of failure in best results. Why this crowding? Neither the management nor the trustees approve it. Long after a cottage is decently filled there comes, for example, an appeal for a family of five children, and a mother going with tuberculosis, all living—at least cooking, eating and sleeping—in one room. Another: a boy is running wild on the streets. He has an uncle who ought to take him, but declares he will let the Catholics have him before he will do it. A pastor and his deacons present a pressing case and in spite of our crowded condition they declare if we do not take the children, no more contributions will come from their church. What is to be done about it? Suppose at the next Annual meeting the Board of Trustees should instruct that the number in the twenty cottages—Kennedy Home and at Thomasville—be cut down to an average of twenty children to the cottage. Fifteen would be better. This would cut our number from 635 to 400. A year and a half perhaps would pass before another child could be received, for the surplus could not be disposed of at once. This must be done if we are to maintain our supposed rating among similar institutions.

First, the intake of children should be better guarded. Miss Edwards, in her work on the field, has made a splendid beginning. No child should be received without a thorough investigation by an unprejudiced case worker of skill and experience, and with the right attitude toward children and the best in family life. It should be a thorough diagnosis of the whole situation, the economic, social and health history of the child and the family. If properly done this will extend to the near relatives and the community as well. This would discover that many are altogether ineligible, that some should be cared for by near relatives and thus relieve the denomination and the public of the burden.

Many cases can be cared for by Mothers' Aid, thereby saving the home, the children and expense at the same time. Some ought to go to foster homes. Others again should be handled in boarding homes, for many children cannot be properly guided in large groups. No single institution is prepared to be a clearing house for all these. But if it is to do a decent job either within its own resources, or coöperating with other agencies, each child should be helped to his own place.

A Children's Bureau in North Carolina as an essential part of our Board of Welfare is greatly needed. As it is, each institution stands as a lone sentinel on a long line of others unorganized and unrelated. Certainly I am not recommending that we undertake all of this; neither do I urge enlarging indefinitely Mothers' Aid. But if the State does not move out into the larger field I shall be tempted to recommend that we at least make a demonstration of some boarding home care. Other sources of relief must be found.

If we remain in the field of real case work much Mothers' Aid and family rehabilitation will legitimately fall into our hands and can be regarded most naturally a part of our complete task.

The plea then is for an increase in our case work, or field service. The Social Service committee of the General Board has already agreed that some addition should be made as early as possible. This will increase the overhead expense somewhat, but will multiply the value of our work immensely. With only one case worker for Mothers' Aid and all the other applications the investigations must be too hurried. Many appeals are long delayed and this becomes a prolific source of dissatisfaction.

Aside from this careful work on the intake, and the work of adjusting cases outside, there is the need of a proper touch with mothers and other relatives of the children who are in the home. We have an unusual opportunity to help, not only the child in our care, but the group from which the child comes. In some cases the children should be cut off absolutely from relatives by legal authority, but such cases are rare. So in most cases some sort of relationship should be kept up between the children and their relatives. This is by no means as simple as it looks. Properly handled, the relative may be an ally in controlling the child and in adding to his happiness and contentment. Children and the institution have been injured because of ill will that has arisen from such sources because no one had the time to spend in this delicate field of diplomacy.

This extra service is also needed in another sorely neglected field. Several thousand children have gone from our doors. Many of them have not found the best adjustments to the life out there, and the institution has thus been the loser in their loyal good will and support. Neglect here can spoil the good work already done. The result would be a real alumni association of the boys and girls who are now scattered along the lanes of life. These properly held to their alma mater would constitute an endowment of hearts and hands beyond the figures written in any treasurer's report. So we venture the belief that the Convention is ready to encourage the management and the Board of Trustees to go afield for the best service in our reach. Multiplying cottages will not meet the need. Each new cottage calls for at least seven thousand dollars increase in current fund. Keep this up indefinitely and Samson will pull the temple down upon his head. When we undertake to house, clothe, feed and train properly so vast a throng as are knocking for admittance, and each one cared for on an average of from five to ten years, we must expend enormous sums of money. This would finally grow to such proportions as to sweep every other object from the field—except for the fact that it would defeat itself. This is not calling a retreat, but suggesting a flank movement where strategy is needed more than force. Neither is there in this an intimation that any one or all the other methods of relief referred to can ever take the place of the institution. They can not. This home must be one of the best of its kind, and it will always be thronged with those who should come to it. But I would stand at the gate with a flaming sword to turn away those who should not enter there.

The very fact that any child appeals to us for help, brings us, as an agency, under obligations to do something about it. If the child cannot and should not be received, we have not met our moral obligation without making some attempt to bring the child in touch with relief at once, or by setting influences in motion that will finally bring the proper help. Hence the plea that we lift our eyes for a larger view and supply a stronger and broader service in this field of child and family welfare.

2. REPORT ON RELIEF AND ANNUITY BOARD

R. T. VANN

Since this Board of the Southern Baptist Convention is the only agency that administers funds for the support of our old ministers, we should give some attention to its operations.

From the beginning the Board, discovering that current funds would fall far short of meeting the needs of our veterans of the cross, set about the creation of a permanent fund, to be known as the Relief Reserve Fund, the income from which—and in serious emergencies, a part of the corpus itself—should be used for maintaining and stabilizing the regular annual allocations and other obligations of the Board. This Fund has been created mainly by setting apart 45 per cent of current receipts from the churches. But gradually, other money in substantial amounts has been contributed specifically for endowment, the interest alone to be applied for this purpose.

The money thus given has been invested in a permanent fund known as the Relief Endowment, from which the interest alone is available for current expenses. Experience, especially within the last two or three years, has demonstrated the necessity for these Funds. The Board's receipts from the Coöperative Program in the last four years have fallen off from thirty-five to forty per cent: yet, within this period the allocations have fallen only from six to three per cent. Since 1921, while the Board's total receipts from the Coöperative Program have aggregated only $900,000, in round numbers, its allocations to its beneficiaries have amounted to more than a million dollars. As you see, it has been able to do this from the interest on its invested funds, and once in awhile by drawing on the corpus of the Reserve Fund.

In 1918, realizing the inadequacy of both the above-named funds to meet the need of our old ministers, the Board requested and received authority from the Convention to create another fund, known as the Annuity Fund, which will be referred to later.

The Relief Fund and the Relief Endowment aggregate $485,835.16, and the Annuity Fund, amounts to $2,480,206.50, which, including special smaller donations, gives a total of $3,038,504.93.

HOW THE FUNDS ARE INVESTED

In view of recent occurrences, it may be well to state how these several funds are invested and administered. They are invested in high grade interest-bearing bonds and mortgages. No official or set of officials can pledge any of these securities for the Board's credit, or make loans, save with the approval of the Executive Committee in each case; nor can any of them be sold except on the same authority. Nor can any check be drawn against any Fund save on the signature of the Executive Secretary of the Board and the Treasurer of the Fund drawn on. All loans or investments are made on the written authority of at least three members of the investment committee, and must be promptly reported to the Executive Committee. All securities, other than real estate mortgages, are kept in lock boxes, and none of these can be withdrawn save by the Treasurer of the Fund, accompanied by another person designated by the Executive Committee.

While accumulating these funds, the Board has not interrupted its regular relief work. Throughout the South during the past Conventional year, it has aided 663 aged ministers; 525 ministers widows, and indirectly aided 150 dependent children; a total of 1,338. Four and one-half per cent of the receipts from the Coöperative Program is allotted to the Relief Board. During the past year, this amounted to $88,413.69; but the Board allocated during the same period $121,884.51—thirty-three thousand more than it received.

IN NORTH CAROLINA

During the past year, the Board aided in North Carolina 68 ministers and 67 ministers' widows, at an outlay of $14,817.31. The Board received from our state during that period only $9,159.16, six thousand dollars less than it spent on our North Carolina beneficiaries. There are now pending from this state applications from six men and four women. Only one applicant has been rejected. During the year, three men and one woman have died: J. T. Caines, Rufus Hilburn, D. H. Hilburn and Mrs. W. J. Fulford. The allocations for our state average per month, for the men $10.14; for the women, $9.69.

In caring for these men and women let it be clearly understood and repeated that we are not performing a charity but only discharging in part a long-standing obligation. Self respecting men and women would shrink from accepting the pitiable amount doled out in small change as to a beggar. But they could honorably accept benefactions as deferred payments for services rendered. It might be well for us Baptists who glory in the fact that the Bible only is our rule of faith and practice, to study with some care I Cor. 9: 7-14, where Paul devotes eight verses to arguing the obligation of the churches to care for their ministers; and then we might ponder I Timothy 5: 17-18, where the apostle returns to the subject.

Some of the men for whom we are meagerly providing may possibly be unworthy, and the achievements of others may seem small. We do not know how to figure spiritual results by human arithmetic. The mass of them, as pastors and evangelists, have contributed approximately 2,500 years of service, and have baptized around 50,000 professed believers. While in this service, most of them have had to depend largely on outside employment for a living, and no wonder that thirty-five of them are now without homes. Do our Baptist people think they owe these men anything? Do they think they are discharging their obligations at $10 per month for a man and his family to live on?

But the present plan of support is not satisfactory to the Board. Under it, our ministerial veterans are receiving only from one-third to one-half the amount superannuates of other denominations are receiving; and even then, we are including probably less than one-half the needy ones. To meet the requirements of the situation with even tolerable adequacy would require a yearly income of the Board of nearly a million dollars; and if they depend on invested funds, such fund would have to approximate fifteen million dollars, a sum wholly unobtainable within our life time.

So, in the hope of securing larger and more immediate benefits, the Annuity Plan, referred to above, was undertaken. This is based on what is called the Pension Plan. Under this plan, a certain amount is set aside during each year of a minister's service to provide a pension for him of at least $500 a year after the annuitant has reached the age of sixty-five, or in case of disability, before that age. In case of death, the widow or children receive three hundred dollars a year.

The Fund from which these pensions are paid is created by the joint efforts of the annuitant and the denomination, the denomination paying four-fifths and the annuitant one-fifth.

The advantage of this plan over the present Relief Plan is obvious; for while the present plan allows only $10 a month, with no certain promise to the widow, under the Annuity Plan, one receives $41.66 per month and his widow or children $25 per month. The cost varies with age, but in middle life—say forty—it is $32.11 per year. It is hoped and urged that all ministers in active service will take the earliest opportunity to enlist under this plan. In round numbers, fourteen hundred ministers, throughout the South, are now members of the Fund, and 128 men or their families are receiving its yearly benefits. Of these fourteen hundred, 211 are in North Carolina. Seventeen of these are now receiving pensions—six men who have passed the age limit, four from disability, and seven widows.

3. REPORT OF HOSPITALS

G. T. LUMPKIN, Superintendent

With gratitude to our blessed Lord, the great Physician, for his wonderful grace and power and his continual presence in our ministry of healing, we present our sixth annual report. For all the good we have done in healing the sick in these years we would give Him the glory. Our Baptist Hospital has no surpassing merit, nor do we claim for our physicians and nurses any supernatural skill. Like all other Christian Hospitals we give to our patients our best and leave the results with God. Here lies the secret of the wonderful record and the remarkable small number of deaths among the great host of patients we have cared for in these six years.

Twelve thousand six hundred and seventy-five patients have been admitted in this time. They have come from every part of the state seeking deliverance from disease, and deformity. Hundreds of these had no money but we took them in without money or price, and a still larger number came who could pay only a small part of the cost. Mothers and fathers with families to care for; boys and girls who would have been invalids all their lives; ministers, teachers, ministerial students from our colleges; children from the Mills Home; from wherever need and suffering have combined to weaken and destroy mankind, they have come and we have heard their cry. Ours is indeed a life saving ministry and thousands will bear witness to its blessed service in this respect.

We bring to you a brief summary of our stewardship and upon the faithfulness of our ministry we base all claims for further sympathy and support. Of the 12,675 patients admitted over five thousand have been charity or part pay. The number of charity patients increases each year. Last year 1,380 patients received help from the Hospital either as full charity or part pay. That is more than one-half of those admitted had to be helped financially. This year our enrollment will amount to about 2,750 and of this number at least 1,500 will have to be helped. Last year the cost of the care of the charity work was $42,500. This year the amount will reach the $50,000 mark. This is our supreme mission as a Hospital and the demands are growing each year. The question is can we continue to meet the tremendous demands with the small amount of donations we receive to carry on this work.

We ought to have a larger support from our Baptists in the state who are able to pay their way and thus increase the amount of income, for this would enlarge the possibilities of free service. We have fine facilities; magnificent health conditions; the very best equipment; Medical and Nursing skill that cannot be excelled. We have a record of service that for five years has surpassed all other Hospitals in the South. Surely this ought to appeal to our Baptist people who can pay to come to us. With the splendid facilities for travel now, patients can come to us from almost any point in the state without any inconveniences or danger. Last year our death record was 11.4 to the thousand and the average stay in the Hospital for pay patients was six days. We cite this as an example of the good service and the evidence of the presence of the great Physician in our work. Surely the sick brother wishes to go where the chances are best to get well in the shortest time, and for the lowest cost. We offer this as an inducement to our more fortunate Baptists and plead with them that they will think of the Hospital as their own and patronize it when they are sick.

But after all, the saving of the sick who cannot pay constitutes the chief reason for our existence and, if we fail in this we have missed the purpose of our brothers who gave birth to the Hospital. The saving of human life, regardless of financial conditions, must be our slogan, and until now this has been our policy. We cannot let them die, unloved and uncared for, as long as our Hospital keeps its doors open and we claim to be obeying our Lord's challenge to heal the sick.

It is manifest, however, that the cost of the care of these needy ones increases as the number increases. To pay the $50,000 that we will spend for charity this year, our Sunday schools through Mother's Day offerings provided $14,857.10 and we received from the Duke Foundation $8,516. The problem with us is to raise the other $25,000 plus necessary to pay our bills and keep out of debt. Thus far we have been able to meet our bills and carry this tremendous load of free service. But we have done so at the fearful cost of failure to provide equipment necessary to keep the Hospital up to its high standard and to make improvements that must be looked after. We cannot continue such a dreadful drain on our operating account and survive. We plead with you that you will not forget us on Mother's Day when the finances are raised for charity, and then crowd us all the year with these free patients. For if you do you will certainly drive us to the wall.

The Hospital presents a difficult problem. We do not know how or where to draw the line on charity cases. We may decide to do so, but when an emergency comes to our doors and it is a case of Hospital attention or death, we cannot refuse. To do so would be criminal, and, besides, the influence of one such case turned down would cripple our work for years. The only solution to this problem is for our churches and Sunday schools to take more seriously the matter of charity work in our Hospital, and provide adequate means for this on Mother's Day.

You are aware that the four per cent which we receive from the Coöperative Program all goes to the retiring of our bonds and the interest on the bonded Indebtedness. The amount of this indebtedness is $104,000 as of January first. We have met every payment on these bonds and must continue to do this. So that we must confine our charity work to the income from Mother's day offerings, the Duke Foundation gift and what we can care for out of the operating account.

We are asking that the churches and Sunday schools will try to raise $25,000 on Mother's Day for this cause and we are promising to take care of the $50,000 worth of charity which the churches are sending us. The Hospital asks for no money to pay its operating expenses. Last year it completed the payments on the Nurses Home and spent out of its treasury $19,500 to care for charity. It is a mighty asset pouring out thousands each year to save human life. But it does beg that you will give it the financial support that it may continue this great ministry and at the same time keep the institution up to the high standard it has always maintained. $25,000 a year will do this.

For the cause of suffering humanity, for Christ's sake, we appeal to you that you will resolve to raise the amount asked for next year. Hundreds of our churches never give a cent. If our Associations would emphasize this noble cause and urge our pastors and laymen to make the one single offering on Mother's Day we would have all the funds necessary. Will you not do it, brethren, for these Baptists for whom Christ died?

In conclusion, the Board of Trustees would plead with you that you put the Hospital on your hearts. Pray for us, pray for the management; for the fine school of girls under our care; for the host of patients that come to us every year; and see to it that every Baptist in North Carolina shall know of our work and have an opportunity to contribute to the needs of its charity work to save the unfortunate sick of our denomination.

IV

Report of Department of Training Activities

PERRY MORGAN, Secretary

Our first words in this report are words of gratitude to God for His blessings upon the work and the workers during the year and of sincere appreciation of our sympathetic, unselfish, coöperative and loyal co-workers in the Department of Training Activities. We mention first L. L. Morgan, Field Worker; Miss Gladys H. Beck, Elementary Secretary; and Miss Bessie Morgan, Office Secretary, of the Sunday school Department. Next, we mention James A. Ivey, Secretary; Miss Winnie Rickett, Secretary of Junior-Intermediate Work; J. Andrew Morgan and Miss Mary Ayscue, Field Workers; and Mrs. J. E. Tharrington, Office Secretary of the B. Y. P. U. Department. We include also Miss Cleo Mitchell, Student Secretary at North Carolina College for Women, Greensboro; Miss Elizabeth Cowan at Appalachian State Teachers College, Boone, and Miss Madeline Elliott at Meredith College. We refer also to those fine workers who are out on the frontier the year round in Associational work—A. V. Washburn, M. L. Jones and A. R. Waters. How true all of these colaborers in the field of training have been to the tasks committed to them and to the Secretary of the Department is a joyful reflection and a vivid and happy remembrance. We pay our best tribute to and express, without affectation, our profound appreciation of every one of them.

GENERAL ACTIVITIES OF WORKERS

A relatively small portion of the time of the general workers is spent at headquarters. While there they utilize the time in dispatching the mass of work accumulating during their field trips. The work in the office grows heavier year by year as the program of the Department expands. Thousands of personal letters, other thousands of form letters, many thousands of pieces of free literature must be sent out, copying Awards for training work done, keeping office records, building programs, making plans for conferences, conventions and field campaigns—all make heavy demands upon the time of all the forces.

The largest part of the time by far is spent on the field in conventions, rallies, conferences, enlargement campaigns, training schools, institutes, teacher training classes, and special weeks of study and training for our young people at educational centers. In this connection we are reminded to say about nine-tenths of their effort is centered in work with rural and village churches.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS MEETING STANDARD REQUIREMENTS

Our goal in Standard Schools for the calendar year is 200. The ten requirements in our Standard of Excellence have been met by 122 schools.

STATE-WIDE SUNDAY SCHOOL CONFERENCE

The Third Annual State-wide Conference for Sunday school Workers was held at Meredith College, June 13-15. Plans are already being made for another conference next year. About 600 people attended the meeting this year receiving much information and inspiration from it. They were from all sections of the State.

REACHING OUT FOR THE MASSES

Our State is still a field "White unto harvest." Multitudes are yet to be reached—taught and won for Christ. This Department with all its resources and energies is dedicated to the work of "reaching out" for the masses, the multitudes, the throngs of unreached people of more than 950,000 who are not in Sunday school. To this end we have employed the method of conducting what we call "Sunday school Revivals and Enlargement Campaigns," embracing two Sundays with six days intervening. The aim being: (1) To discover our Sunday school possibilities. (2) Enlarge our working forces and widen the scope of our activities. (3) Provide means for and methods of taking care of increased membership. (4) To go out after people in a definite, personal, persistent and scriptural way. (5) To secure better equipment. (6) To get better teaching done. (7) To win the lost. (8) To train the enlisted. (9) To present plans for building a great Sunday school. This work has been largely in the rural churches, although some of the urban churches in Associations where Campaigns have been held have shared in the work. Such Campaigns have been conducted in the following Associations. The number of churches participating in each Association being indicated.

Union, 31; West Chowan, 34; Surry, 4; Pilot Mountain, 7; New South River, 20; Mitchell, 14; Western North Carolina, 16; Haywood, 18; Neuse-Atlantic, 48; Johnston, 17; Piedmont, 18; Mount Zion, 43. Total, 270. A large number of other churches have been aided in various ways in other Associations.

TRAINING WORKERS

Training workers for their difficult and delicate task of teaching is a vital thing. Nothing is more important or necessary to insure and fix the future of our cause. This is our most difficult task. There are about 33,000 officers and teachers in our Bible Schools trying to lead the people into more vital relationship with Christ. Many other thousands ought to be enlisted and sent out to teach. Of those now at work in our schools many have not had any special training for their holy task notwithstanding the fact that during the past year 7,467 Normal and 3,856 Administration Awards were given for the study of books in our training course. Realizing the imperative need for better teaching in our Sunday schools, and recognizing that trained workers are: (1) More tolerant; (2) more efficient; (3) more consecrated; (4) more coöperative and (5) more dependable, we have set our hands to the task of not only enlisting larger numbers of people in the work of teaching but to diligently train them to do their work in a skillful way. We have had a good year in training work and are grateful to the Heavenly Father.

DAILY VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL WORK

This is an important and growing part of our Bible School work. This Department sought during the year to lend such aid as it could to pastors and churches in securing additional Bible study for our young people during the vacation months. We would urge a wider use of the opportunity offered the churches in this way. The Department of Daily Vacation Bible School Work of the Sunday school Board, Homer L. Grice, Secretary in charge, gives help by supplying free literature in abundance, supplementing our budget in a financial way and sending to us conference leaders in preparation for launching Vacation Schools. There are also ample textbooks and guides for principals of Vacation Schools and other leaders in this work. Twenty-two schools lasting from two to four weeks each were reported, but we believe others were held although we did not get reports of them.

FIELD WORK IN ASSOCIATIONS

The plan of coöperative work between the Sunday school Board at Nashville and local Associations was continued in a few instances viz.: Pilot Mountain, with M. L. Jones as worker until August 1, when he was transferred to the Mount Zion; Flat River, with A. R. Waters as worker until November 1, when he resigned to enter the pastorate; Brunswick, with Miss Lillian Mabry as worker until June 1; A. V. Washburn continues as Field Worker in six Associations with headquarters at Sylva. The following Associations are now organized for Sunday school work using our own denominational program: Brier Creek, Buncombe, Caldwell, Carolina, Chowan, Eastern, Flat River, Haywood, Johnston, Kings Mountain, Little River, Mitchell, Mount Zion, Neuse-Atlantic, New South River, Piedmont, Pilot Mountain, Raleigh, Rowan, Sandy Run, South Fork, South Mountain, South Yadkin, Surry, Tuckaseegee, Union, West Chowan, Western North Carolina, Wilmington. Total 29.

SPECIAL AND VOLUNTEER WORKERS

By arrangement with the Sunday school Board we have some special workers whose services are available in local churches and special Campaigns. They are: Mrs. C. R. Pittard of Apex, B. F. Farrell of Charlotte, Approved Intermediate State Workers; Mrs. Miss Lillie Mae Scruggs of Raleigh, and Mrs. C. D. Bain of Dunn, A. V. Washburn of Sylva, Miss Lillie Mae Scruggs of Raleigh, and Mrs. C. D. Bain of Dunn, Qualified Elementary Workers; Miss Inabelle Coleman and O. E. Lee of Greensboro, Mrs. A. J. Smith of Goldsboro, Mrs. J. L. Norrell and D. H. Wilcox of Winston-Salem, Herbert ReBarker of Greenville, and Horace B. Easom, Shelby, Approved Young People and Adult Workers.

Their services are available without cost to churches when special arrangements are made with this Department and I. J. VanNess, Executive Secretary of the Sunday school Board. During the year we have had the services of 65 volunteer workers who are among the finest of our fine young people. Some of them are ministers, teachers, pastors' assistants, educational directors, students, training school and seminary graduates, and volunteers for the Mission Fields. They served without price. Their only desire was to serve the Lord, and they did so with gladness. The combined services rendered by them amounted to 920 days. We owe to them a debt of gratitude. North Carolina Baptists are rich in consecrated youth. This fact gives heart and hope to all of us who have had occasion to observe the unselfish manner in which these young people have given their time, talents, and services without stint or reserve—and without price. Lack of space forbids our mentioning all their names here. They are the Lord's anointed.

"SAVE THE CHILDREN OF TODAY AND YOU SAVE TOMORROW'S DAY"

—W. F. POWELL

We recognize the value of the Sunday school as a reaching-out agency of the church and are fully cognizant of its effective ministry to all who come into its service of teaching, but if we are wise we will give full attention to that division of its work designated as the Elementary Department which embraces so large a part of our Sunday school constituency. This Department of our work includes all the children from birth through twelve years, embracing the Cradle Roll, Beginner, Primary, and Junior Departments. Under the superb leadership and direction of Miss Gladys H. Beck, this Department with full understanding of the meaning of its slogan, "Save the Children of Today and you save tomorrow's Day," is rendering a beautiful and ever-widening ministry to the children while they are yet in the tender years of the formative period of their lives. To save a child is to save a soul plus a life.

OUR TEACHING AND TRAINING PROGRAM

Included in our teaching and training program is our Sunday school, B. Y. P. U., and Student work. The program of this Department is the program of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. It is the aim and desire of the Department to secure correct and adequate Bible Teaching, to teach and train in Baptist doctrines and principles, to edify our people in scriptural knowledge and to enlist them in loyal support of the program of this Convention which is the program of Jesus Christ for the redemption of the world.

Secretary James A. Ivey submits below a full report of the work of the B. Y. P. U. Department. Under his magnificent leadership our Young People's Work goes forward in a marvelous manner. We have in him a safe, sane, and courageous spiritual leader. He has already won for himself a large place among our people throughout the State. We again commend him to all the churches.

2. REPORT OF B. Y. P. U. DEPARTMENT

JAMES A. IVEY, Secretary

We come to the close of the convention year with deep and profound gratitude in our hearts for the loyalty and coöperation accorded us in the work and the continued blessings of our Lord upon our labors. Truly this has been a glorious year both in the amount of work accomplished and in the results obtained.

FIELD WORK

The Workers. James A. Ivey has served his second year as General B. Y. P. U. Secretary. Miss Rickett continues to serve in her fine way as State Junior-Intermediate Secretary. Mrs. J. E. Tharrington, capable and efficient, remains the office secretary.

Two changes have been made in the personnel of the department. Miss Mary Ayscue, with headquarters at Rocky Mount, succeeded Miss Marguerite Harrison as the Eastern Field Worker. J. Andrew Morgan is now the Western Field Worker, with headquarters at Hickory, having succeeded Miss Mary Frances Biggers. Miss Ayscue came to us June 20; Mr. Morgan August 15. They have been working long enough to prove themselves. We are assured that wisdom prevailed in the selection of them.

A. V. Washburn, Sylva, District Field Worker for six Associations west of Asheville, M. L. Jones, Field Worker in the Mount Zion Association, and A. R. Waters, Field Worker in the Flat River, gave half time to B. Y. P. U. work.

ENLARGEMENT CAMPAIGNS

Simultaneous B. Y. P. U. enlargement campaigns have been conducted in a group of churches in eight associations with gratifying results. The Gaston, Pilot Mountain, Wilmington, Piedmont, Neuse-Atlantic, South Yadkin, Green River and Catawba River are the ones in which these campaigns were held. Ninety-two churches have participated in these simultaneous programs. Ninety-one weeks were spent in this type of work in which 63 volunteer workers assisted. Classes for the different grades were conducted; new members enlisted and new unions organized where needed. We consider this plan of promotion to be one of the most effective and result-producing that we have yet pursued. By this method we are enabled to take the B. Y. P. U. message and program more speedily to the individual church. The principle of reaching the individual church is fundamental to the growth and progress of the work.

In addition to the simultaneous projects, enlargement campaigns are constantly being held in the single church. Mr. Morgan and Miss Ayscue give themselves almost entirely to this type of work. Eighty-three churches have been reached in this manner.

Nineteen of our cities have City-wide B. Y. P. U. organizations. These are active in promoting every phase and grade of B. Y. P. U. work. This department coöperates with them in conducting training schools and holding rallies.

THE ASSOCIATIONAL PLAN

Fifty-eight of the sixty-six district associations are organized for work in the B. Y. P. U. In these associations annual conventions are held and quarterly meetings are conducted in the several districts of the association. Between these meetings the officers endeavor to initiate plans and projects which will make for the greatest advancement of the work. They teach study courses; visit churches with demonstrations, playlets and special addresses. We are indeed grateful for these officers. More than six hundred of them are giving much of their time and energy to B. Y. P. U. as a labor of love. Through them we are able to keep in constant touch with every section of the state.

IN THE SCHOOLS

We have spent a week teaching, speaking and touching in a personal way the lives of the young people in each of the seven Baptist Colleges, the Home Board schools and in the Baptist churches adjacent to the state schools. In all, 12 schools have been reached. In the schools we come in contact with those who will, in the immediate future, become leaders in young people's work. We cannot overestimate the value of this part of our program.

STATE AND REGIONAL CONVENTIONS

The State B. Y. P. U. Convention was held at Meredith College, Raleigh, June 18-20, with approximately fifteen hundred in attendance. The next session of the Convention is scheduled to meet at Mars Hill College, June 24-26, 1930. Charles B. Howard is State President and Miss Vera Ruth, State Junior-Intermediate Sponsor.

The five Regional Conventions met in April and May. Below is given the officers, places of the last meetings, the dates and places of next year's schedule:

Region	Place	President	Junior Intermediate Leader	Place	Date
Eastern.....	Williamston	John T. Coley	Lessie Winslow	Goldsboro..	March 21-22
Southern.....	Warsaw.....	Jas. F. Warwick.....	Pearl Canady..	New Hope..	March 28-29

Western.....	Sylva.....	A. V. Washburn.....	David Marshburn.....	Spruce Pine..	April 18-19

These conventions reached more than two thousand young people from every portion of the state. They are invaluable in causing to be used uniform methods, in coördinating efforts and solidifying sentiment.

REGIONAL BANQUET TOURS

In order to make a more definite program for work within the association we have inaugurated a new plan. The associational officers and the leading officers of the various B. Y. P. U. organizations joined with the Regional officers and state workers in some central place for an inspirational conference. An attractive feature of these meetings has been the banquet served by the entertaining church. After the banquet the standing of the work was ascertained; definite objectives were set; conferences on methods were held; and inspirational addresses followed. Eight such conferences have been conducted covering the Eastern and Western Regions. Tours will be put on in the other three regions.

OFFICE WORK

The secretaries have spent such time in the office as was necessary to handle an ever increasing correspondence, project plans, send out free literature in abundance and to keep in touch with the constituency over the state.

EDITORIAL WORK

Through the courtesy of the Biblical Recorder the department is given a section for promotional purposes. Items of special interest concerning every phase of B. Y. P. U. are published.

Several articles have been written for the Southside B. Y. P. U. Magazine.

SPECIAL PROMOTIONAL ACTIVITIES

From the office a series of eleven letters have gone out to the twenty-five hundred leading officers of the B. Y. P. U. and in three instances letters were sent to the pastors also. This vast amount of mail is necessary to keep in touch with the leaders every quarter and secure a report of their work; to make preparation for and advertise the State and Regional Conventions and the banquet tours; to send information concerning the semi-annual Study Course Weeks; to put in their possession a uniform schedule of work for the year. Much letter writing is done in working up the Associational enlargement campaigns. Workers are to be secured, the churches enlisted, the pastors and leaders thoroughly acquainted with the project.

16,084 study course awards were mailed out.

With the rapid growth of B. Y. P. U. there is a corresponding increase in the office work.

3. REPORT ON STUDENT ACTIVITIES

This year we have had only two Student Workers. Miss Cleo Mitchell, at North Carolina College for Women, Greensboro, and Miss Joy Beaman, Boone, who works with Boone, Cullowhee, Mars Hill, Fruitland and Boiling Springs. Miss Beaman resigned her work with us October 1, to get married. She did a splendid work at these places, and while we greatly regret having to give her up, we are delighted to have Miss Elizabeth Cowan of Apex, take over this work. She is already getting started in a great way with this work. We give below a few facts about the work for the year:

REPORT ON STUDENT WORK

PERRY MORGAN, Secretary

As we review the year's activities in this Department of our Convention's work we are pleased to say we have every reason for rejoicing at what has been done in the field of student religious work. The purpose and program of this Department in brief is to minister in a practical and helpful way to Baptist boys and girls in our Baptist Schools, tax supported schools, private schools, and schools of other denominations. The future leadership of our denomination lies within this group. It is our conviction that our Convention can do no better thing than keep close to its bosom its student religious work among our college young people. The future holds great things for us provided we are diligent in seeing to the spiritual development and training of this group of future leaders. This Department, through its campus religious activities has sought to keep them true to the churches and the denomination. Not since the institution of this Department have we had a finer group of young people attending our schools than this generation of students.

OUR STUDENT WORKERS

The working force in our student department is smaller than last year. In the interest of economy, our General Board faced the necessity of curtailing the work. The Department of Training Activities suffered heavy here. Our student work suffered most. In this connection the services of L. H. Tapscott, Student Secretary at the University of North Carolina, and Yancey C. Elliott at North Carolina State College, Raleigh, were discontinued. So we have two workers less than last year. Offsetting this in a measure, Meredith College employed Miss Madeline Elliott as Student Secretary. She is not an employee of the Convention but is working solely under the auspices of Meredith College. Miss Joy Beaman resigned the work at Appalachian State Teachers' College at Boone and on October 25 was married to E. W. McGhee, of Louisville, Kentucky. Miss Elizabeth Cowan, daughter of G. N. Cowan, of Apex, succeeded her. Before coming to the work she served as Student Secretary at the the University Church, Baltimore, Maryland. Miss Cleo Mitchell continues her work at North Carolina College for Women at Greensboro. These have rendered inestimable service to the churches where the schools are located, the homes from which the students come, the denomination, the schools where they serve, and to the students themselves. Their duties are many. They serve as host, spiritual adviser, helper, encourager to students, and render valuable assistance in bringing the student, the church, and the school together.

These Secretaries not only serve at the schools where they have headquarters but give some of their time to other schools not so fortunate as to have them located on their campuses. Miss Elizabeth Cowan shares her time with schools in the west. Miss Cleo Mitchell gives a generous portion of her time and services to those in the central and eastern parts of the State. In connection with their duties in the Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. Departments the workers assist these student secretaries in various ways. Their services are enlisted in training course work, organizing students for religious Work, in connection with the local church and in Statewide B. S. U. Work, particularly with reference to securing attendance upon the State B. S. U. Conference.

STATEWIDE B. S. U. CONFERENCE

November 1, 2, and 3, the Annual Statewide Baptist Student Union Conference was held in the First Baptist Church of Greensboro. The preceding Conference at Chowan College organized a State B. S. U. with Charles A. Maddry, a student at Wake Forest College, President. The recent Conference at Greensboro was a meeting of great spiritual power. About 250 students from various schools were present. "Conquering the Campus with Christ" was the key note. One could not hear the discussion by students at this meeting without coming to the conclusion that there is yet much good in this generation of young people. They think deeper, act wiser, and serve better than some of their critics are prone to give them credit. Such meetings as this give hope and courage and heart to our work. Officers elected for 1929-30 are: Lucile Knight of North Carolina College for Women, President; Hilma Ward, Chowan College, John Edwards of Campbell College, Ed. Fox of Mars Hill College, and Henderson Fox of Wingate Junior College, Vice-Presidents; Kathleen Durham of Meredith College, Secretary; Carl Meares of University of North Carolina, Reporter.

There will be no State Conference held in 1930 but our work in this respect will be merged with the other States in an all-Southern B. S. U. Conference in Atlanta, Georgia, October 24-27. In these Conferences we have the support of the Department of Southern Baptist Student Work of the Sunday School Board at Nashville, Tennessee, which furnishes us with financial support and speakers for the Conference platform. We are indebted to them for this help.

GENERAL STATUS OF WORK

A problem that gave us concern was that of securing suitable headquarters on the campuses where our Secretaries are located, except in the case of our work at North Carolina College for Women at Greensboro where we have a seven room cottage that houses the Student Secretary's office, the student prayer room, students' assembly, reception room, and cottage kitchen. This cottage is home-like and is a rendezvous for lonely and troubled students. It is also a place where those seeking wholesome recreation, fellowship, spiritual help, advice, friendship, and encouragement can find the same. At Boone a new Sunday School plant has been built. This provides a room for student headquarters. It is close by the campus and seems to be adequate for all student religious activities. At Meredith College a dormitory room is used for student headquarters. At all these college centers the school officials and churches look with favor upon this work. We commend especially the attitude of our Baptist pastors at school centers toward the work of the Department of Student Activities which is designed to assist them in bringing students and churches into closer and more vital relationship with each other.

We recommend the continuance of this Department and as soon as practicable the enlargement of it by placing student workers at other school centers.

Report of the Historical Commission

We feel that good progress is being made in gathering and putting into permanent form our Baptist history. We understand that G. W. Paschal will soon have ready the manuscript of the first volume of our history. We are planning to have this published and ready for distribution by the next Convention. We give as follows the report of our Historical Commission:

HISTORICAL COMMISSION

J. T. ALDERMAN, Chairman

The manuscript for the first volume of our Baptist History will soon be ready. Dr. Paschal has the work well under way and expects to have it completed before the end of the year.

It is proposed in the first volume to trace the beginnings of our Baptist activities and history from the first settlements of the colony down to the organization of the Baptist State Convention in 1830. We want to make it as complete a COMPENDIUM of all things pertaining to Baptist history as possible. The plan is to make it full and reliable so that the student of our history shall have a source of information nowhere else to be found.

This is an age of historical research. Not only our own people but scholars generally are interested in searching out our history.

Our Baptist fathers were so earnestly engaged in planting churches and extending the bounds of religious influence that they were unmindful of the importance of preserving records for the generations to come. Unsightly old books and records were considered worthless and were destroyed as so much trash.

Some of the larger libraries in the state have regularly employed agents to ransack every nook and corner for the purpose of securing material of every character for the enrichment of their libraries. The purpose of their work is commendable; but shall our denomination permit this appropriating of our Baptist literature and allow it to be diverted from its proper place? Mrs. E. T. Crittenden, librarian at Wake Forest, has made earnest appeals that our people shall come to the rescue and save this material for the Wake Forest library. Not only is there the FIREPROOF book rooms in the library, but there are fireproof steel vaults and lockers for the preservation of all material that may be sent to them.

In looking through some of these lockers it was a source of encouragement to find old church records dating back to 1770. There are valuable old documents and manuscripts as well as rare pamphlets and books pertaining to our history. What better place can be found for storing such valuable records and other materials than at Wake Forest.

This is the nucleus of a real museum. It is not necessary that the contributions to this collection shall pertain to religious and denominational affairs. There are, no doubt, in the homes of many of those interested a variety of rare objects as well as books which will disappear with the passing years and unavoidable changes. Why not send these things to the library at Wake Forest?

The Centennial year of the Convention is at hand. The Baptist Historical Commission appointed by the Convention will very soon present the manuscript for the first volume of our history. What will you do with it?

Department of Woman's Missionary Union

We would pay our loving and grateful tribute to the Woman's Missionary Union for its loyalty and its consecrated and prayerful devotion to every phase of our Convention's work. Your Secretary would like to emphasize the fact that during the nine trying and arduous years of his work for this Convention, the Woman's Missionary Union, led by Mrs. W. N. Jones and Mesdames Minnie Reddish, H. T. Stevens and Edna R. Harris, has always, under all circumstances, and everywhere given unstinted and loyal and sympathetic devotion to every phase of this Convention's life and work. There have been no theological or doctrinal questions debated among them. They have planned their work in detail and then in an atmosphere of prayer and devotion, they have proceeded to execute their plans. We can understand now as never before, something surely of how much the Saviour must have appreciated the devotion and help of that company of Gallilean women "who followed Him and ministered unto Him out of their substance."

We give as follows the report submitted by the officers of the Woman's Missionary Union:

REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

The fortieth anniversary of the W. M. U., Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, was celebrated in 1928. In North Carolina it was our forty-second anniversary. Three objectives were taken: the collecting of $4,000,000, an increase in membership of 40,000, and a forty per cent increase in organizations. In North Carolina we reached only the second, the increase in membership. More societies were organized than was necessary to make this goal, but some failed to function after a few months and some failed to send in any gift for missions, because of the press of local interests. We could not, in accordance with our plans, include them in the total reported to Union Headquarters.

Not during the height of the 75 Million Campaign did our women make so large a gift as they did during the Ruby Anniversary Year—$345,199.99.

While this report is supposed to deal entirely with the Year 1928, we must record that our gifts have steadily fallen off the present year and there is a question at this time as to whether we can make our aim of $300,000 for 1929. There is always a reaction after a special effort and there are other contributing causes that we need not mention.

One of the problems that we face in our work that we wish to put before this Convention is that the policy of the Woman's Missionary Societies paying all funds to the treasurer of the local church, adopted at the beginning of the 75 Million Campaign, has proved unsatisfactory, both to the Union and the denomination. In some instances, the money for missions and benevolences sent in from a given church has been entirely the gift of the women in that church, gifts from the male membership being used entirely for local expenses. May we suggest that this condition might be remedied by the treasurer of the local church stating when he sends in funds, that so much of the amount sent in was given by the Woman's Missionary Society. We appeal to the pastors to see that this is changed.

It has been stated on public platforms in the State that the Woman's Missionary Society has nothing to do with raising money. That is a mistake. In the constitution under which we have worked for forty-three years in January it is stated that the purpose of our Woman's Missionary Union is "To stimulate the missionary spirit and the grace of giving among the women and children of the churches and to aid in the collection of funds for missionary purposes."

The Coöperative Program and the Centennial Fund have had the full endorsement of the Woman's Missionary Union. It is our plan to aid in every way possible the collecting of funds for these objects and special emphasis will be given to the Centennial Fund during the remainder of the period.

Emphasis has been placed on the special offering of the W. M. U. through our Christmas Offering. Forty missionaries were returned to their respective fields in 1927 and it is planned to send out sixty with the offering of the present year. Ten of this number have already sailed in anticipation of this Offering. These special offerings of the W. M. U. have received the endorsement of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention and may we remind you that those who oppose them and who are not in sympathy with them are themselves out of accord with the plans of the Convention, and not the Woman's Missionary Union.

We have today a complete and active organization. One State meeting was held, five Divisional Meetings, and fifty-one Associational Meetings. There are 2,692 societies of all grades with a membership of 47,272.

The Heck Memorial Fund, established by the women of the Wilmington Division was used in erecting a Memorial Fountain on the court at Meredith College.

Report of the Baptist Foundation

During the past year, I. M. Mercer has given a part of his time to the matter of soliciting gifts and bequests to the Baptist Foundation. We believe his work was well worthwhile and we will see the results in days to come in enlarged benevolence toward all the agencies and institutions of the Convention.

We give the following report of the Trustees of the Foundation:

REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST FOUNDATION

CARROLL W. WEATHERS, Secretary

At the close of business October 31, 1929, the North Carolina Baptist Foundation was administering fourteen trusts of the aggregate value of $95,125.73, which represents an increase of $12,341.81 during the year.

The present active trusts are as follows:

1. Two vacant lots in Sunset Park, Wilmington, North Carolina valued at $900, the gift of Brother W. L. Carter of Greensboro—object undesignated.
2. A fund of $39,856.17 now being held as an endowment for aged ministers of North Carolina. Upon instruction of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention, the Foundation has during this year paid $2,274.42 of income from this fund to the General Board.
3. A fund of $5,000, from the Noah Biggs estate, as an endowment for Mission work in the Roanoke Association. Income in the amount of $287.82 has been paid to the General Board of the Convention.
4. A fund of $5,000, also from the Noah Biggs estate, as an endowment for the building of churches in the Roanoke Association. Income to the amount of $204.99 has been paid during the year to the General Board of the Convention.
5. A fund of $2,500, also from the Noah Biggs estate, as an endowment for the relief of aged ministers. Income to the amount of $103.60 has been paid to the General Board of the Convention.
6. A fund of $2,500, also from the Noah Biggs estate, as an endowment for ministerial education, income from which to the amount of $107.73 has been paid during the year to the General Board of the Convention.

7. A house and lot in Newland, Avery County, North Carolina, valued at $10,000, for State Missions subject to an annuity of $120 payable in monthly installments of $10 during the life of Brother D. P. Bridges.

8. A fund of $1,270.48, the name of the donor withheld at his request, which has been increased during the year by the amount of $100 contributed by the donor and also by accumulated income in amount of $75.66 which is held in perpetual trust as a memorial, the income to be paid annually to the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage, now known as the Mills Home. At the request of the Orphanage, the income from this fund is, for the present, being accumulated and reinvested.

9. Two lots in Sunset Park, Wilmington, N. C., also the gift of Brother W. L. Carter, to be sold as soon as practicable and the proceeds held for the Orphanage.

10. Two lots in Sunset Park, Wilmington, N. C., also the gift of Brother W. L. Carter to be sold as soon as practicable and the proceeds held for the Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, N. C.

11. A remainder interest in the Susan A. Hurdle Farm in Edgecombe County, North Carolina, subject to the life estate of Brother E. J. Hurdle, the value of which remainder is carried on the books of the Foundation at $10,852.40.

12. A fund of $4,474.62 is now held by the Foundation as agent for the Treasurer of the Denmark Loan Fund of Wake Forest College.

13. A fund now amounting to $789.59 is held and invested, the income from which is to be used for ministerial students at Boiling Springs Junior College. Although mention was made of this fund in the last annual report, the fund, originally $761, was received during the past fiscal year (since Oct. 31, 1928) from the Gaston County Baptist Association. It is understood that this fund will likely be increased as time goes on. Income available for distribution now on hand in this fund is $28.59.

14. During the year an estate of $7,700 left to the Foundation by the late G. H. Church was received, which fund is held and the income is to be used as follows: one-half of the net income annually to the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage, and the other half of the net income annually to the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

A summary of the fourteen trusts shows that during the year the Foundation has distributed $2,978.56 of income and now has $479.67 of income on hand for distribution.

At the close of the last fiscal year, October 31, 1928, the Foundation reported that it had received notice of the execution of 45 wills and 7 trust agreements covering estates of the estimated value of $1,037,000 of gifts in prospect, which together with the $82,783.92 made a grand total of $1,119,783.92 of gifts in hand and in prospect.

During the fiscal year ending October 31, 1929, we have received notice of the execution of two wills and one trust agreement under which the Mills Home (formerly Thomasville Baptist Orphanage) is to receive property of the estimated value of $1,000, Wake Forest College $11,500, for causes of the Oakboro Baptist Church $6,000, and for Mission work of the Baptist Denomination $1,000, a total of $19,500, making a grand total of $1,056,000 of gifts in prospect, which together with the $95,125.73 makes a total of $1,151,625.73 of gifts in hand and in prospect.

The North Carolina Baptist Foundation has been functioning nine years during which time it has distributed $10,365 of principal and $21,595.01 of income among our Baptist objects, institutions and agencies and has $479.67 of income still to be distributed, making a grand total of $31,960.01 distributed.

Upon recommendation of the Directors of the Foundation at its last annual meeting in November, 1928, arrangements were made through the General Board of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention for a Field Representative of the Foundation to be placed in the field to work on a part time basis in behalf of the Foundation. I. M. Mercer was selected for this position and from January 1, 1929, until September 1 of this year he has represented the Foundation throughout the State, working for the Foundation as well as for the Centennial Campaign. Compensation for Dr. Mercers' services in behalf of the Foundation was arranged through the General Board.

During the eight months that Dr. Mercer was employed on behalf of the Foundation he traveled through all sections of the State, presenting the cause and advantages of the Foundation to Baptist people and organizations, holding numerous personal interviews with Baptist laymen, Baptist lawyers and Baptist ministers over the State, as well as speaking on a large number of occasions at Baptist meetings and gatherings in behalf of the work and opportunity of the Foundation. While the results of Dr. Mercer's activities in behalf of the Foundation cannot be realized at this time, it is believed that his efforts will be far-reaching and will prove most beneficial and valuable to the Foundation's purposes and Baptist causes generally in the future. Dr. Mercer, on September the first, 1929, resigned as Field Representative of the Foundation, on account of having been offered a position on the faculty of Meredith College, and the Foundation is now without such representative and worker.

In the opinion of the Directors of the Foundation it is highly advisable that some provision be made whereby a representative of the Foundation can be employed, such as an Executive Secretary, who can take the field in behalf of the Foundation and prosecute its purposes and possibilities to proper advantage. It would be preferable if such field representative or executive secretary could be employed on a full time basis and have in charge the actual handling of the details of the Foundation's activities in connection with soliciting donations, bequests and trust estates for the Foundation's objects.

During the past fiscal year a series of six booklets setting forth the objects and purposes and advantages of the Foundation were published and each of such series of six booklets were circulated throughout the State to a mailing list of one thousand Baptists in the State, who, it was thought would be interested in and assist in furthering the Foundation's objects. The cost of the publication and circulation of these booklets was taken care of by the General Board of the Convention through its General Secretary, Charles E. Maddry. In addition, large numbers of these booklets were distributed among Baptists in North Carolina by Dr. Mercer as Field Representative.

All of which is respectfully submitted to the General Board of the Baptist State Convention for its consideration.

The Baptist Book Shop

The Baptist Book Shop is more and more filling a need in the life of our people. North Carolina Baptists are buying and reading more books every year. The Sunday School Board classes North Carolina as one of the best book states in the South, in the sense that our people are buying a great many books. Since November 1, 1928, the Book Shop has paid dividends in the sum of $4,923.82. One-half of this amount goes to the Sunday School Board and one-half to our State Mission work.

We give herewith the report of the Manager of the Book Shop:

REPORT BAPTIST BOOK SHOP

MRS. ROGER P. MARSHALL, Manager

The Baptist Book Shop, Raleigh, N. C., which is owned jointly by the General Board of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention and the Baptist Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, Nashville, Tenn., closed its year ending April 30, 1929, with net sales amounting to $38,342.83. The net worth of the business was increased during the year by $4,457.58, which was the profit for the current year.

The Book Shop is operating on a paying basis. From November 1, 1928, to November 1, 1929, a total of $4,923.82 profit was paid the two Boards, the sum being divided equally.

We handle all supplies for church, Sunday school, and B. Y. P. U., except quarterlies and periodicals, which should be ordered from Nashville. Our stock of books consists of study course books for the Sunday school, B. Y. P. U., and mission study books for each department of the W. M. S., as well as the best books of current religious thought from all publishers; also children's books and books of a general nature; and a large stock of Bibles. By means of the catalogues at our disposal, we can secure any book in print on short notice.

We are anxious to render a distinctive book store service to the Baptists of North Carolina. We appreciate your coöperation and business during the past year and trust we may merit your continued patronage and support. A denominational investment is made when our store is patronized, as one-half the profit from the business is turned into State Mission channels, while the other half goes into the extension work of the Baptist Sunday School Board, joint owner.

Catalogue will be sent free on request.

The Indian Work in North Carolina

The Convention one year ago instructed us to take over the financial obligations incurred by the Home Board in support of the Indian work in North Carolina, if during the year the Home Board found it necessary to give up the work. The Home Board requested our Board to assume one-half of the expenses of this work beginning with September 1. We had no funds provided in our budget this year for this work hence we proposed to the Home Board that if they would carry this work until January 1, we would ask the Convention to assume the full support of this work beginning with the first of January, 1930. We believe that North Carolina Baptists should relieve the Home Board of the financial obligation of all mission work in North Carolina. We recommend therefore that our General Board be instructed to assume the financial support and direction of the Mission work the Home Board has been doing among the Cherokees in Swain county, and among the Indians of Robeson and Hoke counties. It will mean an added State Mission expense of $2,800. At Pembroke the Home Board has Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lunsford, and at Cherokee, they have Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Lee. These are faithful Christian Missionaries and we welcome them into the fellowship of the North Carolina brotherhood.

Total	$1,103,168

For the payment of these debts we have Centennial pledges amounting to $633,186.44. It will thus be seen that the Convention is making substantial and gratifying progress in the payment of its debts. If our people will pay these pledges made to the Centennial Fund, and we press the matter vigorously for one year longer, the major portion of the debts underwritten by the Convention itself will be paid. We want to repeat and emphasize with all the earnestness possible that the debts as listed above are Convention obligations. They are not the debts of the schools, but are the solemn and binding obligations of the Convention itself. If every one of these schools were to close tomorrow, the Convention would still owe these debts and would have them to pay. The emphasis should be put upon the fact that they are Convention obligations and all of our work, everything to which we have set our hands as a denomination, is vitally effected, circumscribed and shackled, until these debts are paid.

We are sorry to say that there are other debts and obligations resting upon the schools themselves for which the Convention is not responsible, morally or legally. The schools themselves have made the debts and will have to pay them. At the meeting of the Convention one year ago, we offered an amendment to the Constitution prohibiting any agency or institution of the Convention making any debt binding upon the Convention, without the authority of the Convention itself or its General Board. This amendment was referred to a Committee to report to this Convention. While it is true that no agency or institution of this Convention can legally bind the Convention for any debt made without the express authority given by the Convention, we believe that fact should be written plainly and unmistakably in the organic law of the Convention. Any debts that our institutions may make, must ultimately be paid out of funds given by our people, or out of funds derived from current income or endowment. In this connection we are sorry to say that our detailed report on education will show that the institutions of the Convention as a whole are deeper in debt by $55,782.80 than they were a year ago.

We want to say very earnestly that this is no time to make new obligations unless there is absolute certainty that there will be sufficient income for the current year to meet these obligations. But the supreme and acute problem just ahead of us now is to meet bonds and interest falling due December 1, and February 1. On December 1, we have to meet $73,148 in bonds and interest. On December 8, we must meet notes in two Raleigh banks totalling $58,000. On February 1, we have to meet bonds and interest in the sum of $43,920. Thus it will be seen that between now and February 1, 1930, we must meet $175,068 in bonds, notes and interest. We have in hand at this time, less than $5,000 with which to meet these obligations. We have at least $300,000 due on Centennial pledges. We frankly say to you that the Convention has never in one hundred years faced a more serious and critical hour than this. This money must be in hand on the minute it is due or the whole obligation outstanding against us is due immediately. We want to urge upon this Convention the absolute necessity of finding some solution of this problem before you adjourn this session of the Convention. You must not leave your Board and the General Secretary to meet the crisis just ahead of us without definite and adequate instruction and authority with which to meet this emergency.

XI

A Distressing Problem

We bring for your consideration now possibly the most acute and distressing problem that has claimed the attention and challenged the wisdom of this Convention in one hundred years.

It is the problem of our Christian schools. They all have behind them a glorious record of Kingdom achievement. The first co-operative effort of our fathers when they launched this Convention one hundred years ago, was the founding of a College for the training of young men called of God to the ministry. God was leading and they were building more wisely than they knew. During the ninety-five years of her history Wake Forest has sent out a few more than two thousand preachers and missionaries, to say nothing of the many thousands more to be leaders in all walks of life. Then one by one, the other institutions were born out of the need and life of the denomination through the succeeding years. They have all together made us what we are as a denomination, humanly speaking.

Now in this new day of sharp competition, when from the public treasury and from wealthy individuals, multiplied millions are being poured out for education, our schools must be equipped and endowed or they must die.

Education is costing more and more every year, and those who have to do with the management of schools and colleges tell us that education will be more and more costly as the years come and go.

As a denomination we must sooner or later face this problem and find a solution for it. We cannot go on this way. Every year our schools find it harder and harder to live and make ends meet. Our teachers are shamefully underpaid. Our classrooms are overcrowded, our equipment is wholly inadequate, and we are fast approaching disaster for some of our institutions, unless something is done to arouse the denomination to a sense of the impending peril that threatens us.

What are we going to do about it? One thing we must do! We must come to the solution of these problems with Christlike patience and love for each other. There is a way out and our Saviour will show us the way, if we are willing to follow Him.

For many weeks now we have been praying earnestly that God would lead us in this Convention to such a oneness of purpose and unity of spirit that out of the combined wisdom and sanctified common sense of all of us together, we might find a way to save the Convention itself from the fearful burden of debt that is crushing it and at the same time set machinery in motion that would give relief to at least some of our most imperilled institutions.

Therefore, solely with this aim in view, we have deemed it wise to lay before you the following facts:

It was clearly and distinctly understood when we launched the Centennial Movement that it was to be completed by the end of 1930. We have made all of our plans accordingly. The Convention at Wilmington three years ago, acting upon a Memorial presented by the Woman's Missionary Union, launched the Centennial Movement for one million dollars with which to pay the debt on Meredith College. The plan was modified and enlarged to include the debts on all the schools underwritten by the Convention. The Convention at Durham, two years ago, adopted the enlarged program and set the objective for $1,500,000. As the Convention had not underwritten any debts for Wake Forest and Chowan, they were each given a definite per cent of all we might raise,—Wake Forest 16 2-3 per cent and Chowan .01 2-3 per cent. This agreement has been faithfully and honestly kept. To induce the friends of Wake Forest to get behind the movement with loyalty and enthusiasm, there was a tacit and well understood gentlemen's agreement that the Centennial Campaign would end December 31, 1930, and that all who had anything to do with making and directing the future programs of the Baptist State Convention would do all within their power to give Wake Forest right of way at the close of our present Campaign to go to her friends for a great centennial fund of not less than one million dollars for equipment and enlargement. Realizing fully the critical and imperative need of our senior college for such a fund, your General Secretary, together with the Committee appointed by the General Board for the launching of the Centennial Campaign, gave every assurance to the leaders of the Wake Forest Alumni that we would all stand together for such a program. The agreement was unofficial and was never reduced to writing, but it was nevertheless explicit and fully understood and accepted by all concerned. Your General Secretary would call you to witness that on many occasions within the past three years, in Conference, from pulpit and platform and at Associational meetings, he has repeatedly stressed this thought and reiterated this agreement.

At the December meeting of the General Board last year President R. L. Moore presented a request that Mars Hill Junior College be allowed to launch a Campaign during 1930 for $75,000 for endowment, so that she might be able to meet the requirements and remain a member of the Southern Association of Junior Colleges. The Board decided it would be detrimental to the interests of the Centennial Campaign for the payment of the debts on our schools to undertake another Campaign for Mars Hill at the time specified. A Committee of three was appointed to go to Mars Hill and confer with President Moore and see if some other expedient could not be devised whereby Mars Hill would be given relief and at the same time defer her proposed campaign for endowment until a later time. The General Secretary was made Chairman of the Committee, and as it was impossible to get the whole Committee together he made a trip to Mars Hill early in the present year and conferred with President Moore and Vice President Elliott. To save Mars Hill from the necessity of putting on the proposed Campaign, the General Secretary agreed to recommend to the General Board at the June meeting, that Mars Hill be given an additional sum of one thousand dollars for the session of 1929-1930 to supplement her income so that she could meet the requirements of the Southern Association as to income, until such time as the proposed Campaign could be launched and successfully carried through. The General Board adopted the recommendation of the General Secretary and Mars Hill's appropriation was thus increased for this session. We have information now that Mars Hill Junior College is making plans for the launching of a campaign for $250,000 for enlargement, equipment and endowment, and that this Convention will be asked to pass upon the matter and give Mars Hill right of way for her enlarged campaign for equipment and endowment.

During the past summer we had some correspondence with President Francis P. Gaines of Wake Forest with reference to the proposed Campaign of Wake Forest for one million dollars. Dr. Gaines expressed himself as being anxious in every way to keep faith with all agreements made with reference to the Centennial Campaign now in progress, but it was agreed between us that it might be wise to announce to the friends of Wake Forest that such a Campaign as had been agreed upon two years ago would be put on at the end of 1930. This announcement was, therefore, made by President Gaines.

Now, we have deemed it wise to take the time of the Convention to recite in detail these matters set forth above, because we see the danger, just at this time, of misunderstandings and rivalries creeping in that will defeat the successful completion of our present Campaign to save the honor and credit of the Convention, and will, at the same time, defeat the aims and hopes of all of our institutions in securing the funds they so sorely need for equipment and enlargement.

These matters, as we all know, are being agitated and debated among us. We are brethren in Christ and we all love this Convention and its work, and are loyal to all of our institutions. There is no problem among Baptists that may not be solved if it is approached with frankness and good will, in the love and spirit of the Lord Jesus. This Convention can find a way out that will be acceptable to all concerned, if we will approach the matter in the spirit of the blessed and lowly Nazarene.

Therefore we bring you these matters and ask that a large and representative Committee be appointed to hear all concerned and bring in a report of their findings and recommendations as a special order for Wednesday afternoon.

New Orleans Baptist Bible Institute

You will remember that the Southern Baptist Convention at its last session authorized the Baptist Bible Institute of New Orleans to make an emergency appeal to the Baptists of the South for a special offering of $148,000 with which to pay off some bonds and interest long past due. At the semi-annual meeting of your General Board, the General Secretary was authorized and instructed to select one Sunday, late in the fall, after the meeting of the Baptist State Convention, and send out the appeal for a free-will special offering for this emergency. We have selected Sunday, December 22, as the day upon which our people will be asked to make their offering. We bring the matter now to the Convention for your approval. We ask for definite instruction upon this matter.

New Southwide Financial Plan

At the last meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention a new financial plan for our Southwide agencies and boards was adopted. Hereafter, instead of a percentage ratio, fixed for each object, all Southwide funds will be sent to the Executive Committee at Nashville, and distribution will be made to the budgets of each Board and agency of the Southern Baptist Convention according to a fixed lump sum as agreed upon before hand between the Executive Committee and the Southwide agencies. At the June meeting of your General Board the matter was gone into thoroughly and the new plan was adopted. We bring this matter to you for information as required by the Constitution of the Convention.

We recommend that the Coöperative Program receipts for 1930 be divided between State and Southwide objects on the basis of 50-50 and that all Southwide funds be sent to the Executive Committee at Nashville for distribution according to the requirement of the new plan.

We recommend that the 50 per cent of Coöperative funds for our North Carolina work be divided as follows:

State Missions	23 cents
Education	23 cents
Hospital	4 cents

Recommendations

Summing up our Report, we would make the following recommendations:

1. That the General Board be instructed to make a careful survey of religious needs and conditions at every industrial center in North Carolina and present to the next Convention a workable and comprehensive plan and program of State Mission work for the future.

2. That the General Board be instructed to have the first volume of our Baptist History by G. W. Paschal published by the meeting of our Centennial Convention next year, provided that sufficient subscriptions are received in advance to pay for the book.

3. That the General Board be instructed to take over all Indian Mission work now being done by the Home Board in North Carolina, beginning with January 1, 1930.

4. That the future of the Evangelistic Department be left to the judgment and wisdom of the General Board.

5. That a Committee of fifteen be appointed to consider the whole matter of the Centennial Campaign,—finishing the Campaign, provision for interest and bonds falling due in the immediate future, together with all other matters pertaining to the debts of the Convention.

6. That the question of future Campaigns for Wake Forest and Mars Hill be referred to Special Committees who shall report to the Convention as a special order for Wednesday afternoon.

J. POWELL TUCKER, Chairman,

J. HENRY HIGHSMITH,

MRS. J. WILBUR BUNN,

EXPLANATIONS

We are under obligations to the clerks of the various Associations for furnishing us with the statistical information that follows. This would have been impossible without their coöperation.

Names of churches having preaching every Sunday are printed in SMALL CAPS; those having preaching two or three Sundays are printed in italics.

Churches or single items marked thus (*) have the latest available data, in most cases for 1928.

We earnestly urge upon the pastors to encourage their church clerks and treasurers to keep accurate and complete records of the work of their churches and furnish this to the Associational clerk, who in turn passes this on to us and we pass it on to the great stream of Baptist history of the world. It is highly important that we get complete and accurate information.

WALTER M. GILMORE, Statistical Secretary.

STATISTICAL SUMMARY

The year 1929 was a good average year for the Baptists of North Carolina. They made normal progress numerically but did not do quite so well financially as the year before. Their spiritual progress, of course cannot be tabulated.

Two new Associations have been added during the past year, the Blue Ridge, coming out from the Green River, and the Neuse-Atlantic dividing, making a total now of 67 Associations in this State. We succeeded in getting statistical data from all of them except the South Mountain, and so we are using the 1928 figures for that Association.

NUMBERS

According to the reports sent up to the 1929 associational meetings, which began the middle of July and continued till the middle of November, there are 2,307 white Baptist churches in the State with a membership of 397,026, which is an increase of 26 churches and 10,621 members over 1928.

BAPTISMS

During the year 17,052 were baptized into the fellowship of 1,622 of the 2,307 churches. In other words, 661 churches did not receive a single member by baptism during the entire year.

FINANCES

Total gifts for denominational enterprises amount to $795,797.80; for local church expenses, $3,018,802.21; making a grand total of $3,814,600.01.

PER CAPITA

The average per capita gift for denominational objects was $2; for all contributions, $9.60. The Piedmont Association led in per capita gifts for denominational objects with $5.43; the Pilot Mountain Association coming second with $4.67 per capita. The Mount Zion Association led in per capita gifts for all objects with $20.55, and the Pilot Mountain Association came second with $18.68. A total of 1,753 churches made some contribution to the objects fostered by the denomination outside of local expenses, while 526 churches took no part in this phase of the work.

ASSOCIATIONS LEADING

Pilot Mountain still has the largest number of churches in it, 71, while the Chowan and the Roanoke come next with 63 churches each. Mt. Zion leads in membership, 15,509, West Chowan coming next with 14,591 and Pilot Mountain with 13,666. Mt. Zion lead in the number of baptisms, 692, West Chowan reporting 653 and Kings Mountain, 621. Pilot Mountain also has the largest number of Sunday schools, 69, and the Roanoke and the Chowan each have 62. However, Mt. Zion leads in Sunday school enrollment with 14,588, Pilot Mountain coming second with 14,016. The Gaston County Association leads in number of B. Y. P. U. organizations, 120, with the Mt. Zion a close second, 115. These two Associations also lead in B. Y. P. U. enrollment, having 2,760 and 2,695 respectively. The West Chowan leads in W. M. U. organizations, 166, with an enrollment of 3,700; the Chowan and Roanoke coming next with 142 organizations each with an enrollment of 3,752 and 3,310 respectively.

The Pilot Mountain takes first place this year in the amount of contributions for denominational objects; the Piedmont taking second place. However, the Mt. Zion leads in total contributions to local expenses, $285,082.71, and also in the grand total to all objects, $318,845.52; while the Pilot Mountain comes second in both of these items with $189,608 and $253,452.68 respectively.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS

There are now 2,185 Sunday schools with an enrollment of 339,900, a net increase of 8,172. In addition to these regular Sunday schools in Baptist churches there were reported 10 union Sunday schools with an enrollment of 739, making a total of 340,639. At present there are 126 Standard Sunday schools in the State. During the past year 7,467 Normal and 3,856 Administration awards were given for the study of books in the Sunday school training courses.

B. Y. P. U.

The total number of Baptist Young Peoples' Unions in the State is 2,293, with a membership of 52,789. This is an increase in organizations over 1928, of 168, and an increase in membership of 3,914. The total number of study course awards given during the past year was 16,084. There are 531 standard Unions.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

For the year 1928, the Woman's Missionary Union had 2,692 organizations, of which 1,661 were young people's societies. This was the Ruby Anniversary year and resulted in increasing the membership forty per cent over the membership of 1927, bringing the number now reported to 47,272. The Standard of Excellence record shows 272 societies reaching A-1, while 728 others reported making a grade on the Standard. The Piedmont Association led the State in Standard reports. The Liberty Association won the banner for the best all-round work; the Young People's banner was awarded to the Pilot Mountain Association. Mission study classes reported this year totaled 684; certificates awarded, 5,342; seals awarded, 10,589. Contributions for the year were the largest in the history of the Union, amounting to $345,199.99.

EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

The total enrollment in the three standard colleges in the State, the four junior colleges and the Orphanage school, including summer schools, for the session 1928-1929, was 3,978. Of this number 2,190 were college students; 604 high school and 410 elementary. The summer school enrollment was 774. There were 185 ministerial students. There were 231 officers and teachers.

The total value of plant and equipment of these institutions is $3,975,599.38. Their productive endowment amounts to $3,408,445.87. The expense of administration, instruction and operation for the past year was $930,190.69. Besides these Baptist schools in this State, there are four South-wide seminaries and training schools with an enrollment of 1,325 students. The value of equipment at these institutions is $3,327,000, and they have an endowment of $2,657,996.95. In these institutions there are enrolled from North Carolina 54.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

Dr. Charles E. Maddry,
General Secretary North Carolina Baptist State Convention, Raleigh, North Carolina.

Dear Sir:

We submit herewith a Summary of our detailed report on the audit of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, Raleigh, North Carolina, for the twelve months ended December 31, 1929.

Our detailed report will be submitted to you as soon as we have been able to hear from all the verifications mailed out, and if any differences appear, they will be covered in our report.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

Our examination has been in detail and consisted of a verification of all Cash Disbursements as supported by vouchers issued in the regular course of business. We reconciled the vouchers issued during the year with those paid by the Treasurer, and we also reconciled the checks issued by him in payment of vouchers with the charges to his account by the bank. We also traced all Cash Receipts into the banks. We did not check the letters transmitting money to the Treasurer because all Cash Receipts are published in the Biblical Recorder every three months. We have checked these published statements, and from our investigation they are correct. At the close of our audit all paid vouchers were turned over to Miss Ivey, the bookkeeper, and the Treasurer has no vouchers in his possession except those paid by him in 1930.

We found the books in good shape and well and accurately kept. No irregularities were disclosed during the course of our audit.

SUMMARY OF FUNDS BALANCES

In the several Exhibits in our report, the Cash Receipts and Disbursements are set out in detail. The following is a Summary of the Cash Balances in each Fund at December 31, 1929:

	Balances
	Overdrafts and
	Cash on Hand
GENERAL FUND—Borrowed Money
Account—Balance	$14,000.00
STATE MISSIONS FUND:
Regular Account—Overdrawn	$20,239.28
Church Building Account—Balance.....	1,601.04

FOREIGN MISSIONS FUND—Balance.....	$24,187.84
HOME MISSIONS FUND—Balance.....	5,297.95
N. C. EDUCATION FUND—Balance.....	4,143.32
SOUTHERN EDUCATION FUND—Balance.....	4,200.70
N. C. HOSPITALS FUND—Balance.....	1,938.27
NEW ORLEANS HOSPITAL FUND—Balance.....	460.90
MINISTERS' RELIEF FUND—Balance.....	1,896.21
NET CASH BALANCES.....		$37,486.95
Totals	$57,726.23	$57,726.23

We examined the method of distributing the General Fund for the year and found that it was distributed as follows:

STATE OBJECTS:

Christian Education	23	%
State Missions	23	%
Hospitals	4	%
			50%

SOUTHWIDE OBJECTS:

Foreign Missions	25	%
Home Missions	11.25	%
Ministers' Relief	4.50	%
New Orleans Hospital.....	1	%
Seminaries and Board of Education.....	8.25	%	50%
Total			100%

We also inquired into the bonds of the Bookkeeper and Treasurer and found them bonded for $10,000 and $30,000 respectively.

Our examination was confined strictly to Cash Transactions. We have not attempted to prepare a Balance Sheet of the Assets and Liabilities. The Total Receipts for the year were as follows:

Funds paid by Churches to the Convention....	$430,594.13
Funds Remitted Direct.....	7,122.92
Special Funds	16,864.03
Total		$454,581.08

The reason the Treasurer's report shows just a little more cash on hand than is shown on this report is because the Convention has issued vouchers which have not reached the Treasurer for payment. These vouchers will be shown in detail in our detailed report.

As compared with last year, the Cash received in 1929 was $59,339.60 less than the amount received in 1928.

Respectfully submitted,

A. T. ALLEN & Co.

Certified Public Accounts.

SEC. 4. The General Secretary of the Convention shall have administrative supervision of the work of Missions, Education, Benevolences, and all other general training activities of the Convention. He shall employ a reputable auditor or firm of auditors each year to make a complete audit of the books and accounts of the treasurer and book-keeping department and report to the Executive Committee of the General Board, which shall receive and pass upon said report and have it published in the minutes of the Convention and in the Biblical Recorder or the then recognized denominational organ.

Notice of such contemplated action and hearing by the Convention may be given by the Executive Committee of the Convention.

SEC. 2. The Trustees of all institutions, benevolent, educational or otherwise under the control of the Convention shall be elected by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina and shall hold office for the term to which elected, unless sooner terminated. When any vacancy shall occur in any Board of any such institution a nominating committee elected by the Convention shall nominate to the Convention Baptists to fill such vacancy. The Trustees of all institutions owned and supported by the Convention shall make annual report to the nominating committee of any vacancies. Each Board shall have the right to make any suggestion to the nominating committee it may see fit regarding such nominations, and all nominations made by the committee shall be passed upon by the Convention. The Convention shall have the right to adopt the report of the nominating committee and elect the trustees thus nominated, or to substitute the name of other trustee or trustees in lieu thereof, or recommit said report for further consideration as the case may be.

REPORT ON BIBLICAL RECORDER

In this report we shall state three propositions and endeavor to prove their truth. If we succeed, we maintain that the paper holds an important place in the life of the Convention, and should have the loyal support of our churches. The propositions are these:

First—We need a religious paper.

Second—We need a denominational paper.

Third—We need a state denominational paper.

Let us take up the first proposition. Why do we need a religious paper? Almost all the secular papers carry some religious news. They are glad to report religious meetings, such as this Convention, our associations, and evangelistic meetings. Most of our dailies, and some of the weeklies, announce the services to be held in the several churches in their respective communities, and some of the dailies report the Sunday services in their Monday issues. Some of them have columns set apart in their Sunday issues for the discussion of religious subjects. However, many of our secular papers, especially the metropolitan magazines, in undertaking to interpret religion, often misrepresent it. For this reason religious papers are needed to give a true interpretation of religion, and to counteract the evil influence of the "magazine theologians."

Besides religious news and discussions our large dailies have a vast amount of reading matter. This is usually prepared in attractive style. It is "snappy," has "pep," and grips the attention of the reader. That is another reason we need a distinctively religious paper. There is much in even the best conducted secular paper that is vicious matter which ought never to enter the home. There are accounts of murders, robberies, banditry, electrocutions, outrages, divorces, and immoralities of every kind, with screaming headlines to attract attention. Many editors would prefer not to feature these things that offend decency, but they must cater to the public and give people what they want. This is news and it is the business of the secular papers to publish the news, whatever the effect upon the reader may be.

Here is the difference between the secular and the religious paper. It is not the function of the religious paper to publish all the so-called news. It is its duty to give the people what they need rather than what they want. The editor of a religious paper should scan with closest scrutiny what is submitted for publication. Even when he exercises greatest care an article sometimes finds its way into the columns which should never be admitted. Such an occurrence every conscientious editor regrets more than any of his readers.

We do not mean that everything in a religious paper should be strictly religious. Current news should be given, civic and even political matters discussed in a non-partisan spirit if they involve a moral issue. But while everything that appears in a religious paper need not be in the strict sense religious, there should nothing appear in its columns which is irreverent or irrelevant.

Now let us come to the second proposition. We need a denominational paper. If a secular paper were to give half its space to religious matter, and if there were not a vicious or demoralizing line in it, it could not take the place of the denominational paper.

In the first place, each denomination has its distinctive doctrines, its peculiar interpretations of the Word of God. The discussion of these secretarian matters would be inappropriate in a secular paper. But recently we read a criticism of President Hoover by a Roman Catholic priest because the President sent a message of congratulation to the Lutheran Synod. The priest thought that message misrepresented the Roman Catholic Church. A secular paper that attempted to defend the doctrine of any particular sect would find itself in hot water all the time.

In the second place, we need a denominational paper to keep our people informed as to the work of the denomination. If a secular paper were to undertake to do that, all denominations would demand an equal share of its space, and the secular paper would become a sort of religious hybrid. There would not be sufficient room for secular news—especially for politics and athletics—and it could give its readers only a spineless view of religion.

Our third proposition is, we need a state denominational paper. Every state has its peculiar conditions which a Southwide paper cannot meet. There is not a regular Baptist paper in any state in the South which is not loyal to all our Southwide interests. These papers give their columns gladly to those in charge of our Southwide agencies. The Southern Convention can reach a greater number of its constituents through the combined circulation of these papers than through any general publication that it sends out. And yet many of these general publications come in direct competition with the state denominational papers. The departmental papers sent out by the Sunday School Board can never take the place of the state paper. The very fact that they are departmental, and that many of our young people read them to the neglect of the state paper, is causing multitudes of young people to become lopsided in their interest and benevolences. If they can read both, all well and good. But if they can take and read but one, it should certainly be their state denominational paper, which stands for every department of our work.

If these three propositions are true, the Biblical Recorder has a strong claim on the denomination for support.

LIVINGSTON JOHNSON, Editor.

J. S. FARMER, Business Manager.

The convention heard B. K. Mason discuss the "Budget Plan" for the circulation of the Biblical Recorder.

The following motion was made by G. E. Lineberry, and passed:

That, an advisory board of seven or ten be appointed by this convention to aid the Biblical Recorder directors and officials in placing the paper in every Baptist home in the state, and in other ways make the paper a greater contributing factor to the growth and progress in denominational life.

G. T. Lumpkin, superintendent of the Baptist Hospital, presented his report (see General Board's report, page 92 f.), which was adopted after discussion by Brother Lumpkin.

A quartet from the University of North Carolina sang "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," and the choir sang Mozart's "Gloria."

John R. Jester, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Winston-Salem, was introduced to preach the convention sermon. He invited J. A. Campbell to lead in prayer. Basing his message on Ephesians 3:14-19, Brother Jester preached on the topic, "Reality in Christ."

One verse of "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name" was sung and the convention on motion adjourned after prayer by J. M. Hilliard.

J. R. Jester, vice-president, took the chair when President Turner was called home temporarily.

J. M. Broughton, chairman, presented the report of the special committee on bonded indebtedness, as follows:

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON BONDED INDEBTEDNESS OF CONVENTION

The General Board of the Convention at its meeting in July, 1930, appointed the undersigned Committee to study the whole situation with reference to the bonded indebtedness of the Convention and to make a report with recommendations to the Convention. The Committee after careful inquiry and earnest consideration, begs leave to report as follows:

I. HOW THE INDEBTEDNESS WAS INCURRED

(1) Meredith College. At the Winston-Salem Convention in 1922 the Convention approved the action of the Meredith Trustees in selecting a new site for Meredith College (Page 22 of Minutes), and appointed a Committee of seven to coöperate with a like Committee from the Board of Trustees of Meredith College to consider ways and means of building greater Meredith. (Minutes, p. 43.) This Committee reported at the 1923 Convention at Gastonia (1923 Minutes, p. 34). In substance, the Committee estimated the cost of new Meredith at one million dollars and recommended that the new college be built, the money to be raised by selling the old site, at not less than $250,000.00, the remaining $750,000.00 to be raised by selling Meredith College Bonds in the amount of $750,000.00, to be issued in the name of and upon the credit of the Convention, and to be guaranteed by a mortgage on the College property. This report was signed by all seven of the Meredith College Advisory Committee of the Convention, composed of the following: J. R. Jester, L. R. Varsar, O. Max Gardner, E. F. Watson, A. Paul Bagby, O. Joe Howard and Gilbert T. Stephenson. It was also signed by all seven of the Committee from the Board of Trustees of Meredith College as follows: George T. Watkins, R. H. Rigsbee, J. D. Boushall, J. Y. Joyner, Livingston Johnson, W. N. Jones and Z. M. Caveness.

The minutes disclose that following this report there was a motion by T. J. Taylor that it be adopted. After discussion by President Charles E. Brewer and Gilbert T. Stephenson the report was unanimously adopted. The Convention thereupon arose and sang "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow." Then followed the adoption of a motion by Stephen McIntyre authorizing the Trustees of the Convention to borrow $750,000.00 for rebuilding Meredith, by issuing and selling bonds in that amount, in the name of the Convention.

Pursuant to this action of this Convention, the $750,000.00 of Meredith College Bonds, issued in the name of the Convention, were sold by the Meredith College Bond Commission appointed by the Convention. To guarantee the Convention against loss in connection with the issuance of these bonds, the Trustees of Meredith College gave a mortgage against the property, which mortgage is still existing. Of the original bond issue of $750,000.00, there is now outstanding and unpaid the sum of $450,000.00, coming due at the rate of $50,000.00 per year.

In building the new Meredith College, the Trustees of the College found it necessary to spend more than the million dollars originally estimated and authorized. This excess of cost amounted to something over $250,000.00. To meet this additional cost, the Trustees of the Convention, by authority of a resolution adopted at a joint meeting of the Boards of Missions and Education, adopted June 15, 1926, issued in the name of the Convention additional Meredith College Bonds in the amount of $275,000.00. This joint action of the two Boards was taken under the authority of the Upchurch Resolution adopted by the Convention at its 1925 session at Charlotte. (1925 Minutes, page 35.)

This action of the joint Boards was reported to the 1926 Convention at Wilmington. It is contained in the report of the Board of Education submitted by R. T. Vann and M. A. Huggins, Corresponding Secretaries.

From the foregoing, it will be seen that upon authority from the Convention, there was issued in the name of the Convention, Meredith College Bonds in the aggregate amount of $1,025,000.00.

(2) Other Bonded Indebtedness. The Convention did not stop with the Meredith Bond action. At the same Convention that authorized the original $750,000.00 of Meredith bonds, there was adopted a report authorizing the Trustees of the Convention to pledge the credit of the Convention to the extent of $50,000.00 for the benefits of a building program at Mars Hill College. This report was signed by Thomas L. Johnson, Chairman, R. J. Bateman, C. H. Durham, J. Ben Eller, T. L. Sasser, E. E. Bomar and J. Henry Highsmith. (1923 Minutes, page 49.)

It will be seen from the foregoing that the 1923 Convention authorized the issuance of bonds in the name of and upon the credit of the Convention in the total amount of $800,000.00 of bonded indebtedness.

At the Raleigh Convention in 1924, the report of the Board of Education was adopted carrying with it the recommendation that the Convention authorize the pledging of the credit of the Convention to the extent of $100,000.00 for the payment of building debts at Mars Hill, Buie's Creek, Wingate, Boiling Springs and Liberty-Piedmont. Notes were accordingly issued in the name of the Convention to this extent, those adding another $100,000.00 to the debt of the Convention.

In the Charlotte Convention of 1925, upon recommendation of the Board of Education (1925 Minutes, page 106), the Convention adopted a resolution authorizing the pledge of its credit to J. A. Campbell to the extent of $28,000.00 for his equity in Campbell College. This ran the total of authorized bonded indebtedness of the Convention to $928,000.00.

It was following this Convention and under authority of the Up-church resolution that the joint Boards of Education and Missions authorized the issuance of the additional $275,000.00 of Meredith Bonds, hereinbefore referred to. It will thus be seen that by authority and instructions given by the Baptist State Convention the following sums were borrowed on the honor and credit of the Baptist State Convention:

Meredith Bonds	$ 750,000.00
Mars Hill Bonds	50,000.00
Bonds for several Jr. Colleges	100,000.00
Notes, J. A. Campbell	28,000.00
Meredith, Second Bond Issue	275,000.00
Total	$1,203,000.00

The 1926 Convention at Wilmington did not authorize any further bonds or pledge of credit by the Convention. For this we may be truly thankful. However, the General Board created by the Wilmington Convention and vested with all the power of the Convention between sessions, quickly found itself confronted with a critical situation on account of the bonded indebtedness already outstanding. Whereas the total receipts for Education, Missions and benevolences had averaged a little over a million dollars per year for the five year period of the Seventy-Five Million Campaign, 1919-1924, the receipts for 1925 for all purposes dropped to below $500,000.00. During 1927 the problem of meeting the heavy burden of interest on the outstanding bonded indebtedness, and also the instalments of principal falling due, was such that it was deemed necessary to do some refinancing. This was done by borrowing through the Whitney Central Trust & Savings Bank of New Orleans, the sum of $550,000.00 payable over a period of eight years. Out of the proceeds of this loan there was paid off in full the second issue of Meredith bonds in the amount of $275,000.00; and there was also paid off the bank indebtedness that has been incurred in meeting the payments of interest on the bonded indebtedness. This refinancing by the General Board was expressly approved by the adoption of a resolution offered by R. N. Simms at the Durham Convention in 1927. (1927 Minutes, page 40. See also report of Trustees of the Convention, 1927 Minutes, page 33.)

It should, of course, be borne in mind that the interest alone on our bonded indebtedness has exceeded $70,000.00 per year. Over $350,000.00 has been paid out in interest; and the cost of financing and refinancing has amounted to a total of approximately $100,000.00.

Our General Secretary, Dr. Charles E. Maddry, since the responsibility of dealing with our debt situation was entrusted to him and the General Board by action of the Wilmington Convention of 1926, has met the situation with courage and ability. Faced constantly with almost insuperable financial problems, he has shown such remarkable capacity and leadership as to win for him the admiration of our people and the respect of the business and financial interests of the state. He deserves and has the grateful thanks of the Baptists of North Carolina.

The Committee finds that the records respecting the bonded indebtedness are accurately and scrupulously kept, and are audited annually by competent certified public accountants.

Such is the history of the bonded indebtedness of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina. It will be seen that this bonded indebtedness relates to all of the educational institutions under the Convention system except Wake Forest and Chowan Colleges. Wake Forest and Chowan have no bonded indebtedness of any kind whatsoever.

THE PRESENT STATUS OF OUR BONDED INDEBTEDNESS

The present bonded indebtedness of the Convention is as follows:

Meredith, Original Bond Issue	$ 450,000.00
Whitney Trust Loan	464,000.00
Boiling Springs Bonds	24,000.00
J. A. Campbell, note	20,000.00
Wingate note	9,000.00
Mars Hill notes	5,800.00
Loans—Two Raleigh banks	76,500.00
Total	$1,049,300.00

The payments on this indebtedness now due or falling due within the next few months, are as follows: Due the Banks of Raleigh and immediately payable, $76,500.00; due Bitting & Company of St. Louis, Mo., December 1, 1930, on original Meredith Bond Issue, secured by mortgage on all of the Meredith property, $62,500.00; due Whitney Central Trust & Savings Bank of New Orleans, on February 1, 1931, $69,800.00, including the Mars Hill notes.

The bonded indebtedness listed in this report is not only the moral obligation of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina, it is a legal, valid and binding obligation. If the Baptist State Convention, which is a body corporate, should default in the payment of any installment of the indebtedness as it becomes due, it would be subjected to the same fate of any other corporate body which fails to meet its obligation, to-wit, judgment, receivership or bankruptcy. In addition to this, in view of the fact that the property of Meredith College, Wingate, Mars Hill and Boiling Springs are respectively covered by mortgage, default in payment would subject these properties to sale under mortgage.

In the face of these facts, the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina has only two alternatives:

- (1) To pay these debts as they become due;
- (2) To confess inability or unwillingness to pay and accept the consequences of receivership and foreclosure.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Your Committee makes the following recommendations:

(1) That, without reference to whether it was wise or unwise to have incurred this indebtedness, we recognize the fact that the indebtedness exists and constitutes a binding and valid obligation on the Convention; and further, that we address ourselves with all our energy and with no thought of surrender or failure, to the task of paying this indebtedness as it becomes due;

(2) As a method of meeting these obligations and dealing with this debt situation, we make the following suggestions or recommendations:

(a) That we set aside the week of December 7-14, 1930, inclusive, as "Special Pay Up Week," calling upon all of our people to make recognition of the grave situation that confronts us and in the spirit of sacrifice to pay up their Centennial pledges.

(b) That in view of the imminent peril of foreclosure on account of the payment of $62,500.00 due on the original Meredith College Bonds on December 15, 1930, the Trustees of Meredith College be authorized and requested to borrow for the General Board on the credit of the College, the sum of $50,000.00, if such amount shall be found necessary by the General Board to meet such payment, the General Board to pay the interest on the amount so borrowed and to pay off the principal of the note when due.

(c) That the Woman's Missionary Union be earnestly petitioned to cooperate in meeting this grave problem by agreeing to raise in their own way, as a special offering for the period of eight years, the sum of $50,000.00 a year, to be applied solely and directly on the original Meredith College Bond issue.

(d) That the General Board be given authority to do all things needful and possible to meet the Convention obligations and preserve its honor and credit, such authority to include the authority to borrow money temporarily to meet payments due, to do such refinancing as may be absolutely necessary.

(3) As a third general recommendation, we recommend the appointment by the Convention of a "Convention Advisory Finance Commission" of nine outstanding business and professional men to serve without compensation and without involving any expense, and with no power to bind the Convention in any obligation, but with the duty of advising the General Secretary and the General Board in all matters relating to the finances and indebtedness of the Convention.

(4) Finally and emphatically, we recommend that this Convention amend the constitution of the Convention in such manner as to prevent hereafter the creation by the Convention or by any of its agencies or institutions, of any indebtedness whatsoever binding on the Convention, except such temporary financing as may be necessary in the reasonable anticipation of current revenues.

Coöperative Program was the order at 3 o'clock. Secretary Maddry presided over this item, and a special report was presented by a committee headed by C. Frank Pittman, as follows:

REPORT ON THE CO-OPERATIVE PROGRAM

The Coöperative Program is simply the plan or method adopted by Southern Baptists for the prosecution of their Mission, Educational and Benevolent work. We believe it is the best plan yet devised and it is more and more coming into favor with the churches.

No plan, however perfect, will work itself, and the apparent failure of the Coöperative Program is really the failure of the pastors and churches to set up the Coöperative Budget, make the Every Member Canvass and thoroughly and completely put it on in the churches. We would make the following recommendations:

1. That every church be urged to make the Every Member Canvass on November 30-December 7, and as far as possible see to it that every member in every church is given the opportunity to make a subscription.

2. That the Executive Committee of every Association be requested to do everything possible to secure a commitment from every church in the adoption of an objective or goal for the Coöperative Program for 1931. We further recommend that the matter of the objective for each Association be left to the local church and the Executive Committee of each Association, and that the Convention appeal to the churches in a solemn referendum to adopt and fix their own goals and notify the General Board through the associational Executive Committee of the amounts they will undertake to raise for the Coöperative Program for 1931.

3. That every church possible be induced to send in funds once each month.

4. That ample preparation be made for the Every Member Canvass by sermons, tracts, four minute speakers, etc.

5. That all designated funds go as designated as an over or extra.

6. That the following schedule of percentage division of funds be adopted for 1931:

State		Southwide
Convention Debt	33c	Foreign Missions	25c
State Missions	16c	Home Missions	10c
Hospital	4c	Seminaries	5½c
Ministerial Education	2c	Relief & Annuities	3½c
	<hr/>	New Orleans Hospitals	1c
			45c

7. That we commend strongly October as State Mission Month, culminating in State Mission Day in our Sunday schools the last Sunday in October, and that $25,000 be the goal for that Sunday.

That Home and Foreign Missions be considered in March and April, with special day in Sunday schools.

That Mother's Day for our Hospital be strongly emphasized second Sunday in May, that an objective of $25,000 be our goal.

That Thanksgiving Day be commended to our churches, and that the price of one day's labor be given to our Orphanage.

That the last Sunday in July be given to Ministerial Education, and that our objective shall be $5,000.

Respectfully submitted,

C. FRANK PITTMAN,
W. E. GOODE,

MRS. PAUL P. DAVIS.

Dr. W. J. McGlothlin, president of the Southern Baptist convention, was introduced and spoke on the plan of the Coöperative Program.

On motion to adopt the report of the special committee Brother Jester asked Secretary Maddry to take the chair, and himself discussed the report. And after time had been extended 15 minutes on motion of T. D. Collins, the report was further discussed by H. T. Stevens, J. Henry Highsmith, W. H. Williams, T. B. Davis, J. B. Eller, Wallace Hartsell, J. C. Canipe, and J. S. Farmer, and adopted by a rising vote of the convention.

W. C. Jackson presented the report of the Committee on Inter-racial Relations, which was adopted:

REPORT OF THE INTER-RACIAL COMMISSION

Recognizing our obligation of major responsibility as a body of Christian believers to the Negro population of our State, desiring to see justice and good-will prevail between them and us, believing that in the practice of the principles of Jesus will be found an adequate and complete solution of all the complex problems that confront us; and realizing the peculiar responsibility that rests upon the Baptists of this state by virtue of the degree of leadership already exerted by them and by virtue of the numerical strength of White and Negro Baptists, the Baptist State Convention of 1930 does hereby resolve:

First: That we extend to all the Negro churches of our State, and the Negro Baptists in particular, the hand of Christian fellowship, wishing them God-speed in all Christian work; and we pledge to them our sympathy and our coöperation where it is possible to extend it.

Second: That we re-affirm the able, comprehensive, and forceful report submitted by the Inter-racial Commission last year, and adopted by the Convention.

Third: That we pledge our coöperation to the North Carolina Commission on Inter-racial Coöperation, and to the Southern Commission on Inter-racial Coöperation, in their efforts to further justice and good-will between the races.

Fourth: That we condemn in unmistakable and unmeasured terms the act of lynching; that we deeply deplore and condemn the recent lynching in our own state; and that we pledge to the Governor of the State, and to all officers of the law our complete and hearty support of vigorous measures to blot out forever the curse of lynching from our midst.

Fifth: That we recommend that our Baptist colleges introduce courses in the study of race relations, and that we give our approbation to the Southern Commission on Inter-racial Coöperation in its effort to introduce suitable studies in the High Schools.

Sixth: That our church papers be requested to give adequate space to this subject in their editorial and news columns.

Seventh: That our ministers be requested to preach on race relations at least once each year.

Eighth: That at least one Sunday School lesson a year should be devoted to this question.

Ninth: That our pastors be urged to coöperate, whenever and in whatever way seems wise and practicable to them, with local Negro pastors, in their individual or collective capacities.

T. H. King read a resolution on Temperance, which was adopted without discussion.

REPORT ON TEMPERANCE

We reaffirm the position of our Convention against intoxicating liquors. We consider the manufacture, sale, and use of alcoholic beverages as a menace to life and morals; as a curse upon our people. We rejoice that in our state and throughout the nation the manufacture and sale of this narcotic poison has been forever forbidden by law. We recognize this as a great moral, social, and economic problem. We deny the right of politicians to make of it a campaign football. We propose to deal with this question in the future as in the past as a great moral issue. If the politicians insist upon poaching upon our preserves, we are sorry for them. We do not propose to allow them to force this great question into the political arena and then sit in judgment upon our right to preach temperance, prohibition, law observance, and good citizenship.

We call upon all our people who value their vows as Christians and who lay any store by their oath as citizens to obey the law forbidding the making and selling of liquor; that they abstain from the use of intoxicating liquors and that everyone realize his obligation to himself, to society, and to God to the end that we shall all strive to see who can excel in the matter of obeying and upholding this righteous, social and moral reform.

Our North Carolina people are for prohibition. We hold that the law should be obeyed and that it can be enforced. We call upon all officers of government, both in state and nation, to put forth their utmost endeavor to honestly enforce the laws of our land with reference to the liquor traffic. We commend the effort of all officials from the lowest to the highest in the performance of the duties imposed by the 18th Amendment, and our laws enacted to carry it into effect. We believe that the law should be enforced with equal justice upon all and we look to our courts for sure and swift punishment of all offenders.

We recognize that the friends of liquor are today well-organized, highly financed, and that they have political alignments of the most dangerous sort. Our common enemy has ordered an advance all along the line. In the public press, in the movies, over the radio, in the political arena; in fact on every front, the army of the friends of liquor is fighting today. It is no time for the Christian manhood and womanhood of our state to be indifferent. Today is the day for us to call up the reserves, buckle on our armor, dig in, and beat a charge. We will not take the challenge of the wets lying down. Therefore, be it resolved by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in session in Raleigh, November 12, 1930:

1. That we will in our Sunday Schools, in our day schools, in the preaching of the Gospel and through religious literature lay greater stress upon temperance education and law observance.

2. That we especially urge that those in charge of education in our schools see to it that thorough instruction is given our youth with reference to the effects of alcohol upon the human body, and as to the pupils' duty to obey and uphold the liquor laws as well as all other laws.

3. That in the exercise of the right of suffrage it is our conviction that our people should support only those candidates for public office whose record shows them to be favorable to the prohibition policy.

4. That we reaffirm our loyalty to the Anti-Saloon League as the inter-denominational, non-partisan agency of our churches to lead in the fight against the liquor traffic. We pledge to Brother C. A. Upchurch, the Superintendent, our prayers and sympathy and bespeak for him and the League the continued loyalty and support of our pastors and all our people.

G. V. Tilley offered the report of the committee on reception of new associations, recommending receiving the Burnt Swamp Cherokee Indian Association as an associate member of the convention. This was adopted, and upon invitation of the chair representatives of this new association were welcomed on the platform, as follows: L. W. Jacobs, W. M. R. Locklear, C. E. Locklear, Clifton Oxendine, W. G. Revels.

We your committee have considered the application here attached and have found them orthodox missionary Baptists. Since they have been transferred from the Home Mission Board to the State Mission Board, and not being organically connected with any larger body of Baptists, we recommend that the Burnt Swamp Cherokee Indian Baptist Association be admitted as an associate member of this Convention just as the Cherokee Association was last year. W. H. Williams, state member of the Home Mission Board, presented his report as follows:

REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS

The Home Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention is challenged with the greatest opportunity in its history.

Within the far flung bounds of the Southern Baptist Convention, which now reach practically from coast to coast we have a great population to whom we owe the story of Redeeming Love.

Italians, French, Mexicans, Spaniards and many other nationalities have settled in our territory. We have statistics on those who are foreign born, but have no way of knowing how many there are who are born of foreign parents and who have never learned to speak the English language.

There are great hordes of negroes, whose fathers were held in bondage by our fathers, and who though the shackles of slavery have been stricken off, are the bond-servants of ignorance and sin and superstition. To us they look for guidance and light.

The Indian can no longer be called "the vanishing American." It has been estimated that there are probably now as many Indians within our territory as there were when the first missionaries of the old Board on Indian and Domestic Missions commenced their work among the red men.

There are many of the "Sons of Abraham" who have not recognized that the Jesus of Nazareth is the long-looked-for Messiah.

Scattered through the Southland are those to whom the gates of sound are closed, and it is only as loving missionaries tell by the sign language the story of Christ love, that they can hear the message of Life.

There to the south of us is the palm bedecked Island of Cuba. A bit of the Old World nestling in the lap of the New.

In addition to these peoples and this Island, there is the ever increasing industrialization of the South. The cotton mills of the North are moving into the cotton fields of the South. Where a short time ago all that was heard was the song of the Negro as he chopped or picked his cotton, we now hear the hum of machinery of the mills and the roar of the traffic of cities which have sprung into being almost over night.

God is knocking at the door of Southern Baptists with an unprecedented opportunity.

The Home Mission Board, awed by the greatness of its task, is seeking to answer God's call.

Struggling with a great debt, hampered in its operation by lack of funds, there have of necessity, been some distressing retrenchments; but let no one suppose for a moment that the Board is merely a debt paying agency, or that all of its efforts are directed toward satisfying the demands of bankers and bond holders.

Some 106 faithful missionaries are giving themselves unstintedly to the great task of winning the Southland to the Christ. During the past year over ten thousand sermons were preached. Two thousand one hundred and nine people confessed Christ in baptism, and one thousand two hundred and sixty-five united with the churches by letter.

Southern Baptists should joyfully catch a vision of their great task, and "should dedicate their lives, their fortunes, everything that they have and are, with the pride of those who know that the day has come when they are privileged to spend their blood and their might for the principles which gave them birth and the happiness and peace which they have treasured."

Let those be discouraged whose faith is dim. Joyously and courageously we will go forward feeling the warm grip of the hand of Him who said "Be of good cheer, for I have overcome the world."

On motion to adopt the report was discussed by Rev. Jacob Gartenhaus, Southern Baptist missionary to the Jews. The report was adopted.

E. McNeill Poteat, Jr., sang the first verse of his Centennial Hymn, and the convention united in singing the other verses.

The report of the committee to consider the report of the General Board was presented by A. J. Smith.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO CONSIDER THE GENERAL BOARD'S REPORT AND RECOMMENDATIONS

1. We recommend the adoption of the recommendation reading as follows:

"That the two young women be continued as State Missionaries in industrial centers."

2. We recommend the adoption of the recommendation reading as follows:

"That the General Board be instructed to make an earnest effort to induce churches that have been on the Board for a number of years to become self-supporting."

3. We recommend that the matter of help to our Negro Baptist brethren be referred to the Commission on Missions of the General Board and that no field worker be employed for this year.

4. We recommend that no Superintendent of Missions be secured for the present.

5. We recommend that the Convention elect nine men who shall constitute a Convention Advisory Commission whose duties shall be to carefully consider all matters pertaining to the educational debts of the Convention and to make recommendations to the General Board and to the Trustees of the Convention in the handling of all these matters and that no additional expense be incurred by them.

6. We deplore the practice of many churches in diverting to local interests the funds given by the Women's Missionary Societies and recommend that the W. M. U. adopt the plan of instructing local W. M. S. treasurers where such practice maintains, to secure the church treasurer's check for the amount turned into the local church treasury for missions, and for the W. M. S. treasurer to send the amount in to headquarters.

7. We recommend the adoption of the recommendation reading as follows:

"That the matter of moving the summer school for preachers be referred to the committee appointed by the Preachers' School for the consideration of this matter."

8. We recommend the adoption of the recommendation reading as follows:

"That the Convention endorse the action of the Historical Commission in the publication of the first volume of our Baptist History by Dr. George Paschal and commend the sale of the book to our people."

9. We recommend that no further action be taken this year in planning a pageant of North Carolina Baptist History.

10. We recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

"Resolved that in the event the percentages adopted for Convention Debts be found insufficient to meet the obligations of interest and bonds underwritten by the Convention, that the General Board be and are hereby empowered and instructed to make such changes in the whole percentage division of the Coöperative Program funds as in their judgment is necessary for the protection of the honor and credit of the Baptist State Convention."

11. We recommend the adoption of this resolution:

"That the General Board recommend to the Baptist State Convention the desirability of withdrawing from the present Southwide financial plan, adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention, which went into effect on January 1, 1930.

"It is recommended that a committee of three persons, to be appointed from the General Board, be requested to attend the next meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention, and that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina memorialize the Southern Baptist Convention to change the plan now in operation to the previous plan of sending amounts direct, and the right of designation restored, which the present plan denies."

Secretary Maddry gave some detailed information on the Baptist Centennial:

CENTENNIAL FUND

Amount Pledges	$974,406.71
Amount Collected on Pledges (11/10/30)	482,645.35

Amount Due	$491,761.36
------------------	--------------

Wake Forest	41,027.19
Fruitland	1,219.92

We are due Wake Forest $5,000 on last distribution.

Following this Secretary Maddry discussed the situation relative to the payments of the Centennial Campaign accounts. He introduced H. T. Stevens, who served as associate director during the year just closing, whose report follows:

Since I began my work as Associate Director of our Centennial Campaign I have traveled more than 20,000 miles and delivered one hundred ninety-two addresses and sermons. It is impossible for me to tell the exact amount but I have collected from individuals as I have gone on my rounds over $10,000. Under my direction the office force has sent out 40,000 statements. For the past Associational year we have collected over $143,000.

For the past several months I have been giving my time especially to organizing and aiding in Fellowship Week. Nearly every Association in the State has had this Fellowship Week, and possibly more than 2,000 of our churches have had a fellowship service.

We have secured the histories of hundreds of our churches and put a name-plate on every unmarked Baptist Church in North Carolina.

"Fellowship Week" was discussed by Eugene Olive, J. R. Jester, J. L. Stanley, Coy Muckle, A. B. Miller, E. B. Booker, C. A. Rhyne, D. F. Putnam, L. R. O'Brian, W. F. West, J. L. Underwood, J. A. McIver, E. N. Johnson, J. L. Carrick, C. H. Norris.

B. A. Bowers, Chairman; J. Powell Tucker and Joel S. Snyder, were appointed as the committee from the General Board to memorialize the Southern Baptist Convention at its next session with regard to the south-wide plan of finances. This was in accord with the report of the committee to report on the General Board's report.

M. A. Huggins presented the report on schools and colleges: (See General Board report, page 79 f.). On motion this report was adopted after discussion by C. E. Brewer, L. R. Varser, W. B. Edwards, R. L. Moore, Coy Muckle, J. A. Campbell, and R. B. White.

The Wake Forest College Glee Club sang, Bach's "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee," and "Dear Old Wake Forest," after which J. Allen Easley, local pastor, expressed a welcome, and made some announcements.

On special motion, S. H. Templeman was recognized to read a special resolution from the General Board which will be considered immediately after the opening of the afternoon session.

President Turner, on behalf of Wake Forest College, announced that C. J. Black, Bessemer City, has stated his intention of immediately depositing his library in the Wake Forest College library.

Upon suggestion the convention stood in honor of Thurman

D. Kitchin, newly elected president of Wake Forest College, who then addressed the convention on the topic: "The Mission of Truth in the World."

On motion, and after prayer by W. L. Poteat, the session adjourned.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

Eugene Olive led in singing, "My Faith Looks Up To Thee," and "Beneath the Cross of Jesus," after President Turner called the convention to order at 2:30 o'clock.

R. P. Ellington led the worship period reading Matthew 10:34-39, and offering prayer.

E. L. Wolslagel led in singing, "Work For the Night Is Coming."

S. H. Templeman, representing the General Board, presented the following resolution relative to Boiling Springs Junior College, which after discussion by Secretary Maddry, on motion was adopted:

BOILING SPRINGS JUNIOR COLLEGE

Upon the basis of the present status of relationship between the Baptist State Convention and Boiling Springs Junior College, the following resolution was passed by the General Board:

That the Baptist State Convention turn over to Boiling Springs Junior College the unpaid pledges of the Centennial Fund subscribed by the Kings Mountain and Sandy Run Associations.

Brother Templeman presented further recommendation from the General Board, each item being considered separately and adopted after discussion by J. B. Turner, Jesse F. McCarter, J. A. Campbell, H. T. Stevens, Secretary Maddry, R. N. Simms, T. B. Davis, and J. A. McMillan.

Your Committee, appointed at the March meeting of the General Board to consider conditions of our various educational institutions, beg leave to report as follows:

The Committee has held several meetings and at these meetings had statements from representatives of all our educational institutions. In most cases these statements have been followed by written summary of status of such institutions with respect to finances, enrollment and work done. Upon consideration of the whole problem, we recommend:

1. That two percent of the amount received from the Coöperative Program be allocated and applied to the purpose of Ministerial Education, the aid so furnished to be prorated to and among our colleges in accordance with the number of ministerial students to whom assistance is being rendered, the funds to be administered by the colleges to which sent and that no aid be furnished for such purposes to students other than those able to enter the freshman class of one of such colleges.

2. That all educational institutions be allowed to solicit their friends for contributions to meet running expenses and to receive gifts from private sources for equipment or endowment, provided that such gift is not conditioned upon a general canvass.

WINGATE JUNIOR COLLEGE

Relative to Wingate Junior College, Brother Templeman, presented the following recommendation, which after further extension of time for 15 minutes on motion of A. A. Pippin, and discussion by J. R. Jester, Secretary Maddry, J. U. Teague, J. B. Turner, Jesse F. McCarter, H. T. Stevens, Joel S. Snyder, and T. H. King, was adopted.

We also call the attention of the Board to the resolution adopted by it at its meeting held March 11, 1930, relative to Wingate Junior College, found on pages 168 and 169, meeting of the said General Board, and to letter received by our General Secretary from the Whitney Trust and Savings Bank, in which said company has agreed to release said school from the Whitney Trust and Savings Bank, all of which in our opinion should at this time receive the consideration of the General Board.

Recommendations of the representatives of Wingate Junior College submitted to the General Board of Baptist State Convention, subject to approval of the Board of Trustees of Wingate Junior College—

1. That the Baptist State Convention relieve Wingate Junior College of the obligation not to exceed $10,000 incurred previous to the taking over of the school by the Convention.

2. That the property of Wingate Junior College be turned over to the local Board of Trustees to be used in re-financing the indebtedness of Wingate Junior College.

3. That in consideration of the above, Wingate Junior College, agrees to relieve the Baptist State Convention of further financial obligation to the College—including a present debt of $25,000 and any other amounts whatsoever.

4. That Wingate Junior College wishes to retain its fraternal relationship with the Convention, operating as a distinctly Baptist School, Wingate Junior College pledges its full coöperation with the Convention Program and welcomes all recommendations of the Convention.

5. That the Executive Committee of the General Board and the General Secretary be instructed to take such action as may be necessary to carry these resolutions into effect and to effect legal severance between the Convention and Wingate Junior College and vest legal title in the property in the Trustees of Wingate Junior College independent of the Baptist State Convention.

6. Resolved further—That the General Board of the Baptist State Convention assumes and agrees to pay the additional sum of ten thousand dollars above mentioned to be paid in ten annual payments of $1,000 each, of the existing indebtedness of Wingate Junior College upon the condition that in event of the sale of the property belonging to the College any surplus arising from said sale after paying the mortgage given for now existing indebtedness shall be paid to the treasurer of the Baptist State Convention to reimburse and repay to the General Board the said $10,000 hereby assumed and that notes be issued by the General Board for said sum of $10,000.00 as herein authorized bearing interest at six per centime per annum.

The time was extended 15 minutes for further discussion on motion of Secretary Maddry.

H. T. Stevens moved that a rising vote of thanks be given the committee from the General Board headed by Brother Templeman for their work on these recommendations. This was heartily passed.

J. M. Broughton proposed the following amendment to the constitution, which was adopted, after the time had been extended six minutes further on motion of I. D. S. Knight.

That section five of Article Seven of the Constitution be amended by adding thereto the following:

That except as may be necessary in the reasonable anticipation of current revenues and payable out of the same, or for the purpose of funding or refinancing any indebtedness of the Convention now outstanding, neither the Convention nor its General Board shall have the power to create any debt or obligation binding on the Convention; and no other board, agency or institution of or affiliated with the Convention shall have the power at any time to create any debt or obligation binding on the Convention.

Theological Seminaries became the order of the convention at 3:35 o'clock, when M. A. Huggins introduced Dr. J. B. Weatherspoon, of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary; Dr. J. W. Sheppard, of the Baptist Bible Institute; C. Frank Pittman, representing the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary; and Dr. M. G. Evans, of the Crozier Theological Seminary, each of whom spoke briefly.

J. T. Alderman presented the report of the Historical Commission, (see General Board report, page 108 f.), which on motion was adopted.

Z. M. Caveness presented the report on the Baptist Foundation, (see General Board report, page 105 f.), which was adopted.

The secretary read the report of the committee on Memorials, which was adopted without discussion.

R. N. Simms presented the following resolution, which was adopted:

RESOLUTION TO AUTHORIZE THE GENERAL BOARD TO BORROW TEMPORARILY AGAINST ANTICIPATED REVENUES

WHEREAS, it will be necessary for the General Board to borrow money during the ensuing Convention year with which to take care of bonds and interest falling due on the indebtedness of the Convention;

THEREFORE, be it resolved by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in session at Wake Forest, N. C., on November 13, 1930, that the General Board of the Baptist State Convention be empowered and instructed to borrow from banks or elsewhere the sum of $100,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary, in anticipation of current revenues and to give for the same the notes of this convention.

RESOLVED, second, that the Executive Committee and the General Secretary of the General Board of this Convention be and they are hereby empowered to execute such notes of the Convention and in the name of the Convention.

The following resolution was presented as a substitute for Section 10, of the report on the report of the General Board, (see page 42 above) but the chair ruled that it was unconstitutional, and, on motion and vote of the convention, was supported in this ruling.

Resolved that it is the sense of this convention that under the provisions of our constitution and the authority heretofore given by the adoption of the report of the debt committee the General Board of this Convention has and it shall have the power, in the event said Board finds it absolutely necessary, to use any funds coming into the Convention treasury not otherwise specifically designated by the donors and commonly known as undesignated funds for the purpose of meeting the bonded indebtedness of this Convention; and this Convention hereby reiterates its solemn pledge to discharge fully every obligation binding upon its faith and credit and to preserve unblemished its sacred honor.

On motion the report of the General Board was adopted in toto.

Joel S. Snyder presented the report of the Committee on Resolutions, which was adopted as read:

RESOLUTIONS

Your committee on Resolutions would call attention to several very important aspects of the situation with the world to-day which seem to us to be most vital to each of our people as a servant of the King. We believe that these matters should claim the special attention of the leaders in our homes, in our churches, in our schools, in editorial sancta, and in every place where men and women can touch the fountains of intellectual, moral and spiritual life. Looking around the horizon in this spirit and with the purpose of bringing ourselves to think seriously about these matters, we would call attention to six things:

1. The fearful and unprecedented crisis through which the world is passing. This generation is being called on to adjust and readjust itself to changes that are so radical and that have come upon us so suddenly and so unexpectedly that we find ourselves in the midst of a confusion and a chaos that baffles the sanest and most experienced ones amongst us. Nor is this confusion confined to any one sphere. It would be really quite difficult to tell whether it is more apparent and more acute in the home circle, in our church life, in the schoolroom, in the halls of legislation, in the court room, in the editorial sanctum, in the realm of philosophy, in the realm of morals, in industry or in religion. Surely, here is a challenge that sounds the depths of our souls. It is a situation that calls for real heroes in faith, for giants in courage, for an earnestness in consecration that cuts to the quick and as far beneath the quick as possible.

2. We would call attention to certain matters that are more or less incidental to a machine age. The spirit that would have expelled Jesus from a certain section of his own land because the people there thought more of their hogs than of afflicted people is still rampant in the earth. The victims of this attitude toward human life are not always conscious of what they are doing. Let the spirit of Jesus, working in and through his people, open the eyes of these men to this unchristian attitude toward a human life. To be a little more specific: we would call attention to the effort of certain well known and powerful agencies that are seeking to turn back the clock of social reform and put us back into the grip of the liquor traffic; we would call attention to the fearful distress in many communities over North Carolina—a distress that manifests itself in the form of physical hunger, of mental anguish and of soul-stirring misgivings; we would call attention to the “rising tide of color” manifesting itself in all parts of the earth in the way of race antagonism, in the development of a narrow nationalism, and of international jealousies; we would call attention to what Professor Eastman has aptly called “The Menace of the Movies.” Too many of these exhibitions are of a character to undermine the moral fiber of our people—young people and older people alike. In too many cases, alas, these pictures present a false view of life and of the most sacred relationships among men; we would call attention to the mighty organized power of a misleading press which is exerting such an influence toward leading the world away from the ideals and principles of Jesus. Our people should scrutinize with care the reading matter that comes into their homes. The spirit of our Lord is greatly needed in the matter of leading people to place the emphasis where He placed it, viz. to care for “the least of these” as His brethren.

3. In view of what has been said, we would urge this Convention to sound a note that shall be as loud and as strong as possible on behalf of the children of our State. We would make grateful acknowledgment of the beautiful deed of some great heart that put a half million dollars into the hands of President Hoover with which to have made throughout our country such a survey of child life as has not been made before. We would commend the efforts of the child-welfare program of the North Carolina Legislative Council of Women. These women are laboring to abolish night work for all women and children; they are seeking to prohibit the employment of children under sixteen years of age in dangerous occupations, they are laboring for shorter hours for workers; they are seeking to require the completion of the sixth grade at least before leaving school. Let us commend their earnest efforts and do what we can to help on their worthy purpose.

4. We would urge our people that each conduct his special task with a view to the whole world campaign. Every section of the earth and every interest in all the earth is to-day so tied up together into a solid unit that no one section or interest can afford to conduct its work without keeping an eye on every phase of the task of God's Kingdom throughout the earth.

5. A generation or two ago a few great men amongst us began a campaign of emphasis on what was called social Christianity. This was greatly needed at that time and should never be neglected in the teaching and work of our churches. We would emphasize, however, at this time the imperative need of calling people to a vital firsthand fellowship with God in Christ Jesus. Looking toward this end, we would urge the supreme importance of placing the matter of worship at the centre of the church's life. It is too common a sight amongst us to see many of our own people attend the meeting of some special organization in the church and then to ignore and absent themselves from the house of worship on Sunday morning. This is more particularly true as to our young people, but is by no means confined to them. We would urge the need of regular and prayerful attention on the place and the hour of worship.

6. We would urge our people to put forth an earnest effort to bring our churches and each individual in these churches to return to the New Testament spirit and method of seeking to bring the Kingdom of God into the earth. A careful study of the New Testament will readily show two things: (1) there was an esprit de corps that was well nigh irresistible; (2) each individual was a witness for his Lord in the midst of fearful odds and oppositions. Both these observations will reveal the fact that New Testament Christianity concerned itself more with dynamics than with mechanics. If we would see the Kingdom come amongst us in power and in glory, we must seek to approximate this New Testament spirit and method.

RESOLUTION OF THANKS

Desiring to express our appreciation for all courtesies shown during this one hundredth annual session of our convention, be it resolved that we record our gratitude to the members of the First Baptist Church, and the citizens of Raleigh for their kindness during the first two days of the session, and to the people of Wake Forest College and community for their courtesies on this last day; that we express our mindful gratitude to the press, especially those papers who sent personal representatives to our meetings; that we thank all of those, many of whom are unknown to us, who by their very act and thoughtfulness contributed to our comfort and pleasure, and the success of this convention.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL BOARD

CHARLES E. MADDRY, General Secretary

It is significant that the Convention meets here in this historic church to celebrate its one hundred years of organized history. This church has entertained many sessions of the Convention during these one hundred years, but we believe we speak with soberness and deliberation when we say, that we have never come to a more critical and momentous session of the Convention than this now assembled. As we look back over the century just closing, we would erect here our Ebenezer, and say "Hitherto hath the Lord helped us." When we review the growth and development of our Baptist work in North Carolina during these years, our hearts are filled with gratitude and thanksgiving to Almighty God for the marvelous way in which He has led us.

Thirty years ago the Convention met in this church. It will be worth our time to stop a minute and review by way of comparison the growth of these three decades.

At the session of 1900, Secretary John E. White resigned and left the State and Livingston Johnson, of Greensboro, was elected secretary. Our year now runs with the calendar; hence we cannot give the figures for 1930 but give those of 1929.

In addition in 1929 we gave for education through the Centennial Fund $168,737.61. In other words, our churches gave for Christian education last year $269,191.61 as against $3,102.26 in 1900.

In 1900 we had 1,382 Sunday Schools; in 1929 we reported 2,185. In 1900 we reported 94,729 Sunday School pupils; in 1929 we reported 339,900 enrolled.

Thirty years ago we had no Young People's organizations, and now we have 2,293 organizations in the state.

In 1900 we reported 423 active Woman's Missionary organizations and in 1929 there were 2,692 reported.

In the midst of depression and discouragement over the burden of debt that now rests upon the Convention, it will be well for us to pause a moment and see what we have accomplished during a period of ten years. We take the figures for the years 1919 and 1929:

	Churches	Members	Baptisms	Missions	S. S.	B.Y.P.U.	W.M.U.

1929.....	2,307	397,026	17,052	795,797.80	2,185	2,293	2,692

It should be said that in 1919 the Million Dollar Campaign for our schools was in full blast, and the sum of $255,650.49 of the $624,729.34 was a special fund given for education.

Surely this record of ten years, ought to cheer our hearts today and cause us to lift up our eyes unto the hills from whence cometh all of our help and strength.

Department of Missions

Below we give the report of our 86 state missionaries. These faithful men have served in hard places, often on meager and insufficient salaries. The report shows some progress and achievement.

One mission station is worthy of special mention. One year ago, the General Board made an appropriation of $1,000 for the purpose of beginning work at the new town of Enka, near Asheville. A Dutch company has invested ten million dollars in a great rayon plant, and a town of several thousand has sprung up almost over night. The Board engaged Brother J. C. Bennett as Missionary, and with the assistance of Brother J. M. Page, a splendid board tabernacle was erected and a church was organized. The work is growing slowly and soon we will have a strong church at Enka.

1. A NEW EXPERIMENT

We have made a beginning in a new phase of mission work in the Gaston, Mecklenburg-Cabarrus and Rowan Associations that we believe will be far reaching in its outcome. We have felt for a long time that something ought to be done in a very definite and special way in our great industrial centers to offset the incoming tides of materialism, unbelief and anti-Americanism that were flowing, in ever-increasing volume into these fast-growing industrial centers. We have felt also that we ought to utilize, in a more concerted and definite way, the fine group of young women coming each year from our Woman's Missionary Training School at Louisville. The Board made an appropriation of $1,050.00 and the Sunday School Board matched the appropriation with a like amount. We employed two splendid young women from our Training School, viz.: Miss Leona Harris and Miss Naomi Braswell. They have fully justified our fondest expectations for this type of work, and we hope the Board will be able to continue this experiment further.

3. DRASTIC RETRENCHMENT IN OUR STATE MISSION DEPARTMENT

Foreseeing the severe economic conditions that would prevail in North Carolina this fall, early in March we called together the General Board in special session and recommended that salaries of the general workers be reduced, and wherever possible without serious injury to the interests of the Convention, that work and workers be discontinued. The Board gave earnest and serious attention to these recommendations, and immediately put into effect the most rigid program of retrenchment and economy possible. Since the first of last January, the Board has reduced the evangelistic, field and office force seven full time workers and the Sunday School Board has taken over the salaries and expenses of two field workers in the Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. departments. The Board, in addition to the saving effected by the reduction in the number of workers, reduced the salaries of the other workers very materially, thus saving several thousand dollars in the budget adopted by the Board at the December meeting.

As much as we regret to even contemplate further reductions, we now realize that other and even more drastic reductions must be made in all departments of our work, if we are to save the honor and credit of the convention. Bonds and interest underwritten by the Convention must be met at all hazards, even if we have to discontinue much of the fine work we are now doing in the Department of State Missions. This will mean that many churches and fields now receiving aid from the Board will have to make an earnest effort to support themselves, and leave the Board, with its reduced funds, to take care of the mission needs in the growing towns and industrial centers.

At the meeting of the Executive Committee in June a committee consisting of O. Joe Howard, Chairman; A. P. Stephens, J. R. Morgan, J. T. J. Battle, Wallace Hartsell, Mrs. S. J. Everett, Gerald H. Payne, S. F. Teague and J. C. Canipe was appointed to take under review our whole State Mission program, looking toward greater efficiency and economy in our expenditure of State Mission funds. The committee has submitted to the General Board a tentative report, together with such recommendations as must necessarily be passed upon by the Convention. The full and complete report of this committee will doubtless be submitted to the full Board in annual session in December.

4. HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONS

During the last Southern Baptist Conventional year, we gave to Home Missions $38,398.23 and to Foreign Missions $119,078.37. This is about half the amount we were giving for these objects five years ago. Each of these Boards has been compelled to retrench and call in the missionaries until it looks like we will soon have little left of our great missionary forward movement begun so hopefully a few years ago.

5. SELF-SUPPORTING CHURCHES

Many of our strong churches in other years were made possible by the support given in the beginning by the Mission Board. At the proper time these churches were left to walk alone and support themselves. There is a time in the life of a church when a continued appropriation by the Mission Board becomes a hindrance and not a help to the self respect and spiritual life and tone of that church. There is such a thing as pauperizing a church, and the time has come when the Mission Board should be relieved of the support of many churches and fields of churches. that have been drawing money from the Board as a supplement on pastor's salary for many years. Many of these churches are able to take care of themselves and many others can be cared for by the re-arrangement into fields and combinations by the Associational Executive Committees. In many places small country and village churches can be supplied with preaching and pastoral service by the pastors of near-by town churches going out in the afternoon, and thus the Board can be relieved of the burden of supporting many of these small churches. In many instances, the churches will get better service than they possibly could by an absentee preacher coming long distances once each month.

Then too, the Board should be relieved of the support of these churches in old and settled communities, so that the meager funds now available can be used in the fast-growing industrial centers. A church that does not show some evidence of becoming self-supporting in from three to five years should be dropped, and churches in these growing and populous centers should be organized and nourished into life and activity. Year after year the Mission Board is entreated to continue the support of churches and fields of churches that ought long ago to have been set free and graduated into useful, self-respecting churches, supporting the mission and benevolent work of the Convention in a generous and worthy way, instead of drawing support from an harassed and over-burdened Mission Board. A good deal of the blame for this condition of affairs may be laid at the door of local Associational Executive Committeemen. Often they sign whatever application a church and pastor presents to them without any adequate investigation whatever. Some even take the foolish and selfish position that the Mission Board should put back into the work of the Association as much as the Association gives for State Missions. The "pork barrel" idea of doing State Mission work still prevails in some sections of North Carolina.

We hope this Convention will give adequate and definite instructions to the General Board on this vital and difficult problem.

6. OUR RESPONSIBILITY TO THE NEGRO BAPTISTS OF NORTH CAROLINA

Before the Civil War negroes belonged to our white churches, but after the surrender, our colored brethren, often with the help and encouragement of their white brethren, went out and organized churches for themselves. They have grown in a marvelous way, until today they number not less than 250,000 members in their churches. They have four independent Conventions, independent of each other, viz, a Sunday School Convention, a Woman's Convention, a Young People's Convention, and a Baptist State Convention. The State Convention has no direction, or control, over the other Conventions.

Our colored brethren have no organized State Mission work; no training work either in the field of Sunday School or Young People's work. The negro population is overwhelmingly Baptist, and if an aggressive and worth-while program of missions, benevolence and training activities could be put on among our negro Baptists NOW, without further delay, by this Convention, it would be an investment that would bring in marvelous returns in this generation.

This is our responsibility and we cannot escape the obligations it entails. We will neglect it longer at our peril. Your secretary feels keenly the weight of this matter. The two races must live here in our good state side by side. In the Providence of God, we have at least one strong tie that binds us together,—our agreement on the doctrine and practice of the New Testament. We are brethren in Christ, with the same aims and purposes and beliefs. We owe it to our negro brethren, we owe it to our common Saviour and Lord to act the part of a big brother to the negro Baptists of North Carolina in providing for them leadership and material help in organizing and training the multitudes they have already gathered into their churches. We would urge upon this Convention the importance of doing something definite and constructive about this matter at this session.

7. SUPERINTENDENT OF STATE MISSIONS RESIGNS

Effective July 1, Rev. Walter M. Gilmore, Superintendent of State Missions, resigned to accept the position of Publicity Director of the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention. Brother Gilmore had been with the Board for some seven years, and had rendered faithful and acceptable service and was held in highest esteem and affection by everybody. We miss him sorely, and pray God's blessings on him in his new work.

The Executive Committee, owing to stress of finances, deemed it wise not to fill his place for the remainder of the year. We do not see how the General Secretary can carry on all of the work expected of him without some assistance, and ask the Convention to give consideration to this matter.

8. BUILDING EVANGELIST

During the year J. M. Page has served faithfully as special worker in assisting pastors and churches in securing better buildings and better Sunday School equipment, the payment of debts on churches, and looking after the interest of our State Mission work on the field. He has rendered fine service also in collecting Centennial pledges. We give as follows a summary of his work for the year:

Baptisms	44
Sermons	166
Subscriptions to Biblical Recorder	40
Building Conferences	258
Collected for Building Department	$1,153.56
Amount raised on buildings this year	50,000.00
Collected on Centennial pledges	1,322.50

Department of Training Activities

We are much gratified to be able to report to the Convention that very real and substantial progress is being made in our various training activities.

In both the Sunday School and Young People's Departments, several rural enlargement campaigns have been carried through with most gratifying success. We believe this is the best method yet tried for the enlistment of our backward rural churches. We give below the reports of the heads of our Training Departments:

1. REPORT ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS

By PERRY MORGAN, Secretary

Another mile post in the march of progress has been passed. One by one we count them as swiftly the years roll by with each witnessing forward strides made in our Sunday School work. Some one has defined progress as the stride of God. Our God is "marching on" and we are making progress—thrilling progress. It is a beautiful and meaningful word—one that adorns the Sunday School cause and notes step by step the advances made in "reaching the people" and "teaching the Word." This constitutes our task. It is the main function of the Sunday School. The record of the past year makes a chapter that will adorn the history of North Carolina Baptist Sunday School work. For all of the favor, blessings, and approval of the Master bestowed upon the work and workers in this department we are truly and humbly grateful.

This has been a year of frightful economic depression. There has been much unrest among our people on account of the uncertainty of business conditions. And, yet, in spite of it all, we have witnessed an increase in Sunday School enrollment and attendance. Since this report is written before all Associational meetings are held we cannot give figures here. These will be found in the Statistical Tables and Statistical Summary in the Convention Annual. There has been a growth of interest in Bible study and Bible teaching that has been wholesome and noticeable in many sections of North Carolina. Apparently it has been a time of greater interest on the part of many of our people in the spiritual welfare of the masses and despite the distractions and hindrances encountered in kingdom work it has been a good time to teach religion and urge the claims of Christianity.

As these lines were written we heard the voices of the President of the United States of America, the Prime Ministers of Japan and Great Britain in a world-wide radio hook up. The occasion was the radio celebration of the signing of the London Naval Treaty. We quote one sentence from the address of the British Premier, Mr. McDonald: "We have passed another mile stone in our approach to peace and safety." The world is passing through a period of material adjustment. Spiritual adjustments must be made. There is no sure peace and safety save as it is found in Christ Jesus. The Sunday School is proving itself a mighty force in saving the world from moral and spiritual bankruptcy.

STATUS OF THE WORK

The past year was one of adjustment of our field forces. Changing conditions cause us to make adjustments from time to time. Fearful of financial conditions the General Board at a special meeting on March 11, adopted drastic measures resulting in the elimination of workers in the departments, reducing salaries of the department heads, and other workers to the amount of $11,000.00 on the State Mission accounts. The effects of these measures were felt in the Sunday School department to a considerable degree. Unless we can rally our people to the extent of bringing relief sufficient to cause us to resume our status of the past few years we shall suffer immeasurably and we may expect losses from which we may not be able to recover in the next decade.

There are now only two regular workers in the department maintained by State Missions. They are Perry Morgan, secretary, and Miss Gladys H. Beck, elementary secretary. Beginning September 1, L. L. Morgan and A. V. Washburn were discontinued as employees of the Convention. An arrangement was made with the Sunday School Board to pay the full salary and expenses of Mr. Morgan for a year from September 1. The same arrangement was made for Mr. Washburn to continue his work to December 1 of this year. For four years these brethren have been the faithful and honored servants of the Convention. We pay them our best tribute. No one ever had more loyal and sympathetic co-workers than the secretary of this department has had in these two workers to whom North Carolina Baptists owe a debt of gratitude for the unselfish and effective service they have given in love and sacrifice for the cause of the Sunday School. Until the time mentioned above expires they are to continue their field work under the direction of this department wholly supported by the Baptist Sunday School Board of Nashville, Tennessee. In January, L. L. Morgan moved his headquarters from Raleigh to Goldsboro. Any attempt to make adequate report of their work would be only a partial report. Bessie Morgan has served superbly another year as office secretary.

ASSOCIATIONAL WORKERS

There are three of these. M. L. Jones completes a year as field worker in the Mount Zion Association for the Sunday School and B. Y.

P. U. Departments. The Association pays half of his salary and expenses. The Sunday School Board pays the other half.

Miss Naomi Braswell, with headquarters at Belmont, began January 1, in the Gaston County Association as field worker for the Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Departments. She is paid jointly by the State Mission Board and the Sunday School Board. In the Mecklenburg-Cabarrus and Rowan Associations Miss Leona Harris, with headquarters at Kannapolis, assumed her duties as Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. field worker January 1. She, too, is a joint employee of our General Board and the Sunday School Board. Both of these young ladies have wrought faithfully and effectively in building up our work.

THE OFFICE AT HEADQUARTERS

The work enlarges here. The volume of it increases from year to year. The workers in the office share with us who are on the field all the responsibility of the department and are due as much credit for what it accomplishes as any one on the field. Those who stay by the supply depot are as necessary to the success of the enterprise as those found daily on the front line in the field operations. There are thousands of letters to write and other thousands of requests for free literature to be sent out. There are study course awards to be recorded and sent out daily. Many requests for information on all angles of the work must be answered and information sent. There is material to be gotten together, written up, and edited for the Sunday School page in the Biblical Recorder each week. Plans and programs for Associational, district and state-wide meetings must originate here. The office is the fountainhead and source of progress and extension of the work on the field. Extensive operations are planned for and projected from the office. The secretary really covets opportunity to give more time to the office, but he has so many urgent calls for his time and talents on the field it becomes necessary for him to rely on the office secretary for many things that ought to demand his personal attention and supervision. On train, in railroad waiting rooms, hotel lobbies, and at odd hours working overtime, he does much of his office work. He can have no regular schedule for sleep, recreation, diversion, contact with current movements, enjoyment of his family and friends as do many in other fields of work. He can find no convenient time for an annual vacation. Such was not his this year. In ten and a half years of work with the Convention this has been the most strenuous. But, let it be clearly understood, he has enjoyed it immensely and his life is richer and he is happier by reason of his activities.

STATE MEETINGS

The Fourth Annual State-wide Sunday School Conference was held at Meredith College, June 4, 5, and 6. It was attended by nearly six hundred people from every section of the state. One hundred sixteen people appeared on the program. It was a meeting of great spiritual power. Much information and help were given to those attending. The next State-wide meeting will be at Ridgecrest July 12-17, 1931. North Carolina Week was observed at Ridgecrest July 20-26. The Sunday School secretary acted as dean of this Conference.

TEACHER TRAINING WORK

This work bears fruit. Much of it has been going on this year. There are approximately 33,500 teachers and officers in our Sunday Schools. The personnel of this force of volunteer workers changes rapidly each year. Many of them are raw recruits. They need training. This is one of the hardest and most difficult tasks. Churches have an obligation here. The skill of the Sunday School teacher should equal that of the surgeon. He deals with things that are spiritual and eternal in their reach. With the limited help this department can give it is necessary for pastors to take the initiative and lead their people in this work. Many are doing it. This is right. Who is better qualified than the pastor for doing this vital work? During the year we have issued 7,384 Normal, and 2,708 Administration Awards. We make an appeal for a larger and more effective teacher training program.

SOUTHWIDE CONFERENCE

No Southwide Sunday School Conference was held this year. Space was given here on the Baptist calendar for a Southwide Conference of the Baptist Young People's Union. But, there will be a Conference held January 13-16, 1931, at Jackson, Mississippi, for the Sunday Schools of the South. Our effort will be to get 150 of the expected 4,000 delegates to the meeting. The program for the Conference will be built by the Sunday School Board under whose auspices it is to be held.

ASSOCIATIONAL SUPERINTENDENTS TRAINING WEEK

At Roxboro, January 5-12, we put on for the first time a week of training for Associational Sunday School Superintendents. Twenty Associations embracing 708 churches were represented. This was a worth while project. In connection with it an Enlargement Campaign was conducted in the Roxboro church, Rev. W. F. West, pastor. We had the assistance of Mr. J. N. Barnette of the Sunday School Board. The Board also gave us financial help for this work which really took the form of a clinic. It is planned to have three meetings, one in the west, one in the middle, and a third in eastern Carolina, December 29-January 3, similar to it, except these will be of only two days' duration. We will have the assistance of the Sunday School Board.

APPROVED AND QUALIFIED WORKERS

To supplement the work of the field forces and that of the State Department, the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention makes it possible for us to have for special projects additional help in the person of certain people who are called approved and qualified workers. Mrs. C. R. Pittard of Apex for more than two years has served as Approved Intermediate State Worker. Special qualified workers for the Elementary Department who have served during the year are: Mrs. C. D. Bain, of Dunn; Mrs. A. V. Washburn, of Sylva; Miss Lillie Mae Scruggs, of Raleigh; and Miss Bessie Matthews, of Greensboro.

In the Young People's-Adult Department we have had: Miss Inabelle Coleman, of Greensboro; D. H. Wilcox, of Winston-Salem; O. E. Lee, of Greensboro; H. B. Easom, of Shelby; and Mrs. A. J. Smith, of Goldsboro. Some of these have found it impossible to help us this year but they are carried on our list in case we need them and can get them away from their regular work.

HOME AND EXTENSION DEPARTMENT WORK

The Home and Extension Department of the Sunday School has been too long neglected and yet it is one of the most inviting and useful fields in our church life. To push this work the Sunday School Board is coöperating with us beginning with December, in securing the services of Mrs. M. D. Herndon of Gastonia as Approved State Home and Extension Department Worker. Her services will be available for conferences, training classes, and addresses where they are desired at no cost to this department or the churches with which she works. A new text book by Dr. Joseph T. Watts, has recently been published by the Sunday School Board on the work of the Home and Extension Department.

OUR BOARD REPRESENTATIVE

Rev. W. C. Barrett who for more than twenty years served as State Member of the Sunday School Board from North Carolina died during the year. The place made vacant by his death has been unfilled and the Convention should give careful consideration to the selection of his successor. Mr. Barrett served in this capacity with dignity and honor and rendered the denomination signal service in this way.

VOLUNTEER WORKERS

As last year we were successful in securing the volunteer services of a number of our fine young people to help in rural enlargement campaigns, more than two years work was done in this way without cost to the Convention. We owe these workers a debt of gratitude for their services. The only pay they received was in rich experiences and the satisfaction of knowing they would be rewarded by Him who rewardeth His own for faithfulness in His vineyard. Limited space for this report forbids recording their names and the times and places where they worked. Their services were indispensable in our Associational Field Campaigns.

FIELD PROJECTS

This has been a year of field projects. Special consideration has been given country churches. We believe in the country churches. The day of their usefulness has not passed. Coupled with their vast spiritual power is an enormous amount of potential material power. Only in cities and towns of any size located in Associations where we have conducted rural campaigns have we sought the coöperation of urban churches. There has been, of course, some efforts made to help the city churches, but our general policy has been to stay in the country as much as possible. We have aided 167 churches in nine Associations, namely, Eastern; Buncombe; Tuckasegee, Tennessee River; Haywood, Western North Carolina; West Liberty, Macon, and Gaston County. The Neuse and Mount Zion held simultaneous training schools in 40 churches, using volunteer help. Other churches assisted with enlargement campaigns and in various ways number 53.

STANDARD SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Our goal in Standard Schools for this calendar year is 200. Since the meeting of the Convention last year 132 schools have reached the ten points in the Standard of Excellence. One hundred twenty-five of these have become Standard since January 1. We recommend the use of the Standard as a program of work for all of our Sunday Schools. It is a definite program. It has made more efficient the schools using it. Such schools out-rank in enrollment, liberality in giving, evangelism and training those not using this program of work.

ASSOCIATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOLS

Forty-four of the sixty-seven Associations are now organized for definite Sunday School work along the most modern lines. This is a most effective means of propagating our work. The organization is simple, using only the following as officers: Superintendent, secretary, chorister, pianist, and group superintendents. In some cases there is an intermediate leader and an elementary worker. This ought to be true in every case. The churches are grouped into small groups of from five to eight geographically located. A meeting is held once a month for reports and to disseminate information, to check up and renew the work and make plans for the following month. These meetings are of great informational and inspirational value.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL WORK

A real effort was made in this field. During March, April, and May through the generosity of the Sunday School Board, Miss Inabelle Coleman, of Greensboro, was kept in the field trying to interest churches in Vacation Bible School work. She wrought well in securing promises from more than a hundred churches to conduct Vacation Schools for the boys and girls during the summer. However, when the season was over we could locate only fifty-three schools. This work is vital. Every church should have a Vacation School and we urge leaders to study this work and give it real consideration. Only a study of it will create such interest on the part of pastors that this phase of our work that is so vital to the welfare and training of our children deserves and demands at their hands.

STATISTICAL WORK

Upon the resignation of Statistical Secretary W. M. Gilmore, the Executive Committee of the General Board, Dr. Charles E. Maddry, Secretary, asked the Sunday School office to take over the work of gathering statistics. This work requires practically all of the time of the Sunday School office forces during October and November. It is a matter that requires constant attention from the time Associations begin meeting in July until all of them have held meetings and the clerks have had time to get the data together. For this reason we can give no statistics in this report.

BAPTIST STUDENT UNION

We now have a full-fledged and functioning State Baptist Student Union. It is the newest development for promoting the work of the Baptist denomination among our young people. The State Convention is not altogether familiar with its workings. It is distinctly and wholly a student organization. It is a denominational undertaking and a denominational organization. Without equivocation its work is frankly and strictly denominational. The organization on a local campus is simple. There are officers which compose the Baptist Student Union Council. These represent all the religious organizations on the campus. The Union seeks to bring every student in close vital relationship with the local church (1) by winning him to Christ and to church membership; (2) by making a place of service and putting him in that place; (3) by serving as a link between the home, the church, and the school; (4) by interpreting true religion to him in the light of his broadening knowledge and expanding horizon; (5) by keeping him true to the Bible and its teachings as Baptists believe it; (6) by enlisting him in the full program of the local Baptist Church on or near the campus of his college. This work is a part of the work of the Department of Training Activities of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention.

There are Student Secretaries on the campuses of three of our educational institutions as follows: Miss Madeline Elliott, Meredith College, Raleigh; Miss Cleo Mitchell, North Carolina College for Women, Greensboro; and Miss Elizabeth Cowan, Appalachian State Teachers' College, Boone. The work at Meredith is strictly under the auspices of the college.

At Atlanta, Georgia, the Second All-Southern Baptist Student Conference was held October 30-November 2. One hundred seventy-five of the two thousand students present were from North Carolina. The next State-wide B. S. U. meeting will be held at Durham in October, 1931. Officers of the State B. S. U. for 1930-31 are:

President: W. Hershell Ford, Wake Forest College.

Vice-Presidents: Floyd Sams, Mars Hill College; Lyda Jane Brooks, Chowan College; H. O. Baker, Fruitland Institute; Ruth Snipes, Campbell College; Malcolm Laxton, Appalachian State Teachers' College.

Secretary: Mary Elizabeth Elam, Meredith College.

Reporter: Nelson Blake, Duke University.

OUR CHALLENGING TASK

Even though our growth has been phenomenal we still are confronted with a gigantic task of enrolling and enlisting two-thirds of our young people, and of making B. Y. P. U. increasingly effective. Of the 2,307 churches in the state 1,070 have B. Y. P. U.'s, or 46 per cent, thus leaving 1,237 without unions, or 54 per cent. There are 58,489 B. Y. P. U. members and 106,881 Baptists of B. Y. P. U. age yet to be reached. The larger part of our task is yet ahead of us.

A. PROMOTIONAL WORK ON THE FIELD

The promotional work has been twofold, on the field and through the office.

DEPARTMENT PERSONNEL

The personnel of this department has been slightly changed during the year. J. Andrew Morgan left us to return to the teaching profession in August. We were indeed sorry that financial conditions made it necessary to give him up. He did splendid work and proved himself a worthy co-worker. The present personnel, in addition to the secretary, are Miss Winnie Rickett, Junior-Intermediate Secretary, Miss Mary Ayscue, Field Worker, and Mrs. J. E. Tharrington, office secretary for half time. Other workers associated with the department doing both B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School work in Associations or groups of Associations are Miss Leona Harris, Mecklenburg-Cabarrus and Rowan Associations; Miss Naomi Braswell, Gaston Association; Mr. M. L. Jones, Mt. Zion Association; and Mr. A. V. Washburn, in six Associations west of Asheville.

ENLARGEMENT CAMPAIGNS

There have been eight enlargement campaigns with a total of 106 churches participating.

We give here the Associations where the campaigns were held with the number of coöperating churches in each one: Mt. Zion, 32 churches;

Tar River, 23 churches; Haywood, 7 churches; Mitchell, 10 churches; South Fork, 6 churches; Neuse, 10 churches; Atlantic, 10 churches; and Charlotte with 8 churches.

In all of these churches a special worker, regular or volunteer, spent eight days enrolling new members, organizing new unions and seeking to make B. Y. P. U. more effective in the life of the church.

REGIONAL CONVENTIONS

The five Regional Conventions this year were larger and of a higher order. The chart given herewith presents the record for the year with the plans projected for 1931.

Region	Place	Registered Attendance	President	Junior Intermediate-Leader	Place 1931	Date 1931

STATE B. Y. P. U. CONVENTION

The State B. Y. P. U. Convention met at Mars Hill, June 24-26. There was a registered attendance of 634. Of course there were hundreds present who did not register. The management felt the convention was a success from every point of view. Charles B. Howard remains State President. Mrs. J. A. Yost is serving as state Junior-Intermediate sponsor.

PROPOSED CHANGE IN CONVENTION

The committee appointed at the recent B. Y. P. U. Convention to determine the place, time and type of program for the annual convention in 1931 has selected Ridgcrest for the place and set July 4-10 as the time with a six day program which will retain the inspirational features of the past conventions and in addition have study course classes. The afternoons to be given to recreation.

NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST ASSEMBLY

The North Carolina Baptist Assembly was held at Ridgcrest, July 20-26. The department coöperated in its promotion and execution.

ASSOCIATIONAL CONVENTIONS

North Carolina has sixty-seven district Associations. Fifty-nine of them have Associational B. Y. P. U. organizations. Fifty-five have held an annual convention during the year. Some member of, or some person representing the department, attended forty-seven of these conventions.

REGIONAL TOURS

A most effective part of our work has been the conferences in which we engaged. They were put on by regions, five or more to the region, touching every part of the state. Last winter and spring seventeen such conferences were conducted. So this fall a tour of the entire state was made. Thirty conferences were held. Three hundred and thirty-seven churches were represented. Twenty-five hundred and twenty-seven people were in attendance. These meetings were open to pastors, leaders and officers. The lunches served by the churches entertaining the conferences proved to be most delightful features. Contacts with leaders from about one-third of our churches with B. Y. P. U.'s were made.

STUDY COURSE WEEK IN THE SCHOOLS

B. Y. P. U. study course week was observed by our seven Baptist schools and four Baptist churches adjacent to state schools. The department directed and assisted with these projects.

MISS AYSUE'S PLAN OF WORK

Miss Ayscue orders her plan of work along the following lines:

1. Advanced preparation for Associational Enlargement Campaigns.
2. Participation in the larger campaigns.
3. Regular work in several Associations during the year, spending at least a month in each Association.
4. Participation in the Regional and State Conventions.

B. PROMOTIONAL WORK THROUGH THE OFFICE

CONTRIBUTIONS

The department, by contributing articles to the B. Y. P. U. and Sunday School Magazines and contributing a half page to the Biblical Recorder weekly appreciates this opportunity of reaching our constituency through these periodicals.

A UNIFORM SCHEDULE OF EMPHASIS

Annually a "Calendar of B. Y. P. U. Activities" outlining specific objects to be emphasized monthly is mailed to all B. Y. P. U. organizations. Attention is called to these activities regularly through the Biblical Recorder.

ANNUAL STATE-WIDE STUDY COURSE WEEK

March 9-14 was observed as the annual "State-wide Study Course Week." Posters and letters were mailed out from the office giving information about and urging the observance of this occasion. Next year instead of Study Course Week, March will be designated "Study Course Month."

OFFICE ROUTINE

It is amazing the amount of office work that seems to be necessary to promote our present B. Y. P. U. program which is increasing all the while. The detail work in the office has increased as rapidly as B. Y. P. U. has grown.

Some items of work are given here:

Department of Education

One year ago we announced the fact that Secretary M. A. Huggins had accepted the professorship of Education in Meredith College. Under a special arrangement with your General Board he has given part of his time to the educational work of the Convention. He gave the three summer months to assistance in the Centennial Movement. He now offers his resignation as Secretary of Education, and will devote all of his time to the work of his department at Meredith College. We wish to bear testimony to his faithfulness and zeal in the work of the Convention, and to express our personal appreciation of his faithful and devoted assistance in all of the trying and difficult times through which we have gone together these five years. We shall sorely miss his wise and sympathetic council, and it is with deep and unfeigned sorrow we see him sever his relation with us.

We give below (Page 79 f.) his annual report of the work of our schools.

1. OUR CRITICAL DEBT SITUATION

This Convention has faced many critical hours in its long history of one hundred years. There were the trying days of the Civil War when all the work of the Convention was suspended except preaching to the soldiers in the camps. There followed the dark days of reconstruction, even worse in some ways than the war itself. But we say now deliberately and soberly that we have come to one of the most critical and trying hours ever reached in the life of this Convention. Therefore, we deemed it the part of wisdom to send out some days ago, to all of our people, a call to prayer for divine wisdom and guidance in this critical hour of the Convention's life and work. This year of unrest and economic depression has been one of the most trying and difficult experiences through which we have ever passed. We now bring the problem where it belongs, to the Convention itself, and we entreat you not to turn aside to the consideration of any other matter, however important it may seem, until you have found a solution of this problem.

At the meeting of the Executive Committee in June, another committee of fifteen brethren and sisters, consisting of J. M. Broughton, Chairman; E. J. Britt, Sanford Martin, T. A. Avera, C. B. Deane, Hubert Olive, J. B. Grice, Wingate M. Johnson, Oscar Creech, A. Wayland Cooke, Mrs. Ben W. Parham, Mrs. W. K. McGee, Mrs. Paul Price Davis, Arch C. Cree and B. T. Fall was appointed to take under consideration the whole question of the bonded indebtedness of the Convention. This committee has had two meetings and will bring its findings and recommendations to the Convention as special order Wednesday at twelve o'clock.

The committee will bring you in detail the facts and figures with respect to these debts, but we deem it wise to give you here a brief summary of the situation.

Bonds and notes in banks, endorsed and underwritten by the Baptist State Convention:

Original bond issue Meredith College	$ 450,000
Whitney Bank	464,000
Two Raleigh Banks	77,500
Boiling Springs	16,000
Wingate	9,000
Campbell	20,000
Mars Hill	5,800
Total	$1,042,300

On December 1 we must meet $50,000 principal on the first bond issue and $12,500 interest. We must pay the banks of Raleigh $77,500. On February 1, 1931, we must meet the Whitney Bank loan of $50,000 principal and $12,450 interest. On February 1, 1931, we must meet the Mars Hill loan of $5,800 and interest of $174. Thus it will be seen that between now and February 1, 1931, the Convention must meet principal and interest totaling $210,494.

The supreme task before this Convention is to face in all seriousness the problem of this crushing debt and find a solution for it. We have made our suggestions and recommendations to the committee appointed for the consideration of the matter. We bring you, however, two recommendations that you may have ample time for their consideration.

We all realize that if we save the honor and credit of the Convention, we must have the unselfish devotion and combined wisdom of the entire body, but we have felt very acutely during the past year, the need for the best wisdom and advice of a small group of our outstanding business men. The problem of handling a million dollar debt, the possibility and probability of being compelled to refinance a part, at least of this obligation, makes it imperative that your General Board and General Secretary have the counsel and practical help of a small group of the wisest and keenest business and professional men among us.

1. Therefore, we recommend that this Convention elect nine men, who shall be known as the "Convention Advisory Commission," whose duty it shall be to carefully review and consider all matters pertaining to the educational debts of the Convention, and make recommendations to the General Board and the Trustees of the Convention in the handling of all these matters.

2. There will be falling due for the next several years on Convention debts, underwritten for the several schools, bonds and interest averaging at least $150,000 per year. In addition to this there has accumulated indebtedness in banks totaling $77,500.

The income from the Coöperative Program now going for education will have to be applied on the debts of the Convention. This will not total more than $75,000 for 1931 under present economic conditions.

It is therefore imperatively necessary that the regular income for the liquidation of the debts of the Convention shall be materially increased, if we are to save the honor and credit of the Convention. We have maintained through many years now the 50-50 basis of division of our Coöperative Program funds between State and Southwide objects. We have been very reluctant to recommend any change in this division of our funds. But if we meet the pressing obligations of the Convention, we see no other way out of the difficulty. We have likewise dreaded the thought of reducing our State Mission work, but we are more jealous for the honor and integrity of the Baptist State Convention than we are for any agency or work of the Convention.

We recommend, therefore, the following schedule of percentage division of the funds of the Coöperative Program for the year 1931:

State		Southwide
Convention Debts	33c	Foreign Missions	25c
State Missions	16c	Home Missions	10c
Ministerial Education	2c	Southwide Education	5½c
Hospital	4c	Relief and Annuity	3½c
	<hr/>	N. O. Hospital	1c
			45c

This rearrangement of the percentage division of the Coöperative Fund ought to produce at least $105,000 for the debts of the Convention on the basis of the present income. We hope to secure from unpaid pledges on the Centennial Fund not less than $50,000 for 1931, but owing to the uncertainty of this source of income, we recommend that this whole matter be referred to the committee appointed to consider the whole debt situation.

2. THE CURRENT SUPPORT OF OUR SCHOOLS

Because of lack of funds, the General Board has been compelled to withdraw support from all the schools for current support for the fall session. We paid the colleges the following amounts for current support for the spring term:

Wake Forest	$ 4,000
Meredith	3,000
Chowan	3,500
Mars Hill	3,250
Campbell	2,500
Wingate	2,500
Boiling Springs	1,750
Total	$20,500

We regret exceedingly the inability of the Convention to give further aid at present on current support, but we hope that the economic situation will so improve within the year, and that our total offerings will increase to such a figure, that we may be able to care for the indebtedness of the Convention and at the same time have something to give the various schools for current support.

In the meantime, we recommend that every school be given a free hand to approach all friends and alumni, as individuals, for support, endowment and equipment. Now is the time for the friends and constituency of these schools to come to their relief if they are ever going to do so.

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION

In accordance with instructions given by our Executive Committee, and with the willing and sympathetic coöperation of the schools, we have turned over to each school the selection of the ministerial students receiving aid and the expenditure of the funds available for this purpose. Thus the responsibility for closer supervision of both beneficiaries and funds is put back upon the local school.

We shall need at least six thousand dollars next year for ministerial education. We suggest that two per cent of our Coöperative Program funds be set apart for ministerial education. This, together with what we receive from the special day in the Sunday Schools in July, will be sufficient for ministerial education for 1931.

3. DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

M. A. HUGGINS, Secretary

In the providence of God the year now closing has been one of substantial achievement. It is safe to assert that the quality of work done by the Junior Colleges has been gradually improved while, on the whole, their financial problems have become more and more difficult. This Centennial year finds our Baptist people under the necessity of revising our educational policy. Secondary education has been all but secularized in this country during the past twenty-five years. Shall the same process cover also the field of higher education? Probably the next twenty-five, possibly the next ten, will answer the question, and the answer will depend largely on what the denominations, our own and others, do this year and certainly within the next ten. These institutions of ours must, in view of the standards which they must meet, have faculties, equipment, and income somewhat commensurate with those of state institutions if they are to retain a modicum of respectability. It is often said that our schools cannot compete with state schools. Such a declaration is often made by those who use it as an excuse for their failure, and the failures of others, to provide sufficient funds for our schools. A moment's thought will convince anyone, who will take the trouble to make even a casual inquiry, that we MUST compete with state institutions. We must have superior faculties, substantial equipment and an adequate income; and it is precisely those things which cost money. In other words our institutions must differ from the state institutions in aims, purposes and, to some extent, methods. But these differences do not affect the cost of an education in the least. Perish the thought that an institution owing allegiance to the name of Christ should be operated more cheaply than one whose allegiance is to the state.

If we give assent to the implications involved in the foregoing paragraph we thereby admit that our Centennial year brings to us a mighty challenge. It is not the challenge of the next hundred years, nor even of the next decade. It is the challenge of this immediate year. We are suggesting no solution. We simply and emphatically declare that a solution must be sought NOW. Probably this Convention has faced no more critical problem in these hundred years of its history. For what is done now will likely give direction to the history which shall be made in the century which lies ahead. Your attention is specifically directed to the tables which close this report. The fathers in 1830 began with nothing. We have during the century accumulated in our institutions an endowment of $3,022,091.97 and property valued at $3,479,382.17. We should thank God, take courage and go forward!

SECTION I

General Items. a. In requesting of the several institutions, the material for this report, each was asked to record any outstanding achievement of the year. Mars Hill reports: "Closed the year without debt in a difficult financial season." Campbell reports: "All members of the faculty doing college work have at least the M.A. degree. The first Junior College class, at least eight of them, completed their four year course in Senior Colleges. Boiling Springs reports: "The library was enlarged and equipped to meet the standard requirement." Alexander Schools Inc. reports: "We now have 200 children in our dormitories and others begging for admission. During the summer of 1930 a gymnasium was erected at a cost of $5,000." This institution has no direct connection with the Convention but since it is doing a most valuable work, and since it is Baptist in spirit, the above facts regarding it are recorded.

Among the Southwide institutions only two reported. The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary reports a reduction in capital bonded debt from $834,000 to $735,000, an enrollment for last session of 422 from thirty-eight states and sixteen other lands, and the introduction of a course of study leading to the Ph.D. degree. The Baptist Bible Institute reports the continuance, by authority of the Southern Baptist Convention, of the "Emergency Appeal" to cover accumulated debt. It is seeking to secure about $100,000 so as to get relief from the "grinding burden of the past few years."

b. About five years ago a uniform accounting system was installed in the several institutions of the Convention. Were it not for this system the comparative tables which appear in this report could not be given. The General Board has been providing for the general audit of the several institutions without cost to them. Owing to the scarcity of funds the General Board doubts whether it should bear the total cost of the audit, which has been for the past five years about $1,000 per year. The general audit should by all means be continued, assuming that the Convention desires the real facts concerning its institutions.

SECTION II

Faculty changes. In recording these changes, special mention should be made of several important changes. Dr. Francis P. Gaines resigned the Presidency of Wake Forest to accept the Presidency of Washington and Lee University. He is succeeded by Dr. Thurman D. Kitchin who until the time of his election to the presidency was Dean of the School of Medicine in Wake Forest College.

Rev. J. B. Davis, President of Boiling Springs, is succeeded by Dr. Zeno Wall. Prof. J. D. Huggins, after an absence of a year, returns to the institution to which he has given many years of faithful service, and is serving as Dean.

Prof. J. B. Huff, who rendered fine service as President of Wingate for the last six years, has returned to Mars Hill as head of the Department of English. He succeeds Phil L. Elliott at Mars Hill and is succeeded at Wingate by Rev. Coy Muckle.

Other faculty changes:

1. Wake Forest: Resignations—Nevill Isbell, C. P. West, C. J. Whelan, R. L. McMillan. New faculty members—R. R. Herling, G. C. Mackie. Net decrease 2.

2. Meredith: Resignations—Eva Woodall, Hermine C. Steuven, Lucile Burris, Mary E. Graydon, Connie May Horne, Harriett M. Boyd, Madeline Brown, Emily Parsons, Mrs. Sarah Lambert Blalock, Barbara Pike. New faculty members—Ethel Day, Hesta Kitchin, Alverda Rosel, Thelma MacIntyre. Net decrease 7.

SECTION III

Ministerial Education. Since Dr. R. T. Vann became Education Secretary of the Convention, it has been the duty of the secretary to administer funds set apart for Ministerial Education. This has necessitated careful inquiry into the character and fitness of all who applied for such aid and has required much time. Since the number applying is much smaller than in previous years and the amount available for this purpose is much smaller, the Executive Committee of the General Board changed, during the past summer, the policy which has been followed as stated above. Under the present plan, a stated amount is sent each month to each institution having ministerial students enrolled and a committee in each institution selects the beneficiaries and disburses to them the amount sent from the treasury of the Convention. At the end of each year, each institution will report the names of the beneficiaries, and the amount received by each, to the General Secretary so that in his office may be kept a permanent record of the individuals aided. Many of those who have received this aid have never preached. From these the secretary has secured since his last report, about $600 as payment on their accounts. The total amount thus due will amount to at least $15,000 and some effort should be continued to collect it. Surely a part of this is collectible.

SECTION IV

The following exhibits reveal the outstanding financial facts concerning the institutions which the Convention supports. These facts are gleaned from the general audit to which reference has previously been made.

Exhibit A reflects the operations for the year 1929-30. Expenses for repairs and replacement are included but not expenses incurred for permanent improvements. Column 8 headed "Profit or loss if one-half of the student accounts are collected" gives a truer picture, probably, of actual operating income and expense than is found elsewhere. Some institutions will possibly collect more than 50% of the student accounts due them, but, on the whole, a larger per cent than this could hardly be counted on with safety.

Exhibit B reflects the exact condition of each institution on 6-30-30. Interpret as follows: If student account due the institutions and supplies on hand were converted into cash and the cash on hand added to this amount, Wake Forest could meet all current liabilities and have a surplus of $1,641.72, of course with its plant and endowment intact. In like manner Meredith would have a surplus of $10,098.29, excluding indebtedness assumed by the Convention; Chowan a deficit of $8,756.89; Mars Hill a surplus of $27,529.82; Wingate a deficit of $31,619.07; Campbell a deficit of $3,533.84; Boiling Springs a deficit of $9,013.51. Concerning the four institutions last mentioned, the amount of indebtedness for which the Convention is responsible is not included. If, however, only fifty per cent of student accounts due the institutions are collectible, the deficits are as follows: Wake Forest, $14,201.96; Meredith, $14,353.72; Chowan, $15,066.04; Wingate, $38,252.67; Campbell, $10,457.55; Boiling Springs, $12,453.13. Mars Hill has a surplus of $15,654.40.

The following, Exhibit D, is inserted here for the information of the Convention. While the amount is small when compared with the support given by the state to its institutions—our state university received for current support alone during the biennium ending 6-30-30 an amount about equal to the total here shown—the Convention may justly take pride in this accomplishment. It must be remembered that until the Seventy-five Million Campaign, the support which the Convention as a Convention, gave to the educational institutions was largely moral. The amounts which Wake Forest, Meredith, and Mars Hill received were used in part to secure gifts from the General Education Board and Mr. M. C. Treat of California. Let it be understood that these figures do not include the expenditures for Ministerial Education in the several institutions. During this period about $125,000 was expended for this purpose.

During the 75 Million Campaign Mars Hill received funds through the Home Mission Board and Boiling Springs received more than is indicated above direct from its supporting associations. In the above statement, the amounts given to Campbell and Wingate are approximately correct. Owing to a few errors in making entries it is not possible to determine now the exact amounts without a re-examination of each individual entry. The difference is quite small.

Department of Benevolences

This department includes Orphanages, Hospitals and the work of the Old Ministers Relief and Annuity Boards. Dr. R. T. Vann has the general office oversight of this phase of our work. We submit the following reports:

1. RELIEF AND ANNUITY BOARD

R. T. VANN, Secretary

While in the larger sense all Christians are God's ministers, Baptists still believe, as they have ever believed, that certain men are divinely called to the special work of preaching the gospel. It is the will of God and our own desire that these men should devote all of their time to their calling, and the true preachers wish to do so.

MINISTRY NO MONEY-MAKING ENTERPRISE

The Christian ministry is not a money-making enterprise, and was never meant to be. There are cogent reasons why preachers should not attempt to accumulate a fortune. First of all, they have no time for making money. Whatever their impressions on entering the ministry, the longer they live, the larger seems their task and the heavier the burdens of their calling, until they are constrained to cry out, "Who is sufficient for these things?" Next, they are not permitted by public sentiment to do this. However, mighty in speech and blameless in life, when a preacher acquires the reputation of a money-maker, or evinces a ruling desire to accumulate wealth, he awakens more or less of suspicion and distrust. Witness the tragic example now on the minds of the American people. To the preacher, then, with more of emphasis than to any other comes the warning of the aged apostle: "He that would be rich falleth into temptation and into many foolish and hurtful lusts."

Therefore, with no time to spare and in the face of public sentiment, the minister has no opportunity for money making. His is the one calling that is shut off from the pursuit of wealth.

Finally, from the teachings and example of the New Testament, it was intended that he should rely upon his people for his physical support; and certainly, in doing so he is following the example of his divine Master.

So, over the portals of the preacher's career is written: "Who enters here leaves the hope of wealth behind."

THE FACT AT LAST RECOGNIZED

While fully aware of these facts, and by no means indifferent to the comforts of their aged and disabled preachers, it was not until recent years that our people took any general and concerted action looking toward this end. But eleven years ago the Southern Baptist Convention undertook such an enterprise by creating the Relief and Annuity Board.

But our people did not start this enterprise in a spirit of mere charity, as if they were doling out dimes to beggars at their doors, or contributing to a community chest. Worthy as such gifts are, and however worthily bestowed, they are only the outflowing of common humanity, and not a distinct mark of Christianity. "Do not even the publicans the same?" In maintaining this Board we recognize, first that we are trying to discharge, in part at least, a long standing obligation, as Paul points out in I Cor. 9:4-14 and I Timothy 5:17, 18. Having denied these old men the opportunity of laying by a competency for the inevitable time of need while giving their lives to our services, the least we can do is to see that they do not suffer for common comforts in the helplessness of age and infirmity.

Another motive is that of love. We are bound to our worthy pastors by ties unlike any others on earth. We have labored together with them through years of service; we have sometimes sat together with them in spiritual festivals at the King's table; and we have gone together with them through deep waters in the fellowship of suffering, and in their old age we wish to share our comforts with them.

So these two are the motives that created and sustained the Board: the sense of justice and the sentiment of affection.

HOW THE BOARD OPERATES

This Board conducts its work under two departments. The first, called the Relief Department, undertakes to make monthly allocations, as far as practicable, to all needy and worthy Baptist ministers and their families. The funds for this purpose are derived from two sources: First and chiefly, from regular contributions through the Coöperative Program. Of the total amount received for the Coöperative Program, $3\frac{1}{2}\%$ is set aside for these monthly allocations, instead of $4\frac{1}{2}\%$ as formerly. But this seeming loss is more than made up in the fact that whereas heretofore 45% of such receipts were set apart for permanent investment, hereafter all receipts will be available for regular allocations. So that, instead of diminishing, the total amount available for allocations will be increased, provided the contributions continue as usual. The other source from which money for allocations is derived is the Permanent Relief Fund, whose interest is available for emergencies. It is the policy of the Board to reinvest this interest as far as possible, and thus slowly accumulate a large Fund whose interest can be used not only for emergencies but for regular allocations. But for the last few years, receipts from the Coöperative Program have so diminished and the number of applicants for aid has so increased that the Board has been compelled to draw heavily on this resource. Last year, for example, the receipts from the churches in all the south for this object were only \$63,767.81, while the Board paid out in allocations \$126,198.44, nearly double the amounts received from the churches.

THE ANNUITY DEPARTMENT

The other department is called the Annuity Department. This differs from the other in two respects: The Relief Department seeks to relieve need; the Annuity Department seeks to prevent need. And under the Relief Department, all needy and worthy ministers and their families receive free aid, while under the Annuity Department, only those are eligible for aid who contribute annually a small amount to the Annuity Fund. These receive $500 yearly at the age of sixty-eight, or before if they become totally disabled; at their death, their families receive $300 annually.

But the Board has seen fit to abolish this particular plan and substitute in its place what is called the "Service Annuity Plan." This change was made because it was found that the old plan could not be successfully carried out for an all-inclusive membership, and also because the new plan will pay larger benefits. This new department, authorized by the last Southern Baptist Convention, is now functioning, with Rev. F. H. Vermillion as Managing Director. Applications for admission under this plan are being received daily, and certificates will be issued as soon as a sufficient number have applied. For particulars, write Secretary T. J. Watts, Dallas, Texas. However, all existing contracts made under the former plan will be fully carried out by the Board.

A MUNIFICENT GIFT

The assets of the Board will be materially increased when the munificent bequest of $500,000, announced by that large-hearted benefactor, John D. Rockefeller, shall be turned over in cash or securities. This Convention, I am sure, will join heartily in the resolution of grateful appreciation of Mr. Rockefeller's donation that was passed by the last Southern Baptist Convention.

2. REPORT ON THE HOSPITAL

G. T. LUMPKIN, Superintendent

The North Carolina Baptist Hospital is no longer an experiment. For seven and a half years it has served in the field of social service, answering the call of North Carolina's sick, and needy Baptists. And for these years it has never turned a case down whose application was properly endorsed by the church and physician.

The free services rendered this year has far exceeded any other year, and has taxed the hospital almost to a breaking point. We are grateful to our Heavenly Father and our Baptist people for the good favors that have made it possible to meet all these demands thus far, and for the most part, these patients have gone back home happy and well. Only the records of Heaven can tell the lives saved, the homes preserved from the wreckage and dissolution and the children we have saved from the tragedies of an orphan's life. By the great sacrifice and painful economy, we have cared for them and we bless God for every benefit we have conferred on them. We gave our best and left the results with the Great Physician.

Fifteen thousand four hundred patients have been admitted since our opening. These have come from every quarter of the state and from other states. They have come afflicted with almost every sort of disease and bound by deformities. Our missionaries, college students, ministers, and their families, widows, and orphans have come and we have responded to their cry. By your coöperation and contributions, you have made the Baptist Hospital a veritable life saving station for the suffering and dying Baptists of our state, and we pause to pay our tribute of love and appreciation to the great Baptist host for their coöperation.

The hospital needs more than ever before the support of well-to-do Baptists in the state who can pay for their hospital care. The good roads makes it possible for you to go to your own hospital with little or no inconvenience. The splendid advantages we can offer over the smaller institutions make your coming a real financial and physical investment. The very low death rate, the modern equipment, the fine medical staff and nursing force we have for your service, all contribute to the advantage you will enjoy in your own hospital. In addition to all this, the wonderful spiritual atmosphere has a splendid effect in the healing of diseases and the restoration to health. It will pay you in moral values as well as in dollars and cents to go to the Baptist Hospital and verily we need your support. Your money will enlarge our possibilities of service for those who must come but cannot pay.

We herewith give you a brief summary of our work for this year and an outline of our needs as they appear at this moment:

Two thousand six hundred fifty-two patients have been admitted to our care in the last twelve months. Of this number 622 were full charity, and 599 were part pay patients. Since January 1st there have been 16,869 patient days. Of this number 8,163 were charity days, 4,147 were part pay days and 4,519 were full pay days. You can see that over one-half of the patient days brought us no revenue at all. Our income from pay patients has been less this year, although we have had a larger number of patients. We have received $1,225.00 less from Mother's Day than last year, and yet, we are doing about thirty per cent more charity. This work of caring for those who cannot pay has grown from just a little over $5,000.00, the first seven months of our operation to $45,500.00 last year, and this year the charity work will cost approximately $60,000.00. These patients were sent to us by our Baptist churches in the state.

In addition to this tremendous financial load, the four per cent no longer takes care of the interest on our debt and retires the bond coming due each year. We will have to take out of our operating account at least $7,500.00 this year to meet these bonds January 1st. The hospital has retired $40,000.00 of its indebtedness and built and paid for a $50,000.00 Nurses Home. But the continual falling off of receipts and the increasing demands for charity has made the meeting of these obligations an impossibility. We have reached the limit of our endurance. There must be an increase in revenue or a cutting down of charity work.

The only solution we can see is for the churches sending charity patients to pay a part of the expenses necessary to take care of the patient sent. This would not be asking a great deal of the churches or community and at least a part of the responsibility for the sick should be carried by the community in which the sick person lives.

Our Board would suggest that the Convention at this session go on record as approving the plan of asking each church or community sending a charity patient to pay $1.50 a day of that patient's expenses. The hospital cannot take the charity in the present proportions without this aid, but with this coöperation, which will not be a burden to any church or community, all these needy ones can be cared for. And further the hospital will be enabled to do a larger and more deserving charity work next year.

Our record of Christian ministry for the healing of our Baptist people is before you. We have received them all in the spirit of the Great Physician and done our best for them. We want to continue in this large way to save life and heal the diseased. We therefore plead for your coöperation in a greater material way that no one shall be turned away to die uncared for.

The wonderful blessing and favor of our Lord in this work should be our greatest incentive to make every sacrifice that the work may go on to even greater proportions.

We plead with our Sunday Schools for a greater Mother's Day offering. Fifteen hundred of our Sunday Schools have never given us a cent for this glorious work. What a mighty source of revenue they would provide if they would join hands in this great business of healing! We must have $25,000.00 for this work. Without this amount we can never give the service the thousands of North Carolina Baptists need. They are sick and hopeless unless we help. We can raise this much; let's say "It shall be done next year."

May I also suggest that our Baptist people of means can leave a perpetual stream of love and service for humanity by remembering the hospital in their wills. Fifteen thousand dollars left the Baptist Hospital will provide a bed in our ward for charity work for all time. This bed will take care of 24 persons on the average each year. Can you think of a richer provision for his fellowman than this investment in health and life? Think of the thousands whose lives you will save, waiting to meet you in the great beyond, and to tell your blessed Lord how you saved their lives, kept their homes intact, and saved their children from the orphan's tragic life. I bid you remember this fine opportunity when you arrange your affairs for the future in the Kingdom of God. Already such an endowment and trust fund has been created and the Wachovia Bank & Trust Company has been made trustee to administer these funds. Brother T. T. Early, of Ahoskie, bequeathed the sum of $1,000.00 and Sister Martha Stamps, of Madison, left us the sum of $552.50. The income from these is to be used to care for deserving cases of charity. In the name of suffering humanity, we commend the royal action of these two lovers of men, and urge that you go and do likewise.

3. MILLS HOME

M. L. KESLER, General Manager

At this time all minds are thinking in terms of one hundred years. Our work for orphaned and dependent children runs back only half that distance. There was little need of organized effort in the earlier time. Family and neighborhood bonds, in those days, were strong enough to mend the breach made in the home by death or other calamity without calling for help from the outside.

In our complex life of today the whole social order is changed and the Mills Home, and the child welfare program for which it stands, has become one of the major tasks set for North Carolina Baptists.

In my report to this Convention one year ago I called attention to the need of a better understanding of our work in broader terms of the real need of the child in the institution and also in terms of child and family welfare. A large part of that report was devoted to this study. I cannot repeat here, but what was discussed there is becoming increasingly important. It is an expression of the profoundest thought and conviction of which I am capable. I am willing to submit that discussion to the best child welfare authorities of this country, and stand or fall by their decision. The first thought is that such a program, by increasing the field case-working force, would increase the expense account. On the contrary, when the breadth of the service and the larger number of vital contacts are considered, the per capita cost will be far less. Parts of such a program would lack some spectacular features, but would make up in everlasting values.

I deem it proper, since we are in this century-reminiscent mood, that we call over part of the honor roll of those who have stood behind and toiled in this great enterprise. A catalogue of the great hearts prompting the great gifts and the greater love and prayers for this haven of childhood would be impossible. They are the unknown soldiers of every battle for human welfare. But a few well known names long associated with this work stand out: J. H. Mills, R. D. Fleming, J. D. Hufham, Noah Biggs, W. R. Gwaltney, John C. Scarborough, T. H. Pritchard, C. E. Taylor, C. Durham, W. H. Pace, F. P. Hobgood, A. G. McManaway, C. M. Cook, G. W. Greene, W. B. Clement, E. Frost, R. R. Overby, J. M. Heck, and others whose names are also written in the real book of life. The initial and permanent impulse given to any high enterprise by such men as these places it beyond the possibility of failure. The discussion that fired the Convention of 1884, both for and against this undertaking, stands out in the annals of North Carolina Baptists.

J. H. Mills, who stands at the head of the column need not be discussed in this brief report. The Mills Home is but his lengthened shadow.

Ten years from the beginning, 1895, Rev. J. B. Boone took up the work. Mrs. Boone was made Lady Manager. Her work did not get into annual reports, but was registered on the hearts of hundreds of lonely children. The work of Mr. Boone has never been appreciated as it deserves. His was the task of building the larger structure on the foundation so well laid. The time had come for a better type of architecture. The people were ready for it and he led the way. He was a school man and at once organized the school into the graded form, and erected a building to house it. These improvements necessarily had to be slow. The mass of the people had not yet the idea that an orphan was entirely like others in his needs, hopes and joys. He organized the work, developed policies and made a lasting contribution to child care in North Carolina.

A few months after Mr. Boone took up the work Archibald Johnson became editor of Charity and Children, and has been at the helm of this unique publication to the present time. His work for thirty years thrust him out among the churches, but for the past five years, on account of rheumatism he has been deprived of this privilege, to the regret of himself as well as to thousands of his friends. Through the columns he has been a mighty power for righteousness and progress on every field—and certainly the foremost for the rights of childhood in our midst.

Enough has been said for the present about the writer and the last twenty-five years. The same period has been covered by the services of Miss Eulalia Turner as Lady Manager. She had already become familiar with the work, both as teacher and matron. Miss Turner lives up to her title, but to those who observe her in action, Lady Worker is more appropriate than Lady Manager. They are amazed at her powers of endurance and tireless energy.

OUR TREASURERS

The earlier ones were J. W. Oliver, H. L. Watson, J. M. Hilliard, and S. W. Hall. Ivey Allen, now holding a similar position with the Oxford Orphanage, served in this capacity from 1895 to 1899. He also taught and had charge of the activities of the larger boys. Mr. Allen was a man of sterling worth and will never be forgotten by those who knew him through those years.

In 1899 S. H. Averitt was selected to take charge of the farm and also to do the work of treasurer. He did both well. His outstanding service was on the farm and with the boys. His sprightly energy and intelligent interest in boys fitted him well for that field. His bubbling humor and knowledge of boys set him apart in handling young Americans. When he left in 1912 he carried with him the respect and love of a village of workers and children.

F. B. Hamrick succeeded Mr. Averitt as treasurer and business manager of Charity and Children. To him, more than any one else, is due credit for the financial success of the whole printing department. He at once began work on the subscription list and made it mean something. The job department was greatly enlarged and brought to a paying basis. But Mr. Hamrick was more than a treasurer. He had the unusual ability of finding places outside his regular duties where he could serve and rolled up his sleeves in cheerful performance. After seventeen years he left to serve Meredith College.

A year ago last July Mr. Hamrick was succeeded by R. D. Covington, who moves with ease into his place.

The superintendents of the Kennedy Home since its opening in 1914 are as follows: Hartwell Scarborough, Rev. G. L. Merrell, Rev. Theo. B. Davis, R. F. Hough, who moved over to Virginia to take charge of their orphanage. He was succeeded by his brother, J. C. Hough, who is now moving on beautifully with his work. It is impossible within the limits of this report to properly appraise the services of these men.

During the greater part of Mr. Boone's administration Mr. N. B. Moore was the efficient manager of the printing department. In 1910 C. M. Howell succeeded Mr. Moore. Mr. Howell is one of our own boys trained under Mr. Moore, and has handled the work with exceptional ability up to the present time.

Mr. B. F. Crutchfield, the tallest figure on our grounds, has had charge of our Holstein herd for twenty-two years. He and Mrs. Crutchfield, for a good part of this time, have had charge of the Mothers Building, a cottage for boys. Mr. Crutchfield's devotion to his cows is typical of the good shepherd who cares for his sheep.

TEACHERS

Space will not permit mention of all our teachers. The following have been principals of the school: Miss Annie Hall, Miss Hattie Edwards, B. C. Ingram, W. C. Harward, H. A. Helms, C. F. Gaddy, T. A. Whitener, J. L. Fortney and W. L. Bowman.

Miss Annie Hall began her work in 1892 with Mr. Mills. She was principal of the school. Her thirty-eight years of service stand out in the life of the Home. Certainly she has had no superior in the great qualities of character. Gentleness, strength, poise and judgment are fulfilled in "Miss Annie." She has the honor of touching more lives than any other person ever connected with the institution, an enviable record.

Miss Edwards, after teaching twelve years, in 1921 took charge of Mothers' Aid and has given herself to that most vital undertaking ever since.

It should be mentioned that Prof. and Mrs. L. W. Bagley were with us for a time and wound up their teaching days in our midst.

Miss Beatrice Council, for the length of it and the double capacity of her service, both as teacher and librarian, deserves special mention with appreciation.

Miss Betsie Rodwell, later Mrs. A. D. Hunter, has been intimately and vitally a part of our history. As Miss Rodwell she taught and after the death of Mr. Hunter she came back and taught again. For ten years she has been Head Matron at the Kennedy Home, and doing a blessed work in that position.

Miss Sallie L. McCracken has served in so many capacities that she is hard to classify, matron, teacher, stenographer and office secretary. At the close of Mr. Boone's time and at the beginning of the present administration she was all of these in one. The work in the office was light, so she had charge of a boys' cottage and taught at the same time. Here is an indication of the growth of our work, for now she is crowded with the work of office secretary alone, keeping the records and doing the correspondence of the General Manager. The other side of the office also has a set of typewriters that are not idle. For thirty-four years this exacting and important position has been held by Miss Sallie. Here is the mark of another change. In the old days it was "Miss Annie," "Miss Sallie," and "Miss Kate," but with progress and enlargement dignity and distance have made us more formal. Progress—perhaps, but we have suffered loss.

MATRONS

Glory gathers about the name of Mrs. Mary Presson, who was the first matron on the grounds. After a number of years of devotion to the children under her care she gave up her work and lived with her children. Frequently she visited the remaining friends of other days. On one of these visits she was taken violently ill and passed to the better land from the old cottage, the scene of her earlier days of love and toil, and now she sleeps in our little cemetery sloping toward the sun.

Miss Kate Warwick, from Robeson County, deserves a high place on the roll of real House Mothers. She spent more than twenty years with little boys. There was never on the grounds a more interesting sight than Miss Kate and the group of her little boys gathered in the house or in the yard as they talked and planned and worked together. There was always a twinkle of humor that added flavor to it all. She was a genius at understanding the boys and in directing their rollicking energies. After her health gave way, and in the hospital in her delirium, she talked about her boys, planning for their winter clothes. So on a day late in December, 1926, she passed from the earth with her heart still engaged with the Durham boys standing about her knees.

Twenty-five years ago Miss Mary Cook accepted a similar task. Her work has in the main been with little girls. The casual observer would perhaps at first conclude that Miss Cook was not performing rapidly enough. But when he goes to the Fleming Nursery and tarries long enough he will conclude that she has her cottage and her girls and her flowers all in hand and that if all the rest were cared for as well the management would have fewer worries.

Many other workers, teachers, matrons and others are just as worthy of mention as the above, but they have not served so long, but fully as well.

Here's how we stand at present. We have in the home 635 children. Of these 135 are at the Kennedy Home. With their own mothers cared for by Mothers' Aid there are 265, making in all cared for 900 children. Since November 11, 1885, in the home and by Mothers' Aid we have cared for 3,682 children. North Carolina Baptists are now aiding 20% of all the children cared for by Southern Baptists.

The past year has run its course without startling changes. The health of our children has not been perfect, but with few exceptions it has never been better. The seasons at Thomasville have been the best we have had for twenty-five years. We have had excellent crops. The same can be said for the Kennedy Home, for which we are grateful. Our supply of produce has been greatly increased by a large number of truck loads of potatoes, cabbage and apples from the Three Forks, Yancey and Mitchell associations. The generosity of these people has brought us under lasting obligations to them.

We are crowded to capacity. Strange to say, we have had a smaller number of applications during the year than during the times of the late wild prosperity. Then all were ready and working for a joy ride and hundreds were eager to pass their burdens on to us, that they too might join the gay throng of spenders. But now the wolf is at the door, and we are besieged with calls of distress, such as we have not heard hitherto in this land of opportunity.

Up till August our contributions were ahead of what they were on the same date a year ago. The drought in some parts, and the prophecy of low prices for farm products everywhere, suddenly sent a chill to the heart of our benevolence and we have been losing ground ever since. Our debt is now over fifty thousand dollars. The supreme task now is to handle this debt, and more. The Convention in a sister state, a year ago, ordered its orphanage superintendent to dispose of the children in two cottages by sending them away into as favorable care as possible. These two cottages now stand furnished, but empty and silent. Your General Manager would find it difficult to beat such a retreat in the face of the army calling for help.

It is possible to take this very deplorable situation we are in and use it to bring in one of the greatest Thanksgiving offerings we have ever received. No political campaign has a better organization than we have for reaching every person and in getting a response. We have two key men in every church, the pastor and the Sunday School superintendent. An earnest appeal from each of these, along with a definite plan for the offering is absolutely necessary. Ordinarily it is better not to take the offering on Thanksgiving Day, so few attend it. If that day is used, let the appeal remain open over Sunday, and thereby give everybody a chance to give. Pastors with more than one church will find it well to begin on a Sunday before Thanksgiving. Suggest that the gift be at least equal to one day's work, or income.

If this simple but complete organization is used cheerfully and unanimously there will be no doubt as to the results, the people will pay the debt, and more, if they have a chance. A great offering, in acknowledgment of God's good hand through a hundred years, ought to go far in stirring new life through all our ranks.

The Woman's Missionary Union

The Woman's Missionary Union, with its Auxiliaries, is doing much to nourish and keep alive the missionary spirit in the churches of the Convention. Many of our churches are burdened with the crushing weight of debt—burdened in some instances to the breaking point. The Woman's Missionary Society, in many instances, is about the only agency in the church that is supporting our missionary and benevolent activities. The women study missions, pray for missions and give to missions.

One of the most serious and distressing problems in many of our churches today is the growing tendency and practice on the part of the leaders in the church to appropriate and divert funds given for missions and benevolence to local church expenses, pastor's salary, interest and debts. Many church treasurers and deacons seem to have no conscience or scruples on this matter, and do not hesitate a moment, in an emergency, to lay hands on money given for missions, including even that given by the women and children during their seasons of prayer and self-denial—this one unholy practice is costing your Mission Boards thousands and thousands of dollars every year.

By way of illustration, here is what happens: The treasurer of the Woman's Missionary Society in the church turns over to the church treasurer the money given by the women. The treasurer takes the money and gives the Woman's Missionary Society his receipt for the amount given. She sends this receipt to the Treasurer of the W. M. U. in Raleigh, as an evidence of the amount given by the women. The State Treasurer of the W. M. U. publishes in the Recorder quarterly the amounts thus reported as having been given by the women in each church. In many cases we never receive the money. The church treasurer uses the money for local expenses and we never receive it. Last year the women reported total gifts amounting to $331,699.00. Our guess would be that we never received more than two-thirds of this amount. We could give you countless examples of this practice, together with the names of the churches and the amounts thus diverted. It is a practice that has become so open and flagrant that we believe this Convention ought to take some definite and authoritative action about it. The leaders of the W. M. U. have protested until protest has ceased to be a virtue, and we urge upon the Convention the imperative necessity of some action that will cure this evil.

Another growing evil is the practice of many churches of taking funds given for missions for debts and local expenses and giving nothing for missions except what the women give. More and more the tendency is to cut down on amounts given to missions and benevolence, and increase the amount used for local expenses. We wonder why our Mission Boards are in debt, and compelled to close mission fields at home and abroad, and call home missionaries. The reason is just here.

Our people are giving more money than ever before, but less and less of the amounts given goes beyond the local church. The record is that more than eighty per cent of all money given for Kingdom purposes is used in the local church. Only a little more than five per cent of the total given by the Southern Baptists goes for southwide work. If the practice continues, it will be only a few years, when our great Home and Foreign Boards will utterly collapse for lack of support. Surely this is a matter that should claim the serious and prayerful consideration of this Convention.

We give herewith the report of the W. M. U.

1. REPORT OF THE WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

All reports of the Woman's Missionary Union run with the calendar year, so this report presented nearly at the close of 1930 is for the year 1929. One can readily see why it is wise to have the same report presented to the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union in March, the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention in May, and the State Convention in November. The total gift of our women through their societies for this period was $284,774.74. There was no expectation that we would reach the amount of $345,199.99 given during the Ruby Anniversary Year of 1928, which was the largest amount we have ever contributed in one year.

It is with regret that we state that in the first three quarters of the present year there is a decline in our gifts of more than eighteen thousand dollars. There were several reasons contributing to this: the financial depression that spread all over our State following three years of crop failures; the dissatisfaction felt by many of our women at the present financial system of the Southern Baptist Convention. This was foreseen and was expressed in the memorial presented to the Southern Baptist Convention at Memphis, 1929, by the Woman's Missionary Union, Auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, when the present plan was first presented and discussed. This dissatisfaction with the financial plan has resulted in the women appropriating their gifts to objects other than those included in the Coöperative Program. That a like situation prevails throughout the churches in our Southern Baptist Convention is proven by the statistics prepared by Dr. Aldridge and given by Dr. McGlothlin, the president of the Convention, to our denominational press.

Another reason is the fact that since the beginning of the 75 Million Campaign the treasurers of our societies have paid their funds to the treasurers of the churches instead of sending them direct to the treasurer of our Convention. This has resulted in unnecessary delays, and in some instances the money given by the women for missions has been borrowed temporarily to meet urgent needs in the local budget. Some method must be worked out so that contributions will be sent as quickly as possible to the objects to which they are contributed, and funds secured for one object must not be used even temporarily for another.

Through the period of the Centennial Campaign our women have been constantly urged not only to pay their own pledge but to aid in every way possible the collection of the pledges made by the church. Last year we reported $102,433.04 to Christian Education; the year previous, $128,557.91; the first three quarters of the present year, $20,027.89, a total of $251,018.84.

There is no question but that the future of the work of our denomination rests largely on meeting the obligations of our Convention at the earliest possible time.

We close this year one hundred years of organized Baptist work in North Carolina and forty-five years of activity on the part of the Woman's Missionary Union. Looking to the coming century we are faced with two alternatives: the absorption of the Woman's Missionary Union into the church; or authorizing the W. M. U. to handle its own funds, paying all money collected directly to the Boards to which they were given.

Miscellaneous Items

1. THE SUMMER SCHOOL FOR PREACHERS

For several years now we have conducted at Meredith College a Summer School for Preachers. We believe the school has accomplished great good and we earnestly recommend that it be continued.

At the last session in June, a committee was appointed by the school to bring some matters to the attention of the Convention. The committee has received an offer from the Ridgecrest management to move the school to Ridgecrest. The committee will bring to the Convention its recommendations in this matter.

2. COMPILING OUR STATISTICS

Brother Walter M. Gilmore, the Recording Secretary of the Convention, for a number of years has been gathering and putting in shape the statistics of the Convention. He did this work in connection with his mission field work, without extra cost to the Convention. He left us July first, and Brother Perry Morgan kindly offered to do this work this fall, without cost to the Convention.

The committee on the survey of all our State Mission Budget and work are recommending that Brother Morgan continue this work and that he be relieved of the work of Secretary of Training Activities. This phase of the work is to be put into the hands of the General Secretary. Thus the statistical work of the Convention will be done by Brother Perry Morgan without extra cost to the Convention.

3. THE FUTURE OF OUR SCHOOLS

At the called meeting of the General Board on March 11, a committee was appointed to consider the whole matter of the educational program and policy of the Baptist State Convention. The following were appointed to serve on this committee: S. H. Templeman, Chairman, Mrs. J. Wilbur Bunn, W. O. Riddick, D. G. Brummitt, and S. L. Morgan.

This committee submitted a tentative report to the General Board, and the Convention will be asked for further instructions for the committee.

We believe this committee should be continued another year, and instructed to secure adequate, outside expert assistance, make a comprehensive and complete survey of our whole Baptist educational program, and report their findings together with their recommendations to the next Convention. We would recommend that the General Board be instructed to make a small allowance of funds for this purpose, if the committee deems it necessary.

4. SOUTH-WIDE FINANCIAL PLAN

The new South-wide financial plan adopted by the Southern Baptist Convention went into effect on January 1, 1930. The Convention one year ago instructed us to send all South-wide funds to the Executive Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention at Nashville, for distribution. We have carried out these instructions to the letter. However, we have to report that there is widespread unrest and dissatisfaction among our people over this new arrangement. We deem it wise for the Convention to review this matter carefully and give instructions anew to those having the matter in charge.

5. THE SPECIAL CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION AT GREENVILLE

On March 26-27, a special session of the Convention was held at Greenville, for the celebration of one hundred years of organized Baptist life in North Carolina. The sessions were largely attended and great enthusiasm and interest was manifested in the topics discussed. By order of this Convention, the addresses made at Greenville were published in book form. We have thus far sold about half enough to pay the printer, and are anxious to dispose of these books. They are now on sale with the Book Shop and we trust every messenger will secure a copy.

The Baptist Foundation

During the year we had an audit made of the books of the Baptist Foundation. Its affairs were found to be in splendid shape. The Foundation now holds in trust for the General Board the sum of $95,776.79, consisting of cash, securities, notes and mortgages, land, etc. We give herewith the report of the Trustees of the Foundation:

1. REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST FOUNDATION FOR THE FISCAL YEAR ENDING OCTOBER 31, 1930

At the close of business October 31, 1930, the North Carolina Baptist Foundation was administering fifteen trusts of the aggregate value of $125,705.01, which represents an increase of $30,579.28 during the year, which increase is due in part to additional principal being placed in trusts, and due in part to accumulated income undisbursed.

The present active trusts are as follows:

1. Two vacant lots in Sunset Park, Wilmington, North Carolina, valued at $900.00, the gift of Bro. W. L. Carter of Greensboro—object undesignated. There is carried in this trust the sum of $47.32 as a cash balance, the object of such sum being undesignated.

2. A fund of $39,833.62 now being held as an endowment for aged ministers of North Carolina. Upon instructions of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention, the Foundation has during this year paid $2,263.46 of income from this trust to the General Board.

3. A fund now amounting to $5,151.89 including income on hand in amount of $31.46 (the original principal being $5,000.00 from the Noah Biggs estate) as an endowment for mission work in the Roanoke Association. Income in the amount of $70.78 has been paid to the General Board of the Convention during the year.

4. A fund now amounting to $5,038.32 (the original principal being $5,000.00, also from the Noah Biggs estate) as an endowment for the building of churches in the Roanoke Association. Income in the amount of $332.06 has been paid during the year to the General Board of the Convention for such object.

5. A fund now amounting to $2,813.03 including income on hand in amount of $1.45 (the original principal being $2,500.00, also from the Noah Biggs estate) as an endowment for the relief of aged ministers. Income to the amount of $209.60 has been paid to the General Board of the Convention.

6. A fund now amounting to $2,509.41 including cash income on hand in amount of $9.41 (the original principal being $2,500.00, also from the Noah Biggs estate) as an endowment for ministerial education. Income to the amount of $149.68 has been paid during the year to the General Board of the Convention.

7. A house and lot in Newland, Avery County, North Carolina, valued at $10,000.00, for State Missions, subject to an annuity of $120.00 payable in monthly installments of $10.00 per month and payable by the Mission Board of the Baptist State Convention during the lives of Bro. D. P. Bridges and his wife, Mrs. Octa Bridges. No income from this trust.

8. A fund now amounting to $1,746.44 including cash income on hand in amount of $233.42, the name of the donor withheld at his request, which fund was increased during the year by a contribution of $413.02 from the donor of this trust and also by accumulated income during the year amounting to $62.94, which fund is held in perpetual trust as a memorial, the income to be paid annually to the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage, now known as the Mills Home. At the request of the Mills Home (the Orphanage) the income from this fund is, for the present, being accumulated.

9. Two lots in Sunset Park, Wilmington, N. C., also the gift of Bro. W. L. Carter, to be sold as soon as practicable and the proceeds held for the Orphanage.

10. Two lots in Sunset Park, Wilmington, N. C., also the gift of Bro. W. L. Carter, to be sold as soon as practicable and the proceeds held for the Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, N. C.

11. A certain remainder interest in the Susan A. Hurdle Farm in Edgecombe County, North Carolina, subject to the life estate of Mr. E. J. Hurdle, the value of which remainder interest is carried on the books of the Foundation at $10,852.40.

12. A fund now amounting to $4,682.37 including income on hand in amount of $295.27 is being held by the Foundation as agent for the Treasurer of the Denmark Loan Fund of Wake Forest College.

13. A fund now amounting to $801.58 including cash income on hand available for distribution in amount of $40.58 (the original principal being $761.00), the income from this fund to be used for ministerial students at Boiling Springs Junior College. This fund was placed in trust by the Gaston County Baptist Association, and income from this trust in the amount of $28.59 was paid during the year to Boiling Springs Junior College for the object designated.

14. A fund now amounting to $8,985.48 including cash income on hand in amount of $226.98, said fund having been received by the Foundation from the estate of the late Rev. G. H. Church to be held and the income to be used as follows: one-half of the net annual income to the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage (now Mills Home), and the other half of the net income annually to the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. The sum of $1,039.93 was received by the Foundation during the year from the estate of Rev. G. H. Church as the final payment from his estate, which brought the total of this fund to the total amount above stated. Income from this fund was paid during the year in the amount of $109.14 to the Mills Home (Orphanage) and in the amount of $109.14 to the Treasurer of the Foreign Mission Board.

15. During the year an estate of the estimated value of $28,685.48 was left to the Foundation by the late Mrs. Ida Y. Rogers of Raleigh, which fund is held in perpetual trust and the income payable to the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage (now Mills Home). (The assets of this trust, as left by Mrs. Rogers, are reported by the Fiscal Agent of the Foundation as including certain stocks and mortgage notes of uncertain value and it is probable that the actual value of the estate or fund will be somewhat less than the estimated value as stated above.) Income from this fund in the amount of $541.12 was paid during the year to the Mills Home.

A summary of the fifteen trusts shows that during the fiscal year the Foundation has distributed $3,813.57 of income and now has $784.46 of income on hand for distribution (after deducting an overdraft in cash income in three of the trusts).

The North Carolina Foundation has been functioning ten years during which time it has distributed $10,365.00 of principal and $25,408.58 of income among our Baptist objects, institutions and agencies, and has $784.46 of income on hand still to be distributed, making a grand total of $35,773.58 distributed.

In the last annual Report of the Foundation to the Convention the Trustees of the Foundation set forth their reasons for the belief that a representative of the Foundation be employed, such as an executive secretary, who would have the affairs of the Foundation in hand and maintain an office of the Foundation, as well as devote a large portion of his time presenting the Foundation, its opportunities and advantages to the Baptist people of the state, as well as solicit gifts, wills and trust funds from Baptists of North Carolina who would very probably like to make definite contribution to various Baptist causes or objects if they were thoroughly acquainted with the manner in which such can be done through the Foundation. The Trustees are still of the opinion that such full time representative, or executive secretary, should be employed as soon as the Convention is financially able to furnish the Foundation with such employee or official.

All of which is respectfully submitted to the General Board of the Baptist State Convention for its consideration.

CARROLL W. WEATHERS,
Secretary, North Carolina Baptist Foundation.

Historical Commission

Some nine years ago, the Convention instructed the Commission to begin the collection of data and make preparation for the writing and publication of a history of the rise and development of the Baptist movement in North Carolina. The Commission, about four years ago, engaged Dr. Geo. W. Paschal of Wake Forest to write the history. Dr.

Paschal has been at work faithfully and energetically now for several years gathering material and writing the first volume of our history. We are glad to announce that the volume has just come from the press and our Baptist Book Shop is ready to fill all orders. Those who have examined the book, tell us that it is a work of very high order and will doubtless prove to be of great value as a source book on our Baptist history in colonial North Carolina. The book is larger, by one hundred pages, and hence cost us more than we anticipated when the first announcement was sent out as to the size, price and matter covered. The printers tell us we will be compelled to sell the book for three dollars per volume, if we make enough out of the venture to pay for publication.

Chairman J. F. Alderman of the Historical Commission, submits his report as follows:

1. REPORT OF THE BAPTIST HISTORICAL COMMISSION

J. T. ALDERMAN

In the report of the Board of Missions to the Baptist State Convention which met at Rocky Mount in 1921, we find the following:

"We would call attention to the fact that nothing is being done in North Carolina in the matter of gathering and preserving Baptist historical information and data. In nine years our Convention will have reached the century mark, and it is high time that something official be done to gather and organize the wealth of Baptist historical data that may now be found throughout the state. Baptists have, through all the ages, been great makers of history, but have always been reluctant to record and preserve what they have done. We would urge upon the Convention the vital importance of making some adequate provision at this session for at least the beginning of a history of North Carolina Baptists."

Accordingly at that session of the Convention a Baptist Historical Commission was appointed; the following persons composed the Commission as first appointed: J. T. Alderman, W. A. Graham, W. R. Cullom, C. J. Black, and A. I. Justice. In subsequent years there were added to the Commission, M. Leslie Davis, Mrs. Ethel T. Crittenden, C. C. Pearson, J. A. Campbell, E. M. Brooks, and G. W. Paschal.

The Commission organized by naming J. T. Alderman, chairman, and W. R. Cullom, secretary.

At the first meeting various lines of procedure were freely discussed. Each member became a searcher after facts and materials for the work placed in our hands. We met twice each year for two years. There was a small fund to help pay our expenses at that time. Owing to circumstances this fund could not last. The expense to the individual members of the commission became so burdensome that it was not practical to hold regular meetings. A sub-committee was appointed to push the work, and if necessary, to call the commission together.

Dr. G. W. Paschal, of Wake Forest, was chosen to write the first volume of the history.

That first volume of our Baptist History has been completed and is now on sale. The printers must now be paid. We hope one thousand of the visitors to the Convention will buy the book during the session of the Convention.

During the last few years the cost of printing has nearly doubled; the price named for the book ($3.00) hardly covers the cost.

The book is a volume of rare value. The author has endeavored to embody as nearly as possible all the sources of our Baptist history in North Carolina. So much of our history is fragmentary and disconnected. He has attempted to gather up all odds and ends and to give them their proper setting. The book is a veritable mine of Baptist history for our people. It is full to the brim.

The present revival in working up our Baptist history is a great source of encouragement to the Commission. Churches from one end of the state to the other are searching as never before for information about their church history.

It has given us great pleasure to assist many church historians in working up the history. This should have been done many decades ago, but it is a happy consequence to know that it is occupying the minds of so many at this time.

Some of the associations should wake up and prepare full histories before the fast-vanishing materials shall have gone beyond recovery.

Biographical sketches of a large number of faithful ministers, laymen, and consecrated women should be prepared and published. We need a Baptist Biography in North Carolina.

The Baptist Book Shop

The Baptist Book Shop is owned jointly by the Baptist Sunday School Board and our General Board. Mrs. Roger Marshall, the Manager, is an excellent business woman and is making a fine success of the Book Shop. We give her report as follows:

REPORT BAPTIST BOOK SHOP

MRS. ROGER P. MARSHALL, Manager

The Baptist Book Shop, Raleigh, N. C., is owned jointly by the General Board of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention and the Baptist Sunday School Board, Nashville, Tenn.

Net sales for the year ending April 30, 1930, amounted to $38,166.48. The net worth was increased during the year by $254.57. This increase came about by additions to net worth in the sum of $4,475.71, which was the profit for the year, and from this amount was deducted the withdrawals of cash by both boards amounting to $4,221.14—$2,110.57 having been paid each board.

The Book Shop is operating on a paying basis. Total net worth at April 30, 1930, was $16,023.63 with no unpaid liabilities. During the five years under the present management a total profit of $11,965.31 has been paid out to both boards. Of this amount $5,982.67 was paid the North Carolina Board, and $5,982.64 was paid the Sunday School Board.

We handle all supplies for church, Sunday School, and B. Y. P. U., except quarterlies and periodicals, which should be ordered from Nashville. Our stock of books consists of study course books for all departments of the church, as well as the best books of current religious thought from the leading publishers; also children's books and books of a general nature; and a large stock of Bibles. By means of the catalogues at our disposal, we can secure any book in print.

We are anxious to render a distinctive service to North Carolina Baptists. We appreciate your coöperation and business and will endeavor to merit your continued patronage and support. A denominational investment is made when our store is patronized, as one-half the profit from the business is turned into State Mission channels, while the other half goes to the Sunday School Board.

Catalogues will be sent free on request.

The Proposed Centennial Pageant

We had hoped very much to be able to celebrate our Centennial with a great historic pageant, setting forth the growth and development of our Baptist life in North Carolina for the past one hundred years. We are glad to inform the Convention that Mrs. Ruth Carver Gardner of Dunn has written such a pageant. She is eminently qualified by inheritance and training for this task. After three months of investigation of all historic data available, and great labor and pains, Mrs. Gardner has produced a document of genuine worth and historic value. Those who have examined the pageant, pronounce it to be of the very highest order. Owing to lack of funds and insufficient time for preparation, we were compelled to postpone the pageant until a later date. We suggest that the Convention come back to Raleigh either next year, or the year following, and that ample preparation be made for the presentation of this pageant. We, therefore, suggest the appointment of a Pageant Committee for this purpose.

EXPLANATIONS

We are indebted to the clerks of the various Associations for furnishing us with the statistical information that follows. Without their coöperation it would not be possible to gather this information.

Names of churches having preaching every Sunday are printed in SMALL CAPS; those having preaching more than one Sunday in the month but not having services every Sunday are printed in italics.

Churches or single items marked (*) have the latest available data, in most cases 1929 figures are given.

We earnestly urge upon the pastors the supreme importance of keeping complete and accurate records of the work of their churches and urge them to encourage their church clerks and treasurers in doing this so that accurate data may be sent to the associational clerk who in turn passes this on to us and we pass it on to the great stream of Baptist history of the world.

PERRY MORGAN, Statistical Secretary.

STATISTICAL SUMMARY

From the standpoint of baptisms, numbers, Sunday school, Baptist Young People's Union, and Woman's Missionary Union membership gains, the year 1930 was a good one for North Carolina Baptists. There was a falling off in local and denominational gifts. Of course, spiritual gains and spiritual progress cannot be measured nor tabulated.

There are sixty-seven Associations of white Baptists. The number is the same as last year. Two Indian Associations, Burnt Swamp and Cherokee, have been added as associate members of the Convention. We succeeded in getting reports containing statistical data from all of them. In a few cases churches were omitted in the Associational statistics and 1929 figures were used in tabulating church and Sunday school membership.

BAPTISMS

Baptisms were reported by 1,735 churches while there were 649 churches that did not report any baptisms during the year. The total number baptized was 20,126. Twenty of the 31 churches in the Burnt Swamp and Cherokee Indian Associations baptized 139 people, making a total of 20,265.

NUMBERS

Associational meetings began about July 15 and continued to November 10 and according to letters and reports sent by the churches to these meetings there are 2,384 white Baptist churches, with a membership of 408,651. This represents an increase of 77 churches and 10,894 members over 1929. There are 31 Indian churches with 2,191 members.

GIFTS

For denominational enterprises total gifts amount to $709,487.38; for local church operations, $2,739,157.09; making a grand total of $3,448,644.47.

PER CAPITA

The average per capita gift for denominational objects was $1.74; for all contributions $8.44. The Piedmont Association led in per capita gifts for denominational objects with $4.92; the Pilot Mountain was second with $4.19 per capita. The Mecklenburg-Cabarrus Association led in per capita gifts to all objects with $17.09; the Pilot Mountain was second with $16.17; the Piedmont was third with $16.05.

There were 1,891 churches making some contributions to the objects fostered by the denomination while 493 churches did not report having any part in this phase of the work.

LIST OF ORDAINED MINISTERS

This roster of ministers is made up from the information furnished us by the Associational clerks. They get their information from the church clerks. We try to keep this list up to date. We would greatly appreciate it, therefore, if when you change your address you would notify us of the change. Not only do we get our mailing list here at Baptist headquarters in Raleigh from this list, but the North Carolina list in the Annual of the Southern Baptist Convention is taken from this list also. Please notify us promptly of any needed correction.

AUDITOR'S REPORT

Dr. Charles E. Maddry, General Secretary
North Carolina Baptist State Convention
Raleigh, North Carolina.

Dear Sir :

We submit herewith a summary of our detailed report on the audit of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, Raleigh, North Carolina, for the twelve months ended December 31, 1930.

Our detailed report will be submitted to you as soon as we have been able to work out and compile the necessary information and have had returns on verifications which we mailed out on some of the accounts.

SCOPE OF EXAMINATION

Our examination has been in detail and consisted of a verification of all Cash Disbursements as supported by vouchers issued in the regular course of business. We reconciled the vouchers issued during the year with those paid by the Treasurer, and we also reconciled the checks issued by him in payment of vouchers with the charges to his account by the bank. We also traced all Cash Receipts into the banks. We did not check the letters transmitting money to the Treasurer because all Cash Receipts are published in the Biblical Recorder and we have reconciled the Receipts as shown by the Treasurer with these published statements. By reconciling the charges and credits to the Treasurer's account by the banks with those recorded on the books of the Convention, we prove that there are no transactions passing through the Treasurer's accounts in the banks that are not going on the books, and after auditing in detail the recorded transactions on the books, we are in a position to state that, in our opinion, the Funds have been carefully and honestly handled during the twelve months ended December 31, 1930. At the close of our audit all paid vouchers were turned over to Miss Ivey, the bookkeeper, and the Treasurer has no vouchers in his possession except those paid by him in 1931.

We found the books in balance and are being well and accurately kept. No irregularities were disclosed during the course of our audit.

SUMMARY OF FUNDS BALANCES

In the several Exhibits of our detailed report, the Cash Receipts and Disbursements are set out in detail. For the sake of economy in space, we include in this statement only a summary of the Funds Balances as of December 31, 1930 and because the Treasurer has submitted to you his report showing the Cash Receipts and Disbursements of each Fund, which we have examined and found to be correct as he has submitted it to you. It will be noted, however, that a small difference appears in the balances as shown by the Treasurer's account and the balance as shown herewith as according to the books of the Convention. The cause of this difference is that as of the close of the year there are always a few vouchers which have been issued by the Convention and which have not been paid by the Treasurer. These vouchers are listed in our detailed report and account for the differences in the Cash Balances according to the Treasurer's Report and the balances as shown in this summarized statement.

The following is a summary of the Cash Balances in each Fund at December 31, 1930:

GENERAL FUND:

Regular Funds Balance	$14,960.52
Borrowed Money Fund—Balance	14,000.00
Total Balance		$28,960.52

STATE MISSIONS FUND:

Regular Fund—Overdraft	$19,205.73
Church Building Fund—Overdraft	1,756.01
Total Overdraft		20,961.74

Foreign Missions Fund—Balance	14,481.26
Home Missions Fund—Balance	224.29
Education Fund—Overdraft	4,427.80

MINISTERS' RELIEF FUND:

Regular Fund—Balance	$ 17.35
Special Fund—Balance	73.06
Total Balance		90.41

North Carolina Hospital Fund—Balance	1,210.99
--	----------

Total Net Balance—All Funds	$19,577.93
--	--------------------

We examined the method of distributing the General Fund for the year and found that it was distributed as follows:

STATE OBJECTS:

State Missions	20%
State Missions Church Building Fund	3%
North Carolina Education	23%
North Carolina Hospital	4%
Total State Objects	50%
Southwide Objects	50%
Total	100%

We also inquired as to the Bonds of the Bookkeeper and Treasurer and found them bonded for $10,000 and $30,000 respectively.

Our examination was confined strictly to Cash Transactions. We have not attempted to prepare a Balance Sheet of Assets and Liabilities of the Convention as of the close of the year. The Total Receipts for the year were as follows:

Funds paid by Churches to the Convention.....	$368,798.77
Funds Remitted Direct	6,480.55
Special Funds Received	13,816.69
Total Receipts		$389,096.01

As compared with last year, the cash received in 1930 was $65,485.07 less than the amount received in 1929.

Respectfully submitted,

A. T. ALLEN AND COMPANY,
Certified Public Accountants.

Any vacancy on the Board shall be filled by the remaining members until the next regular annual session of the Convention and the Convention shall at its next regular annual session fill the vacancy for the unexpired term.

d. The term of office of a trustee who has not resigned, died, become disqualified or been removed shall not expire until his successor shall have been duly elected and qualified.

e. The Board of Trustees of said corporation by the affirmative vote of three-fourths of its entire membership, given in regular annual meeting or in a special meeting duly called for the purpose, shall have the power to remove from office any trustee of such corporation for cause considered sufficient by such Board, but only after reasonable notice to such trustee and opportunity to him to be heard by the Board.

Each Board shall have the right to make any suggestion to the nominating committee it may see fit regarding such nominations, and all nominations made by the committee shall be passed upon by the Convention. The Convention shall have the right to adopt the report of the nominating committee and elect the trustees thus nominated, or to substitute the name of other trustee or trustees in lieu thereof, or recommit said report for further consideration as the case may be.

to create any debt or obligation binding on the Convention; and no other board, agency or institution of or affiliated with the Convention shall have the power at any time to create any debt or obligation binding on the Convention.

SEC. 6. If for any reason, it shall be necessary to select a place or to change the time or place of the meeting of the Convention after the Convention adjourns, the President, Recording Secretary and the General Secretary of the Convention shall be a committee with power to make necessary change or changes.

SEC. 7. This constitution may be changed or amended on any day of any annual session of the Convention by two-thirds vote of the members present when the vote is taken, provided notice of the contemplated amendment or change shall have been announced on a previous day of the Convention.

C. S. GREEN, Recording Secretary.

Mr. Jollay led in the singing of "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," then joined with Mrs. Jollay in singing "Neath the Old Olive Tree."

J. S. Farmer, editor and business manager, read the report on the Biblical Recorder, which was adopted after discussion by Mr. Farmer, C. E. Maddry, S. H. Templeman, A. T. Robertson, B. K. Mason, J. M. Hilliard, and J. T. Alderman.

REPORT ON THE BIBLICAL RECORDER

The Recorder was first published by Thomas Meredith in 1833. Since that time it has been the organ of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

Since our last convention the Biblical Recorder Publishing Company and this convention have suffered an irreparable loss in the death of our Editor, Dr. Livingston Johnson, on February 8, 1931. Although he had been in poor health for months and had been critically ill for four days, he dictated a short editorial to his daughter, Dr. Mary Lynch Johnson, at five o'clock Saturday afternoon, and at four o'clock Sunday morning he passed away as quietly as comes the dawn.

The Directors of the Biblical Recorder Publishing Company were under the necessity of getting out the Recorder and requested the Secretary-Treasurer to proceed with the work. On March 24, 1931, the Convention Advisory Committee: Dr. M. L. Kesler, Chairman, J. T. Alderman, C. M. Billings, E. J. Britt, F. A. Bower, J. M. Broughton, and T. H. King, was called for conference. After careful consideration the election of an editor was deferred. The Secretary-Treasurer suggested the names of two competent men. It was at this time that Mr. N. A. Dunn, President of the Board of Directors, suggested that the Secretary-Treasurer should also be editor.

On April 23rd the Convention Advisory Committee met with the Recorder directors the second time. After discussion the Convention Committee left the election of an editor with the Biblical Recorder Publishing Company Directors, giving assurance of coöperation with and support to the man elected. On April 24th the directors met and elected J. S. Farmer editor. His acceptance was with the distinct understanding that he will retire at any time that his work is not satisfactory to the convention and the Directors of the Recorder Company.

Appreciation is also expressed for the unstinted service of Misses Marjorie Yates and Ethel Sorrell in the office. The Bynum Printing Company, our printers, have also coöperated in a splendid way.

The Directors of the Recorder have but one ambition for the paper—that it serve our pastors and churches in their work.

The immediate and pressing need of the Recorder, and we dare suggest of this convention, is an increased circulation of the paper. How shall our people serve better unless they know the needs?

Telegrams of greetings were received and read by the secretary.

C. S. GREEN, Recording Secretary.

The report of the Trustees of the Convention was read by the secretary, and adopted on motion of A. J. Barton.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION

The Board was organized by the election of Johnson J. Hayes, Chairman and J. R. Morgan, Secretary.

The only business transacted was the execution of deed in accordance with the resolutions adopted at the last State Convention. No business necessitating a meeting of the board has been called to my attention, but in the future the business of our convention will require meetings of the Board of Trustees and it is respectfully suggested that they be selected, as near as practicable, in one locality.

I regret that my official duties conflict so frequently with the work of our denomination, and for this reason I cannot serve as a member of the Board.

Respectfully,
(Signed) JOHNSON J. HAYES, Chairman.

New pastors, who have accepted churches within the state, since the last convention, were introduced by General Secretary Maddry.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO CONSTITUTION

Be it Resolved:

That in Article IV (Officers), Section 4, the words "General Secretary" be changed to "Executive Secretary."

The choir of the First Baptist church sang "Send Out Thy Light" by Schuelky, with Paul Lupo at the organ.

J. Marcus Kester, state member of the Foreign Mission Board, presented his report, after which the convention was addressed by Dr. George Sadler, medical missionary from Africa. The report was adopted.

REPORT ON FOREIGN MISSIONS

Our present missionary force numbers 423 foreign missionaries and 2,045 native workers. The report of last year shows that we now have 2,681 churches in the foreign fields. These churches have a total membership of 169,311, and reported 14,415 baptisms during the year, the largest number reported for any previous year. In every country and in most of the churches revivals were reported. The Sallee Memorial Church in Shanghai had 160 professions of faith in its meeting, and other churches from ten to fifty or more. Italy reported more baptisms than ever before, and Roumania led the list and reported 5,500 baptisms last year. In our 2,208 Sunday schools there were enrolled 75,652 pupils. In the 329 day schools there were 20,222 pupils. The hospitals treated 107,242 patients and preached to them the gospel. The publishing houses distributed 96,045,169 pages of leaflets and literature.

Who, then, will say that our foreign missionary work is not worthwhile? Truly God has been good to us. In spite of all handicaps, the work has had a glorious year. If it could have had the support which it deserved, and our missionaries all sent back, and the 125 volunteers who are still waiting also sent, there is no telling what a marvellous report could now be made.

Certain great facts should be faced by all of us with reference to our foreign missionary efforts. And the first fact is this: the world's greatest need in this hour is the gospel of Christ. The Colonial Missionary Society of London recently published this statement in The Christian World: "A noble task lies this moment before the churches of Christ. They hold in trust the one principle whereby our troubled people may come to security and peace." We would certainly agree with that statement. Then shall we dare to hold from the present troubled world that which alone will cure its dreadful malady?

The next fact which we ought to face is this: the very state of world just now, anxious, depressed, perplexed, makes the world especially receptive to the gospel. The present world in its crisis realizes its loss as never before.

What shall we do then? We who have the gospel are obligated to give it to others who do not have it. There are no others to do it. Shall we, then, retrench when the need is so urgent? Shall we keep the only remedy that will cure from the millions who are sick? God forbid! Let us rather even at a sacrifice go forward and prove to the world that we are followers of a Master who wore a crown of thorns to the cross.

We regret exceedingly to report that it has been necessary owing to a constant decline in receipts to make our budget for 1932 $225,236.03 less than for this year. And we regret also to report that our own beloved State has helped to make this cut necessary by giving over $9,000 less from May to November this year, or over one-third less than last year to foreign missions. South Carolina and Georgia both increased several thousand over the same period, but we have gone backward. Let us see to it that we do our very best during the months just ahead of us for this great and needy cause.

Those missionaries present were introduced by Mr. Kester.

FOREIGN MISSIONARIES INTRODUCED

J. C. Powell, Africa; P. E. White, China; Mrs. P. E. White, China; Mrs. T. Neale Johnson, China; L. Bunn Olive, China.

After singing a hymn, the convention heard the annual sermon, preached this year by Arthur Jackson, Hendersonville. Preceding the sermon J. B. Willis, Hamlet, read Romans 8:26 ff. and offered prayer. Mr. Jackson preached on "The Goal of the Working Universe," using as a text Romans 8:28. The benediction was pronounced by Eph Whisenhunt.

WEDNESDAY MORNING

At 9:00 o'clock John H. Jones led in the singing of "Amazing Grace," after which J. P. Davis led the worship period. General Secretary Maddry led in prayer.

The journal of the preceding day was read and approved as read.

General Secretary Maddry presented a request of the directors of the Baptist Foundation in re the estate of the late T. N. Oakley (see pages 107 f.). The entire matter upon motion was referred to a committee of three to be named by the Committee on Committees.

B. W. Spilman moved the change in the constitution proposed on Tuesday evening (see page 23). After proper second the motion was discussed by H. F. Brinson, S. H. Templeman, T. B. Davis, et als. and with consent of the chair withdrawn by the maker from further consideration.

Mrs. W. N. Jones presented the report on the Woman's Missionary Union (see pages 97 ff.) which was adopted after discussion by Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Edna R. Harris, and Miss Alva Lawrence.

James A. Ivey presented the report on Baptist Young People's Union (see pages 67 ff.), discussing the report briefly.

Perry Morgan presented the report on Sunday School (see pages 62 ff.) and spoke concerning the work of the department.

Attention was called to the fact that it was 11 o'clock on the morning of November 11, and the convention sang "There's a Land That Is Fairer Than Day," then stood for one minute in silence in honor of the soldier dead of the country, after which E. N. Johnson offered prayer in recognition of Armistice Day.

The Committee on Committees, through Joel S. Snyder, named the following:

COMMITTEE IN RE OAKLEY ESTATE

R. E. Royall, Chairman, A. E. Tate, Egbert L. Davis.

General Secretary Maddry was recognized for the presentation and consideration of the work of the Department of State Missions. First, he introduced the following:

B. W. Spilman, chairman, presented the report of the Committee to Report on the General Board's Report, which was adopted without further discussion.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON REPORT OF THE GENERAL BOARD

Your Committee commends the State Mission work in general. We make the following special suggestions:

1. Indian Work. We suggest that the Home Mission Board take over all of the work now being done by our North Carolina Board among the Indians, if the Home Mission Board will do this.

2. We recommend that the local pastors and their young people look after the work in our prison camps, instead of employing a prison evangelist. We suggest that the pastors of Raleigh and Scotland Neck work out some plan whereby the prisoners in these central points may be cared for. We further recommend that our local pastors assume responsibility for the evangelistic work among the groups detained by the state in any correctional institution.

3. We commend to the State Mission Board that they consider co-operating, if practicable, with Shaw University in making special provision for workers in promoting our mission work among the Negroes.

4. We commend the splendid work being done in our Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Departments. We urge the closest affiliation between our Sunday schools and B. Y. P. U.'s in emphasizing the importance of church worship.

5. We commend to the General Board the work in Eastern and Western North Carolina, relative to employing a special missionary, and we leave the details of the plan to the General Board.

6. We commend the student work now being done by our Student Secretary, and we hope that our General Board will, at its earliest practicable moment, reinstate, adequately, this work.

7. We commend the work which has been done, and is now being done, by Brother J. M. Page, and recommend that his services be continued as suggested by the General Board.

8. We commend the Relief and Annuity Board with its service and annuity plan.

9. We commend the splendid work being done by our Baptist Hospital, and urge the coöperation of our pastors and churches in making a liberal Mother's Day offering in May for its support.

10. We commend the plan of support for our Orphanage through the monthly offering in the Sunday schools and the Thanksgiving offering. We urge every pastor to coöperate and to put forth every effort to get a monthly contribution through the Sunday schools and a worthy Thanksgiving offering.

We express our deepest appreciation for the faithful and efficient service of our beloved General Manager, Dr. Kesler, through a long period of years. We exceedingly regret that he has been kept away from us this session of the convention because of illness.

11. We commend the continuance of the Summer School for Preachers. We suggest that the name be changed, however, to the "Summer School of Religious Education."

12. We suggest that the General Board ask the Sunday School Board, Nashville, to coöperate with our General Board in handling the publication of our North Carolina Baptist History, by Dr. G. W. Paschal, through the Baptist Book Shop.

With the exception of these various changes, we recommend that the Report of the General Board be accepted as presented by our General Secretary.

On motion of J. L. Carrick, and proper second, the entire report of the General Board was adopted. (See pages 59 ff.)

Visitors were recognized by the President.

VISITORS RECOGNIZED

J. W. Beagle, Asheville; A. T. Robertson, Louisville, Ky.; Noble Van Ness, Nashville, Tenn.; George Burnett, Memphis, Tenn.; L. W. Gerringer, Henderson; W. W. Barnes, Fort Worth, Texas.

B. W. Spilman presented the report on the Mills Home (see pages 94 ff.) in the absence of General Manager M. L. Kesler, who was ill at his home. The report was discussed by L. J. Rainey, B. W. Spilman, and G. T. Lumpkin.

An offering was taken upon suggestion of General Secretary Maddry, for the work of E. R. Stewart in Hyde County, amounting to $123.84.

The secretary read a letter of greetings, and was instructed to make suitable reply.

Baptist State Convention,
Winston-Salem, N. C.

Greetings :

My Beloved Brethren :

Though absent in body by reason of infirmity and age (87), I am present in spirit, praying always that the blessings of God may rest on all the work of our great convention, and upon all of my beloved brethren with whom I have been meeting often for fifty-five years.

Motto: Pray—Trust God, and Go Forward.

Fraternally yours,

W. C. MEADOWS.

Winston-Salem, November 11, 1931.

Rev. W. C. Meadows,
Pores Knob, N. C.

Dear Brother Meadows :

The Baptist State Convention expresses its appreciation of your thoughtfulness in addressing the letter of greetings that came to it this morning.

We are sorry you cannot be with us, and recall with real pleasure your participation in our previous sessions. The convention asks me to convey to you our deepest personal interest and burden of our prayers for your welfare and happiness.

Fraternally yours,

C. S. GREEN, Recording Secretary.

Following various announcements, J. L. Peacock led in prayer, and the morning session adjourned.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

At 2:15 o'clock the convention sang "I Am Thine O Lord." E. R. Eller was in charge of the worship period; W. L. Griggs leading in prayer.

The Committee on Place and Preacher reported through B. F. Bray, and their report was adopted, as follows:

PLACE AND PREACHER FOR 1932

Place: Charlotte—First Baptist church. Preacher: J. Powell Tucker, Raleigh; or his alternate, W. E. Goode, Scotland Neck.

E. C. Kolb made the report for the Commission on the Co-ordination of Educational Institutions, which was adopted.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON THE CO-ORDINATION OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS

The convention at Raleigh a year ago adopted a motion made by Dr. A. Paul Bagby as follows:

"Moved that a commission of nine men, none of whom is on any Board of the convention or educational institution, be appointed to consider the matter of coördination of our educational institutions, if it appears advisable from a financial or religious standpoint, the report of this commission to be made to the convention of 1931."

The commission was constituted by the appointment of nine men: A. Paul Bagby, Chairman, Newton Shepherd, R. R. Blanton, Ernest C. Kolb, E. M. Johnson, Ray Funderburk, G. H. Jones, J. B. Strowd, and E. L. Davis. Several of these were laymen, business and professional men. Dr. Bagby, who secured the above action by the convention and was made chairman of the commission, soon moved to another state. He secured no consideration by this commission of the question of the coördination of Baptist educational institutions in North Carolina. Neither have the members of the commission as individuals given adequate thought or consideration to the matter. In view of these circumstances, the writer of this report hesitates to present one. However, there may be value in a clear statement of certain facts:

First, the Baptists in North Carolina have established more colleges than they are providing adequate support for. In the case of some of them there is much of the shallow sentiment that talks but little of the deep loyalty that gives.

In the second place, certain of our schools which formerly received substantial support through the State Convention no longer receive this help, because of the financial burdens under which the convention labors. These schools have turned to more restricted constituencies for their maintenance: Wingate Junior College to the Union Association, Boiling Springs Junior College to the King's Mountain and Sandy Run Associations, and Chowan College to Chowan and West Chowan Associations.

In the third place, there seems practically no disposition on the part of those who are conducting the Baptist schools in North Carolina to favor the consolidation of their particular institutions with any others. To the present time efforts in that direction have met with no success.

A statement prepared by Dr. J. R. Jester and adopted in July of this year by the Pilot Mountain Association is commended to the attention of this convention:

"The time is at hand when our people should be religious statesmen in their thinking, center their support on those schools where there is some prospect of being able to preserve their future and make these equal to the best in educational efficiency in the fields which they enter. It is folly to sink God's money in schools where there is no reasonable prospect of maintaining them permanently. Our positive conviction is that force of circumstances will cause us both to limit the number and then to equip these in a worthy manner. The day is long since past when we can hope to attract wide awake students to any educational institution solely on the ground that it is owned and controlled by a particular denomination."

For the immediate future we see little prospect of the hearty and fruitful coördination of Baptist educational institutions in North Carolina. We must wait for this idea to win our people far more widely than it has yet done. Meanwhile, we should work and sacrifice to make our schools more efficient training grounds for intelligent citizenship and seed-beds of the Kingdom of God.

M. A. Huggins presented the report on schools and colleges (see pages 77 ff.). Representing the various institutions, the following addressed the convention: Wake Forest: Bruce Benton, Wingate M. Johnson, George Pennell, and Santford Martin; Meredith: President C. E. Brewer; Chowan: President W. B. Edwards; Mars Hill: Vice-president O. E. Sams; Campbell: President J. A. Campbell. W. R. Cullom called attention to the absence of President T. D. Kitchin of Wake Forest, occasioned by his presence at the inauguration of President F. P. Graham at the University of North Carolina.

General Secretary Maddry presented the report of the Debt Advisory Commission. On motion to adopt, John A. Oates took charge of the discussion, and among those speaking were B. A. Bowers, J. Rufus Hunter, T. W. Fogleman, J. R. Jester, T. B. Davis, et als. The report was adopted without a dissenting vote.

REPORT OF THE DEBT ADVISORY COMMISSION

Whereas the convention debt, now outstanding, is $942,089.00,

And, whereas, the convention because of the decrease in receipts from $1,033,000 in 1923, when the bonds were sold, to $389,000 in 1930, exclusive of amounts given direct to the Orphanage,

And, whereas, the income for the ten months of 1931 is now $50,000 short of that received in 1930,

And, whereas, the General Board is now unable to borrow further from the banks because of the fact that local bank loans now total $60,960,

And, whereas, our efforts to collect the $300,000 now due on Centennial pledges have fallen far below our expectations, and our efforts to secure special gifts through the "Dollar-a-Week Club" idea have been very disappointing,

And, whereas, the Trustees for the bondholders say that it is wholly impossible for us to refinance our obligations with them,

And, whereas, the convention itself, after more than one hundred years of honorable and successful achievement, is faced with the danger of serious loss of prestige and financial standing,

Therefore, Be it Resolved:

First, That there shall be elected annually by the convention a Debt Advisory Commission of the Baptist State Convention to consist of ten men and women. There shall be four elected from the convention at large, two from the Board of Trustees of Meredith College, two from the membership of the General Board, one from the Woman's Missionary Union, one from the Meredith alumnae, together with the President of the convention and the President of the General Board, who shall be members ex officio. This Commission shall serve without compensation, and shall organize itself by electing a Chairman, Recording Secretary, Treasurer and an Executive Secretary, who shall be the General Secretary of the convention. The Commission shall be charged with the duty of safeguarding the financial honor and integrity of the convention in all matters pertaining to the debts of the convention. It shall be their duty to recommend to the convention, or the General Board, the percentage of funds to be set apart, out of the regular income, for debt service year by year; to recommend to the convention, or the General Board, ways and means of providing funds for interest, notes and bonds falling due from time to time; to negotiate all loans, sale of bonds, notes and securities of the convention for the debt service; and in all other ways, allowable under the constitution of the convention, to safeguard and protect the honor and credit of the convention; provided that all recommendations of the Commission shall be approved by the convention, or the General Board, or the Executive Committee of the General Board.

WILLIAM CHARLES BARRETT

Born in Moore County, North Carolina, February 27, 1869
Died at Laurinburg, June 29, 1930

Second, The Debt Advisory Commission, recommends to the General Board that the convention authorize and empower the Trustees of the Baptist State Convention to issue Convention Refund 6% semi-annual Coupon Bonds, in the sum of $300,000, said bonds to be sold at par, and the entire proceeds of such bond issue to be used in paying off bonds sold by the convention and secured by a deed of trust on Meredith College, now outstanding with Bitting & Company of St. Louis, and convention notes sold by the Whitney Trust & Savings Bank of New Orleans, or the remainder of the debt now outstanding on Boiling Springs College; or in the purchase of said bonds now outstanding, when in the judgment of the Trustees of the Baptist State Convention such purchase would be advantageous to the convention.

Third, That owing to economic conditions in the business world the Trustees of the convention be authorized and empowered to issue not more than $150,000 of these bonds in or before the year 1932, and the remainder later in their discretion, as and if found necessary.

Fourth, That the convention instruct the General Board to allocate and appropriate from the receipts and expected receipts, on January 1 of each year a sum sufficient to pay the interest falling due for the current year on such bonds as may have been sold, and or may be sold during the current year, and that the convention pledge to the bondholders that such sum, thus allocated and appropriated, shall constitute a first claim on all funds received for state objects for that year, and that the General Secretary be instructed to deposit with the Trustee, the Wachovia Bank & Trust Company, on the 10th of each month, one-twelfth of said sum of interest due for the current year.

Fifth, That the said issue of bonds shall constitute a solemn and binding obligation of the convention, and for the payment of said bonds, and the successive installments of interest thereon when due, the Trustees of the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina irrevocably pledge their full faith, credit and resources.

Sixth, That the Baptist State Convention obligates and binds itself, and its agents, and officials, never to request or solicit the gift of these bonds for any purpose whatsoever.

Seventh, That the Trustees of the Baptist State Convention offer these bonds for sale in denominations of $50, $100, $500 and $1,000, and that the whole issue shall be due and payable as follows; except in case of the death of the holder of any of these bonds, said bond or bonds shall in that case, at the option of the executor, become due and payable one year after the date of the death of such holder. Any or all of these bonds shall be callable upon any interest day, at par:

$10,000.....	January 1, 1938
15,000.....	January 1, 1939
20,000.....	January 1, 1940

$25,000.....	January 1, 1941

40,000.....	January 1, 1944
40,000.....	January 1, 1945
40,000.....	January 1, 1946
45,000.....	January 1, 1947

Eighth, That the Trustees of the Baptist State Convention offer the aforesaid bonds for sale for cash, or on the installment plan when desirable, and that all of the details of these sales be handled by the regular office force now in the employ of the General Board, and that the then office secretary, handling the Centennial Fund, be elected treasurer of this bond fund by the General Board and adequately bonded.

Ninth, That the Trustees of Meredith College, be and are hereby instructed to provide by loan, or otherwise raise, and lend to the Convention Debt Commission, the sum of $50,000 with which to meet the payment due Bitting & Company on December 1, on Meredith First Mortgage Bonds, and the Debt Commission be instructed to repay this loan, together with interest thereon, as the money comes in during the year, from the sale of the aforesaid Convention Refund Bonds. The Debt Commission is further instructed to turn over to the Trustees of Meredith College as security for this loan $50,000 in Convention Refund Bonds, and the Trustees of Meredith College are instructed to use these bonds in any way they may deem best in securing the aforesaid loan; and that said bonds be held at par value.

Tenth, That the convention be requested to ask all the churches to set apart Sunday, February 14, 1932, as Convention Debt Day, and that an earnest effort be made to secure at least $75,000 on that day, said amount to be used in meeting payment due on March 1, 1932, on bonds sold through the Whitney Trust & Savings Bank of New Orleans.

Eleventh, That the Woman's Missionary Union be respectfully and earnestly petitioned to give the Heck Memorial offering for 1932, whatever the amount may be, to the convention debt.

Twelfth, That the convention binds itself to allocate not less than twenty-seven per cent of the total income from the Undesignated Co-operative Program for debt service for the next four years, and as much thereafter as the convention may deem wise from year to year.

J. M. Broughton and John A. Oates were named as a special committee to frame a legal resolution relative to the report of the Debt Advisory Commission. (Particularly as to the issuance of bonds. See page 41 for this resolution.)

T. H. King presented the report of the convention Biblical Recorder council.

REPORT OF THE BIBLICAL RECORDER ADVISORY COUNCIL

Your committee beg leave to report that we met twice with the Directors of the Biblical Recorder. We could act, of course, only in an advisory capacity. We were called to each meeting by the Directors, and were treated with the greatest courtesy. In these meetings matters of great importance were discussed freely. Your committee rendered such service as it was able.

On motion of C. E. Brewer, after request of Editor J. S. Farmer, such a council will be included in the convention's appointments for another year.

Resolutions presented by Arch C. Cree, A. J. Smith, and H. T. Stevens were read before the convention and referred to the committee on resolutions.

The secretary read the following report:

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO MEMORIALIZE THE SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION

Your Committee on the North Carolina Baptist Memorial to the Southern Baptist Convention, begs leave to report: The convention was memorialized at the meeting in Birmingham to restore the right of designation and to grant the State Secretaries the privilege of sending monies direct to the various Boards. This with like memorial from other states was referred to a special committee, which reported to the convention at a later hour.

The Special Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention did not recommend the adoption of the North Carolina Memorial.

B. A. BOWERS, Chairman.

T. H. King led the convention in the closing prayer of the afternoon session.

WEDNESDAY EVENING

Mr. Jones led in a preliminary song service with Mr. Lupo at the organ. Vice-President Brewer took the chair upon the request of President Turner. The worship period was led by W. H. Williams.

I. D. S. Knight, state chairman, took charge of the special order on the Coöperative Program and the Promotion of the Every Member Canvass.

First, the report of the Promotion Committee, presented by the chairman, I. D. S. Knight, was adopted as read.

REPORT OF THE PROMOTION COMMITTEE

After the meeting of the last Southern Baptist Convention your General Board formed a Promotion Committee of North Carolina Baptists to coöperate with and to carry forward in our state the plans of the Southern Baptist Convention Promotion Committee. This North Carolina Promotion Committee is composed of 21 men and women representing all of the geographical divisions of our state and all departments of our state organized Baptist activities.

This committee held an all-day session in Raleigh last July. The plan of procedure was mapped out. Mr. Perry Morgan was secured as full-time Promotion Chairman, to serve from August 1 to December 6, 1931. Rev. J. A. Easley was secured as Publicity Chairman. These workers were secured at no additional salary expense to our State Board. Mr. Easley's time and services were offered, at the request of the Committee, by the Wake Forest Baptist Church, to which we express our gratitude. It has been the deliberate and avowed purpose of this committee to do its best work at the least cost. Fifty pastors gladly and willingly volunteered one or two weeks of their time to foster the work of this committee.

We are happy to report that a praiseworthy spirit of coöperation with the work of the Promotion Committee has been displayed. Every one of the sixty-nine District Associations, including the two associate Indian Associations, have an Associational Promotion Committee. Our best estimate is that only about three hundred churches of our convention have been putting on the every-member-canvass. To date, reports have been received from 1,428 North Carolina Baptist churches, naming their local Promotion Committees. We know that there are others not yet reported.

Your committee expresses its heartiest approval of the following two statements adopted at the last Southern Baptist Convention:

1—"We would reaffirm the conviction that the Coöperative Program is the best plan yet devised or in sight for the conduct of our denominational work."

2—"We recommend that the General Board be instructed to promote annually a simultaneous intensive and extensive every-member-canvass for subscriptions to support church, state and Southwide causes on the Bible principle of stewardship, with the tithe as the minimum standard of Christian giving."

We earnestly suggest that all of our North Carolina Baptist churches make their every-member-canvass at the same time the churches of the other states of the Southern Baptist Convention make their canvass. This year the date will be November 29 to December 6.

We recommend to our General Board their fullest coöperation with the following statement of Dr. F. F. Brown, Executive Secretary of the Promotion Committee of Southern Baptists, "The Promotion Committee plans and hopes to aid all the churches in the spring of 1932, in putting on a great South-wide revival campaign which will reach and uplift the whole Southland and win thousands of the lost to Christ."

Second, the report of the Committee on the Coöperative Program, presented by A. J. Barton, chairman, was adopted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CO-OPERATIVE PROGRAM

Since the general character and objective of the Coöperative Program are comparatively well understood by all of our people who are at all informed and enlisted in the work of this convention, your committee does not deem it necessary that this report shall go much into detail.

The Coöperative Program is simply the effort of Southern Baptists to enlist as far as possible all of our Baptist people in our Baptist work, both state and general. The program is simply grouping all of our denominational interests. Your committee feels that it is exceedingly fortunate that every Baptist church, however small or remotely situated, by making regular contributions, however small they may be, can share in all of the work of the denomination in its state, at home and abroad; that any individual Baptist, however limited in means, has this privilege of world-wide fellowship in the work of the Kingdom of Christ.

PERCENTAGE OF DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS

Your committee would record its own satisfaction at the action of the Board in deciding that as between state interests and general interests the basis of division for 1932 shall be fifty-fifty. Referring to the Constitution of the Convention, Section 2, Article 5, your committee concludes that the Board acted within its province and prerogative in this matter, and that the action of the Board is decisive and final, since the Board is empowered by the Constitution to act in all such matters in the interim of the session of the convention, and since under the terms of the Constitution, "Any action by the General Board between the sessions of the convention vitally related to the work of the convention shall be binding upon the convention: Provided, it shall not relate to any matter previously committed to some other agency of the convention with power to act." The same section of the Constitution adds, "But any action of the Board within the interim shall be reported fully to the convention at its next session." Your committee recommends that the action of the Board providing for equal division of funds between state interests and general interests be heartily approved by the convention, and your committee would express itself as having great satisfaction at this action of the Board.

Concerning the distribution of the fifty per cent allotted to state work, the committee also recommends that the action of the Board be approved by which said funds would be distributed as follows:

Debt Service	27c
State Missions	16c
N. C. Hospital	4c
Ministerial Education	3c
50c

In this connection your committee records its satisfaction and pleasure at the fact that the amount to be set aside toward meeting the maturing obligations of the convention is only 27c out of the 50c allotted to state work as against the 33c out of 55c allotted last year. It ought to move us to a sense of gratitude that our maturing obligations are being gradually reduced, and that the amount necessary to meet interest accounts and annual installments is gradually being reduced. This ought to spur us to intense and persistent effort to the end that we may hasten the day when not one dime of our contributions to mission, education and benevolent objects shall be absorbed in interest accounts. We must meet our debts. We will meet our debts and discharge them. Baptists are an honorable people. They honor their obligations and meet them. Good, faithful Baptists will give as promptly and freely to meet obligations of any Baptist body with which they are affiliated as they will for any other causes. But, it is unfortunate and regrettable that for the past few years a large percentage of our contributions have of necessity been absorbed in discharging our obligations. We congratulate the General Board, this convention, and all of our North Carolina Baptists that by persistence and liberality we shall soon reach the time when our debts will have been discharged and the whole of our contributions shall be given to the promotion of our missionary, educational and benevolent interests and institutions in meeting their current needs.

This is not to suggest the slightest criticism of any person or Board in the administration of affairs, but only to recognize the regrettable fact and to point with satisfaction to the heartening change of figures and to the brightening prospects in all of our Kingdom interests.

Our Baptist Coöperative Program heads up in the Every Member Canvass. This is the supreme task immediately before us. The time agreed upon is November 29-December 6. Your committee would congratulate the General Board, the General Secretary and Mr. Morgan upon the good work they have done thus far in organizing and arousing the Baptist forces of the state in preparation for this tremendously important and significant event in our Baptist life. We hope and pray that approximately every Baptist church in the state may be enlisted and that the Every Member Canvass may be put on actively and aggressively and worked clean out to the fence corners, so that as far as possible every member of every church may be induced to share with us in this glorious worldwide fellowship for the worldwide proclamation of the gospel and the worldwide bringing in of the Kingdom of our Lord and may be enrolled in the ranks of the active, faithful, contributing supporters of this glorious cause.

Third, Perry Morgan, State Promotional Chairman, presented his report. (See pages 99 ff.)

Fourth, chairmen of the various associations were introduced individually and each spoke a few words about the work in his association.

Fifth, E. N. Johnson addressed the convention on "The Weekly Offering."

Sixth, George Burnett, Memphis, Tenn., spoke.

Seventh, J. Clyde Turner concluded the order of the evening with a brief address.

A. J. Barton dismissed the convention with prayer.

THURSDAY MORNING

John H. Jones led in an opening song service at 9:00 o'clock after which C. N. Royall conducted the worship period, Richard Kelley offering prayer.

The journal of Wednesday's sessions was read without correction.

Telegrams of reciprocal greetings were read.

RESOLUTION IN RE ISSUING BONDS

Resolved by the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina:

That for the purpose of refunding outstanding bonded indebtedness of the convention, in accordance with the report and recommendations of the Debt Advisory Commission as adopted at this session of the convention, the trustees of the convention be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to issue in the name of the convention refunding bonds in an amount not exceeding three hundred thousand dollars par value, bearing interest at 6% payable semi-annually, to be sold at not less than par, the entire proceeds of the sale of such bonds to be used in paying off and retiring outstanding bonds of the convention; and to the full and prompt payment of the principal and interest of such refunding bonds herein authorized to be issued, when and as due, the full faith, credit and resources of this convention are hereby irrevocably pledged:

That the Trustees be and they are hereby fully authorized and empowered to do all things needful in connection with the issuance of said bonds, the denominations and maturities thereof to be in accordance with said report and recommendations of the Debt Advisory Commission adopted at the session; provided that not exceeding $150,000.00 par value of said bonds shall be issued and sold on or before the year 1932, the remainder to be issued and sold thereafter in the discretion of the Trustees, and if necessary;

That the sale of said refunding bonds be handled in the manner set forth and upon the terms and conditions stipulated in said report of the Debt Advisory Commission;

That the General Board is hereby instructed to allocate and appropriate from the receipts and expected receipts, on January first of each year a sum sufficient to pay the interest falling due for the current year on such bonds as may have been sold, and or may be sold during the current year, and that the Convention hereby pledges to the bondholders that such sum, thus allocated and appropriated, shall constitute a first claim on all funds received for state objects for that year, and that the General Secretary be and he is hereby instructed to deposit with the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, as trustee, on the tenth of each month, one-twelfth of said sum of interest due for the current year, to be applied to the payment of said interest as the same becomes due.

W. H. Williams, state member, made the report on the work of the Home Mission Board, and the convention heard an address by Dr. J. W. Beagle.

REPORT ON HOME MISSIONS

Possibly there has never been an agency of the convention which faced so serious and complicated a problem as did the new Home Mission Board and her secretary, Dr. J. B. Lawrence.

It is with pleasure that we report that these serious problems are now being solved and the Board is on a sound business basis.

Every possible economy is being practiced, for the Board has determined to live within its income and to reduce its debt. To this end the operating expense has been reduced about 50%; and in order that its direct mission work may be carried on it has withdrawn financial support from the mountain schools and the El Paso Sanatorium.

The Board stands foursquare for the Coöperative Program, and seeks the closest coöperation with the state organizations.

The work of the Board is divided into the following departments:

1. Work among Foreigners, Indians, Negroes, Deaf, and work in cities.—J. W. Beagle is superintendent of this phase of our work. It employs 85 missionaries and touches 178 centers of vital importance with a budget of $55,000.00.

2. Cuba—Dr. W. N. McCall, superintendent. This department has 82 missionaries or teachers and operates on a budget of $45,000.00.

3. Panama and Canal Zone—Dr. Carpenter acts as superintendent of this work without cost to the Board. There are 11 missionaries, operating on a budget of $2,500.00.

4. Jews—The work among 500,000 Jews is looked after by Mr. Jacob Gartenhaus.

5. Mountain Schools and Schools of Missions—Dr. J. W. O'Hara, superintendent.

6. Mission Study—Mrs. Una Roberts Lawrence, editor.

7. Southern Baptist Sanatorium, El Paso, Tex.—Dr. W. W. Britton, superintendent. This institution is now operated without cost to the Board.

The calls that come to the Board to enter new fields, and to enlarge its working force in the fields now occupied were never so numerous as they are today.

Though burdened with debt and beset with problems your Home Mission Board earnestly seeks to keep before it its great objective of winning our land for our Christ, and in this effort it has been abundantly blessed.

E. I. Olive, upon request of Superintendent Lumpkin, read the report on Hospitals. (See pages 92 ff.) Mr. Lumpkin spoke briefly.

Hugh Lattimer, Eastern Representative, presented the report on the Relief and Annuity Board (see pages 87 ff.), in the absence of Secretary R. T. Vann, and then spoke concerning the plan in general.

Under the order of Theological Seminaries, A. T. Robertson, representing the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky.; and W. W. Barnes, representing the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, Fort Worth, Texas, addressed the convention. W. A. Ayres, representing the Baptist Bible Institute, New Orleans, asked that an informative paper be included in the minutes in lieu of a talk about the institution. This was accepted upon proper motion.

THE BAPTIST BIBLE INSTITUTE

1. The Baptist Bible Institute, New Orleans, Louisiana, is a South-wide seminary and training school controlled by the Southern Baptist Convention through a board of trustees.

2. The purpose of the Institute is to train young men and women for effective service in the churches and on the mission fields as pastors, educational directors, missionaries, and gospel singers.

3. The president is the Rev. W. W. Hamilton, Th.D., D.D., LL.D. The faculty consists of eleven college, seminary and university trained Baptist scholars and teachers who are true to the Bible and to the Baptist tradition.

4. The students come from the several states of the Union, especially those nearby, and from abroad. Last session (1930-1931), nineteen states and five foreign countries were represented. Many of these were college or university graduates; a few were graduate students in theology.

5. Ninety-three students were preachers. They served sixty churches in and around New Orleans. Besides, nearly sixty mission stations were served, a few of which bid fair to become, in the near future, Baptist churches. In the city, the preachers preach on the streets, in jails and hospitals, on the docks, in public parks, and elsewhere, where they reach thousands with the Gospel. Thus the Institute has become a seminary, training school, and an active missionary force in the South's greatest mission field.

6. Four courses of study are offered by the Institute, namely, in Christian Training, Theology, Religious Education, and Gospel Music. Two years' satisfactory study leads to the bachelor's degree; three years' study to the master's degree. Two years' work in a standard college or university is required of those who qualify for a degree; others receive certificates or diplomas, but enjoy the same classroom privileges.

7. The property of the Institute consists of a well-equipped administration building and lecture hall, dormitories for men and women, chapel, library, infirmary, professors' homes, and apartments for married students. These buildings are grouped around a central square and are located in the heart of an old residential section of uptown New Orleans.

8. Mission work is carried on by the students among the French, Spanish, Italians, Jews, Chinese, and Negroes. Last session, 24,424 people were dealt with in mission work; 1,781 professions of faith and 1,810 additions to the churches, here and nearby, were reported.

9. Each year two series of lectures are given by specially invited speakers. Last session these lectures were delivered by the late President S. P. Brooks of Baylor University and President W. J. McGlothlin of Furman University. One series deals with the minister from the layman's viewpoint; the other, with vital aspects of Christian life and thought.

10. Missionary graduates of the Institute are now on the field in Chile, Argentina, Brazil, Africa, India, China and the Philippines. Others are laboring in the homeland in good-will centers, in home and state mission work, and among foreign peoples in America.

11. September 22, 1931, the Institute began its fourteenth annual session. The Institute was founded in 1917 and opened its first session in October, 1918.

12. Three things a Southern Baptist can do for the Institute. He can (1) inform himself regarding the work, life and history of the school; (2) pray for its prosperity; and (3) support it by his gifts, through the Coöperative Program and by extra gifts to authorized emergency appeals.

Z. M. Caveness presented the report of the Baptist Foundation (see pages 104 ff.) without discussion.

REPORT IN RE OAKLEY ESTATE

Under the will of Mr. T. N. Oakley, of Person County, North Carolina, it was provided that the residue of his estate should be paid over to the North Carolina Baptist Foundation to be held in trust and used for the following purposes: (1) to pay taxes on certain lands in Person County; (2) to use such amount as is necessary to keep Mr. Oakley's grave in a respectable condition; (3) to use same for any repairs to the Olive Branch Baptist Church in Person County as the deacons and pastor may deem best; (4) and to apply the remainder on the salary of the pastor of the Olive Branch Baptist Church.

On account of the fact that the purposes thus set forth are purely local for family or personal interests, and for the benefit of a specific church and not for the general work of the denomination at large, your committee recommends that the convention advise the directors of the Baptist Foundation not to accept this trust, or administer this estate, but rather that the convention dispose of the estate as suggested in a paragraph of Brother Oakley's will as follows: "That in the event the North Carolina Baptist Foundation failed or refused to accept the trusts herein declared, it is my will and desire that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina shall recommend to the Court (Clerk of the Superior Court of Person County, North Carolina) the appointment of some responsible institution as trustee."

In view of the fact that the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, Fiscal Agent of the Baptist Foundation, has already familiarized itself with the details pertaining to this estate, it is also recommended that it be appointed as trustee under the will of the said T. N. Oakley.

I. G. Greer read the report of the Inter-racial Commission which was approved, without further discussion.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON INTER-RACIAL RELATIONS

Race prejudice has always been a barrier to political, economic, social, and religious progress. Race antagonism has been the cause of untold misunderstanding, strife and suffering.

The purpose of the inter-racial committee has been stated as two-fold:

1. To correct inter-racial injustices and to better conditions affecting negroes.
2. To improve those inter-racial attitudes out of which grow unfavorable conditions.

The accomplishments of this committee in securing better living conditions for the negro, in bringing about a more tolerant and more friendly attitude between the races, and in making it possible for wise leaders of both races to get each other's viewpoint on vital questions, amply justify the continuation and support of this Commission.

The brotherhood of man is one of the great teachings of Christ, as laid down in the New Testament. Over and over again, by Parable and by His own life, He taught the lesson of brotherhood between Jew, Greek and Roman. And yet in spite of all the efforts of humanitarian leaders, race antagonism is still one of our most stupendous problems. By virtue of their numerical strength, the situation constitutes a real challenge to the Baptists of North Carolina. Our success in dealing with this question will be one of the acid tests of Christianity.

Realizing the need of meeting the situation, and the gravity of our responsibility, the Baptist State Convention of 1931 in session in Winston-Salem does hereby resolve:

1. That owing to the present economic situation, the churches, through their various organizations, render assistance to the local negroes in securing work and the necessities of life.

2. That the women in their missionary societies and other church organizations interest themselves in conditions affecting the welfare of the home, community and church life of negro women.

3. That the men's Brotherhood be on the alert to anticipate and prevent friction, and that they seek to find out and correct any conditions of neglect or injustice affecting the negroes of the community.

4. That negro leaders should be encouraged to bring the problems affecting the welfare of their people to the attention of the leaders of our churches, and that they feel free to coöperate in solving these problems.

5. That our Sunday school teachers and ministers keep before our people the importance of showing the Christian spirit in dealing with the negroes.

6. That we re-affirm our faith in the work of the North Carolina Commission on Inter-Racial Coöperation and that we pledge our moral support in helping carry out its program.

Eugene Olive, upon request of General Secretary Maddry, read the report of the Historical Commission (see pages 103 f.).

The secretary read the report of the committee on Memorials which was adopted. A memorial list of "Our Dead" will be found on page 123.

REPORT ON MEMORIALS

We recommend that the Statistical Secretary prepare a list of those ministers of the state who have died since the last convention, and that this list be included in the annual of the convention in a specially designated place; and,

We recommend that this annual of this session be dedicated to Dr. Livingston Johnson with his picture being carried as the frontispiece; and

We, further recommend, that a picture of the late W. C. Barrett be included at a convenient place in the annual.

Respectfully,

R. J. HALL,

R. P. ELLINGTON.

The convention stood in silence in honor of the memory of the late Livingston Johnson, and J. R. Jester offered prayer.

Bishop J. Kenneth Pfohl, of the Moravian church, was recognized by President Turner.

W. B. Edwards presented the report on Public Morals, which was adopted after discussion by C. A. Upchurch, A. J. Barton, Oscar Haywood, J. C. Powell, W. L. Poteat, et als.

REPORT ON PUBLIC MORALS

May I preface this report by saying that man's importance is the very foundation of Christ's social activity?

If then Christ considered us of such importance as to leave His home in heaven to come to earth, to suffer, and to die, ought we not consider our fellow-man and ourselves of enough importance to alter our dealings with one another and with ourselves?

The word "temperance" is a misnomer. When the word "temperance" is mentioned, immediately the concept of freedom from or temperate use of strong drink and spiritous liquors is thought of. Such is not its meaning at all. Temperance means the moderate use of anything; such as, pleasure, recreation, the food we eat, and numbers of other things we use, as well as the use of spirituous liquors.

A few years ago, our ladies were wasting time in playing Mah Jong and our men, at pool tables, etc. Don't misunderstand me. Wholesome recreation is needed, beneficial, and helpful. The wrong is in the abuse of, not in the use of our leisure, recreation, pastime, articles of food, etc. We should indulge in these pastimes moderately and temperately. But looking at the tendency to quench our thirst, we would substitute the word "abstinence" for "temperance"; and try to rid ourselves permanently of the use of the word "temperance."

Since man was placed in this world, there has been a continuous contest for the mastery of his soul. The evil forces seem to be in the ascendancy at times. Some people would have us believe that churches and preachers have no right to dabble in politics and political issues; but let me suggest that prohibition is not a political question but a moral issue. If the church does not operate in the moral realm, pray, where does it operate? Even were it a political issue, does it follow that a minister or layman loses his citizenship when he enters the ministry or joins the church? I will tell you why the liquor question was made a political issue, simply because a nominee repudiated his party's platform on which he was nominated and chose to sponsor the liquor cause. Allow me to repeat: Evil forces seem to be in the ascendancy at times. One of the strongest allies or cohorts of these evil forces is the liquor traffic. It has been quite successful in its onslaughts; in fact, so much so that attempts at regulation for its control have been devised; but, alas, they were unsuccessful to such a degree that the sovereign states through their respective legislatures have amended the constitution. This amendment makes it unlawful to manufacture, to sell, to transport, or in any way to handle spirituous liquors. This having been done, we sit down in all ease and complacency and exclaim with exultation: "What a victory we have won!" So we have! We say also that the battle is ended and that John Barleycorn is dethroned. Let us not deceive ourselves. The outposts only are taken; the fight is on and we must not be asleep at our posts. If we live by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us also walk. This means that we cannot win this battle once for all but that we must keep it up day by day. We may rest assured that the advocates of the repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment and the modificationists are active and ever alert.

They advance what seems to them to be good reason for modification or repeal; but let us see how weak these reasons are. They suggest that we legalize the traffic in liquor and allow the government to handle it. All we need to do to refute this reason is to look at the failure of Canada to handle this arch enemy of mankind. Again, the idea is advanced of needing whiskey for medicinal purposes. Physicians tell us that liquor is neither a stimulant as claimed nor does it act as a warming agent.

Another reason for requesting the repeal is that the Eighteenth Amendment deprives one of his personal liberty. Such people are not willing to sacrifice their personal wishes for the good of society. Again, another reason advanced for repeal is that we still have liquor and therefore prohibition is a failure. Prohibition is not a failure; but I will grant you that the manner of enforcing it is to a certain degree a failure. Is the fact that every human being is not a Christian a proof that the plan of salvation is a failure? Again, are we ready to repeal our law that punishes a murderer because we still have murders?

I will tell you why we have such laxity in the enforcement of this law:

1st. We can never make a man good by legislation. The remedy just here is to educate—educate—educate, for education is the enemy of liquor, our arch enemy (laxity in homes and schools). I mean educate the masses as to the evil effects alcohol has on the human system, thereby creating a sentiment against the use of alcoholic beverages.

2nd. Too many officers elected by us are in sympathy with the moistened traffic.

3rd. Too many church members use or deal in this stuff in some way or other.

RECOMMENDATIONS

We recommend that actions taken repeatedly by the Southern Baptist Convention be approved and affirmed by this State Convention as expressing our sentiments and convictions:

1. That we declare public office to be a public trust, to be held and administered only in the best interest and for the highest welfare of all the people.

2. That no person is worthy of public office who is not socially minded and does not believe in the enactment of such laws as will promote the moral welfare of the people, or who does not believe in the enforcement and observance of all laws.

3. That we recognize the right of all to advocate a change in any provision of our constitution and laws but in the language of the President which we quote with approval: "Our whole system of self government will crumble either if officials elect what laws they will enforce or citizens elect what laws they will support. The worst evil of disregard for some law is that it destroys respect for all law. For our citizens to patronize the violation of a particular law on the ground that they are opposed to it, is destructive of the very basis of all the protection of life, homes, and property which they rightly claim under other laws."

4. That we, as a Baptist State Convention, are in no sense concerned with party politics nor with the fate or future of any political party; but in all great moral questions we are deeply concerned, both as citizens and Christians, no matter how they become related to politics or questions of government.

5. That, as we have frequently done heretofore, we declare our intention and purpose not to support for President of the United States, Senator, Representative, Governor, or other officer of high and responsible position any candidate who is hostile to or does not openly and frankly support our present prohibition laws, but to seek the defeat of any such candidate no matter what party label he may bear.

PUBLIC MORALS

Perhaps the greatest thrust at public morals is the apparent disregard of the sanctity of marriage vows and relations. This disregard is evidenced by the ease with which couples can obtain divorces. This lucrative traffic in granting divorces has been largely peculiar to Nevada alone; but other states, i.e., Idaho and Arkansas, seemingly jealous of Nevada in this highly successful financial business, were eager to obtain some of this lucrative business for themselves; and they enacted certain new divorce laws. Nevada, fearing the loss of this ever-increasing revenue, changed the time of residence for securing divorce from three months to six weeks. One legislator of Nevada even proposed that all business of securing divorces be transacted by mail. Even in our fair State of North Carolina there was an attempt to make it easier to get a divorce. But, thanks to our legislature, we did not change Raleigh to Reno. Divorce can be obtained all too easily. In California, a woman recently was granted a divorce from her husband because he refused to allow her to fly his aeroplane. This proves that securing and granting divorces is on the ascendency.

RECOMMENDATIONS for the correction of this ever present and ever growing menace are:

1st. That we enact laws making it more difficult for couples to enter into the sacred relations of marriage.

2nd. That these suggested laws be not only enacted but enforced.

3rd. That we teach in our homes, churches, and schools a greater regard for the sanctity of marriage.

Another flaunting of the disregard for the sanctity of marriage is the advocacy of free love and companionate marriage by a one-time safe and sane judge of the juvenile court, but now badly warped in his views with reference to marriage. I refer to Judge Ben B. Lindsay of Denver, Colorado.

Again, when we allow people to appear before the student bodies of some of our state institutions and openly advocate free love, we are headed for the rocks. This is the philosophy of the lower animals and cannot be the philosophy of a cogent and sentient being. The college age is the time when the minds of our youths are plastic, when ideas, ideals, and characters are formed. How careful we should be in throwing about them the proper influence!

Let us look at another increasing tendency among our young people. I refer to the disregard for church service. Joy rides, and, in the summer season, the patronage of swimming pools, bathing places, and dipping vats on Sunday seem to be two causes for infrequent attendance upon our church services by the young people.

How could this be corrected?

1st. Relearn and reapply to our own use one of the ten commandments: "Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy."

2nd. Close up filling stations on Sunday.

3rd. Close up swimming pools on Sunday.

LAW ENFORCEMENT

It seems to be difficult to enforce our laws in toto since we have so many. There is a growing tendency to disregard law. We are prone to censure the youth for this disregard for law. Let us see. Humans have always been eager and anxious to have their own way. In former years parents have not been so ready to yield to requests on the part of their children; but we are now living in an age of moral suasion; and we readily yield. We have allowed one of the ten commandments, "Children, obey your parents," to be paraphrased thus: "Parents, obey your children." If children fail to obey their parents, this disobedience carries over into disregard for all laws. Again, children are great imitators, and they eagerly watch their parents to see if they observe laws at all times. Let me ask how many of us kept within the bounds of the law in driving to this fair city! Let me again ask: Who is to be censured for the disregard for law on the part of our youth—the youth or the parents?

One recommendation: Apply the teachings of King Solomon—"Spare the rod and you will spoil the child."

W. L. Poteat introduced the following resolution which was adopted without discussion:

RESOLUTION IN RE DISARMAMENT

Resolved: That the North Carolina Baptist State Convention representing 400,000 Baptists in session at Winston-Salem, November 12, 1931, importune President Hoover to appoint to the proposed Geneva

Conference on Disarmament to meet in February of 1932, delegates from the United States definitely committed to the reduction of armaments and national budgets for naval and military expenditures.

The following were nominated for president of the convention: J. Clyde Turner, by J. A. McKaughan; J. R. Jester, by B. K. Mason; W. L. Poteat, by E. N. Johnson; Joel S. Snyder, by J. F. McCarter. Upon proper motion, Vice-President Brewer having been invited to the chair, the nominations were closed and it was voted that the election be by ballot, and in event a second ballot be necessary only the two receiving the highest votes be included in the second voting. The presiding officer named as tellers: T. D. Collins, R. E. Brickhouse, E. R. Stewart, T. B. Davis, and C. H. Durham.

Awaiting the report of the tellers, the chair entertained nominations for vice-presidents. C. F. Hudson was nominated by T. D. Collins; J. Edward Allen was nominated by R. E. Brickhouse; W. R. Burrell was nominated by H. F. Brinson; J. M. Kester was nominated by D. H. Wilcox. Upon insistence of J. M. Kester his name was withdrawn, and he moved that the three first nominated be declared vice-presidents of the convention. This was passed unanimously.

T. D. Collins reported for the tellers that a second ballot on the presidency would be necessary; J. Clyde Turner and W. L. Poteat remaining in nomination.

Telegrams of greetings were ordered dispatched by the secretary as follows :

TELEGRAMS OF GREETINGS

Rev. M. W. Buck,
Greensboro, N. C.

Your brethren of the North Carolina Baptist Convention instructed me to convey to you their regret occasioned by your absence and to assure you of their earnest prayers in your behalf for a speedy and complete recovery that you may continue the great work you have been so long doing for the Master.

C. S. GREEN, Recording Secretary.

Recording Secretary,
Western N. C. Conference,
M. E. Church, South,
Asheville, N. C.

North Carolina Baptists closing their annual session here today directed that greetings be sent you with the expression of fraternal interest in your session asking the benediction of our Heavenly Father to guide you and direct you in your great program of usefulness for Him.

C. S. GREEN, Recording Secretary.

The following answers to greetings from our convention were received after the session closed:

I read your telegram which was greatly appreciated by our people, and I was instructed to send a greeting in return to North Carolina Baptists. If there is any way by which you can make this known to the brethren through the state, I shall greatly appreciate it. We rejoice in the work which you are all doing, and pray for a continuance of the Divine Blessing.

Cordially yours,

HENRY W. O. WILLINGTON,
Executive Secretary.

Columbia Association of Baptist Churches.

The Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South held in Asheville, November 11th to 15th highly appreciated the message of greeting from the Baptist State Convention which came after your convention had adjourned and consequently too late for a reply to be sent to your assembly body. The greeting, however, was read to the Conference and gratefully received.

We feel very near to the great Baptist Church whose ministry of pioneer service in the early days was to the poor. The early missionary work of Baptist preachers and Methodist Circuit riders to the early settlers of America is even yet rewarded, for as the country grows in population and the cities increase your Church and our Church have vast constituencies to draw from, as the cities of the South expand, Methodists and Baptists from the country places will be there, to do their part in seeking for the lost, as they did in the earlier days.

May the Lord bless you and your people in all your endeavors to save the world in the name of Christ.

Yours in the Gospel,

W. L. SHERRILL, Secretary.

Upon motion of I. D. S. Knight, Charles E. Maddry was elected to represent the state on the south-wide promotion committee, as provided by the constitution of the Southern Baptist Convention.

H. T. Hunter, chairman, presented the report of the Committee on Resolutions. The report was considered seratim, and Sections I, II, III were adopted upon proper motion without further discussion. After discussion Section IV was voted tabled, and Section V adopted without discussion. Immediately, upon motion of T. B. Davis, Section IV was taken from the table, and by ruling of the chair opened for further consideration. The matter was discussed by J. R. Jester, H. T. Stevens, S. F. Hudson, A. J. Barton, et als, when upon motion of J. Clyde Turner the debate ended. The question was called, and upon motion to adopt failed to pass by a substantial majority.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS

Your Committee on Resolutions begs leave to submit the following report:

I. APPRECIATION

Resolved First, That we extend to the city officials of Winston-Salem, particularly its traffic officials, our thanks and appreciation for the courtesies extended in connection with parking cars, and in connection with traffic regulations generally.

Resolved Second, That we extend to the pastors and churches of Winston-Salem, and particularly to the First Baptist Church, to Dr. J. R. Jester and his co-workers, our grateful thanks for the exceptionally fine way in which they have anticipated and sought to meet our every need, and have provided for our comfort and convenience.

Resolved Third, That we acknowledge with a deep sense of gratitude the superb hospitality of the citizens in this city who, without regard to denominational affiliation, have opened their homes to the delegates of this convention.

Resolved Fourth, That we record our genuine appreciation of the generous space and favorable publicity given the sessions of the convention on the part of the Winston-Salem Journal and the Twin City Sentinel.

II. NOMINATING COMMITTEE

Whereas, nomination committees appointed by this convention have labored under the grave handicap of not having sufficient information intelligently to make their selections for the nomination of members to the Boards of the several institutions and subsidiary organizations of the convention, therefore, be it resolved

First, that the committee to nominate members of Boards of Trustees and other subsidiary organizations of the convention be a standing committee of the convention; that it be composed of seven members representing different sections of the state, and be elected by the convention each year to serve for the succeeding year and to report to the next session of the convention;

Second, that the Recording Secretary of the convention be and is hereby instructed to secure from an executive officer of each institution, or other organization involved, a record of the attendance and service of each trustee, or other officer, whose time of service expires each year and for whose vacancy a nomination is to be made by said committee;

Third, that the Recording Secretary of the convention be and is hereby instructed to furnish a copy of the information thus obtained to each member of said nomination committee at least thirty days before the next meeting of the convention.

N.B.—The above resolution was submitted to the convention by Arch C. Cree.

III. ORDAINING MINISTERS

Resolved, That the following resolutions adopted by the Ministers' Conference, meeting in conjunction with this convention, be approved as expressing the sentiments of this body and that the Ministers' Conference of 1932 be requested to give time on its program for ample discussion of the vitally important matter of ordaining ministers:

"The committee appointed by the Ministers' Conference to offer resolutions to the convention relative to the practice of Baptist churches within our state in ordaining brethren to the ministry without due examination by a representative presbytery, begs leave to offer the following resolutions:

Whereas, the danger of loose practice in the matter of ordaining brethren to the ministry has been brought to the attention of the Ministers' Conference,

And whereas, we recognize that such practice oftentimes results in injury both to the local church and to the denomination at large,

And whereas, the problem is exceedingly difficult within a democracy such as ours, which recognizes the sovereignty of a local Baptist church, Therefore, be it Resolved,

First, that we are unalterably opposed to any method that savors of an ecclesiasticism within democracy, and that we recognize the full right of every local Baptist church in exercising its sovereignty in such matters, yet, we would recommend to all Baptist ministers, deacons, and churches within our convention that great care be taken in laying hands upon brethren for the ministry,

Second, That we suggest to pastors, deacons, and churches that the local church in issuing a call for an examining or ordaining presbytery should, as a matter of safe practice and courtesy, call together a large group of pastors from the churches of the association, or section.

Third, We would further recommend that the convention request the Pastors' Conference to give ample time for full discussion of this vitally important matter at its next annual meeting."

IV. FRATERNAL VISITORS

Be it Resolved, That this convention select a committee of five to attend the State Convention of the Freewill Baptists of North Carolina as fraternal visitors.

N.B.—This resolution failed to pass the convention after lengthy discussion. See Proceedings immediately above.—SECRETARY.

V. PRINTING RESOLUTIONS

Resolved, That these Resolutions be incorporated and printed in the Convention Annual.

Joel S. Snyder announced the following:

STANDING COMMITTEE TO NOMINATE TRUSTEES OF THE CONVENTION AND ITS VARIOUS INSTITUTIONS

Eugene Olive, Chairman, R. E. Brickhouse, H. W. Baucom, A. B. Wood, J. M. Kester, S. H. Templeman, A. J. Smith.

The secretary announced the final enrollment of messengers at this session as 1,106.

C. H. Durham announced for the tellers that J. Clyde Turner had been reelected president of the convention for the fourth year.

General Secretary Maddry announced that the first Convention Refund Bond was bought by Missionary J. C. Powell, of Africa, and that several others had been already sold.

On proper motion the journal of the day's proceedings was not read.

T. D. Collins led the convention in singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," President Turner having again assumed the chair, and the convention adjourned with prayer by J. L. Coley, to meet November 15-17, 1932, in the First Baptist Church, Charlotte.

J. CLYDE TURNER, President,
C. S. GREEN, Recording Secretary.

REPORT OF THE GENERAL BOARD

CHARLES E. MADDRY, General Secretary

We stand at the first milestone of the new century of organized Baptist life in North Carolina. The year has been one of mingled lights and shadows. In the midst of the world wide economic debacle, North Carolina has not escaped. Our people have felt keenly and acutely the sore economic distress that afflicts the whole world. But amid the sombre shadows, there are some gleams of light to brighten and cheer the pathway for our faltering feet.

For one thing, the Lord has remembered His people and given them the most bountiful crops grown in a decade. Everywhere throughout the state, there is abundance of foodstuffs, ample for man and beast. Our people have begun to take seriously the admonition to "live at home," and in every country district there is plenty to eat.

In another respect the Lord has smiled upon His people. From every quarter there have come reports of gracious revivals in the churches and many have been saved. This is the most hopeful sign, that the spiritual depression and inertia that had settled like a paralyzing and deadly pall on the churches, is passing and our people are beginning to return to the Lord. "For thus saith the Lord God, the Holy One of Israel, in returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength."

These are difficult and strange times through which we are passing. This generation has seen nothing like it, but bad as it is, these are good times compared with what our fathers went through, during a whole decade of Civil War and Reconstruction. One man out of every five who fought for the Confederacy was a North Carolinian, and one man out of every four who fought at Gettysburg was from North Carolina. We sent more men to the Confederacy than we had voters. Multitudes of them never came back. Our fathers came out of that struggle broken and crushed. Many of those who escaped the sword, fell victims to the poverty and wretchedness that followed in the wake of such a carnival of revenge, hate and social upheaval and economic revolution, as the world has rarely seen.

In the light of what our fathers suffered from 1860 to 1870, we ought to be ashamed to raise our voices in complaint. By comparison we are infinitely well off today.

I

Department of Missions

One good thing, at least, that has come to us out of the coöperative, or budget idea, is the growing feeling among our people, of the oneness and unity of our work. More and more, we are coming to see that all missions are one and in the thinking of the Saviour, there is no state or national lines, but that we are to strive with all our might to make Christ known to all men, beginning at home and going out to the ends of the earth.

A. HOME AND FOREIGN MISSIONS

This year has been hard indeed upon these two great Kingdom agencies. A loss of nearly fifty thousand dollars in the amounts given by North Carolina to the Coöperative Program for the ten months of this year, falls heavily upon these Boards, and especially upon the Foreign Board. It means a loss of at least $12,500 for Foreign Missions this year. We are hoping devoutly that the Every Member Canvass will at least check the disastrous downward trend in our mission contributions for 1932.

Last year we gave $40,577.05 for Home Missions and $75,721.83 for Foreign Missions.

B. STATE MISSIONS

1. MISSIONARY PASTORAL ASSISTANCE

We give below a summary of the work done by our 47 state missionaries from October 1, 1930 to September 30, 1931. We had eighty-six state missionaries last year. It will be seen that our whole State Mission program, including reductions in our Sunday School and Young People's Departments, has been cut in half this year. We devoutly hope that we will not be compelled to retreat further in our state work.

2. INDIAN WORK

Two years ago in the acute financial distress that came upon the Home Board, the North Carolina Board very promptly and generously came to the relief of the Home Board and took over the Indian work in Robeson County and the Cherokee work in Swain County. This year we are spending $2,500 of the $33,000 apportioned for State Mission work, for the Indian work. We feel that the North Carolina Board is now in greater distress, if possible, than the Home Board. The Indian work is making substantial and gratifying progress. Our missionaries to the Indians, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lunsford in Robeson County and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Lee in Swain County, are faithful, loyal, self-sacrificing missionaries. There is no more important work being done by the Convention than this, and somehow it must be carried on, but we believe the Home Board should relieve our State Board of at least one half of this obligation. We would ask for the mind of the Convention in this matter.

3. PRISON EVANGELIST

We have repeatedly brought to the attention of the Convention our conviction that the Baptists of North Carolina should employ an evangelist who should devote all of his time to work among the inmates of our various state prisons and camps. The prison population of North Carolina is rapidly increasing, especially in the number of white youths. The prison records show that by far the larger percent of the inmates of our various state prisons are out of Baptist homes, and were reared under Baptist influences. We owe these unfortunate ones a duty and an obligation in moral and spiritual things, above all other denominations in this state. If we fail longer to carry the gospel of hope and redemption to this unfortunate group among us, we fear that in consternation and dismay, we shall hear the Saviour say on that dreadful day of final reckoning: "I was sick and in prison and ye visited me not." We know some are going to say that times are hard and we have no funds now for this purpose. We believe profoundly that some way should be found to finance this long neglected work.

Once again we have delivered our souls of this burden, and put it on the Baptists of North Carolina.

4. SHALL WE DISCHARGE OUR OBLIGATIONS TO THE NEGRO BAPTISTS OF NORTH CAROLINA?

Our colored Baptist brethren in North Carolina have grown in a marvelous way. Today they number more than 250,000 members in their churches. They have four Conventions, virtually independent of each other, viz, a Sunday School Convention, a Woman's Convention, a Young People's Convention, and a Baptist State Convention. The State Convention has no direction or control over the other Conventions. In our report to the Convention one year ago, we submitted this matter in the following statement:

"Our colored brethren have no organized State Mission work; no training work either in the field of Sunday School or Young People's work. The negro population is overwhelmingly Baptist, and if an aggressive and worth-while program of missions, benevolence and training activities could be put on among our negro Baptists NOW, without further delay, by this Convention, it would be an investment that would bring in marvelous returns in this generation.

"This is our responsibility and we cannot escape the obligations it entails. We will neglect it longer at our peril. Your Secretary feels keenly the weight of this matter. The two races must live here in our good state side by side. In the Province of God, we have at least one strong tie that binds us together—our agreement on the doctrine and practice of the New Testament. We are brethren in Christ, with the same aims and purposes and beliefs. We owe it to our negro brethren, we owe it to our common Saviour and Lord to act the part of the big brother to the negro Baptists of North Carolina in providing for them leadership and material help in organizing and training the multitudes they have already gathered into their churches. We would urge upon this Convention the importance of doing something definite and constructive about this matter at this season."

We now bring the problem anew to the attention of the Convention. We feel the weighty responsibility of this matter, and ask you to share it with us.

5. SUNDAY SCHOOL DEPARTMENT

We have to report a very gratifying and substantial growth and expansion in our Sunday School work. We are especially pleased with the growing success of the rural associational enlargement idea. We believe this is the finest method yet devised for the enlistment of our country churches in the plans and work of the Baptist State Convention. We are deeply grateful to the Sunday School Board for this generosity in helping us carry on a worthy program of Sunday School work. Secretary Morgan and his co-workers have to report a year of great and worthy achievement as follows:

REPORT ON SUNDAY SCHOOLS

PERRY MORGAN, Secretary

This is the fourth annual report made on the Sunday School work of the Convention by the present Secretary. He is completing his twelfth year of service with the Baptists of North Carolina. He has given his best with pleasure and profit to himself, and with a prayer that his services have been pleasing to the Master and his brethren whom he loves with genuine devotion.

The passing of another year marks a period of progress in the work of our Sunday Schools that brings us genuine joy in what has been accomplished. This report was written before the annual meeting of several of the district Associations, therefore, membership statistics could not be given here. The Secretary attended several Associations and from what he learned from church letters read in the meetings and from statistical reports received from twenty-five Associations, he feels safe in saying there have been gratifying gains in Sunday School membership. The figures will be found on other pages of the Convention Annual in the statistical tables and statistical summary prepared after all Associations have held their meetings.

THE CENTRAL OFFICE

All activities of the department radiate from the central office. As the work enlarges in the state the volume of work increases here. The office is located at 200 Biblical Recorder Building, Raleigh.

CHANGES IN FIELD FORCES

Last year we called attention to the changes that came about in the department affecting the field personnel. This year further changes were necessary and adjustments have been made that leave only one worker in the department maintained by our State Board of Missions. He is paid in part by the Sunday School Board at Nashville. All other workers are paid wholly by the Sunday School Board. There are now only two full time workers in the department. They are Perry Morgan, Secretary, and L. L. Morgan, General Field Worker. Bessie Morgan, Office Secretary, has for another year rendered faithful and efficient service.

These workers give their time to churches in teaching, in conferences, in enlargement campaigns with individual churches, entire Associations, and groups of churches; conventions, assemblies, and in many other ways. Most of their time is spent on the field with rural churches and rural district Associations. During the year they travelled many thousands of miles and made hundreds of addresses before churches, training classes, Associational meetings, training schools, and conferences.

Decreasing gifts so materially affected the Sunday School Department that on September 1, Miss Gladys H. Beck, who had served the Convention superbly as State Elementary Sunday School Secretary for five years was released from this work and designated "Special Approved Worker of the Sunday School Board." Her services are available for special projects in Elementary Sunday School work and will be paid for by the Sunday School Board at Nashville.

CHANGE IN SPECIAL WORKERS

Miss Naomi Braswell resigned her work in the Gaston County Association to become Educational Director of the First Baptist Church, Gastonia. Financial conditions would not permit the employment of anyone to take her place. Neither would these conditions permit the department to retain Miss Leona Harris as special worker in the Rowan and Mecklenburg-Cabarrus Associations so she gave up her work with us soon after the Convention met last year.

For six years M. L. Jones has been a special worker in the Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Departments in the Pilot Mountain and Mount Zion Associations. He rendered faithful and efficient service and it was with regret that on September 1, it became necessary on account of decreasing receipts for this special type of work to release him to the Mount Zion Association.

STATE CONFERENCE AT RIDGECREST

The State-wide Sunday School Conference was held at Ridgecrest July 12-17. The attendance was gratifying. Much of information and inspiration needed by workers in the local churches was supplied in this gathering of five days on the crest of the mountains where Southern Baptists have their summer assembly. The place is ideal for such a conference and plans are made to meet there again next summer.

In this connection we wish to say that North Carolina Baptists should prize highly the opportunity they have at Ridgecrest to hold state-wide meetings of every sort. In surroundings, climatic conditions, quietude, Christian associations, fellowship privileges; opportunity for study, worship, and prayer; and for reviving one in spirit, body, mind and soul, Ridgecrest backed by the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention offers more than any place in the bounds on our beloved state. We commend Ridgecrest to all our people and urge them to attend the meetings there next summer in larger numbers.

A WORK THAT IS VITAL

Training our Bible School teachers for their task of teaching the Bible is one of the most vital things undertaken by this department. We recognize the pressing importance of this work. Again and again we repeat the statement that this is one of the most difficult tasks in Sunday School work but it is a thing that is needed in every church. It is made difficult because of the constant changing of the teaching forces in the churches. It is our opinion that half of the superintendents in our schools change every year. We have no way of telling how many teachers resign their work and have to be replaced with new ones who have had no experience in teaching the Bible and little or no training for their work.

It is gratifying to note that many pastors and superintendents are conducting training classes. That is right. Who is better prepared to train workers than these two church leaders? Such are commended for their efforts. May their number increase rapidly.

During the year the department has issued 8,087 training awards. We appeal to pastors for a large and more intensive program of "teaching teachers" and "training workers" for every phase of Sunday School work.

CONSIDERATION GIVEN RURAL FIELD WORK

The Sunday School Department is committed to the policies of the Baptist State Convention in every way. The department has no program or policy apart from that of the Convention itself. We believe in the country church. Our effort has been to help the churches in rural North Carolina but not at the expense of the work in urban churches. We have tried to make an equitable distribution of time, money and effort in this respect leaning, of course, toward the rural work.

Simultaneous training schools and enlargement campaigns were held in several Associations during the summer. Volunteer training schools were held in the churches of the Eastern Association with twenty-three churches participating. J. Herman Barnes and L. L. Morgan prepared for and conducted these schools with volunteer help. The Tennessee River Association with Vance A. Browning leading held simultaneous training schools with volunteer workers in twenty-two churches with more than two thousand people in the training class July 5-10. Enlargement Campaigns were conducted in the French Broad, Three Forks, Ashe, and Alleghany Association with fifty churches taking part. This was only a beginning of what the department desires to do in these Associations and others in western and northwestern North Carolina next year.

SCHOOLS REACHING THE STANDARD

Two hundred Standard Schools was our goal for the year. We are able to report one hundred eighteen schools having reached the Standard. We commend to the churches this program of work and urge that they use it as a means of stimulating them in their work of winning and teaching our people. Schools that use it are better schools in every way.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL WORK

Responsibility increases here. More Bible study for our boys and girls is a matter that should claim the attention of every church. The Vacation period offers boundless opportunity in this field of teaching and Bible instruction. The Baptist Sunday School Board made possible the use of Mrs. A. V. Washburn of Goldsboro during February, March, April, and May, in promoting Vacation Bible School Work. Homer L. Grice, Nashville, Secretary of the Department of D. V. B. S. work of the Baptist Sunday School Board, appropriated funds for carrying on this work. We have had a good year. The number of schools held was seventy-three. We urge our churches to conduct Vacation Bible Schools next year.

PROMOTING THE EVERY MEMBER CANVASS

The New Promotion Committee of the Baptist State Convention following the suggestion of the General Board requested the Sunday School Secretary to serve as Promotion Chairman of the Every Member Canvass among North Carolina Baptists. Ready to respond to any call of the Convention he agreed to give his time to that work from August 1 to December 6 and if needed to January 1. While he was thus engaged Field Worker L. L. Morgan took charge of the Sunday School work and made a magnificent record as acting secretary directing the activities of the department.

The Secretary is grateful for the coöperation of all Sunday School workers during this strenuous period of activities in the department.

GATHERING STATISTICS

Gathering statistics for the Annual of the Baptist State Convention is a part of the work done by the Sunday School Department. It is evident that the secretary and his office forces must give time to statistical work thus diverting attention from Sunday School work for about two months preceding and immediately following the annual meeting of the Convention.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD REPRESENTATIVE

The Convention of 1930 nominated Dr. B. A. Bowers of Gastonia to represent North Carolina on the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. This nomination was confirmed by the Board later in its annual meeting. As a matter of information let it be said here that members of the Sunday School Board are elected by the Southern Baptist Convention itself since this Board is an institution of the Convention. In the nomination and confirmation of our state representative we have a demonstration of the fine manner in which our state and Southern Conventions coöperate in all matters.

Dr. Bowers has rendered fine service this year. His counsel and advice has been of incalculable value to the department in every way. His touch with the Sunday School Board in its relationship to our state work has done much to help the work along.

VOLUNTEERS FOR SUMMER WORK

As in other years we were fortunate in securing the services of a number of people in our summer campaigns without cost to the Convention. It is gratifying to note that many of our young people who are volunteers for various fields of Kingdom work tendered their services to the department. We availed ourselves of the use of their time and talents. They reveal the calibre of thier souls in offering themselves without reserve, and with no promise of reward or compensation for the work they do. We acknowledge our debt to them and express our deepest gratitude for their services. Lack of space forbids our mentioning their names and the places where they served and the amount of time given by each of them.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

1. To the Heavenly Father for His blessings upon us and for His bountiful grace which has been sufficient for every day. We are humbly and deeply grateful.

2. To the General Board of Missions and the Sunday School Board for the support and sympathetic help extended during the year we are grateful beyond measure.

3. To the Biblical Recorder and its editor, Rev. J. S. Farmer, and the office workers, Misses Marjorie Yates and Ethel Sorrell, we are grateful for their help in every way for the space allotted weekly in the Recorder for news notes concerning the work.

4. To the churches, their pastors, Sunday School teachers, superintendents, associational superintendents, and others including our generous and gracious hosts who have so willingly bestowed their hospitality upon all the workers in this department while on the field. Their contribution to the work of the Kingdom must not be overlooked or forgotten by this department.

6. BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE'S UNION

The Baptist Young People's Union has experienced a remarkable growth in North Carolina in twenty years. It is one of our great training agencies, and the next generation of church members in North Carolina will be settled and grounded in the doctrines and practices of the New Testament as a result of the faithful and patient teaching and instruction now being given in the Young People's Unions.

We give below the report of Secretary Ivey and his co-laborers for the year :

REPORT OF B. Y. P. U. DEPARTMENT

JAMES A. IVEY, Secretary

By the aid of a kind and helpful Providence your B. Y. P. U. Secretary is enabled to make a gratifying report of the year's work. This is his fourth annual report. He has given three years and ten months to the B. Y. P. U. Department, and seven months to the Sunday School Department, totaling four years and five months in state work. Miss Winnie Rickett, who has had no little part in making possible this report, has given in all six years and one month to the work of B. Y. P. U. Mrs. Alma Massey Tharrington, the capable and efficient office secretary, has given six years and two months to the B. Y. P. U. Department. Miss Mary Ayscue, who was discontinued as Field Worker for the B. Y. P. U. Department August first this year, has rendered invaluable service. Constantly alert, deeply consecrated and zealous in her work, she was worthy of the trust imposed in her by the Baptist State Convention. It was with keen regret that the General Board found it necessary to discontinue Miss Ayscue, due to the rapid decline in receipts. We herein give an account of our stewardship.

REGULARLY SCHEDULED MEETINGS

The State B. Y. P. U. Convention-Assembly

The annual meeting of the State B. Y. P. U. was held at Ridgecrest, July 4-10, 1931. For the first time the annual meeting sponsored a program which combined the elements of the former three day convention with that of the assembly plan. This first experience with this type of meeting proved such a meeting to be desirable and necessary to meet the increased need of the advancing B. Y. P. U. program. The series of study courses, the recreation in the afternoons, and the fellowship are features of themselves sufficient to establish the wisdom of the six-day assembly program. The registered attendance was 423, there being many more who came but did not register. Dr. B. W. Spilman says that in many respects it was the most remarkable meeting of its kind he has ever attended. The next B. Y. P. U. Convention-Assembly is to be held at Ridgecrest, July 2-8, 1932.

The Five Regional Conventions

The Regional Conventions held in the spring of this year experienced a 50 percent increase in attendance and set a new high standard for good programs. The Eastern convention met at Tarboro with a registered attendance of 315, the next convention to be held March 18-19, 1932 at Ahoskie. The Southern convention which met at Red Springs with a registered attendance of 193, meets next year March 25-26, at Elizabethtown. The Central was held at Oxford with a registered attendance of 294, and meets next year at Siler City, April 1-2. The West Central was held at Morganton with a registered attendance of 502. The next convention meets at Winston-Salem, April 8-9. The Western convention met at Brevard with a registered attendance of 324. The next convention will be held at Franklin, April 15-16. It is conservative to say that less than half who attended these conventions became registered delegates.

The Regional Tours

Five weeks taken from September and October were given to a tour of the entire state, holding conferences at thirty-three places on as many days, to which representatives came from nearly all of the associations and about one-half of the B. Y. P. U. churches in the state. At these conferences the associational B. Y. P. U. officers were given detailed instructions for their work. Some special features which are listed separately in this report were emphasized. Proposed state and Southwide B. Y. P. U. meetings were announced; inactive unions were eliminated and new unions added to the records; practical discussions and an inspirational message composed the major features of these conferences. Approximately 3,000 pastors, B. Y. P. U. officers and members attended these meetings.

The State Student Conference

The State Student Conference an annual meeting, was held in Durham October 30-November 1, 1931. To this meeting came representatives from the Baptist schools and from the Baptist student groups of the state schools. Herschel Ford, student at Wake Forest, was president.

CAMPAIGNS

Simultaneous Campaigns

Asheville held a city-wide simultaneous B. Y. P. U. campaign with nine churches participating.

The Burnt Swamp (Indian) Association, with the help of some B. Y. P. U. leaders from Lumberton and Red Springs, put on a simultaneous B. Y. P. U. week with a study course in thirteen churches. Following this week's work the associational B. Y. P. U. organization was set up with fourteen B. Y. P. U.'s in twelve churches.

The Green River Association undertook a new type of simultaneous program. The State Secretary with two assistants taught representatives from thirteen churches who came to Rutherfordton for five nights. These representatives returned to their respective churches to teach study courses. The results of these study courses lead us to believe that this is a very satisfactory way of putting on an associational campaign where funds and workers are scarce.

Local Church Campaigns

The state workers have given many weeks to local church enlargement campaigns. Several hundred churches have put on one or more enlargement programs during the year with their local leaders as teachers.

B. Y. P. U. Week In the Schools

A week was spent by one or more of the state workers in seven of the Baptist schools and five of the State schools. The Baptist schools in which B. Y. P. U. study courses were given are Mars Hill, Campbell, Boiling Springs, Wingate, Chowan, Meredith and Wake Forest. The five State schools are the University, Appalachian Normal, W. C. T. C., N. C. C. W. and N. C. State.

ASSOCIATIONAL CONVENTIONS, SCHOOLS AND CONFERENCES

The Associational Program

In the B. Y. P. U. organization of the state there are 67 associations, one of these being the Burnt Swamp (Indian). Sixty of this number have associational organizations which function in varying degrees. All sixty have held an annual convention. A majority hold quarterly district meetings. In many of them the officers are rapidly organizing B. Y. P. U.'s, teaching study courses and in various other ways leading in the establishment and enlargement of B. Y. P. U.

Central Training School at Wake Forest

Once a year in the springtime the Central Association holds a week of training at Wake Forest College. The program includes B. Y. P. U. study courses as well as courses of the other organizations of the church. The B. Y. P. U. Department coöperates in this school.

The Winston-Salem Conference

Two members of the B. Y. P. U. Department gave a week to Winston-Salem, assisting with study course work in some of the churches and holding conferences with B. Y. P. U. leaders in other churches.

Under the leadership of Rev. D. H. Wilcox, the B. Y. P. U. work in Winston-Salem and surrounding community is experiencing a very healthy and rapid growth.

SPECIAL FEATURES

At the recent State B. Y. P. U. Convention held at Ridgecrest some special features were initiated. They are:

Youth Roll Call

The Youth Roll Call, which has as its objective 50,000 signatures of North Carolina young people to the W. C. T. U. pledge. Many thousands have already affixed their signatures to this pledge. Additional thousands will do so by the first of December at which time these signatures along with others from the several southern states will be forwarded to Mr. Hoover, our president. This is being done to acquaint him and Congress with the sentiment of the young people of the South toward prohibition.

Biblical Recorder Subscription Movement

The B. Y. P. U.'s of the state are undertaking to secure 2,000 new subscriptions to the Biblical Recorder. Already 65 have been secured. This movement is just getting under way. The young people are interested and are anxious to increase the circulation of our Baptist State paper and will materially do so.

The Johnson Memorial Fund

For the first time in the history of the B. Y. P. U. of the state, the young people are permitted to make a special offering to an object of the Convention, they having asked for the privilege at a time when they felt their help would be greatly needed. This action does not establish a precedent, but allows the B. Y. P. U.'s to make a special offering at this particular time, aside from their regular contributions to the church. The goal for the offering was set at $25,000, each B. Y. P. U. member being asked for $1.00. The movement is just getting started.

The Every Member Canvass

Through the contacts with more than 3,000 pastors and leaders in the thirty-three conferences held this fall at places accessible to every section of the state, through the Biblical Recorder and through correspondence, all possible pressure and emphasis have been put upon the Every-Member Canvass. The B. Y. P. U. folks declare themselves ready to coöperate fully.

CHANGES AND ADDITIONS IN LITERATURE AND ORGANIZATION

Standards of Excellence, Free Literature and Study Course Text Books

Effective January 1, 1932, the Standards of Excellence for the General Organization and the several grades of the B. Y. P. U. will carry several changes. Certain parts of the free literature will be changed in keeping with the standards. There will be a new and enlarged list of study course books for all the grades and divisions of B. Y. P. U. These changes were wrought out in a conference of the B. Y. P. U. workers of the South at Nashville, Tennessee, in May this year.

The Baptist Adult Union

The Baptist Adult Union is not a new organization, but has only recently come into its place of proper emphasis. For this organization quarterlies are prepared. Beginning January 1, 1932, a series of study course text books, a new B. A. U. Manual, a Standard of Excellence and other free literature will be available. This organization has come about as a necessary adjunct to the B. Y. P. U., there being so many Adults who have not received B. Y. P. U. training, who stand in need of such training. The increase in the number of these organizations in our state is very rapid, there being 129 at present.

THE OFFICE

In the office our work has been decidedly more satisfactory this year with a full time office secretary. The amount of work has greatly increased. There has been much to do in promoting the special movements, viz., the Youth Roll Call, the Johnson Memorial, the Biblical Recorder campaign and the Every Member Canvass. Aside from the regular routine of personal correspondence, getting out necessary periodic literature, etc., the increase in the number of organizations, the free literature mailed to new unions and to others on request, more than 20,000 awards that are sent out, necessitate an increasing amount of office work. The most rigid economy has been practiced in the use of literature, stationery and postage, and at the same time we have sought not to weaken the effectiveness of our work.

The half-page section in the Biblical Recorder given to the B. Y. P. U. department for the promotion of its interests has been edited by the department.

CONCLUSION

We are profoundly grateful to our heavenly Father for the good year which He has given us. To the Convention, the General Board and the Baptist Sunday School Board we are deeply grateful for the financial support received from them. We are indebted to and enriched by the fellowship and blessings of our Baptist Brotherhood over the state. Dr. Maddry has shown himself to be a wise leader and true friend of the young people.

We speak the earnest and insistent urge of our heart in these final words.

May the time soon come that the contributions to the Coöperative Program will increase to the place where the B. Y. P. U. work can regain its help and support as of former years.

The leaders of young people in our churches have none other to whom to go save the pastor for the guiding counsel and personal assistance which they sorely need. Brother pastor, your young people are one of your greatest treasures. Will you not give yourself to them to the degree that their needs and possibilities demand?

To that large host of B. Y. P. U. leaders and fellow workers throughout the state who with unabated zeal and enthusiasm have given themselves in a worthy way to their tasks, we extend our heartfelt appreciation.

As we face another year, we do so with serene hope and high courage, believing that our God will continue to bless us and that we are entering upon even a more glorious and triumphant year.

8. A CHALLENGING MISSIONARY OPPORTUNITY

By reference to our Associational map, it can readily be seen that the outstanding and immediately acute State Mission task of North Carolina Baptists is to be found in the extreme ends of our state, viz., in twelve Eastern counties along the Atlantic seaboard and in twenty-eight Associations in the Western end of the state, twenty of them beyond the Blue Ridge. The mission problem in these two sections is wholly different. In the twelve Eastern counties it is a problem of evangelization before anything can be done in the way of enlistment. There are multitudes of people in these counties who are unreached by any denomination. In many sections Baptists were once strong, aggressive and influential. In many cases the church houses are still standing, sad reminders of lost zeal and tragic failure to preach Christ to the people. The spirit of indifference and blighting effects of extreme Calvinism and hardshellism, settled down on many of our churches, and the result has been a slow, but sure death in many communities. One result has been the influx of every conceivable religious fad and-ism, until even the faint and flickering light of the pure gospel of the Lord Jesus has died out in many localities.

With the coming of good roads and good schools, and a steady influx of new blood from without, Eastern Carolina is rapidly changing. The fertility of the soil, the rapid progress in agriculture, and especially in crop diversification, has brought a new day to this section, and along with it has come a new and imperative challenge to the Baptist State Convention, to come back into this great Eastern section with every available mission force and agency, in an earnest effort to replant and reestablish Baptist churches wherever needed.

The first approach toward the solution of this Eastern mission problem is through an organized and intensive evangelistic effort. We believe over these dozen counties, there should be placed a state missionary at large, whose duties first of all would be to secure the volunteer help and service of pastors up-state in holding meetings in every community in these counties where the people are uncared for by churches, and county by county to organize and promote simultaneous evangelistic meetings. In this way, without much cost to your Mission Board, a great and wholesome program of evangelism may be put on and promoted throughout these Eastern counties bordering on the Atlantic.

Along with this carefully organized, intensive and aggressive program of evangelism in this Eastern section, using the volunteer service of pastors, the General Board should provide for the holding of at least one county-wide evangelistic meeting in the county seat, or at some other strategic center, in each of these Eastern counties. It will be necessary in some places to use a large tent and employ an evangelist especially gifted for this kind of work.

Then following this intensive effort along evangelistic lines, we believe that all of the available forces of the Convention should be mobilized and thrown into this section, from October 1 to May 1, for the next five years. We submit that the older and stronger churches and associations have had sufficient attention and assistance through our various departments of training and enlistment. They are strong enough, with the leadership now developed, to carry on their own programs of enlistment, training and enlargement. The Convention, we believe, will be wise, if the General Secretary is instructed to concentrate all available forces in an earnest and intensive effort, for the next several years, to win the people in these Eastern counties to the acceptance of the Person and Program of the Lord Jesus Christ as exemplified in the organization and work of Baptist churches.

In the Western section of the state our mission problem is wholly different from that of the East. In the West it is almost wholly a problem of teaching, training and enlistment. The people are Baptists, the churches are numerous, our opportunity is challenging and our responsibility is staggering. Something is wrong when whole associations are unenlisted, and scores of churches give no thought to the spread of the Kingdom beyond their own border, either in time or money or service.

We believe the best approach to the mission problem in this section is through the instrumentality of our teaching and training agencies. Most of these churches already have a Sunday School, and our best point of contact is through the Associational Enlargement Campaign. Then this should be followed, wherever possible, with enlargement efforts by the Woman's Missionary Union and the Young People's Union.

We have at least fifty young men and young women, candidates for the ministry and mission fields, in our various Baptist schools and colleges, who are receiving aid from the Convention in securing their education. There should be some plan worked out between the General Board and these young people whereby their services could be utilized during the summer months in various phases of mission work. All above the sophomore year, who are available, should be used. It will give them valuable experience, and the General Board surely needs their zeal and consecrated enthusiasm in an effort to solve this vital mission problem in the two extremes of our state. At least a dozen young men who can preach, should be assigned to the mission fields of Eastern Carolina, and placed under the direction of the General Missionary for that region. They should go into the isolated and waste places, wherever there are people without the benefits of the Gospel. They should hold meetings in churches and mission houses, in school houses, in the homes of the people, under brush arbors and under the trees. We must carry Christ to the people, and we will be wise if we use these young people now.

Then in the West, we can use forty or fifty for three months, under the direction of our Sunday School and Young People's Departments, in a great enlargement program of teaching, training and New Testament stewardship.

We, therefore, urge the Convention to commit itself to this enlarged State Mission program in the two geographical extremes of our state, and request the General Board to work out the details as far as the financial ability of the Board will permit.

9. STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The work in this department has suffered severely because of the continued decline in our receipts from the churches. A few years ago we had five student secretaries in the employ of our Board. This year we have employed two for a part of the time. Miss Elizabeth Cowan for two years has been director of Baptist student work at Boone, Cullowhee and Mars Hill. In the necessary reduction of our field force, Miss Cowan finished her work with the Board on September 15. We regretted exceedingly to have to dispense with her services. She has done a splendid and lasting work among our students at these schools, and we hope she may come back with us when economic conditions improve.

Miss Cleo Mitchell is the only one left in our student department. She now has oversight of our student work at Greensboro, Boone, Cullowhee and Mars Hill. The Sunday School Board is paying $500 a year on her salary. The work was never more promising or fruitful, and must be continued.

10. BUILDING EVANGELIST

Brother J. M. Page, our Building Evangelist, has been giving most of his time this year in an effort to collect the balance due on Centennial pledges. He has given what time he could to the matter of assisting the churches in securing and providing better equipment for the teaching and training work. Here is a field of great service and untold possibilities. A great and much needed work is being done in making over inadequate and unattractive country and village churches. Many churches that are burdened and harassed with debt are calling for the services of Brother Page in raising their debts and refinancing their obligations. In a number of instances he has saved churches from being sold under the hammer.

We would suggest that the joint arrangement now existing between the Debt Commission and the General Board, whereby part of the time of Brother Page is given to the collection of Centennial pledges, be continued, and that some plan be worked out with the churches calling for his services whereby these churches would pay a reasonable sum for such service rendered, and the Board be relieved of at least two-thirds of the salary of the Building Evangelist.

We give below Mr. Page's report of achievements for the year :

REPORT OF BUILDING EVANGELIST

J. M. PAGE, Evangelist

I have sought to prevent as many building blunders as possible. Many thousands of dollars have been wasted in church buildings in North Carolina. Much of this money is still unpaid. If my policy of "pay as you go and go as you pay" had been followed, we would have prevented much of the financial trouble that we are in today as a denomination.

This year I have discouraged church building except at places where the need was great and the church in position to pay for the equipment. There has been raised for church buildings under my supervision this year about $13,000. I have held 44 Building Conferences.

GENERAL DENOMINATIONAL WORK

I have visited seventeen Associations in the interest of the work of the Convention, and spent about one month in traveling over the state getting up mailing lists of Johnson Memorial prospects.

EVANGELISM

Sermons and addresses delivered, including those at Associations, 103.
Additions by baptism, 33.

Collected on my salary from the sale of church plans, $481.35.

COLLECTIONS ON CONVENTION DEBTS

I have personally collected on the Convention debts $9,537.60. This does not include amounts sent direct to the office as a result of my visits.

II

Department of Education

Since the last Convention Secretary M. A. Huggins, of the Department of Education, left us and became Professor of Education at Meredith College. We have sorely missed his untiring zeal and consecrated common sense in our trying experiences during the year. He is a true yoke-fellow, and this denomination never had a more faithful, loyal and self-sacrificing servant.

We have been unable to do much in a constructive way in this Department. All of our time and thought have been expended in an effort to meet the debts of the Convention incurred for educational purposes.

We are pleased to report that within the year Meredith College has broadened and enriched her curriculum. There are in the new arrangement three groups of studies instead of one; and a student may select the group in which she is interested, either Language, Sciences, or the Social Sciences.

In addition to a wider selection of courses, there has been added those courses which will enable students to prepare themselves to teach in the Grades of the Public Schools with an A-grade certificate. For years graduates of Meredith have been unusually well prepared for teaching in High School. With the new arrangement of courses and these additions, together with the opportunity furnished for Practice Teaching in the Raleigh and Wake County Public Schools, the College is now prepared to give the Baptist girls in the state the type of training demanded in the public schools. No one can estimate the influence of a trained teacher of positive Christian character upon children during the formative and plastic years. During this period, the thoughts, attitudes and ideals of the teacher become those of the child. The power of the teacher, for good or evil, is often greater than that of the parent. The growing child in the grades of our schools is indeed as clay in the hands of the teacher. For this reason Meredith can probably render no finer service than to send into the life of the state young women thoroughly trained and actively Christian, to mold as they will the young life of the state.

We are glad to report that the last payment of $9,000 due by the Convention on the bonds of Wingate Junior College has been paid, and the institution has been turned back to the original owners, the Union Association. It will be necessary for this Convention to authorize the proper authorities to change the charter of Wingate Junior College so that the property will be under the control and direction of trustees elected by the Union Association. We also have to report that Boiling Springs Junior College has been turned back to the Kings Mountain and Sandy Run Associations, and is now controlled and directed by these two bodies. We give herewith the reports of the colleges and schools whose trustees are elected by the Convention:

A. REPORT OF COLLEGES

1. WAKE FOREST

Thurman D. Kitchin, President

The ninety-seventh session of Wake Forest College was opened September 14 with the largest number of students ever assembled at the College at any one time, and the enrollment has already reached the 740 mark. However, there may be a number of financial casualties before the year closes. We have found it necessary to use every available scholarship; to strain the Denmark fund to make loans to some forty-five students and to grant approximately one hundred men the privilege of settling tuition by note. Seventy-four ministerial students are receiving free tuition and in many cases financial aid from the Convention and from the Slate Loan Fund. There are also thirty-six sons of ministers who receive free tuition. It will be seen therefore that more than half of the students at Wake Forest are receiving financial aid of one kind or another.

Few changes have occurred in the faculty. Dr. L. Owens Rea, Ph.D., of Johns Hopkins University, succeeded Mr. Carl J. Whelan as Associate Professor of Social Science; Mr. Nevill Isbell has secured his Ph.D. degree from the University of Wisconsin and resumed his work in the department of Chemistry; Mr. Robert Cru of Bandol, France, is acting instructor in the department of Modern Languages for one year, while Mr. Alexander Seibert is pursuing graduate courses in Europe.

Two trustees were named last June to fill unexpired terms—W. J. Conrad, Jr., of Winston-Salem to succeed T. F. Pettus, and John C. Sikes of Monroe to succeed Walter E. Daniel. These two men are recommended by our Board of Trustees for election by the Convention. The terms of the following expire December 31, 1931 and they are recommended for reelection:

C. O. Bridger, C. H. Durham, W. L. Foushee, F. P. Hobgood, M. L. Kesler, G. A. Norwood, Clarence Poe, L. R. Pruette, R. E. Royall.

The membership of Wake Forest College in the Southern Association is now conditioned upon our meeting in the Law School the requirements of the Association of American Law Schools and upon making the Law School a member of that Association. The chief difficulty has been the lack of books in the Law Library where it has been necessary to spend $13,000.00 for new law books, the cost being distributed over this year and last year.

2. MEREDITH COLLEGE

Charles E. Brewer, President

Meredith College had a good year in 1930-1931. There were 452 students enrolled, registering from eleven states and two foreign countries. The graduating class numbered 95. Only once before, in 1928, was this number of graduates reached.

By strictest economy the Bursar was able to meet all financial obligations for current support. The health of all was excellent and the spirit was most gratifying.

The enrollment for the current session is twelve below what it was a year ago at this time. Students have come from thirteen states and two foreign countries. Of course, the greater number of our students come from North Carolina and from the churches that constitute the Baptist State Convention. The purpose that animates the trustees and faculty is to give these young women a preparation for life that will include a loyalty to home churches and an intelligent and effective enthusiasm for all the enterprises of the denomination.

The organizations fostered by the Convention for our young people are functioning at Meredith College and are securing results. The Young Woman's Auxiliary, with its six circles, not only conducts morning watch but also provides a vesper service each Sunday evening. There are eight B. Y. P. U. groups which meet every Wednesday evening during the session. Sunday School classes are provided in the several churches in the city for our students. These give valuable contacts as well as opportunities for keeping connection with Sunday Schools with complete organization. The Service Band fosters a spirit for religious work and leads students to give thought and meditation to the higher things of life.

Miss Lucille Knight is our new Student Secretary. The students and faculty have given her a most cordial welcome to Meredith, and she has made an excellent beginning.

The Trustees have introduced a new plan for furnishing needed guidance and help for new students. This they have done in the election of Miss Ethel English, who will not only carry some classes in the department of education but will also serve as dean of freshmen. It is believed that this arrangement will reduce "freshman mortality" which is all too high in all institutions. Miss English has taken hold of this work with a fine appreciation of the responsibilities as well as the possibilities involved.

In closing let it be said that Meredith College, its trustees, its alumnae, administration, faculty, students, and friends, are in full accord with the purposes and enterprises of our Convention and hold themselves ready at any time to render any service within their power to carry on effectively the work undertaken, and to strengthen in every way the system of schools conducted by this Convention.

3. CHOWAN COLLEGE

W. B. Edwards, President

We are pleased to report that Chowan College opened its doors for the session of 1931-32 with very bright prospects. There is an increase of eighteen per cent in enrollment.

As a whole, the freshman class of this year is probably better prepared than any we have had for sometime. In fact, we have ten valedictorians from high schools in our student body.

We have admitted this year, for the first time, boys from high schools in this vicinity as day students. Although it is more or less an experiment, possibly, the co-ed plan seems to be working very nicely. All students seem to be happy and to be doing a good grade of work.

In our student body, we have eleven students coming from the homes of preachers. One young lady is preparing for the mission field; and several are planning to take instruction at the training schools of our theological seminaries.

We are offering standard collegiate training under Christian influence and in a Christian environment. We are not neglecting the heart and soul in our educational plans. There is but one member of our student body who is not a professing Christian.

We have the following religious organizations: B. Y. P. U., Y. W. A., Life Service Band, and Student Volunteer Band, all of which hold their weekly or daily meetings.

There have been two changes in our faculty, as follows: Miss Margaret Hight succeeds Miss Willie D. Halsell who is studying on a year's leave of absence; and Miss Eleanor Coker succeeds Miss Bertha Carroll in the English Department. There is for this year neither an increase nor a decrease in our teaching staff.

4. MARS HILL COLLEGE

R. L. Moore, President

Entering upon a new session without any debt for current expenses brought over from the previous year Mars Hill college holds to a record maintained for more than three decades, and this in the face of unprecedented financial conditions in and around Asheville. And gratitude rises in many hearts to conservative trustees, to loyal patrons, to capable teachers who put service above money, and to God who has graciously led, inspirited, and provided for our imperative needs.

The enrollment for the session of 1930-31 included in the regular session 406 college students, 84 high school and special students, and 42 ministerial students, and in the summer terms of 1931 one hundred and eighty-seven were in attendance. The present session has opened with 402 in the junior college and 57 in the academy and department of music, with the prospect of a total enrollment for the year equal to that of the previous session. In their previous record and in the spirit and ability manifested in these few weeks together there is hope that from this fine body of young people there will go out a multitude who will sincerely seek first His kingdom and righteousness. And their teachers need and crave an increasing share of likeness to the Great Teacher.

The auditor's report shows property (buildings, equipment, and 90 acres of land) valued at $370,000, and endowment, restricted and unrestricted, $73,870. This does not include the E. F. Watson Student Fund of $10,000 which is still administered by the Home Mission Board, nor a legacy of the late James E. Bryan of Marshall, N. C., whose estate is expected to net at least $5,000. Trustees, teachers, and former students are helping to raise a maintenance fund in lieu of the annual allotment which this Convention is no longer able to grant.

New teachers: Mr. Vernon E. Wood, A.B., Carson-Newman College and M.A. University of Tennessee, with twelve years' teaching experience in junior colleges, during five of which he was Dean of Bluefield College, becomes professor of chemistry and physics.

Miss Elizabeth Rutherford of Missouri comes to the headship of the new department of home economics. Miss Rutherford has degrees from the University of Chicago, Columbia University, and the Southwestern Seminary, and taught home economics several years in the University of Nebraska.

Mrs. Cornelia Howell Vann, after an absence of two years returns as head of the department of modern languages. Mrs. Vann has the A.B. degree from Baylor College and the Master's degree from the University of North Carolina.

Dr. Walt N. Johnson, author of three volumes on stewardship and denominational problems, comes back to his place as teacher of Economics of the Bible. He will continue as editor of The Next Step and as secretary of the Steward League.

Mrs. J. Mason Richardson of Stuart, Va., and Mrs. W. N. Harmon of Clearwater, Fla., become housemothers respectively of Melrose and Brown dormitories for men.

The passing of Mrs. Caroline Jane Biggers who has been housemother of Spilman Home for 12 years is a serious loss to the school, and the home-going of Mrs. Annie McCall Millstead who came to us two years ago as "Mother" in the boys' dormitories removed a useful woman. Two fine young men give up their places in connection with the college and will continue study—William M. Grubbs at the University of North Carolina and J. Martin England at Crozer Seminary.

Dr. O. E. Sams, vice-president of the college, which he serves joyfully and sacrificially, has visited most of the Associations in the western part of the State, presenting as their was opportunity the claims of Christian education. Dr. Sams will lead as God shall open the way in efforts to increase the endowment and loan funds, in enlarging the library and equipping the Sams Place, and in providing suitable quarters for home economics and the physical sciences. A fire-proof dormitory for girls to take the place of the old wooden building, and a central heating system are other needs which will come in His own time and way.

5. CAMPBELL COLLEGE

J. A. Campbell, President

Campbell College is happy to report to the Convention an unusually good year in patronage, fine in spirit of work, and loyalty to the ideals of a Christian school. In common with all educational institutions, we have been crowded with appeals to help worthy but helpless students, who are seeking preparation for life and its work. These "hard times" have greatly helped in emphasizing the necessity for training, which has manifested itself visibly in the seriousness of purpose and the determination to win regardless of sacrifices. Quite a number of young men and young women are "baching," doing their own cooking, and cutting expenses wherever at all possible. It brings back to mind "the good old days," when students were willing to "endure hardness."

Standardization

Our institution maintains its rating as an A-1 Junior College, having the endorsement of the State Department of Education. The only matter which stands in the way of our belonging to the Southern Association of Colleges is the lack of endowment.

Faculty

All teachers in the college classes have at least the Master's degree, all of them with successful experience running through a number of years. All members of the faculty are active Christians, all members of Baptist churches, with one exception. The only change in our faculty from last year is the resignation of Miss Brooks, violin department.

Patronage

Our patronage for the school year is larger than last year at this time by more than ten per cent, the enrollment of the college department being thirteen per cent larger than last year. Twenty-one young men are preparing to preach the Gospel, a larger number than we had last year. Many of them are well nigh helpless, a number of them in the "bachelor's club."

Spiritual Life

The pastor-president has never seen the spiritual life of the institution finer than now. For more than forty-four years he has had the coöperation of faculty and students in his endeavor to keep Christ at the center of all activities here. Never has he had finer support in faculty, students and community than this year. At almost every preaching service there have been public declarations of faith in Christ and additions for baptism. The Sunday School and B. Y. P. U., with student prayer meetings, have been great allies.

Finances

The loan from the Jefferson Standard Life Insurance Company has been reduced during the year to $5,000.00, which is the only indebtedness upon the college property, with the exception of what the Convention is owing J. A. Campbell personally. Under the terms of the lease made by the Baptist Board of Education and approved by the Baptist State Convention, the Convention was to contribute $3,500.00 per year for maintenance of the school, making the amount larger as funds would justify. In return for this J. A. Campbell was to meet the payments due the Jefferson Standard Company, $2,000.00 a year and interest, carry insurance on all the school property, and keep buildings and grounds in good repair. Since the Convention has been unable to contribute anything to the maintenance of the school, it has greatly burdened the President in carrying out his part of the contract. The conditions of the lease prevent him from making any debt upon the property or against the Convention. Therefore, all debts for maintenance and meeting present indebtedness fall upon him as an individual. It is devoutly wished that in some way help may be provided for this emergency. The institution is fortunate in owing but little, $5,000.00 is all, but your President is carrying a tremendous load.

B. THE STATUS OF THE CONVENTION DEBT

We are glad to report that we have made fine progress on the payment of the Convention debts since we last met. It has been one of the most trying and difficult years we have ever experienced in the work of the Convention. The banks have been kind and lenient, but have insisted that loans must be reduced. It has been very difficult at times to secure sufficient funds for interest charges. Of course installments of bonds and interest had to be met. The emergency offering on the second Sunday in February amounted to $67,000. The collections from Centennial pledges have amounted to $41,747.97. The "Dollar-a-Week Club" has brought in $2,523.34. All of this, together with the 33 percent from the Coöperative Program going to debt service, enabled us to meet our obligations and preserve the honor and credit of the Convention.

1. PAYMENTS ON DEBTS

Educational

One year ago we reported the educational debts of the Convention as $1,050,300.00.

2. PRESENT INDEBTEDNESS

The indebtedness of the Convention today is as follows:

Bitting & Company, Meredith Bonds,	$400,000.00
Interest due December 1, 1931	12,000.00
Whitney Trust & Savings Bank	414,000.00
Interest due February 1, 1932	12,420.00
Boiling Springs Bonds	24,000.00
Interest due December 1, 1931	720.00
J. A. Campbell	16,971.00
Interest due December 1, 1931	1,018.00
Balance due Banks	60,960.00
Total	$942,089.00

We must meet the following payments before the next meeting of the Convention:

Bitting & Company, December 1, 1931	$ 50,000.00
Bitting & Company, Interest	12,000.00
Boiling Springs, December 1, 1931	8,000.00
Boiling Springs, Interest	720.00
Whitney Trust & Savings Bank, February 1, 1932	74,000.00
Whitney Trust & Savings Bank, Interest	12,420.00
Bank Notes (Not Less)	30,000.00
	$187,140.00
Estimated Income from Coöperative Program for Debt Service	$ 50,000.00
Gift of Heck Memorial from W. M. U. (Already in Bank) ..	12,000.00
Collections on Centennial Pledges (Estimated)	5,000.00
	$ 67,000.00

It will thus be seen that from some outside, new source there must be provided not less than $120,000.00.

The Debt Commission, through your General Board, will submit some practical and workable plan for raising a part of this extra amount needed. We come to urge upon the Convention the wisdom of setting itself seriously to the task of paying the major portion of this debt within the next four years. The payments on the Whitney Trust loan, principal and interest, are as follows:

February 1, 1932	$ 86,420.00
February 1, 1933	120,400.00
February 1, 1934	114,400.00
February 1, 1935	148,400.00

3. CONVENTION DEBT SUNDAY

We urge upon the Convention that we commit ourselves, at this session, to the plan of asking the churches to set apart the second Sunday in February of each year for the next four years, as Convention Debt Sunday, and endeavor on that day to raise $75,000.00 at least, each year toward the payment on the Whitney Trust loan. If we will do this, the agony will be over in four more years, and the remainder of our indebtedness can be cared for out of our regular income going year by year for debt service.

4. "ANOTHER SPIRIT"

We frankly say that we are amazed and appalled at the attitude of some of our good brethren toward these debts of the Convention. Many are taking counsel with their fears and are saying openly that the Convention is helpless, that our people are poor, that times are hard and that we just as well throw up our hands and quit. That is the same attitude assumed by the Israelites at Kadesh-Barnea when they adopted the majority report of the spies. They took the grasshopper attitude, "And there we saw the Nephilim, the sons of Anak, who come of the Nephilim: and we were in our own sight as grasshoppers, and so we were in their sight." There were two who refused to sign the majority report, Caleb and Joshua. They refused to take counsel with their fears, but beyond the giants and walled cities and Amalekites they saw Almighty God,—the God of deliverance in Egypt, the God of the Red Sea, the God of Sinai. Here is what God said of one of these heroes: "But my servant, Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he went: and his seed shall possess it."

That is our supreme need,—"Another spirit." Too long have we taken the defeatists' attitude. We have magnified our debts, hard times, bank failures, crop failures and low prices, until we are defeated within, and with many there is no will to continue the struggle. Oh! for "another spirit"! We must not fail! If we default in one dollar of these debts, we will never again be able to hold up our heads before the world. The shame and humiliation and disgrace of it will follow us for fifty years. You who counsel surrender, do not know what you are doing. Surely you do not realize what it would mean for this Convention to face a Federal Receivership. This generation of North Carolina Baptists would not recover from such a death blow. In sorrow and shame, we will go down to the end of our days, if you allow this Convention to default in its obligations.

But we firmly believe that there are still left among us many who will not see this thing fail. There are still many loyal, devoted, self-sacrificing ones, who love this Convention, its agencies and institutions better than they love their lives. They will strip themselves of all earthly possessions before they will see the work of North Carolina Baptists go down in shame and defeat!

III

Department of Benevolences

Under this Department is grouped the work of the Orphanages, Hospitals and the Relief and Annuity Board. Dr. R. T. Vann for a number of years has had general oversight of the office end of the work in this Department. He is suffering the infirmities of age in his body, but his brilliant mind is as keen and scintillating as ever, and his beautiful Christ-like spirit is a blessing and benediction to all who come within the circle of his radiant personality.

We submit the following reports:

A. RELIEF AND ANNUITY BOARD

R. T. VANN, Secretary

In urging the support of our aged and infirm preachers, we must keep reminding our laymen of three things:

First, that almost without an exception the preacher's calling forbids the accumulation of a competency for old age even while in his prime and at his best, by inadequate salaries; because of a public sentiment which effectually discredits a preacher who turns aside to the business of money-making; and because such a course on his part contravenes the divine plan for his support as taught by Paul and practiced by his Master.

Second, that in caring for their worn-out pastors, the churches are not bestowing a charity, but are simply discharging an obligation for long due service rendered.

A third matter which we must keep repeating is the double plan under which the Board operates. Because confusion of the two sometimes causes misunderstanding and complaint, let us again state these plans.

The first is called the RELIEF PLAN. Under this plan, all faithful and worthy preachers who are laid aside by age or infirmity, and also their widows, without cost to them, are aided by the Board to the extent of its ability. The money for this purpose comes mainly from an allotment of 3½ percent of all funds contributed regularly by the churches through the Coöperative Program throughout the bounds of the Southern Baptist Convention. This amount is supplemented in a measure by the interest on an invested fund called the Reserve Fund which is invested to meet emergencies like the present, when the 3½ percent is wholly inadequate to maintain existing allocations and almost forbids the making of others. This Reserve Fund has been drawn on so heavily in the last few years as almost to reach the danger point.

Under the second plan, called the ANNUITY PLAN, the beneficiaries or their churches have to contribute a small amount annually while in active service, and thus create a sort of pension fund for themselves. This plan will be referred to later.

RELIEF FOR THE PAST YEAR

So far, a decided majority of our veterans depend on the Relief Department for all aid received. In the face of the dismal depression and declining receipts from the churches, the Board managed to pay to relief beneficiaries last year a larger aggregate sum than in any previous year save 1927, and added a total of 1,493 ministers and widows against 1,411 the year before. It was able to do this partly because it is now applying almost 1½ percent more of its receipts from the Coöperative Program to immediate relief. The following tabulation presents the showing of North Carolina for the year October 1, 1930 to October 1, 1931:

Number of men aided	57
Number of women aided	60
Number added	3
Number on waiting list	13
Number died	12
Allocations to men	$ 6,745.44
Allocations to widows	7,124.64
Amount received from N. C.	6,511.88
Total amount paid beneficiaries	14,351.80

It will be observed that the average allocation continues about the same, not quite $10.00 per month.

The last survey shows that most of the beneficiaries have living wives but no homes, and nearly half of them need hospital treatment. There are about a hundred and fifty on the waiting list in the South, thirteen of them in North Carolina, whose appeal the Board has been compelled to deny altogether so far. Servants of God these men and women are, and our "servants for Jesus' sake"; and yet, the Board had been compelled to set them down with only an average of $10.00 per month or nothing at all. But meager as are their allotments, the eager expectancy with which they await their bi-monthly checks only shows the urgency of their need.

A COMPARISON

A glance at the work of other denominations does not show a flattering picture for us; but in the hope that they may bring a stimulating suggestion, the following facts are submitted:

Taking first the Catholics, you may be surprised to hear, as I was, from Archbishop Hafey, of the Diocese of North Carolina, that they have no general fund for the support of their disabled priests; but on the other hand, each of these in old age or disability is cared for by the parish he happens to be serving at the time of his retirement, and this plan seems to work without trouble. That is, each field supports its own disabled preacher.

The Episcopalians of the United States started out a few years ago to raise a Relief Fund for their veterans of $25,000,000.00. This fund has now reached $26,233,183.00. With the income from this and the annual contributions from their churches, they are able to allocate an average of $900.00 a year for their men and $400.00 for their widows, the amount varying with age and service. They anticipate allocating $1,000.00 and $500.00 respectively in the near future.

The Presbyterians of the South have an invested Fund of $1,655,000.00 for this purpose. This fund, with 6½ percent of their regular benevolent contributions, enables them to allocate an average of $475.43 to their men and $299.81 to their widows.

The Southern Methodists have an invested fund of $7,500.00, and are now in a campaign to raise $3,000,000.00 more. By combining the amounts contributed by their churches, the earnings of their publishing house and the income from their invested fund, their allocations average $326.96 for men and $185.24 for women. But in North and South Carolina the income from the Duke Fund last year increased these allocations to $657.29 and $270.35 respectively.

The Lutherans of the United States have just completed a successful campaign for $3,000,000.00, by means of which, with 5 percent from their annual benevolent contributions, they allocate an average of $500.00; and when the final payments to their fund are in, they plan an average of $600.00.

The Disciples of the United States and Canada have been allocating $250.00 derived from fees of their preachers, from five percent of their regular benevolent funds and from contributions to a special fund for this purpose. They are to begin increasing their allocation next year.

I have had no report from the United Church, perhaps because of their recent merging with the Congregationalists.

It thus appears that the largest denomination in the state and in the nation—our own—in providing for its worn-out preachers is far surpassed by all the others in ratios ranging from a little more than two to one, to eight to one. We need care little about denominational pride in this matter, but about our denominational sense of justice and the neglect of our cast-off preachers we should feel deeply. Face the situation, brethren; do we owe these men any better treatment? If so, are we willing to leave them as they are, with no effort to better their lot? "I am persuaded better things of you."

"A MORE EXCELLENT WAY"

But how shall we go about improving their condition? Increase the allotment from the general benevolent fund? This would bring some relief; and so would an increase in those funds. But neither of these even if practicable—which it is not now—would go far towards relieving the situation. A special fund raised and invested for this purpose? It has been estimated that nothing less than forty million dollars would meet the situation. One denomination, by no means the largest, now has such a fund of twenty-six millions, and yet it has to call on its churches to supplement that fund. Nor is the Catholic plan of having each church support its own superannuated pastor workable with us.

After many years of experimenting most of the Protestant denominations have hit upon a plan that promises a solution of our problem; that is the SERVICE ANNUITY PLAN. This is a sort of insurance plan which has been worked out by accredited actuaries. Lack of space forbids more than a general outline of this plan here. It contemplates regular participation by the pastors themselves and the churches in the creation year by year of a fund sufficiently large at least to relieve those pastors while in active service from the burdensome apprehension of stark poverty for themselves and their families in time of infirm and helpless old age. It requires that the pastor shall set aside two and one-half percent of his monthly salary adding fifteen percent of his cash salary for parsonage if furnished freely, and forward it to the Annuity Board. Also that the church raise and send to that Board monthly eight percent of the cash salary paid together with fifteen percent of such salary for parsonage furnished. In this way, the pastor pays eleven percent of every dollar thus set aside for himself, the church pays thirty-five cents, and the Board commits itself to pay fifty-four cents.

HOW THE PLAN WORKS

This plan you see, calls for a three fold coöperation; first by the pastor, and he should justly and cheerfully do his part in such a scheme. Second, by the church, which can thus assume in a serious and business-like way an obligation laid on it by the scriptures, which justice, gratitude, selfrespect and the revealed will of their Lord demand. And third, by the denomination; and rightly and necessarily so. This is a denominational, and not a local enterprise, in which all ministers and churches are concerned whether participating individually or not. Moreover, as with other general enterprises, it alone can muster its entire strength in ministers and churches in raising, administering and safeguarding the fund accumulated, and it alone can successfully appeal to men of wealth for large gifts to enhance that fund.

BENEFITS AND BENEFICIARIES

The beneficiaries under this plan will be all participating ministers and missionaries, their widows and orphans. The amount received will depend on length of service and average salary, being half the average salary covering a number of years, plus an allowance by the Board from its Contingent Fund. But in general, it is proposed to pay at the age of sixty-five a minimum of $500.00, and not over $600.00 during the early days of operation; when well established, a much higher amount may be expected. For disability, forty percent of the average salary for the past three years will be allowed. For widows, a minimum of $300.00 and a maximum of her husband's age annuity at death. This statement is general; those interested should apply to Dr. H. F. Vermillion, Waco, Texas.

WILL THE PLAN WORK

It is already being worked by the Episcopalians in practically the same shape as we propose, and ninety-eight percent of their churches are coöperating. It is also being worked in a somewhat modified form by the Northern Baptists and the Southern Presbyterians; the latter are now taking measures to perfect and begin operating the plan as soon as they complete the raising of a three million Contingent Fund, which they hope to accomplish by April, 1932. The Southern Methodists are considering the inauguration of a South-wide insurance plan under which each superannuated minister would receive $1,000.00 a year. The Lutherans have already a Relief Fund of $3,000,000.00 and the Disciples are completing a fund of $8,000,000.00, but I'm unable to give their plan of administration. If Southern Baptists can not do as well, do let us stop parading our numbers and the soundness of our faith. It is pleasing to report that 188 of our pastors have signified their readiness to coöperate in this plan, and 52 churches through their leading laymen have expressed the purpose of including the Service Annuity in their budgets; and the work has just begun; in fact, it has not yet been inaugurated.

TWO SUGGESTIONS

This promising plan can't be inaugurated until a sufficient number of pastors and churches commit themselves to it. So let our pastors everywhere take an early occasion to explain it carefully to their churches as a denominational enterprise, and urge them to adopt it in making their budgets. But pastors can hardly hope to do this without committing themselves to it. On the other hand, signing a personal agreement to participate is most likely to insure participation by the church. But the Relief work must be kept up for many years because so many pastors and churches can't participate in this new plan. So let our preachers enlist these too in promoting the new plan by explaining that the more pastors take advantage of that plan the larger the amount of the relief fund that will be left to be distributed among those unable to participate in the new plan.

Remember that it must be some time at best before any new plan can bring much relief. Meanwhile, the only means in sight for relieving our needy veterans promptly is for all to turn in with a will and help to carry through the every-member canvass, swell the general benevolent funds and thus double if possible the amount of the old preachers' 3½ percent of those funds.

B. THE BAPTIST HOSPITAL

It is gratifying to report the continued growth and wholesome progress of our Winston-Salem Hospital. The Mother's Day offering for charity work is growing year by year in a healthy and substantial way. While the amount apportioned to the Hospital from the Undesignated Coöperative Program is not sufficient to meet the annual payment on bonds and interest charges, we are glad to report that the Board of Trustees and the hospital management, through sane business methods and by strictest economy, are able to meet all current expenses out of regular income, and at the same time take care of the deficit on bonds and interest.

REPORT ON HOSPITALS

G. T. LUMPKIN, Superintendent

In this report to the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, the Board of Trustees of our Hospital presents the ninth account of its stewardship. Through these years the Lord has been good to us and we have been able to render service to many thousands of our Baptist brothers and sisters. This year has been our hardest and our best. Contributions have been smaller, collections harder and free service greater than ever before. The financial condition of our people has enlarged the demands for help. We are now doing as much charity work per month as we did the entire first year of our existence. By the help of our brethren and rigid economy, we have accepted every patient who has come with proper endorsement. We thank God and take courage that in this year of great depression we have been able to render this large service to our needy Baptists.

That our Hospital is winning the love and approval of our people is demonstrated by the fact that a larger number of churches are making offerings on Mother's Day for the charity work and it is especially encouraging to note that a number of our young people's societies are writing for information to use in their meetings. The good women in our Missionary Societies have sent a larger number of gifts of linen this year than usual.

The outstanding thing of the year was the gift of radium to the Hospital by the President of our Board of Trustees, Mr. E. L. Davis. It was a magnificent gift and is providing a glorious service to hundreds of our people who could not have found healing without this wonderful remedy. He has set a splendid example of sacrifice and interest for the health of our people. Right now we need at least $5,000.00 to enlarge and improve our equipment and service. His great gift is a challenge to other Baptists to help keep our hospital up-to-date, in order that we may render a greater service to those who need us and save human life, hanging in the balance.

The Hospital needs the patronage of Baptists who are able to pay for their care. We can offer many inducements. Our equipment is as good as the best. Our staff of physicians and nurses are of the highest order. Our cost is as low and perhaps a little lower than other institutions of equal facilities. We have health conditions and atmosphere that are unsurpassed. Our environment and influence are Christian. We believe it will pay you in every way to patronize your own hospital. And besides your patronage will enable us to render a larger service to those who need us and cannot pay.

Another fine opportunity for serving the hospital is by remembering it in your will. Fifteen thousand dollars will endow a bed and that bed will care for 24 patients a year on the average for all time. How could you invest your money to greater advantage or in a way that will render a greater service to mankind than for the purpose of saving human life and healing of suffering through all the ages to come? Think of the hundreds of fathers and mothers, boys and girls your money thus invested would care for as the years come and go! Make a place in your will for the healing of the sick and through the centuries the needy sufferers you have helped will rise up and call you blessed.

Our ministry of charity has increased through the years until we are now caring for about $5,000.00 per month. This is primarily our business and we rejoice that we can offer such a large service of love to our people. But to meet the cost of this enlarged amount of charity work, we receive less than $3,000.00 a month from all sources. To meet the increasing demands for charity on the receipts we receive for this purpose is absolutely impossible. Mother's Day offering must increase or the amount of free service will have to decrease.

In order to help make up this deficiency and to meet the growing demands of our needy sick we have been compelled to ask that charity patients or the church asking for charity for its members will supplement the amount we have been receiving from Mother's Day, by paying as much as $1.50 a day or about one-third of the cost of caring for a patient. If our churches will coöperate in this way, we will be able to take care of all of the demands. Otherwise, we will be compelled to turn many away or go out of business. We therefore urge you that you will comply with this request.

Mother's Day offerings this year amounted to $14,844.80, and we will receive about $12,000.00 from the Duke Foundation. About 650 Sunday Schools have sent in offerings this year for our charity work; 2,250 of our Sunday Schools have not considered the call of the suffering sick at all for this whole year. What a benediction it would be if these would also help carry the load.

$25,000.00 is necessary to meet the demands to keep our hospital in first class condition and our equipment up-to-date. All of this must be done. May we urge that this Convention appeal to these hundreds of Sunday Schools, to give us one Sunday's offering and thus come up to the help of the Lord against the forces of sickness and disease that we may care for our own and keep faith with Him who said, "As ye go heal the sick."

C. THE MILLS HOME

It is with a feeling of genuine satisfaction that we can report the continued prosperity of our Orphanage work. While there has been a decline in receipts for current support, the Orphanage was never closer to the hearts of all our people.

We would especially commend to the denomination the business efficiency and economic wisdom of our Orphanage Administration.

REPORT ON MILLS HOME

M. L. KESLER, General Manager

Social service is service to human beings. The fact that this report is made to this body is taking it for granted that it is a part of the program of Jesus. The work of the Orphanage and the Hospital have a strong resemblance to the daily life of Jesus during his earthly ministry. If Christ be left out of this ministry it loses its high quality and falls to the level of sounding brass and tinkling cymbal. Put Christ in and the whole face of the service changes. A cup of cold water in His name admits to Heaven's honor roll, and the "Inasmuch as ye did it to one of the least of these" is not only real social service of high order, but personal service to Jesus Himself. When we follow Jesus in going about doing good and take Him with us in service to human beings, He gives to the work of our hands eternal values. All our material giving to God is but the sublimely simple thing of giving of money and personal service to human beings who need something through the human touch, then it becomes divine. So we place the little child in the midst, the "fatherless and the widow"—with the full assurance that Jesus standing by is looking on with divine approval. If we cannot do this our report to this Convention is an impertinence and our appeal for support should be ruled out of order.

The proper study of mankind is children in a revised edition of a long accepted epigram, and is in better harmony with the spirit of our times. The growing interest in the child is nation-wide and is becoming a chief concern of those in high authority. Within twenty years three White House Conferences, with the child at the center of interest, have been held. The first was called by President Roosevelt with two hundred delegates. The second conference was called at the request of President Wilson, and the last by President Hoover, November, 1930. At this conference there were in attendance 3,000 delegates, leaders in the medical, educational and social fields, all as they touch the life of the child. This was one of the most notable gatherings in a century, and the purpose was the welfare of the coming generation. But we should take warning lest our interest expend itself in mere academic discussion.

There are indications that North Carolina is losing some of her early fervor in both the education of all her children and in the welfare of the dependent child. We need to become more child-minded, to develop a child consciousness. As a denomination we have made a brave beginning in the field of child care and God forbid that there be any wavering now, but rather that the present difficulties challenge to the best we have ever done.

BUT TO THE REPORT

In this we draw near the work-a-day world where we toil and make mistakes. There is little change in the mere machinery of our life and in the statistics that head up in columns of figures. There are present at Thomasville and at the Kennedy Home 635 children. By Mothers' Aid we are helping 293, with 68 mothers. So now in all we are caring for 928 children. During the year we have touched the lives of perhaps another thousand by our field service. This has been by investigation, adjustments and friendly effort that went further than mere advice. From the beginning, by Mothers' Aid and in the institution we have cared for nearly four thousand children. Some of these remain with us for only a brief time, but to most of them it has been home for a much longer time—an average of 6½ years.

Our health and our life, both at Thomasville and the Kennedy Home, have moved on over the rough and smooth places with no experiences that are not common to wide awake children, and to those who labor with them.

Our crops at both farms have been unusually good. The harvest of small grains was perhaps the best in our history. The drought this autumn may seriously cripple this crop for the coming year. In addition to what we have raised on our own lands we are having repeated the experience of a year ago. Many truck loads of produce from our friends in the mountain counties have been delivered at our door. This is not only an expression of a great and generous people, but it adds immensely to the store-house of our needs.

We are definitely economizing and trying to do so without imperiling the highest welfare of our children. Food, clothing, training activities and childhood's rightful joys of life must not be denied. Salaries have been lowered and our working force has been cut to a point below which it cannot be efficient. We have put up enough canned goods to cut out a large annual purchase from the packers. This is the first year this has been made possible. Large credit for this is due our peach orchard friends around Candor, N. C.

We have refrained from enlargement which is perhaps not an economy, but does not call for additional funds. We have for several years advocated an addition to our case working force. Miss Edwards has been attempting the impossible task of handling it alone. Our trustees fully agree that this is our next forward step, but advise against it while we are in the throes of this depression. This added help would enable us to do a larger and better type of work in the field of child welfare. It would enable us to do better work in receiving children. With only one worker and a thousand appeals a year that should be heeded, the few investigations that can be made at all must be made hurriedly and be unsatisfactorily done. A large percentage of these could be adjusted and handled without coming to the institution. To be sure, they can be turned away without a worker on the field, but we have rendered no service, and in the minds of those asking for help we have failed to enter into an understanding sympathy with them in a time of need. Such neglect not only narrows our field of usefulness, but deprives us of the good will of those we most need to help. The whole time of a wise and tactful worker should be given to arranging for boys and girls leaving us. Without this care they go like cattle poorly marked, turned out to survive or perish. The child learning to walk needs the guiding hand over the first steps of the way. The first aid after leaving our gates is the same service to our children that the anxious parent gives to his children as they make their first adventure into life. For lack of this service, many children remain in the institution longer than is best. They could be worked back with relatives or located in other homes otherwise procured. This calls for careful work, but when well done is better for the child and also makes room for those who have no other refuge.

OUR SCHOOL

By an arrangement between the State Equalization Board and the Thomasville School Board we become a part of the city school, but the agreement extends only to the operation of the six months cared for by this fund. This does not care for all of our teachers even for the six months. The teachers of music and home economics must be provided for by our own treasurer. This arrangement takes care of about one-third of our entire school budget for the year. It is provided that this agreement may be set aside by either party if for any reason it appears that it does not inure to the best interest of either by giving proper notice of such purpose three months before the closing of the school year.

The Board of Trustees and the management do not regard this as a violation of the principle of separation of church and state held dear by our people. It is not a special appropriation by the state to the institution, but it is simply the paying to our children a fund belonging to them as to all other children in the state. For the six months the salaries of these teachers are paid over to them directly. Our treasurer does not even make a record of the disbursements. It has not occurred to us that a child deprived of his father and mother, even though he be in a denominational institution, should be deprived of his share of a fund common to all children of school age. It is true our school will report through the city system. It does not change the curriculum, for we have followed the public school course for a number of years, and our high school has been on the accredited list for some time. The school has been in operation for two months and it has gone on precisely as it did before.

OUR FINANCIAL CONDITION

This part of our report is already known and read of all men. When measured by the prevailing shortage in other departments, our condition is better than we expected. It is bad enough. Our debt is about the same as last year—about fifty thousand dollars. But we do not have in sight a bequest that will pay us out as we had then.

The way out. A once a month offering in every Baptist Sunday School—it matters not how low prices are, or how many mills close down—an offering from every one of them—entered into sympathetically, earnestly and prayerfully, will take care of running expenses. And then a great Thanksgiving offering, not an after thought, but a well planned offering, in keeping with our prayers of gratitude, will pay off the debt.

IV

The Woman's Missionary Union

We would express our profound gratitude to the Woman's Missionary Union for the splendid loyalty and fine coöperation shown in the preparation for our new promotion plans for the Every Member Canvass, November 29-December 6. We would also express our appreciation for the gift of the Heck Memorial offering last June for the debts of the Convention. We hope the same offering will be given for another year, so that we may work ourselves out of the clutches of the bondholders at the earliest possible day.

REPORT OF WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION

As the Minutes of the Woman's Missionary Union contain a detailed report of all contributions and expenditures made by the Union as well as complete statistical tables we present to the Convention only a brief summary of our work.

The decrease in gifts from $284,774.77 in 1929 to $250,985.53 in 1930 is greatly regretted and judging from the reports of the first three quarters there will be another decrease in 1931. Various reasons could be given for this falling off in contributions but these reasons are familiar to us all. One difficulty we face we wish to bring to the consideration of this Convention, the fact that the present plan of giving through the church envelopes to the objects included in the Coöperative Program has resulted in the church forwarding all gifts from the women as from the church and thereby lessening both the gifts of the men and of the Woman's Missionary Union. To make this clear may we illustrate. A church that is credited in the Convention Minutes with a gift of more than eleven hundred dollars to all denominational work shows when a comparison is made with the Minutes of the Woman's Missionary Union that the women through their organizations gave nearly eight hundred dollars of this amount, leaving only a little more than three hundred dollars as the contribution of the men of the church to missions. We submit that the time has come when steps should be taken to prevent the gifts of the Woman's Missionary Union to missions constituting the larger part of the gifts of the entire church to missions. So far as the Woman's Missionary Union is concerned this situation is resulting in less interest in the Coöperative Program and more interest in special offerings and designated gifts.

This matter is taken care of in the letter from the church to the Association and we believe that all funds sent to headquarters from the local church should designate the amount given by the Woman's Missionary Union.

At the request of the Convention the Union undertook to raise the present year $50,000.00 to pay the amount of principal becoming due on the Biting Bonds in December, 1931. We regret to report that only $11,281.30 was received through the Heck Memorial Offering for this purpose. In March in response to the Emergency appeal $18,963.73 was given by the women in their societies. For the debt on the Convention they contributed the first quarter $2,564.02—the third quarter, $768.20 making a total of $33,578.25 altogether that the women have paid this year on the debt. We trust this amount will be supplemented during the present quarter.

We would express to our pastors, our loyal women who have labored more than sacrificially in many instances our sincere appreciation of their valuable service and our confidence in their love and loyalty to all Kingdom work.

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. WESLEY N. JONES, President,
MRS. EDNA R. HARRIS, Corresponding Secretary,
MRS. W. D. BRIGGS, Recording Secretary,
MISS ELSIE K. HUNTER, Treasurer,
MISS ALVA LAWRENCE, Young People's Leader.

A. OUR NEW PROMOTION PLANS

At the last session of the Southern Baptist Convention, the whole matter of the financial plans and methods of the Convention was referred to a large committee from all the states. This committee was in session almost continuously for two days and nights. They recommended that the Convention elect a Promotion Committee of some fifty members, and that the work of promoting all of our Mission, Educational and Benevolent work be taken over by this new Promotion Committee, and that all matters of business be left in the hands of the Executive Committee. The Convention with great unanimity and enthusiasm, adopted the recommendations of the committee.

On July 7 the Promotion Committee met in Birmingham and organized by electing Dr. F. F. Brown as Executive Secretary and Walter M. Gilmore as Publicity Director. The Convention authorized this Committee to make preparation for putting on the Every Member Canvass in all the churches of the south on November 29-December 6.

The General Board of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention met on May 28, and adopted the new promotion plans of the Southern Baptist Convention. A Promotion Committee of twenty-one, was elected with Dr. Ira D. S. Knight as Chairman and Rev. E. I. Olive as Secretary. This Committee elected Perry Morgan, Secretary of the Sunday School Department, as Promotion Chairman and Rev. J. A. Easley as Publicity Director. Beginning August 1 every effort possible has been put forth to organize every association and every church for the proposed Every Member Canvass on November 29-December 6. We wish to pay tribute, before the Convention, to the fidelity and zeal with which Brother Morgan has given himself to this work. He has travelled thousands of miles, going night and day in an effort to organize the associations and prepare the people for a great intensive, complete Every Member Canvass. Dr. F. F. Brown says our people are more fully aroused, and better organized for this undertaking than any state in the South. Much of the success of this effort thus far is due to the hard work and common sense of Brother Perry Morgan. We give here briefly his report of his labors this far:

THE EVERY MEMBER CANVASS

By PERRY MORGAN, Promotion Chairman

The Southern Baptist Convention on May 14, 1931, in session at Birmingham adopted the following resolution: "We recommend that the Promotion Committee be instructed to promote annually a simultaneous intensive, and extensive Every Member Canvass for subscriptions to support church, state and Southwide causes on the Bible principle of stewardship with the tithe as the minimum standard of Christian giving."

North Carolina was not slow to begin this movement. The new State Promotion Committee of fifteen set at once about the task of making preparation for an intensive, inclusive and extensive simultaneous Every Member Canvass in every church in the Baptist State Convention.

The first objective of the Committee was to pitch the movement on a high spiritual plane by putting it on a scriptural basis and keeping it in an atmosphere of prayer and fellowship. Believing the movement should not be an effort simply to secure a certain amount of money from a designated number of church members but a "Holy Crusade for the Consecrated life of all the people in the church" the effort was begun with that in mind and is destined to revive and remake many of the churches thus strengthening the whole Missionary and Benevolent program of the Convention as well as place the churches on a scriptural financial basis for raising local expenses.

The work of enlisting and training our people for this Every Member Canvass began with the meeting of the first three district Associations in July. By the last of September all of the Associations had selected Promotion Committees consisting of a general chairman, two pastors, two laymen, two representatives of the Woman's Missionary Union, two representatives of the Sunday School, and two representatives of the Baptist Young People's Union with two others—men or women—in some cases—whose duties are to promote the canvass in the churches of the district Association by working with the pastors and other church leaders in selecting a Promotion Committee in each church consisting of the pastor, a general chairman, at least one deacon, a representative of the W. M. U., a representative of the B. Y. P. U., a representative of the Sunday School, and a representative of the Brotherhood, if one, if not, some other man. The function of this Committee is to work out an accurate roll of church members and make up a "master list" of prospective givers, and divide the roll into groups of about ten families for each team of canvassers. This Committee is also to give special attention to training and preparing the church members for the canvass by keeping it before the church through the pulpit, and in brief talks to the W. M. U., Sunday School, and B. Y. P. U.

The following schedule has been observed thus far for the movement and will be the general program through November 29-December 6.

August and September—Organization and Biblical Recorder Months.

Objectives:

1. The completion of the selection of church Promotion Committees.
2. The enlisting of all churches in the Every Member Canvass movement.

Oct. 4-25. Associational Leadership Training School for associational and church committees and pastors.

Oct. 7. Day of Prayer.

November—Information and Canvass Month.

Objectives:

1. The informing of the church membership concerning the details of the Canvass and the interests included in it.
2. The training of local church committees for this work.
3. The launching of the church canvass.

Special Days:

Nov. 2-6. Local church Training Schools for all church committees and membership generally.

Nov. 8. General Exchange of Pulpits.

Nov. 10-12. Baptist State Convention—Winston-Salem, N. C.

Nov. 29-30. Every Member Canvass launched.

December—Completing the Canvass.

Objectives:

The pressing of the canvass until every Baptist is enlisted in the financial support of the local work and the coöperative work of Southern Baptists.

The motto: "An Every Member Canvass in every Baptist church" has caught the attention of our people everywhere and much interest is evident wherever the movement is discussed. October was devoted to enlistment and training. Fifty-one Associations held central training schools during the month, attended by groups of from 60 to approximately 1,000 people each and averaging about 170 to the school. The total attendance was approximately 8,600 people who for the most part were members of the Promotion Committees in their churches.

The teaching was done by pastors in most cases. In some instances laymen assisted. It was a voluntary work. According to the testimony of some of those who taught "it was the best piece of denominational training ever done" and they found greater joy in it than anything they had ever done for the denomination. The texts used in the study were the Bible, "A Handbook for Canvassers"—by Hurt, and "Our Lord and Ours" by Burroughs.

November 2-6 was designated as local church training week. Since this report was written prior to that date results of such a week of training could not be given but it was estimated that 1,000 churches would conduct schools. On October 30 lists of Promotion Committees in 1,281 churches were on file in the office of the Promotion Chairman. Every day's mail brought others.

All seven causes fostered by the denomination are affected by this movement. The great commission is in it. The Saviour would not have said "Go Ye" if he had not prepared a "Give Ye" to make the way clear. "Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store as God hath prospered him"—1 Corinthians 16:2—was written by the same man who said "For by grace are Ye saved through faith"—Ephesians 3:8—and Baptists should teach and practice stewardship with the tithe as a minimum standard of Christian giving with as much earnestness as they preach the doctrine of salvation by grace.

November 29-December 6 is the time for the Every Member Canvass in all the churches. It is urged that churches using the plan push it with more vigor and earnestness than ever before and all churches adopting it make real effort to secure a pledge from every member for the local work of the church and for the Coöperative Program.

The General Board through its General Secretary, Dr. Charles E. Maddy, will upon request of any church desiring them furnish pledge cards free of charge and the Sunday School Board will contribute Duplex envelopes to any church adopting the budget plan of conducting its finances next year. Requests for these must be made through the General Secretary's Office.

We acknowledge our indebtedness to the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, the Baptist Brotherhood, and the Promotion Committee of the Southern Baptist Convention for sending to us Mr. George J. Burnett of Louisville, Dr. J. T. Henderson, and Dr. F. F. Brown of Knoxville, to assist us in promoting the movement.

B. THE SUMMER SCHOOL FOR PREACHERS

The School for Preachers has become a very vital and essential part of our denominational life, and is growing in favor and efficiency year by year. Many of our fine pastors who have not had the advantages of college and seminary training, are glad to avail themselves of the opportunities offered by the Preachers' School for better equipping themselves for their work. Many others who have been to college and seminary are finding new incentives for study and new sources of inspiration in the Preachers' School. We find that those who come to the Preachers' School year by year, and who thus keep informed about all the work of the Convention, are the ardent friends and supporters of all our organized work.

We, therefore, earnestly urge upon the Convention the importance of continuing and strengthening the Summer School for Preachers.

C. THE BAPTIST BOOK SHOP

Under the efficient management of Mrs. Roger Marshall, the Baptist Book Shop continues to serve the needs of our people in the matter of Bibles, religious books, church and Sunday School supplies.

The Book Shop is owned jointly by our General Board and the Sunday School Board of Nashville. It is not a money making institution, and yet we are glad to report that we have paid all expenses month by month for the year, and at the same time have increased the stock on hand. The Book Shop is out of debt and pays all bills promptly. We could turn back quite a sum each year into our State Mission work, if our Baptist people, pastors, churches, Sunday Schools and Young People's organizations would pay for the books and supplies sold to them on faith and promises.

The report of the Manager follows:

MRS. ROGER P. MARSHALL, Manager

Net sales for the year ending April 30, 1931, amounted to $31,323.84, with a net profit of $2,528.68. The amount paid out to the two boards owning the Book Shop in dividends during the year amounted to $4,580.36, one-half of this amount having been paid to each board.

It may be seen from this that the Book Shop is operating on a paying basis. The total net worth at April 30, 1931 was $13,971.95, with no unpaid bills. During the six years under the present partnership a total profit of $16,545.67 has been paid out to both boards. One-half of this amount, $8,272.80, has been paid the North Carolina Board, which means that the Book Shop is a distinct asset and a denominational investment.

The Book Shop handles all supplies for every department of the church, as well as a complete line of general and religious books and Bibles. By means of the catalogues at our disposal, we can secure any book in print.

It is our desire to serve North Carolina Baptists promptly and efficiently, and we covet your continued patronage and support.

Write for free catalogues.

D. THE HISTORICAL COMMISSION

One year ago the Historical Commission issued the first volume of our North Carolina Baptist History by Dr. Geo. W. Paschal. The book has been well received by the public at large, and there have been many favorable comments on the splendid work done by Dr. Paschal. The sale of the book has been a disappointment to all of us. The book was issued by the General Board, and we have sold only 286 copies. We hope that many of our people are going to supply themselves with a copy of this inspiring story of the beginning and development of Baptist life in North Carolina.

We give herewith the report of the Historical Commission:

HISTORICAL COMMISSION

J. T. ALDERMAN, Chairman

For a hundred years there has been a demand for a reliable history of the Baptists of North Carolina. Several gestures have been made in that direction, but very little was done.

The Convention in 1921 appointed a Historical Commission; those appointed on the commission felt the responsibility placed upon them. They were assured that the demand was not for an interesting little story book touching only the high places, but for a real history of the Baptists beginnings and progress from early times to the present.

The materials for such a history were fast fading away and the original records and other important documents were being destroyed by vermin, by fire, and other destructive forces. Our first consideration then, was to rescue those most important sources of our history and to put them into some permanent form so that the student of our history might have some reliable foundation to build upon. This was no mean undertaking; it required time and an unlimited amount of effort and patient research. To leave out these documentary facts and the well known evidences from early times would be to invite in after years from hostile critics such suggestions as "Mythical stories not to be relied upon." Now is the time and opportunity for making a reliable foundation which must stand the test of the critic.

We do not propose to put out such a hapless job that the Convention and all concerned should feel that the work intrusted to us had in any way miscarried. The plan is to make the work exhaustive and as nearly complete as possible and at the same time to make every statement absolutely reliable. A work of such compass could not be condensed into one handy volume. A limited number of the first volume has been printed and in a few years these will be at a premium. Other volumes are to follow. We have tried to be faithful to the trust imposed in us to prepare a history worthy of our great denomination.

E. BAPTIST FOUNDATION

The Baptist Foundation is constantly growing in favor with our people, as a holding and administrative agency in the matter of gifts, bequests and trusts. During the year we have come into possession of the gracious gift of $15,000 from the estate of the late P. D. Camp of Franklin, Va. The interest from this fund is to be used for the relief of aged and infirm ministers of the gospel and for the education of young men and women of the Baptist denomination. We have also received the sum of $465.95, being one-tenth of the personal estate of Mrs. Nannie L. McLean of Anson County. This is invested with the Baptist Foundation, and the income is to be used for the relief of aged ministers. We appreciate very greatly the generous gifts of these dear departed friends of our Convention work.

Here follows the detailed report of the Secretary of the Baptist Foundation:

REPORT OF THE NORTH CAROLINA BAPTIST FOUNDATION

CARROLL W. WEATHERS, Secretary

At the close of business October 31st, 1931, the North Carolina Baptist Foundation was administering seventeen trusts of the aggregate value of $142,674.58, which represents an increase of $16,969.57 during the year, which increase is due in part to additional principal being placed in trusts, and due in part to accumulated income undisbursed.

The present active trusts are as follows:

1. Two vacant lots in Sunset Park, Wilmington, North Carolina, valued at $900.00, the gift of Brother W. L. Carter of Greensboro—object undesignated. There is carried in this trust the sum of $49.12 as a cash balance, the object of such sum being undesignated.

2. A fund of $39,995.86 now being held as an endowment for aged ministers of North Carolina. Upon instruction of the General Board of the Baptist State Convention, the Foundation has during this year paid $2,190.04 of income from this trust to the General Board.

3. A fund now amounting to $6,274.82 including income on hand in amount of $122.74 (the original principal being $5,000.00 from the Noah Biggs estate) as an endowment for Mission work in the Roanoke Association. Income in the amount of $268.19 has been paid to the General Board of the Convention during the year.

4. A fund now amounting to $5,076.79 including income on hand in amount of $32.19 (the original principal being $5,000.00, also from the Noah Biggs estate) as an endowment for the building of churches in the Roanoke Association. Income in the amount of $264.52 has been paid during the year to the General Board of the Convention for such object.

5. A fund now amounting to $2,846.32 including income on hand in amount of $34.74 (the original principal being $2,500.00, also from Noah Biggs estate) as an endowment for the relief of aged ministers. Income to the amount of $134.00 has been paid to the General Board of the Convention.

6. A fund now amounting to $2,501.49 including cash income on hand in amount of $1.49 (the original principal being $2,500.00, also from the Noah Biggs estate) as an endowment for ministerial education. Income to the amount of $147.41 has been paid during the year to the General Board of the Convention.

7. A house and lot in Newland, Avery County, North Carolina, valued at $10,000.00, for State Missions, subject to an annuity of $120.00 payable in monthly installments of $10.00 per month and payable by the Mission Board of the Baptist State Convention during the lives of Brother D. P. Bridges and his wife, Mrs. Octa Bridges. No income from this trust.

8. A fund now amounting to $2,058.77 including cash income on hand in amount of $335.69, the name of the donor withheld at his request, which fund was increased during the year by a contribution of $210.06 from the donor of this trust and also by accumulated income during the year amounting to $102.27, which fund is held in perpetual trust as a memorial, the income to be paid annually to the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage, now known as the Mills Home. At the request of the Mills Home (the Orphanage) the income from this fund is, for the present, being accumulated.

9. Two lots in Sunset Park, Wilmington, N. C., also the gift of Brother W. L. Carter, to be sold as soon as practicable and the proceeds held for the Orphanage.

10. Two lots in Sunset Park, Wilmington, N. C., also the gift of Brother W. L. Carter, to be sold as soon as practicable and the proceeds held for the Baptist Hospital, Winston-Salem, N. C.

11. A certain remainder interest in the Susan A. Hurdle Farm in Edgecombe County, North Carolina, subject to the life estate of Mr. E. J. Hurdle, the value of which remainder interest is carried on the books of the Foundation at $10,852.40.

12. A fund now amounting to $5,413.86 including income on hand in amount of $526.76 is being held by the Foundation as agent for the Treasurer of the Denmark Loan Fund of Wake Forest College.

13. A fund now amounting to $799.10 including cash income on hand available for distribution in amount of $38.10 (the original principal being $761.00), the income from this fund to be used for ministerial students at Boiling Springs Junior College. This fund was placed in trust by the Gaston County Baptist Association, and income from this trust in the amount of $40.58 was paid during the year to Boiling Springs Junior College for the object designated.

14. A fund now amounting to $8,940.10 including cash income on hand in amount of $172.45, said fund having been received by the Foundation from the estate of the late Rev. G. H. Church to be held and the income to be used as follows: One-half of the net annual income to the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage (now Mills Home), and the other half of the net income annually to the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. The sum of $9.15 was received by the Foundation during the year from the estate of Rev. G. H. Church as the final payment from his estate, which brought the total of this fund to the total amount above stated. Income from this fund was paid during the year in the amount of $271.64 to the Mills Home (Orphanage) and in the amount of $271.65 to the Treasurer of the Foreign Mission Board.

15. A fund now amounting to $27,835.81, (said fund having been received from the estate of Mrs. Ida Y. Rogers) to be held in perpetual trust and the income to be paid to the Thomasville Baptist Orphanage (now Mills Home). Income from this fund in the amount of $746.98 was paid during the year to the Mills Home.

16. During the year a trust of the estimated value of $15,000.00 was placed with the Foundation by the General Board of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention. This fund represents a bequest of $15,000.00 left to the State Missions Board of North Carolina by the late P. D. Camp of Franklin, Virginia, one-half of said bequest to be used for the support of retired and superannuated ministers, and one-half to be applied to the education of young men and young women of the Baptist denomination. By resolution dated September 29, 1931, the General Board of the North Carolina Baptist Convention voted to transfer the assets of this trust (consisting of 150 shares of the preferred stock of Camp Manufacturing Company) to the North Carolina Baptist Foundation for administering and handling. Cash income on hand in this trust amounts to $431.06 making an estimated value of said trust of $15,431.06.

17. During the year a trust fund of $100.00 was established by Rev. and Mrs. Eph. Whisenhunt of Elkin, North Carolina, as a memorial to their beloved little son, Yates Manley Whisenhunt, for the benefit of state missions.

A summary of the seventeen trusts shows that during the fiscal year the Foundation has distributed $4,335.01 of income and now has $1,765.57 of income on hand for distribution (after deducting an overdraft in cash income in two of the trusts).

The North Carolina Foundation has been functioning eleven years during which time it has distributed $10,365.00 of principal and $29,743.59 of income among our Baptist objects, institutions and agencies, and has $1,765.57 of income on hand still to be distributed, making a grand total of $40,108.59 distributed.

* * * * *

During the year a fund of $8,516.30 was tendered the Foundation by the Executor of the estate of T. N. Oakley, late of Person County, North Carolina. Such fund was turned over to the Foundation in accordance with the last will and testament of T. N. Oakley, in which he provided, among other things, that the residue of his estate and certain remainder interests in lands should go to the North Carolina Baptist Foundation to be used by the Foundation for the following purposes: (1) to pay taxes on certain lands; (2) to keep his grave in a respectable condition; (3) to use such fund for any repairs to the Olive Branch Baptist Church in Person County as the Deacons and Pastor may deem best; (4) and to pay the balance on the salary of the Pastor of said Olive Branch Baptist Church.

Upon receipt of check for $8,516.30 from the Executor of T. N. Oakley and upon notification of this trust, a special meeting of the directors of the Foundation was held on June 2, 1931. At this meeting the Board of Directors of the Foundation voted to refer to the North Carolina Baptist State Convention the matter of whether or not the Foundation should accept the trusteeship as provided under the will of T. N. Oakley, and to request instructions from the Convention as to whether the Foundation should accept and administer similar trust where the object of the trust is not a general object of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, but rather is for the sole benefit of an individual church. Pending decision by the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, the Board of Directors of the Foundation instructed its fiscal agent, Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, to hold the Oakley trust and not to set up the same as a trust being administered by the Foundation. This trust at present now amounts to $8,631.96.

Under the will of T. N. Oakley it is provided: "That in the event the North Carolina Baptist Foundation failed or refused to accept the trust herein declared, it is my will and desire that the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina shall recommend to the Court the appointment of some responsible institution as Trustee." The Foundation desires, and it is hereby specifically requested, that the Baptist State Convention instruct the Foundation as to whether or not it shall accept and administer this Oakley trust; and if the Convention decides that the Foundation should not accept this trust, then the Convention should recommend to the Clerk of the Superior Court of Person County the appointment of another Trustee.

* * * * *

In the last annual Report of the Foundation to the Convention the Trustees of the Foundation reiterated their belief that a representative of the Foundation be employed, such as an executive secretary, who would have the affairs of the Foundation in hand and maintain an office of the Foundation, as well as devote a large portion of his time presenting the Foundation, its opportunities and advantages to the Baptist people of the State, as well as solicit gifts, wills and trust funds from Baptists of North Carolina who would very probably like to make definite contribution to various Baptist causes or objects if they were thoroughly acquainted with the manner in which such can be done through the Foundation. The Trustees are still of the opinion that such full time representative, or executive secretary, should be employed as soon as the Convention is financially able to furnish the Foundation with such employee or official.

All of which is respectfully submitted to the General Board of the Baptist State Convention for its consideration.

F. THE DIVISION OF CO-OPERATIVE PROGRAM FUND

At the meeting of the General Board on the 28th of May, a motion was adopted authorizing that the undesignated Coöperative Program fund be divided on the basis of 50-50, as between state and southwide objects. The following will be the schedule of percentage division of the funds for 1932:

State		Southwide
Debt Service	27c	Foreign Missions	25c
State Missions	16c	Home Missions	11 $\frac{2}{3}$ c
N. C. Hospital	4c	Ministerial Relief	3 $\frac{1}{2}$ c
Ministerial Education	3c	Southwide Education	8 $\frac{1}{12}$ c
	<hr/>	New Orleans Hospital....	1 $\frac{1}{4}$ c
	50c		<hr/>

G. SHALL WE RETRENCH FURTHER?

When the General Board met in annual session last January, it was found necessary to cut the State Mission program in a very drastic way. The Convention, in an effort to meet the heavy items falling due on bonds and interest, had reduced the percentage going to State Missions from the Undesignated Coöperative Program from 23c to 16c. Thus at one stroke our income for State Mission work was cut one-third. After carefully considering every phase of the matter, the General Board cut the appropriations for 1931 one-half over the amount spent for 1930. By the first of May we foresaw that there would be a falling off of receipts from the Coöperative Program of at least one-fifth over the previous year. The Board was called together in special session and further reductions were made in our Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. field forces. The total appropriation for our state work for the year, after these reductions had been made, was fixed at $33,000. This meant a severe and disastrous reduction in our appropriations for missionary pastoral support, as well as all other phases of our State Mission program. A total of five office and field workers were discontinued.

The work would have been crippled even more severely but for the splendid generosity of the Sunday School Board in continuing in full their appropriations for the work in the Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. Departments. This enabled us to continue the services of Mr. L. L. Morgan and Miss Gladys Beck in the Sunday School Department, Miss Winnie Rickett in the B. Y. P. U. Department and Miss Cleo Mitchell in the Student Department.

H. AN ALL-THE-YEAR-ROUND TASK

We are firmly convinced that the future success of our whole Mission, Educational and Benevolent program is wrapped up in the success of the Every Member Canvass year by year. And just here we need to sound a note of warning. This gigantic task is not going to be completed this year, nor next year, nor the next. It is going to be a continuous undertaking and one that must be repeated year by year. We would urge upon the Convention the vital importance of continuing the good work begun throughout the whole year. We believe there should be a Stewardship and Budget Director on the job the whole year through. Certainly for the next year from August the first until the time for the Every Member Canvass, Secretary Perry Morgan should again devote all his time to organizing his forces for the Every Member Canvass. If we will press this matter with vigor for five years, North Carolina Baptists will be giving one million dollars each year for the Coöperative Program. We would urge upon this Convention now to set itself to the task of leading every Baptist church in the state to put on an annual Every Member Canvass for the support of all our work, on the basis of the tithe as the minimum in giving.

VI

Recommendations

1. That the Convention request the Home Board to bear one-half of the cost of the Indian work for the year 1932.

2. That the Convention give serious consideration to the crying need for the employment of a Prison Evangelist.

3. That careful consideration be given anew to the responsibility of the Convention to the Negro Baptists of North Carolina.

4. That the General Board be instructed to work out a constructive plan, running through a period of years, for a sane, and adequate solution of our acute State Mission problem in the extreme Eastern and Western sections of North Carolina.

5. That the General Board work out, if possible, some satisfactory plan for the employment and utilization of certain of our young ministerial students and candidates for the mission fields, who are now studying in our colleges and seminaries.

6. That the Summer School for Preachers be continued at the smallest possible cost to the denomination.

7. That this Convention devise some practical and workable plan whereby our Baptist History, issued one year ago, may be sold and the General Board relieved of the pressing obligation now due Edwards & Broughton for the printing of the History.

AUDITOR'S STATEMENT

The following letters were received by the Secretary relative to the reports of the Treasurer and Auditor, which reports are usually printed in this Annual:

GENERAL SECRETARY'S LETTER

Raleigh, N. C., January 5, 1932.

Dear Brother Green:

Owing to the fact that the Commercial National Bank closed its doors on the seventeenth of December, our auditor has been unable to finish his audit in time for the insertion in the Annual. Therefore, I am sending you a letter just received from the auditor, which is to be inserted in lieu of the audit.

With best wishes,

Very truly yours,

[Signed] CHARLES E. MADDRY,
General Secretary.

CEM/M

AUDITOR'S LETTER

Raleigh, N. C., January 5, 1932.

Dr. Charles E. Maddry, General Secretary
North Carolina Baptist State Convention
Raleigh, N. C.

Dear Dr. Maddry:

We are writing to advise you that we shall not have our completed report in time for it to be printed in the Minutes of the Convention, as it will be perhaps a week or more before we shall be able to give this to you.

The reason that we are delayed this year is because of the closing of the Commercial National Bank of Raleigh, N. C. The funds in the hands of the Treasurer were on deposit with that bank and the Receiver tells us that it will be several days yet before he can give us a complete statement of the account. We therefore think it best to wait until we have received the complete statement from the Receiver as we will then be able to check in detail and reconcile the exact amount of the Treasurer's balance in this bank.

We have audited the records as kept in your office for the full year and we have audited the records of the Treasurer up to December 1, 1931 and our examination so far has shown that all funds have been promptly deposited in banks and properly accounted for. All disbursements were found properly supported by vouchers issued in the regular course of business and no irregularities have been discovered in the course of our examination.

As soon as the completed statements are received from the Receiver, we will complete our detailed report and file it with you.

Very truly yours,

A. T. ALLEN & COMPANY.

By A. T. Allen.

ASSOCIATIONAL STATISTICS

EXPLANATIONS: The information that follows was furnished us by the clerks of the district Associations. Without their help it would be difficult to gather this data.

Names of churches having preaching every Sunday are printed in small caps; those having preaching more than one Sunday in the month but not having services every Sunday are printed in italics.

Items marked (*) give latest data available. In most cases 1930 figures are given.

Pastors, church clerks and treasurers are earnestly urged to keep accurate records of the finances and other items concerning the life and work of the churches so that accurate data may be gathered by Associational clerks for this volume, and tossed into the great stream of Baptist accomplishment in the world.

(Signed) PERRY MORGAN,
Statistical Secretary.

STATISTICAL SUMMARY

Engulfed in the greatest period of depression economically and spiritually the state has known in many years North Carolina Baptists rose to heights of accomplishment almost incredible in the face of great difficulties and obstacles during the year of 1931. The statement that follows is only a brief account of some of the outstanding facts about the year's work.

There are sixty-seven associations of white Baptists. The Burnt Swamp and Cherokee Indian are associate members of the Baptist State Convention. Since many associations change clerks at the annual meeting it is difficult to gather statistics promptly but the secretary succeeded in getting some kind of a report from every association. In some cases associational minutes were sent instead of the regular form of statistical report furnished the clerks. In only a few cases, however, was this done. When churches or items were found missing in the associational statistical reports sent by the clerks 1930 figures were used in giving church and Sunday school membership.

BAPTISMS

The number of people baptized was 20,245. Of these 20,093 were white and 152 Indian. Churches reporting baptisms number 1,757 while there were 606 that reported no baptisms during the year.

NUMERICALLY

The first association met on July 17—the last one on November 6. There are 2,363 churches with a membership of 420,085. There was a decrease of 21 in the number of churches over 1930 while there was an increase in membership of 11,434. There are 31 Indian churches with a membership of 2,537.

GIFTS

Denominational gifts total $629,465.21. The amount given for local church support is $2,304,510.47. The grand total of all gifts is $2,933,975.68.

Of the 2,363 churches reported there were 1,850 that made some gift to denominational causes while 513 made no gift to any cause fostered by the denomination.

PER CAPITA

The per capita gift for denominational objects was $1.50; for all causes $6.98.
